

Theatre Progress Report 2019-2020

Student Name: ARJUN RAJ

Teacher: Manjunath K S

	Term I (July-October)			Term 2 (November-April)
	Beginning	In Progress	Mastery	Beginning	In Progress	Mastery
Interest and Motivation
Cooperates within the group			✓
Remains focused on the activity			✓
Is self-disciplined			✓
Coordination
Coordinate the body movement within the group			✓
Sense of control/balance			✓
Talent
Sing in a group			✓
Dance in a group			✓
Present with confidence			✓
Watch and let go the fear/inhibition			✓

Speech
Able to modulate the voice			✓
Speaks with the right diction, with clarity			✓
Action
Gets into the character and stays			✓
Is able to express freely			✓
Is able to mime/gesture/move			✓
Conveys with a sense of humor			✓
Creativity
Is able to present imaginatively			✓
Is willing to try out the new and unfamiliar			✓

Term I

Content Covered: The Ixora group participated in the initial theatre exercises and games before working on a presentation. The group worked on learning to cooperate, coordinate within the group. They learnt to focus on an activity in a disciplined way. They worked on the voice, its modulation, diction. They worked on mimes, gestures, postures and characterization of the roles. They learnt to try out new, different ways of presentation. Practiced enough to gain confidence. They worked with the Cosmos and Sunflower on a play called ‘The Mocking Bird’ based on a novel by Gerald Durrell that was presented in the school on 2nd November, 2019.

Comments

Areas of Strength

_Arjun is cooperative, focused and disciplined while working in the group. He coordinates with group very well. He is focused most of the times. Works with interest in whatever activity that is being done. Practices sincerely the tasks that are allotted to him. He doesn't mind trying out something that is unfamiliar or new.

Suggestions for Growth

_Arjun should continue the good work that he is doing. He should be watchful not to allow any new inhibition to set in his thoughts.