Legacy Safety Ballistic Under Shirt

Tactical Supply Network is proud to serve as a distributor for Legacy original and unmatched Armored Under Shirt, setting the standard for discreet ballistic protection. Trusted by professionals, Legacy's low-profile compression shirt integrates seamlessly with your gear while ensuring maximum comfort and protection.

Uncompromising Protection and Comfort: Engineered for excellence, Legacy's shirt features dual threat IIIa and E1 Spike soft armor panels, offering reliable protection in various plainclothes and uniform assignments. Designed with the officer's needs in mind, this shirt delivers front, back, and side coverage without compromising on flexibility or discretion.

Designed for Versatility and Convenience: Lightweight and breathable, this form-fitting shirt is ideal for extended wear. The Active Mesh liner is equipped with strategically placed pockets, ready to accommodate Front, Back, and Side IIIa armor panels. It's important to note that this offering includes the shirt only—armor panels are sold separately.

Law enforcement officers often choose multiple shirts in a variety of colors including Black, White, Grey & Dark Blue to suit different assignments, enhancing both functionality and versatility.

Sizing Information: Legacy recommends customers choose the same size as their men's undershirt, providing a snug, body-conforming fit. Legacy's shirts are designed without straps, Velcro, or adjustments, ensuring a seamless and comfortable wear. If you find yourself between two sizes, Legacy suggest opting for the smaller size. Should you need a different fit, exchanging the carrier is a hassle-free process. For Women, please reach out to us directly for specialized sizing options. We have extensive experience outfitting women with our armored shirts, ensuring a perfect fit and optimal protection
