Rector's Meditation

Life and death are often mixed. This month, we Episcopalians observe Lent. We remember Jesus' temptations, his death, and his crucifixion. Outside, however, spring is coming. It may still be snowing, and it may be cold, but it won't be for much longer. We'll probably even see daffodils soon!

Death comes in the midst of life; life comes in the midst of death. Gwendolyn was born two weeks before Helene's grandmother died. Christmas is on one of the darkest days of the year. Our times of sickness, grief, and even our own deaths are those times when Jesus, the author of life, is closest to us.

Death and life are often mixed – but death is never the end of the story. A person's story of struggle and growth may extend into the next world, but no story ends in darkness and despair. In truth, stories do not end: they continue, in life, for eternity.

This is a truth we proclaim in the Eucharist, in service to others, and in our own faith journeys, but it is a difficult truth to acknowledge when we are in the midst of grief. Doubt seems to speak most loudly when we are in sorrow. This doubt is no sin but simply a natural part of sorrow. Later, when our grief has less bite, it's important to reflect on our doubt and our struggle so that God can teach us further and deeper wisdom about life - and death.

In this season of death, temptation, and struggle, do not try to do everything. Don't try to solve the mysteries of life and death. Don't try to figure out the nature of God. Simply be with God. Look upon Jesus' face. Sit and allow God to gaze loving upon your face. The most important part of any of this is to simply be and remain in love.

Parish Lenten Offerings

Taizé Worship Service

During Lent we will hold a Taizé worship service on Sunday evenings at 7:00 p.m. Taizé is a style of worship that is quiet, meditative and prayerful. Simple music, scripture readings, prayers, and candlelight set a thoughtful tone. Taizé is an ecumenical community in France which draws people from all over the world for shared worship and work while living in community. Taizé services will be offered through Sunday, March 26. They are wonderful as a Lenten discipline or as a time to invite people who might not be comfortable with more structured, formal church services, or for whom Sunday mornings do not work.

The poster features a blue background with white bubbles. On the left is a green cartoon fish wearing a white chef's hat and holding a black microphone. On the right is a blue cartoon fish with a red stripe on its back and a red mouth. The text is in various colors: red for the main title, blue for the time and phone number, and red for the call to action.

We are happy to continue with our Lenten Fish Fries again this year! This is a big event for our parish and the community, and we could not do it without lots of help. Dwayne Wisbey and Michael Bull are the chief Fry Guys, but we also have the expertise of Sharon Wisbey and John and Suzanne Ball. Recruiting for additional helpers this year has expanded the roster of people working the phone, being runners, and helping with clean-up. The needs continue to change, so please check out our online sign-up to see when help is needed. (As of February 28, help is needed on March 31 and April 7.)

Lenten Meditations

In addition to the Forward Day by Day booklets (available in the narthex and in the office entryway), Episcopal Relief and Development is making Lenten Meditations available. This series will focus on the question, “Who is My Neighbor?”, with themes inspired by the Revised Common Lectionary readings for the Sundays in Lent. The meditations can be received as daily emails, downloaded in a PDF booklet, or read on the website. Visit <https://www.episcopalrelief.org/church-in-action/lent/> to learn more.

Support Ukraine

It has been about a year since the Ukraine was invaded, threatening the freedom and democracy of that country and its population. Many of our parish members responded with generous donations to Episcopal Relief & Development through our Diocese, which matched our donations. Since then, seldom do we watch the news without a daily report regarding the destruction and loss of life caused by Russia’s continued attacks on Ukraine’s infrastructure and people, with no end in sight.

On behalf of the Outreach Committee, I am writing to make anyone interested in sending continued financial support to the Ukrainian peoples’ inspiring effort to defend, rebuild and care for themselves aware of United 24, which is a global initiative to support Ukraine launched on May 5, 2022 by the Ukrainian authorities during the Russian invasion. The link to this organization is u24.gov.ua. It includes the 3 options of donating towards Defense and Demining, Medical Aid or Rebuilding Ukraine. Your donations will go directly to this initiative, not through Christ Church or our Diocese.

The Rummage Sale is Back

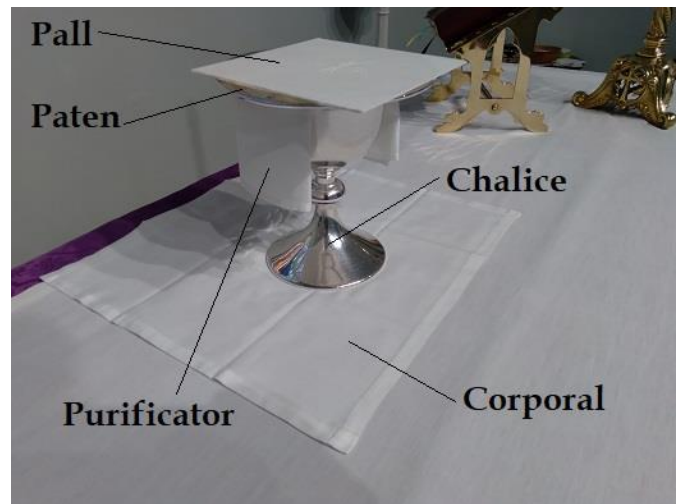

Time to Spring clean and collect goods for our annual rummage sale! The sale will be held April 21st thru 23rd, with set-up beginning following church on April 16th. As always, we will need a lot of help to pull this off! Please watch for an online signup, coming soon!

For donations, it would be helpful if clothing is cleaned and bagged. Labeling bags/boxes for men, women, infant, children also helps! We collect all kinds of things including jewelry, purses, shoes & boots, household items, pots and pans, utensils, dishes, small appliances (labeled working or not), furniture, lamps, toys, games and puzzles, CDs, DVDs, Records, books, linens (labeled for size if possible), bicycles, sports stuff, computers & printers (labeled condition), electronics, tools, holiday, rugs, tables, etc.! (AND MORE!)

On Being Anglican

A column about Anglican and Episcopal identity written by Father Tim

What you see in the picture here is the chalice on the Altar. It is mostly a “dressed chalice”, but I removed the veil and burse to show you what’s underneath it. There are many parts of a “dressed chalice”, including items of various names in Latin: purificator, paten, pall, and corporal. Each of these items serves two very practical roles. Together, they draw your attention to the Altar and the miracle that will happen there: the turning of normal bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Individually, they each serve a single purpose to show reverence to the bread and wine.

The one I want to discuss today is the corporal, the white cloth upon which the chalice sits. On the one hand, the corporal serves an extremely mundane purpose: it catches crumbs that might fall on the altar linens and get them dirty. When clearing the Altar after Communion, I fold the corporal up so that crumbs don’t get on the floor.

We are not, however, just being cleanly about food crumbs, because these crumbs are not just bits of food but consecrated Bread crumbs. They are Jesus’ Body. This is true regardless of your theology of the Eucharist. Regardless of whether we think the wafer becomes Jesus or that it is just a symbol, we know it’s important. We reverence the act of coming to the Altar and receiving it, together as a community and individually. Communion is the climax of our liturgy and, in many ways, our spiritual lives as Episcopal Christians. The presence of the corporal reminds us of this truth.

The corporal also teaches us to revere other things as well. We should handle all gifts from God as we handle the most blessed sacrament. What if we handled our relationships in the same way, with loving care to keep them from being sullied under a metaphorical foot? What about the poor and lonely in the world? What about our skills? The corporal isn’t just about keeping things clean; it’s also about a life-style choice to remember that, through all things, we may encounter God.

A Habit of Prayer

A column about developing a personal or family prayer life at home, written by Father Tim.

The other day, Fiona took a square cracker she was eating, lifted it above her head, and cracked it. “Just like Daddy at church!” she said. She was imitating the moment in the liturgy called the Fracture, when the bread is broken to distribute to the congregation. There’s a lot to say about this: first, that Fiona knew how important this moment is in the liturgy. This alone is interesting. Similarly important, however, is that Fiona was imitating this important part of the service. She showed knowledge of spiritual depth by pretending to do it herself.

It’s often said that children learn through imitation, and that’s true. Priest kids aren’t the only ones who imitate the priest - many other kids are fascinated by the movements of the Mass. This is especially true of what the priest does during the Eucharistic Prayer. It is already a mystery, and children enter into that mystery by trying to be part of it through imitating it.

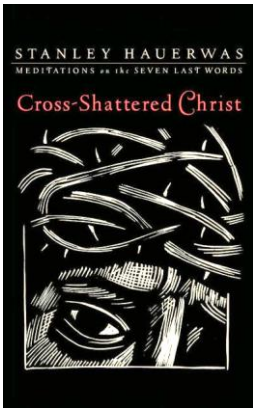

When praying at home with your children, or when you are with your extended family and say grace, remember that children will want to imitate you as well. Lean into this penchant among children. When you pray, make eye-contact with children and motion for them to join you in putting your hands together, crossing yourself, or whatever prayer form you do. The child may giggle, or follow you solemnly, or climb up your back - whatever happens is fine, as long as the child sees you doing something special during prayer.

And ask yourself: what traditions do you want to instill in your child or grandchildren? Children will pick up on these traditions, especially the physical ones. If the child is old enough, you can explain what you’re doing, but the important part is that you do them together. This is the way we teach our children, bring them into the traditions of the church, and help them explore what it means to have a deep and loving relationship with God in prayer and with the family.

Adult Formation: The Seven Last Words of Christ

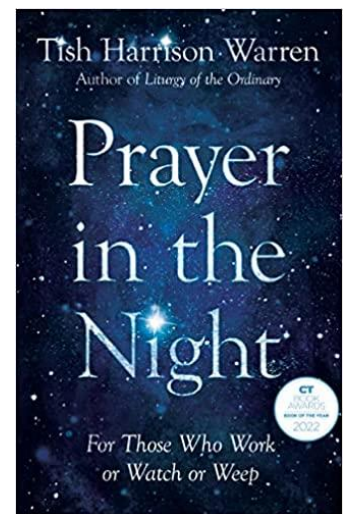

As we prepare for Easter this Lent, our Adult Formation on Sunday mornings will focus on the seven last words of Christ on the Cross. These "last words" carry a lot of beauty, sorrow, grace, and depth. We will meditate on these words together and pray with them throughout Lent. We will be using Stanley Hauerwas' short book Cross-Shattered Christ as a companion to our discussions, though the book is not required. Adult formation is from 9:10 to 9:45 and will continue throughout Lent.

Sunday Night Book Group

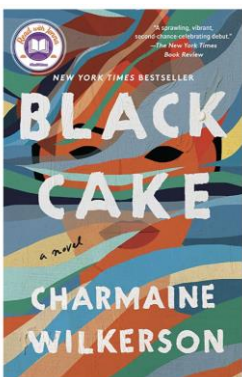

Prayers in the Night by Tish Harrison Warren

Our Sunday night book group will be reading Tish Harrison Warren's book Prayers in the Night. In this work, Warren meditates on the lenten themes of loss, vulnerability, and suffering, as well as those times when we do not sense God's presence. Warren structures her meditation around the liturgical office of Compline, the night-time office as found in the monastic tradition and in the Book of Common Prayer. All are welcome, even if you can't find time to read - the conversation is always good! Please note that we'll be changing our meeting time to 4:00 Sunday evenings during Lent.

Second Wednesday of the Month Book Group

The Second Wednesday Book Group meets in the parlor on the second Wednesday of the month, from 3:30-5:00 p.m.

Here is the lineup for late winter/spring 2023. Everyone is welcome. You need not have read, or finished the book, to enjoy the conversations. All are welcome!

CPR Class: John Stephenson has scheduled a CPR Course for Christ Church members at the Manlius Fire Dept. on Monday April 10 from 6 pm to 9 pm. Participants will be better prepared to use the Church's Automated External Defibrillator (AED) if the need should ever arise. We have met the minimum number needed to run the class, but we may be able to add an additional date depending on the number of people interested in taking the course. The cost is $20 per person payable by check made out to "Village of Manlius".

Please contact John at coffee hour, email at johnstephenson1942@gmail.com, or by phone/text at 315-560-6010 with questions or to confirm your attendance at the course.

We will once again be taking up a collection of items for The Child and Adolescent Inpatient Psychiatric unit at Strong Memorial Hospital. Items can be brought to church during the month of March and placed in the bin provided. If you have any questions, please contact Sharon Wisbey at sharonwisbey@gmail.com. Emily Wisbey has been working as a nurse on the unit for a number of years and provided the information below.

The Child and Adolescent Inpatient Psychiatric unit at Strong Memorial Hospital takes care of patients ages 5-18 with a variety of different acute psychiatric disorders including depression, anxiety and others. These patients come to us emergently from the community (including Syracuse) to stabilize in a safe environment. Most patients stay on the unit for 7-10 days however some stay for much longer depending on safe discharge options. Items such as coloring supplies, playing cards, play doh and stress balls are all utilized at a great rate for coping skills and are difficult for us to replenish.

Some patients do not have families who are able to bring them clothing or toiletries. While the unit provides scrubs and generic toiletries, these patients could benefit from new donated clothing and toiletries such as shampoo, conditioner and body wash to help them feel more comfortable while in an unfamiliar environment.

Our unit would greatly appreciate any and all donations! There is still a stigma surrounding mental health and your contributions would help to ensure that this vulnerable population is still cared for! Unfortunately, due to the safety concerns on our unit there are many items that are not allowed. Please reach out to Sharon if you have any questions!

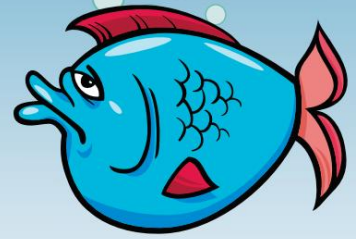

Below is a list of safe items that would benefit our unit:

shampoo, conditioner, body wash, hair ties (no metal), hair brushes, composition notebooks, markers, colored pencils (no erasers), puzzles for adults/teens, deck of cards, card games, teen coloring books, and Play Doh. They are also looking for clothing which would include: sweatpants, sweatshirts, long/short sleeve shirts in a variety of sizes (medium to 2XL) and new sports bras.

Have some news? Let us know!

A church is not a building, it's a community! Christ Church is a loving, joyful community that loves to eat together, worship together, and share our lives and calls from God in Jesus Christ together. For the past two years, our community has been spiritually together but, too often, physically apart. We took a break (for very good reasons!) from doing those things that pull our lives together: from sitting down with each other on First Fridays to Coffee Hour after church. In some ways, we've lost touch with the lives of one another.

Thankfully, we've got the Holy Spirit bringing us together, and this very newsletter can help! Is there some exciting news you have? Do you have any thanksgivings to raise up? Do you have a story about how you've seen God in the world recently? Send them to the newsletter! In this "new world" of live streaming and online church, this tried and true newsletter is another great way to connect!

Keeping Our Christ Church Family Connected

Good News

Please continue to share your good news! We often share our prayer requests and concerns but sometimes forget to let others celebrate with us. Please feel free to share news of awards, births, school and community plays or musicals in which Christ Church people are participating, articles from the paper which feature Christ Church people, sports team successes, and other happy events. You can share items in our Christ Church Manlius Parishioners Facebook group, send items to the office to be shared in the newsletter, or pin them up on our Good News bulletin board in Crosby Hall.

Join us on Facebook!

Our Facebook page has reminders of parish events, links to the video services, and shared posts from other Episcopal organization (the diocese of CNY, the national Church, etc.) among other things.

Our Facebook group "Christ Church Manlius Parishioners" is a place for us to "gather" and share information that may not fit into the bulletin or newsletters.

Christ Church Outreach Programs

Christ Church's Outreach Committee helps us connect with several community organizations so that parishioners can donate time, talent, money, or products to those who need them. Short-term drives will be announced in the bulletin and newsletter, and in church. The following are long-term drives that will be ongoing for the foreseeable future.

FM FOOD PANTRY

Donations to the FM Food Pantry is once again accepting donations of non-perishable goods. You can also help by spreading the word about their services.

The FM Food Pantry is available to anyone in our community needing food assistance. With food, gas and other prices continuing to increase, more and more households in the FM community are trying to make ends meet. We are a community resource -- please don't hesitate to contact us! Receiving help with food enables a household to spend limited funds on other essentials. This may be particularly true in the upcoming summer months when families with school age children are not receiving school meals -- the pantry is here to help! We also provide our families with non-food items such as paper products, cleaning supplies, and toiletries and can refer them to other helpful resources. The FM Food Pantry is a friendly, welcoming, and supportive place! If you or someone you know needs food assistance, here's what you need to know about the FM Food Pantry:

- Hours: Tuesdays and Wednesdays 10am-2pm and 5:30-7pm
- Location: 122 E. Seneca St. in Manlius (behind Pavone's Pizza)
- Contact & Info: 315-682-3688,

Announcements and Reminders

The Rector's Discretionary Fund is a special account that is financed by the loose cash offering gathered one Sunday each month and by additional donations from parishioners and others. At Christ Church the loose plate offering from the first Sunday of each month is designated for the Rector's Discretionary Fund. Many churches also include a line item in the budget. The purpose of the Rector's Discretionary Fund is described in the Episcopal Church Canons as "to be applied to such pious and charitable uses as the Rector or Priest-in-Charge shall determine." Money from this fund is used to assist those in financial need, to support ministry, and to contribute to the work of the wider Church.

Delta Sonic Gift Certificates

We have Delta Sonic gift certificates available for purchase in the church office. The $12. car wash certificate ($18.35 value) provides a Super Kiss Wash with complimentary second wash within 5 days.

Christ Church tee shirts are available for sale at coffee hour and in the office. They come in sizes S, M, L, and XL for $10 and 2XL for $12.

Christ Church now has aprons as well! One size fits all and are available for $20.

Donate by Credit Card

For members who would prefer to make pledge payments or other donations via credit card, that option is now available. Because of the concerted efforts of our Treasurer, Anne Whyte, anyone choosing this option can access the Hosted Payment Page by going to the church website: www.christchurchmanlius.org and pressing the Donate button at the bottom of the page. The payment page will have a dropdown list with 7 options including Pledge 2022. These donations will be credited on your quarterly statements just like donations given by check or cash. The processing fee charged by your credit card will be added to your donation.

Of course, those of you who would like to continue to donate via personal check or through Online Banking using Bill Pay may do so. The Finance Committee hopes that one of these three options will be accessible to everyone, especially during this time of social distancing. Any questions can be addressed to Peter Winkler, Financial Secretary, or Anne Whyte, Treasurer. Thank you!
