"Secret Friend"

"Sometimes secrets are best when shared," commented Jenny - "secrets can grow into something good -- what helped you thru your time as prisoner of war and how did you ever escape -- you know Henry, everyone in the community will want to hear your story and yes I agree, some secrets, if they hurt someone need not be told, but some if they help others are not really secrets but words of wisdom to be shared." So Henry began.

"What a beautiful Secret Henry, is needs to be shared with the community, I think with the whole world. Let me do some checking. I'll set up a speaking engagement for next week, you need to tell your story - - okay, is that okay with you?" "Guess if you think it's that good, kinda scared. I'm not a speaker." "You'll be fantastic, people need to hear - -."

Big night arrived, auditorium filled to capacity. Henry stood at podium - - Jenny introduced and he began - -.

Dumb choice. I was angry at my father cuz he wouldn't let me use the car, so I left and joined the service -- months went by, basic training, then shipped off to another country. Thought a lot about home - memories were all good - wish I could have been home so kept thinking of how happy I was at home, what dumb mistakes I had made, then one day we were captured.

Prison guards were, needless to say, you can't imagine, we were being moved to another location - - this mean, young prison guard was so cruel, beat everyone - - well when he pushed me into the stinking, filthy, disgusting cell, I tripped and fell face down into the cell full of dung." Auditorium silenced - not a sound.

Henry continued - "the prison guard laughed and pushed my face a little deeper into the dung. I pulled myself up - - you would think I was mean bull angry, but I began to laugh cuz all I could remember was when my brother Joe did the same thing to me, only he tripped and his face landed smack into a fresh cow pie, boy was he angry and I just laughed.

The prison guard who was always ready to fight, beat us up, well my laughter must have shocked him enough that he locked the door and left. Then I told the other prisoners I was with, about Joe - - they too laughed. We sat up most of the night telling funny things that happened to us, laughed and helped each other thru the night.

Every day the same prison guard came around. Some days he would throw the food at us, we would laugh and talk about it at night. It was like when we would feed the pigs - - everything he did we connected with something on the farm.

Every day we had the same young, bully prison guard. One day he came into the room, handed each of us a cookie that he had tucked in his coat sleeve - - sat outside the cell and told us he wanted to be like us, can you imagine our surprise. He told us he wanted to laugh, be happy - didn't know what it was until he had to deal with us. He shared his story of being raised by a warden father and how in his heart he knew something was wrong. We became Secret friends. One night he heard of a plane coming to America, helped us escape, took us to the plane - - will I ever see him again - - don't know, but one thing I do know, forever he will be my Secret Friend.

Foundation's "In Memory/In Honor" Program Makes Sense for Future Health of Area Communities
 By Ted Uecker, WRHS Foundation

Any time a friend or relative leaves this life, we all scramble to find the right flowers to send to the funeral or the right sympathy card with the right words to send to the grieving family. At West River Health Services Foundation, we have a simple solution for this stressful time in your life. Why not consider an "In Memory or In Honor Gift," in your friend's or relative's memory/honor, while improving the future of your local healthcare system and "leaving a legacy" at the same time? After all, a gift to West River Health Services has the potential to touch everyone in our service area – from newborns to the elderly and everyone in between.

All you have to do is let our WRHS Foundation know the following: who your gift is "In Memory" of; the amount you want to gift ($10, $25, $50, $75, $100, etc.); where you want your gift to go (Healthcare Heroes Endowment, Ambulance, Partners In Health Club, Physician recruitment Endowment, General Endowment, Surgery Center, Scholarship, Western Horizons Living Centers, General Fund or Other); and whom we should send acknowledgement to. We'll send out a card immediately to whomever you request, telling them about your thoughtful "In Memory or In Honor Gift" and where you placed your gift at West River Health Services Foundation. Plus, we'll send you a card thanking you for your gift to our WRHS Foundation, a 501 (C) 3, non-profit organization.

Hence, your gift could also be tax deductible.

This "In Memory/In Honor" gift program is a thoughtful idea for you and our area communities. Instead of spending your limited time shopping for a card and selecting the right words, you'll be creating a legacy for the future health of our local communities. This type of gift potentially impacts everyone locally – kids, friends, adults, visitors, our entire area community. And why wouldn't we keep our gifts local anyway?

Attached is an advertisement for our WRHS Foundation's "In Memory" program. When the time comes for an "In Memory" gift, just complete the information, clip it out, and send it back to us with your gift. Or drop it by our WRHS Foundation office in Hettinger. Or you can acquire WRHS Foundation Gift Card Envelopes at any West River Health Services Clinic in Hettinger, Bowman, Mott, New England, Scranton or Lemmon. If you have any questions about this thoughtful program, please call Ted Uecker at the WRHS Foundation at 701-567-3666. He'll gladly guide you through the relevance of this program.

Remember: every gift to our WRHS Foundation is important, no matter the amount. Thank you for considering a gift and leaving a legacy "In Memory or In Honor" of your dear friend or family member. Onward!

Bowman

Community Chorus 64th Annual Concert

Bowman Community Chorus will kick off the Christmas season this year with its 64th Christmas Concert, December 4, 2022 at the Bowman Lutheran Church, at 2:30 PM.

The Chorus purchased a new cantata, "Let There Be Christmas," this year. It contains a number of familiar Christmas carols and the audience is actually invited to sing with the chorus on some of them. The program contains a number of individual songs too. Wade Howard, Ekalaka, MT, will be directing the Chorus again this year. This marks the 5th year of his involvement with the Chorus. Saxy Brass lends a wonderful rich brass sound. They will perform the prelude, intermission and will accompany one chorus number. Charm Martian, Bowman County High music teacher, directs that group of musicians. Donna Marie Dettmann is accompanist for the remaining selections.

Bowman Community Chorus has a rich and varied history. Joan Thom brought the Bowman Lutheran Choir and the Bowman Methodist Choir together in a Christmas Concert in 1959 and from there a new tradition was formed. She continued to direct the choir through 1968. Ron Bowman took over the directing duties the following year. Ron directed the Chorus through the years until 2019. A number of assistants helped direct from 2011 to 2019. Although Ron has passed from this life, we still do our best to continue to carry on the yearly traditional community concert at Christmas time.

Throughout the years, people from all walks of life have come together to enjoy performing in this wonderful musical opportunity. Over 600 people have sung with the group, throughout the years. Usually the group is about 50 or so strong, this year we have 40 voices. Parents, children and grandchildren have sung together. This year there are two sets of three generations singing in the Chorus. Ranchers, farmers, school teachers, business people have all worked together to make a tremendous musical experience and in only 8 or 9 practices, yearly!

In 1984, the Chorus started honoring longtime members with the 25 Year Club and added increments every five years. It is now up to the 50 year level plus for some. Two members will be moving up to the next level this year. Diane Silha moves up to 35 years and Becky Holsti will have been with the Chorus 45 years. Quite a number of people have been in the choir or influenced by the choir to go on into a musical career. Kat Perkins, Megan Case, and Derek Still are the three most prominent. The choir has given back to several of these young singers with scholarships aimed at keeping them in the musical field.

Although the focus of the Community Chorus has been the Christmas Concert performed every first Sunday in December, they have sung for other functions also: The US Bicentennial in 1976, the ND Centennial in 1989, the Bowman 100th in 2007, and several times at the Medora Musical. The Group has produced recordings (vinyl, CDs, and DVDs). Since 1986, the group has been performing their annual Christmas Concert at the Bowman Lutheran Church. Sixty-four years is quite a legacy.

As in the past years, DVDs and CDs of the concert will be available. Barb Bickel videos the concert and the CDs and DVDs will be available sometime after the concert. Consolidated will also video the concert and it will be on Channel 18 at various times later in December and January. Lyn James from Lasting Visions will again live stream the concert via Facebook on Flowers & Cappuccino by Lasting Visions page. We extend our thanks to Barb, Consolidated, and Lyn for doing this for us.

The Chorus has supported music in Bowman County School, Scranton High School, and Harding County High School. The chorus has provided summer music camp scholarships and also has assisted many students able to take part in Northern Ambassadors of Music tours of Europe. Community Chorus also offers a $500 music scholarship available to a second year college music student.

Come and enjoy an afternoon of good music. There will be refreshments and merriment after the concert where you can visit with the Chorus members and your friends and neighbors.

Tis the season

By Kathy Craig-Hartels

It's officially the season of joy. I'd like to think we will all remember why we celebrate. Why we are thankful.

It's just past Thanksgiving and now we look forward to Christmas.

Today our grandchildren decorated our tree and decorated gingerbread people. It's a tradition I enjoy most of all. Again, I am thankful.

The kids are all pretty artistic so it's fun to see the decorated cookies. Look quick; they eat what they decorate.

As always, this time of year I remember. I think a lot about my family and the blessings I had as a child.

We didn't have a lot of material things but we had an abundance of love. My sister and I knew above all else we were loved.

As I cook this time of year I remember things Daddy liked to eat and things Mother cooked. I think about my folks a lot; especially now.

I was blessed with cousins too. Ann and I loved our cousins Tony and Tom. We miss them now and forever.

Christmas in North Dakota comes with memories and traditions as well.

My kids were all raised here in Beach, ND. Our Christmas was a big deal. Again, we were blessed with the love that held us firm.

We are reminded that Christmas is about love. It's about a boy child in a manger. Let's keep that in mind as we go into this special time of the year. We are blessed. Life is good today.

The most important question to ask on the job is not "What am I getting?" The most important question to ask is "What am I becoming?"

"Twas the Beginning of Advent"

Pastor Charles Johnson
Dakota Prairie Lutheran Parish

I believe we all like to tell stories, and to hear stories, be they stories from long ago or something that happened just the other day. Telling stories is a part of our lives that spans the ages, especially during the holiday season. I realize we tell stories throughout the year but during the holiday season the stories take on a deeper meaning, sometimes of a loss that has been suffered, sometimes of a remembered joy from long ago, sometimes it is a combination of both to make a point of how important this season of the year is in our lives.

I do not have a story to share today but I do have a poem of what the Season of Advent means for our lives that I first read a number of years ago. The poem was written by J. Todd Jenkins the Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Fayetteville, Tennessee. I read this poem each year at the start of Advent as I believe it puts into perspective what we are preparing to celebrate during the Advent season, the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ. I share it with you now and maybe it will be a story you will share in the years to come.

"Twas the Beginning of Advent"

'Twas the beginning of Advent and all through the Church
Our hope was all dying—we'd given up on the search.
It wasn't so much that Christ wasn't invited,
But after 2,000 plus years we were no longer excited.

Oh, we knew what was coming—no doubt about that.
And that was the trouble—it was all "old hat."

November brought the first of an unending series of pains
With carefully orchestrated advertising campaigns.

There were gadgets and dolls and all sorts of toys.
Enough to seduce even the most devout girls and boys.
Unfortunately, it seemed, no one was completely exempt
From this seasonal virus that did all of us tempt.

The priests and prophets and certainly the kings
Were all so consumed with the desire for "things!"
It was rare, if at all, that you'd hear of the reason
For the origin of this whole holy-day season.

A baby, it seems, once had been born
In the mid-east somewhere on that first holy-day morn.
But what does that mean for folks like us,
Who've lost ourselves in the hoopla and fuss?

Can we re-learn the art of wondering and waiting,
Of hoping and praying, and anticipating?
Can we let go of all the things and the stuff?
Can we open our hands and our hearts long enough?

Can we open our eyes and open our ears?
Can we find him again after all of these years?
Will this year be different from all the rest?
Will we be able to offer him all of our best?

So many questions, unanswered thus far,
As wisemen seeking the home of the star.
Where do we begin—how do we start
To make for the child a place in our heart?

Perhaps we begin by letting go
Of our limits on hope, and of the stuff that we know.
Let go of the shopping, of the chaos and fuss,
Let go of the searching, let Christmas find us.

We open our hearts, our hands and our eyes,
To see the king coming in our own neighbors' cries.
We look without seeking what we think we've earned,
But rather we're looking for relationships spurned.

With him he brings wholeness and newness of life
For brother and sister, for husband and wife.
The Christ-child comes not by our skill,
But rather he comes by his own Father's will.

We can't make him come with parties and bright trees,
But only by getting down on our knees.
He'll come if we wait amidst our affliction,
Coming in spite of, not by our restriction.

His coming will happen—of this there's no doubt.
The question is whether we'll be in or out.
"Behold, I stand at the door and knock."
Do you have the courage to peer through the lock?

A basket on your porch, a child in your reach.
A baby to love, to feed and to teach.
He'll grow in wisdom as God's only Son.
How far will we follow this radical one?

He'll lead us to challenge the way that things are.
He'll lead us to follow a single bright star.
But that will come later if we're still around.
The question for now: Is the child to be found?

Can we block out commercials, the hype and the malls?

Expressions of HOPE

Reflections on the Words of Life

By Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

We have arrived today at Jonah's response to God's command to go to Nineveh, the capital of Assyria, and cry out against it for its wickedness. We read in Jonah 1:3, "But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from presence of the LORD."

Jonah's reaction is astonishing in that he heads in the opposite direction from the one where God has commanded him to go. Commentators tell us that the journey to Tarshish could have taken up to as much as a year to complete and would have cost Jonah a great sum of money. It is always costly to the child of God to deliberately go against his heavenly Father's will. And it is especially foolish that a prophet of God could even think he could get away from the presence of the Lord. Anyone who thinks he or she can run from the Lord is a fool. Trying to get away from the Lord is like trying to get away from air. David said in Psalm 139:7-10: "Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? If I ascend to heaven, You are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there. If I take the wings of the dawn, if I dwell in the remotest part of the sea, even there Your hand will lead me, and Your right hand will lay hold of me."

Note that in Jonah 1:3, Jonah is said to go down to Joppa and then down into the ship. These words symbolically indicate that Jonah's life is taking a nose dive, both physically and spiritually. He is going down and not up. Jonah did not flee because he was afraid of the Ninevites, nor because he was afraid to tell them that God's judgment was hanging over their heads. Many of us have a fear of man that keeps us from delivering the gospel message. But that was not Jonah's problem. What made Jonah run in the other direction is that he hated the people the Lord was telling him to go to. And he was afraid that they might repent and that God just might end up showing mercy to them.

Jonah well knew that Israel had been rejecting the word of God for many decades. Could his being sent to Nineveh mean that now the center of God's plan was shifting from the Jews to the Gentiles? Jonah did not like that thought at all. Oh, how stubborn and rebellious the heart, even of a redeemed sinner, can be in defiantly disobeying the Lord. Even in the believer the heart has such potential to rebel that it must be our constant prayer that God will keep us from sin.

As we shall see later, God has ways of getting man's attention, and He will very effectively deal with Jonah. Man will not be able to thwart God's plan. Every single person needs to hear the message that God was sending Jonah to announce at Nineveh. We come into this world estranged from the God who created us, and we desperately need to be restored to a right relationship with Him. That can occur only when we place our trust in the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, whom God sent into this world to take the punishment for the sins of His people. In Jonah's day, man was to trust in the Savior to come; now we are to trust in the One who has come. Friends, may we all be given grace to repent and believe on the Lord Jesus.

Give Thanks

FSA Holds 12th Annual Holiday Food and Toy Drive
Every year the Farm Service Agency (FSA) offices throughout North Dakota conduct a Holiday Drive to help make the Holiday Season more cheerful for others. This year the Adams County FSA Office is once again collaborating with Adams County Social Services to focus their holiday drive on collecting items to help provide Christmas meals and Christmas presents to those in need.
Please help the Adams County FSA office in filling Christmas meal baskets with all of the fixings and providing toys to make the Christmas gathering a fulfilling and memorable time. They are hoping that individuals and families will look at this as a time to share some holiday cheer with those who may be faced with financial difficulties and looking for support from their community through the kindness of providing the ingredients to make a Christmas meal and providing toys for Christmas gifts.
Some suggested meal items include: Potatoes, Stuffing, Canned Cranberries, Canned Vegetables, Yams, Graham Cracker Pie Crusts and Pie Fillings or Pudding, Salad Fixings (Non-Perishable), Jell-O, Suddenly Salad Kits, Olives, Pickles, Cookie Mixes and any other non-perishable foods that would complement Christmas dinners.
Donations may be dropped off at the Adams County FSA Office at 609 2nd Ave N (Upstairs of the Veteran's Memorial Building) by Wednesday, December 14, 2022. The Adams County Social Services Office will be delivering the meals and presents to families in time for Christmas.
Please contact any Adams County FSA employee at 701-567-2462 option 2 if you are interested in learning more about the Holiday Food & Toy Drive.

A Duck or an Eagle

"I was waiting in line for a ride at the airport. When a cab pulled up, the first thing I noticed was the taxi was polished to a bright shine. Smartly dressed in a white shirt, black tie, and freshly pressed black slacks, the cab driver jumped out and rounded the car to open the back passenger door for me.

He handed me a laminated card and said, 'I'm Wasu, your driver. While I'm loading your bags in the trunk, I'd like you to read my mission statement.'

Taken aback, I read the card. It said, 'Wasu's Mission Statement: To get my customers to their destination in the quickest, safest, and cheapest way possible in a friendly environment.'

This blew me away. Especially when I noticed the inside of the cab matched the outside. Spotlessly clean!

As he slid behind the wheel, Wasu said, 'Would you like a cup of coffee? I have a thermos of regular and one of decaf.'

I said jokingly, 'No, I'd prefer a soft drink.'

Wasu smiled and said, 'No problem. I have a cooler up front with regular and Diet Coke, lassi, water, and orange juice.'

Almost stuttering, I said, 'I'll take a lassi since I've never had one before.'

Handing me my drink, Wasu said, 'If you'd like something to read, I have Good Housekeeping magazine, Reader's Digest,

The Bible, and a Travel + Leisure magazine.'

As we were pulling away, Wasu handed me another laminated card, 'These are the stations I get and the music they play, if you'd like to listen to the radio.'

And as if that weren't enough, Wasu told me he had the heater on and asked if the temperature was comfortable for me.

Then he advised me of the best route to my destination for that time of day. He also let me know he'd be happy to chat and tell me about some of the sights or, if I preferred, to leave me with my own thoughts.

'Tell me, Wasu,' I was amazed and asked him, 'have you always served customers like this?'

Wasu smiled into the rear view mirror. 'No, not always. In fact, it's only been in the last two years. My first five years driving, I spent most of my time complaining like all the rest of the cabbies do. Then I heard about power of choice one day.'

'Power of choice is that you can be a duck or an eagle. If you get up in the morning expecting to have a bad day, you'll rarely disappoint yourself. Stop complaining! Don't be a duck. Be an eagle. Ducks quack and complain. Eagles soar above the crowd.'

'That hit me right,' said Wasu. He continued and said, 'It is about me. I was always quacking and complaining, so I decided to change my attitude and become an eagle. I looked around at the other cabs and their drivers. The cabs were dirty, the drivers were unfriendly, and the customers were unhappy. So I decided to make some changes. I put in a few at a time. When my customers responded well, I did more.'

'I take it that has paid off for you,' I said.

'It sure has,' Wasu replied. 'My first year as an eagle, I doubled my income from the previous year. This year, I'll probably quadruple it. My customers call me for appointments on my cell phone or leave a message on it.' Wasu made a different choice. He decided to stop quacking like ducks and start soaring like eagles. I hope we all decide to soar like an eagle and not quack like a duck.'

Irene Honeyman Rites To Be Held

Irene Honeyman passed away peacefully at the Eventide Sheyenne Crossing in West Fargo, ND on November 28, 2022. Irene Agatha Amann was the youngest of nine children born to Christ and Rose (Zent) Amann on July 8th, 1936 in Bentley, ND. She graduated from Mott High School. On January 12th, 1959, she married Alan Honeyman of Regent, ND. They had five children including their daughter Marla and four sons: Gary, Ron, Russ, and Joel.

Starting from an empty field, Alan and Irene built their home and ranch known as "Stoney Butte Ranch", located 8 miles north of Regent. It was there that Irene started her professional occupation as Farm and Ranch wife, a way of life that she loved for more than 60 years. Irene's passion was cooking for her family at the farm. She was particularly proud of bringing a full hot meal for "dinner" (the noon meal) out to the field in the spring and the fall. Every week for more than 50 years, she baked homemade bread and made other delightful desserts and treats. Her particular talents included making dumplings, kolaches, cookies, and butterhorn rolls. She was very proud of keeping an exceptionally clean house. If it was close to mealtime on the farm, she made sure that any and all guests stayed and enjoyed a hearty meal at the family table.

In the early years, Alan and Irene traveled across country showing champion Polled Hereford cattle. Irene enjoyed many other trips with Alan and their children and grandchildren, notably summer and winter fishing trips. She particularly enjoyed jigging during ice fishing season on Lake Sakakawea. For many years, she ran a bed breakfast with Alan for pheasant hunting

The most important thing in the world is family and love.

Thoughts for the Week

by June Schmidt

Is it possible that people have forgotten where our food supply comes from and just think it magically appears in our supermarkets? Do people actually think that food that is made and in a freezer box is better for you than the real thing? Maybe I am just being pessimistic, but I think it is something that has changed in the last several years. It is possible by the advent of the internet and all the social media sites that it is just more apparent and maybe people were that way before and I just didn't notice.

There was a time when social media was for posting pictures of your family so that those who were not close could see what was happening in their lives. Posting pictures of cats and dogs doing funny things was a regular occurrence and still is, but now there are extremist groups posting how animals are mistreated and that we should not have them and even should not have pets anymore. All of a sudden those of us that eat meat are horrible people even if our bodies are made to consume protein of that kind. Who thinks of these things? Certainly not the people who love animals or who raise them for a living. I would like to see these people come out and shovel a few truckloads of the fragrant dirt for a few days and see what is actually involved in the care of animals.

But then again there are the groups that post about farmers that have never actually seen a farm. I don't see them getting up at first light and getting equipment ready, then working until sundown and later to get the day's work done. How many children actually know where food comes from? Do they know what it's like to put a seed in the ground and watch it grow? Even in a small garden children should be shown what it is like to actually grow food, but today it's so much easier to grab a frozen something, throw it on a tray and in a microwave. I actually saw a post from a well know politician that said we should no longer worry about dairy farmers cause you can get all the milk you want by going to a Wal-Mart. Really? Where is the common sense anymore? I had someone tell me that they heard a statement from someone at a food pantry that was offered a pound of hamburger and a box to create a meal and their refusal was punctuated with the statement - I don't cook. My goodness! I know when I was first married I didn't know how to cook much, but at least I knew how to make a basic meat and potatoes meal. Putting a box of cereal on the table for 3 meals a day is not feeding your children. Why do you think that many schools provide breakfast, lunch and sometimes even a backpack to take home? What happened to basic needs classes like home economics? I guess they went with the way of the dodo bird.

So then again what can we do about this? Thank goodness this is not so much a local thing as the kids around our area are much more aware of what happens on a farm. But then again, families do not grow their own vegetables anymore. Do kids even know how wonderful fresh vegetables can taste from the garden? My Grandmother grew a garden that was huge and she spent hours working in it. How good those first vegetables tasted just cleaned off on your pants and savored before you got them into the house. Maybe it's time to get back to the basics of life. Teach our children and grandchildren how to grow a crop and how to cook a basic meal before they get too old to want to or get too busy with life. Maybe by teaching our children patience and tolerance of others skills, we will teach them to be better people in the future. Possibly by showing them that we know a few things when they are young enough to think we do will give them the idea that some things you cannot learn on the internet and that Google isn't the only one to have answers. It may actually give them the impression that other people may know something that they don't. I don't know, but it could be a possibility that by the little things that we can accomplish they may end up to be bigger things later on. How wonderful that could be so I hope somebody can give it a try and maybe our future will be much brighter than it looks now. God Bless you all.

WordSmith

From the Greek UNTER, underhanded is defined as 'sly, secretive, a condition of subordination, low down.'

You can find lint in the drier or under the bed because it's lowdown. Or in Latin the prefix word is infra that you find in words like infra-structure which is the under-lying foundation of a building.

An infra-sonic (sound from underground) is a sound so low it is inaudible to human ears. But animals can hear it. When a storm is brewing, even though you can't hear it and the sky is still blue, your livestock and your pets can. When the underground plates begin to grind against one another, animals can hear it. It is an under-tone.

"The undersized undertaker was understaffed. The underachiever understood that if he was hired he would be an underdog as long as he was undereducated. To be anything but underemployed he knew he would have to buckle under. So he went to undertaker college so he could rise above those who treated him as an underling.

But he over-did it and when he applied for the job of overseer with the undertaker he was over-qualified. He learned then that the undertaker was underhanded."

Under is a preposition until it is before the root word. Then it is a prefix.

Local Leaders Attend Convention

The North Dakota Farm Bureau held their 80th annual state convention in Bismarck on November 18-19, 2022. Attendance was down due to weather conditions and icy roads in many parts of the state. Hettinger County was represented by President Alex Nielsen of New England, board member Trey Fischbach of New England and Secretary Marlene Kouba of Regent.

Damian Mason

"Farmers and ranchers are beneficial to North Dakota as it is the number one economy. The Farm Bill will be important and affect all of us. North Dakota leads in producing several commodities. Inflation is tough on all of us. The current energy bill is hurting us. Trade is a huge issue now but was growing just two years ago. Conservation easements should not be permanent," were some of the comments by President Daryl Lies in his opening statement.

Four young men competed for the Collegiate Discussion Meet. There were two from DSU and two from NDSU. Winner Kyle Anderson of Montana attends college in Dickinson and will compete in Jacksonville, Florida in March.

The delegate session reviewed many policies that will guide their state lobbyists during the next session of the Legislature. AFBF Economist Bernt Nelson spoke on cattle trends. He said there were 98.8 million head of cattle this year but that number is down 2%. One cycle of cattle takes about 10 years to reproduce. We export beef to Japan, South Korea, China, Mexico and Canada. The outlook for 2023 is positive.

Senator John Hoeven

sent his greetings and stated that agriculture is the world's most important industry. Our food supply is dependable and mechanization has helped promote that. We have done more in the past 100 years than the previous 100 years due to automation. Innovation drove our farmers to feed the world. We waste about one-third of the food produced-in the field, at the table and in stores. If you farm, thank a customer. Predictions of over-population are false as production agriculture will catch up to increased population with the help of robots. Regulations are making food more expensive. Energy and food are foundations of prosperity and our national security. Our food is powered by diesel. Abraham Lincoln said the agriculture department is a department of the people. He serves on the Senate Ag Committee.

Jolyn Wasem of Halliday was re-elected to another term on the Promotion and Education Committee for District 9.

A lively auction brought in over $20,000 for scholarships next year.

The event ended with farmer comedian Damian Mason of Indiana.

Agriculture Wordgame

By Marlene Kouba

How many words can you make with the letters in AGRICULTURE? That was the challenge for fifth graders throughout the state in a contest this month.

Emily Grist of Mott/Regent Public School found 67 words and four of her classmates were not far behind. Each one received a certificate and cash prize. Normally only three prizes are given but these were so close it was decided to give five places rather than two honorable mentions.

There were 53 entries in the state-wide contest but these students found the most. The challenge was there were 5 vowels but no O and only 6 consonants. Some students added extra letters and some made up words which were all incorrect. Two of them made descriptive words using each letter in the word Agriculture with some unique ideas but wrong for this contest. The winners were dedicated and determined to find as many as they did. It was good to see so many that tried under the direction of their teachers. It took a dictionary to verify the many responses.

Agriculture is the leading economy in North Dakota as well in most other states. It brings in over $6.6 billion in cash receipts every year.

North Dakota farmers lead the nation in producing edible beans, canola, flax, honey, oats, peas, durum and spring wheat. We are #2 in sunflowers, #3 in barley and sugarbeets, and #9 in soybeans. Production agriculture is the largest sector of North Dakota's economy, or about 25% of the economic base.

Nearly 26% of the North Dakota workforce are farmers or ranchers or are employed in agriculture-related businesses or industries.

This contest was sponsored by North Dakota Women Involved in Farm Economics (WIFE). WIFE is a grassroots organization committed to promote agriculture and improve its profitability.

Continental Resources Sponsors The Edge Project

Bowman, ND, November 21, 2022. This past year the Bowman Parks and Recreation Board has secured a building, a bond, and are in the process of renovating the previous Shopko/Alco building located at 320 Highway 12 East. This project is called The Edge – Bowman County Activity Complex. The board recently launched a sponsorship campaign and Bowman Ready Mix has generously donated $5000 for the Edge Project. "Contributions toward this project are so appreciated and we recognize how Continental Resources adds greatly to our community," stated Director Chanell Walby.

Bowman Parks and Recreation serves the wellness and recreational needs of our tri-state area by providing community facilities and progressive programs across the generations. By using an existing building in our community we are helping to reduce construction costs, inhabit vacant structures, bring people to town to both work and play, and we are reaching our mission. We thank the community for your support of this project, which will contain an adventure park (trampolines, indoor two-story playground, ninja course, climbing wall, obstacle course, dodgeball court, and dunk hoop), multipurpose court, dance/exercise room, racquetball court, cardio/weight room, party/meeting room, E-Sports Lounge, and a walking track.

Please contact Chanell Walby, Director of Bowman Parks and Recreation if you have any questions or are interested in sponsoring the Edge Project or any other projects. 701-523-3896.

A Little Birdie Told Me

By: Vivian Hernandez

A Little Birdie Told Me: "Business is Alive and Well in Hettinger."

Several months ago I was in Hettinger and noticed activity in the former Edna's Dress Shop: Out of curiosity I tapped on the door. Liz Morical, now owner of Morical Made Studio & Framing, greeted me. Liz is a native of Hettinger, her Husband Taylor is from Minnesota they have two children: Merle age 3 and Laurel 13 months. Liz has a degree in photography and worked in the field while they lived in Minnesota. When the opportunity came to buy ranch near Hettinger, the family decided to move back to North Dakota. Starting a cow/calf herd and raising a young family kept the Moricals plenty busy. One day Liz realized she had very few photos of her own family. The wheels starting turning and after a 5 year break Liz was ready to start a new adventure.

Edna's Dress Shop located on Main St. in Hettinger was the perfect location. The building was in need of updates: flooring, lighting & electric. After months of hard work the studio had its open house on November 25th: A chance for the community to see the renovations and the beautifully updated space.

One obstacle Liz faced was finding quality frames for her photographs. She called her mentor in Minnesota for ideas: Solution, find a frame shop to partner with. Her Internet search led her to Bowman and Framefully Yours. The owners weren't interested in the partnership but were willing to sell the business. After prayer and talking with family the decision was made to purchase the framing business.

The walls are filled with photos Liz has taken and framed. Liz also features Cow Chip Creations by Amanda Njos from Rhame, artists: Shasta Alexander, Lemmon SD, Dan Boxrud, Hettinger and Michelle Weber from Minnesota.

December 10th will be a Holiday Open House from 1:00-4:00 with live music, refreshments and showroom specials.

Winter hours are Tuesday & Thursday 8-5. For an appointment call or txt 701-928-0819 on Facebook at Morical Made Studio and Framing.

Next stop The Peacock Mercantile, must have my coffee fix! Owner Pam Burch is planning to be open from 7-7 on December 6th for Fantasy Night at KB Jewelry. Customers who spend $50 at KB will get a free 16 oz. latte from the Peacock Mercantile. December 15th the Peacock will host a charcuterie board class: cost for the class is $50 and includes the board and all the goodies. To register call 701-637-0102, but hurry the first class sold out.

Dakota Prairie Helping Hands is in a new location on Main St. the former home of the Clothes Closet. Dakota Prairie Helping Hands provides medical equipment free of charge to Residents of: Adams, Hettinger & Bowman Counties in North Dakota and Perkins County, South Dakota. A non-profit business Dakota Prairie Helping Hands relies on donations, grants & memorials. Dakota Prairie Helping Hands will have an open house December 6th from 2-6 with hot cider, coffee & treats.
