HOW CAN WE HELP?

The Susan Reeves Group is here to help with your important life moves. You are the "WHY" behind our work, and we genuinely want to help you.

We deliver real estate solutions that are tailored to your life events. The reason is simple. Life constantly changes, and that often affects where we live.

If we own a home or plan to buy, these changes can be exciting, but are often stressful and overwhelming. Sometimes, the change is unexpected, creating a greater sense of urgency.

Change doesn't need to be scary, when you have a trusted guide to help you. We never lose focus of the need behind your move, and we keep your priorities at the forefront.

We offer our industry expertise and commitment to your best interests. Our unique perspective, core values, and strong knowledge base distinguish us as real estate professionals.

Buying, selling or investing? Let us help you with your important life moves. We are here for you!

Call on us in Boone County, Mo and throughout the Mid-Missouri community.

ABOUT US

The Susan Reeves Group is a top real estate team within the industry-leading and locally-owned House of Brokers Realty company. We customize our services for clients, incorporating the best practices of 25+ years of successful real estate development, management and sales.

Our team members are motivated by a desire to serve. Life's experiences have seasoned us as individuals and shaped our values. We understand the human stories that prompt changes in where we live. We've bought our first homes, grown our families and then sold those homes to buy larger homes. We've moved in response to job changes, health concerns, and school attendance. We've also found ourselves with empty nests, and downsized family homes, as older adults, to simplify into a better quality of life.

Because life changes, you need a real estate group focused on your best interests. Helping you make the right moves. Our proven track record, industry savvy, strategic skills and supportive approach will help you feel confident in your decision-making.

Do you need a change of pace in your life? Or a change of space? Let us help you follow your dreams... home. The Susan Reeves Group is here for you.

OUR REVIEWS

JUST A FEW OF THE WONDERFUL TESTIMONIALS FROM OUR CLIENTS...

" Susan Reeves Is amazing. We have used Susan for our last three transactions. Each has gone smoothly. Susan is extremely knowledgeable about the real estate market buying and selling. We will definitely use her team on our next transaction and you should too. "

~Amy and Michael

" We worked with Susan to both sell our home of 20 years and buy a new home, and we couldn't be happier with the service she provided. Susan worked tirelessly to help us get our home sold and buy a new home all within a 30-day window! She helped us navigate the listing and inspections processes by providing us with valuable feedback about our home and recommending local contractors to do the work required for sale. She answered our dozens of questions along the way and was always kind and helpful. On the buyer side she helped us to negotiate a fair price and smoothed the way to a quick closing. We honestly can't say enough good things about Susan! "

~Rick and Denise

" Susan was wonderful to work with! She helped us to purchase a home and sell our old one during very crazy times. Always listening to us and our needs...she was very responsive and knew the legalities. Would use her again and definitely recommend. "

~Carey and Becky

" Susan Reeves helped us to find a great home! She was excellent in every step of the process. She has great communication skills, is knowledgeable about the area, and above all we were impressed with her personal and professional skills. In summary, she went above and beyond our expectations, and we highly recommend her. "
