Dylan Miller (son of Matt and Amy Miller) and Carter Forster (son of Seth Forster and Kristen Olson) play in their first basketball game with the Mott-Regent Cannon-Ballers

Pogo, the frog, crawled under a leaf close to the pond. Trees overhead shaded the sun from beating down on his tiny body. Only a few years old he was still tiny. Why didn't he grow? he questioned. Because he did not grow, the other frogs his age laughed at him, made fun of him and due to that fact the other frogs stayed away from him. He lay under the leaf, not so much to hide from the sun but also, the other frogs couldn't see him - - he was safe from their cruel comments. "If only I had a friend?" he cried out.

One day while hiding under a leaf, something fell and hit him on the head. Rubbing his head, he crawled out from under the leaf - - a huge rock - - "now they are throwing stones to find me!" he cried. Then he heard a noise, crack, crack, the rock was breaking and out stepped a - - -.

Pogo helped scrap away some of the shells around the whatever it was - - maybe it was a baby frog - - he wasn't sure but Pogo jumped around - - maybe his wish came true - - maybe this was a friend. Whatever it was, tiny as Pogo was he worked hard and fast removing the shells around this funny looking creature. Pogo didn't care - it was tiny like him.

Removing the last shells, he saw what came out of the shell, Pogo screamed Eek - - so the strange creature was named Eek.

Pogo and Eek spent all their time together for Eek had no one, had no idea where he came from and Pogo was his knight in shining armor. Although tiny, Pogo brought him food, taught him how to walk, how to hide.

Best of friends, the only problem was Eek started to grow, bigger, bigger and Pogo stayed the same.

Then one day Eek, started to flop his arms, up, up, up, he want into the air. Pogo, amazed, did the same - - but he only fell flat on his face. Every-day, since his first flight Eek, flapped his arms and soared over the country. After each flight he would come and tell Pogo all that he saw, and Pogo would say - - "If only I could fly!"

As time went on Eek flew more and more. Each day he became better. One day, as he was sharing some of the beautiful place he had seen, Pogo again said "I wish I could fly!"

That night Eek and Pogo saying their good nights for the day, Eek again heard Pogo say, "I wish could fly!" As he did every night, he flapped his arms, hoping to learn to fly, but always falling on his face.

Next morning, sun warming the two, Eek said, "Pogo, today you are going to fly!" "I can't I've tried. Every night I practice but nothing happens. I can't fly!" "I'll teach you how - - you can jump, I can't - - I can fly but you can't, but you can jump. Now I'll show you how to fly. Jump on my back - - Eek took off and Pogo learned he too could fly, not on his own but with the help of someone else.

We may not be able to soar like an eagle, but we can jump in and be an asset to our communities with our time, talent and positive comments.

We all have different gifts. It's time to use them wisely, helping each other build our communities.

Battles and Victories

By Kathy Craig Harteis

Many of us lost a friend this week when Gene Beauchamp and his brother-in-law Phil passed. I didn't know Phil but I've seen for years, Gene reach out and support his community. He will be missed.

The battle continues to keep the wild horse herd in Theodore Roosevelt National Park. The herd's supporters are encouraging Park visitors to write letters in support of keeping the herd. Letters can be sent to info@wildlandswildhorses.com.

Some battles are worth fighting.

It's been a good week as Tom and I continue our stay in SoCal. The rain has been minimal here. We've been able to walk 2-3 miles a day. That's good for two old people.

Most days we've gotten out on some adventure.

We found a wonderful fresh catch market at the harbor. Admittedly we don't see that in North Dakota. Even so, we look forward to in a few weeks going back to North Dakota. It's lovely here and we're enjoying every minute but our little house on the prairie is where we belong. Life is good today.

Expressions of HOPE

“What Do You Read: Part 2”

One passage from scripture that I often reflect upon is Romans 10:17, “So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ.” If a person asks why I believe in Jesus I will share this verse. If I am given the opportunity, I will explain what it means to me to have faith, read the Bible, and share the teachings of Christ and how these have impacted my life. Again, this is one verse from scripture that speaks to me. A verse from scripture that is often shared with me by others is Proverbs 2:5, “Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight.” This is a verse that speaks to the relationship we have with God and how God does lead and guide us in life every day. Trust in God, that is what we are to do, have trust and God will take care of us.

As I thought about additional scripture passages that are meaningful to me, I also thought about what phrases or expressions have been or are popular today that speak of the relationship we have with God. Years ago, “WWJD” was popular, and it is still today. You can probably fill in a few expressions that are meaningful to you as well. With this thought in mind I want to share a poem I read some time ago that helps me to think about the opportunities each day brings to be the presence of Christ in the life of those around me. The poem is by William Arthur Ward.

“Did I Take Time?”

How grateful have I been today?

Did I take time to pause and pray?

What kindness did I do or say

To help someone along the way.

Did I take time to call or send

A cheerful message to a friend?

Did I, perhaps, begin a trend

To be sincere, and not pretend?

Did I cause other hearts to sing,

Or did my comments leave a sting?

I hope today I did some thing

Unselfish and encouraging.

Scripture, spiritual writings, poems, meaningful sayings or expressions have a place in our lives as they speak to the person we are. Read and enjoy putting into practice “what you have heard and trust in all your heart!”

Thoughts for the Week

by June Schmidt

Now that the holiday season is behind us, comes the season in which every one starts to think of paying Taxes or filing a tax return to retrieve monies that have been sent in by us or by our employers. Obviously those that get money back for various reasons are much more anxious to file a return as those that have to send in additional monies.

In 1862, President Lincoln signed into law a revenue raising measure to help pay for Civil War expenses. The measure created a Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the nation's first income tax. It levied a 3 percent tax on incomes between $600 and $10,000 and a 5 percent tax on incomes of more than $10,000. Congress repealed this tax in 1872, but the concept did not disappear. In 1894 as part of a high tariff bill, Congress enacted a 2 percent tax on income over $4,000. The tax was almost immediately struck down by a 5 to 4 decision of the Supreme Court, even though the Court had upheld the constitutionality of the Civil War Tax.

In 1909, progressives in Congress again attached a provision for an income tax to a tariff bill. Conservatives, hoping to kill the idea for good, proposed a constitutional amendment enacting such a tax; they believed an amendment would never receive ratification by ¾ of the states. Much to their surprise, the amendment was ratified by one state legislature after another, and on February 25, 1913, with the certification by Secretary of State Philander C. Knox, the 16th amendment took effect. Yet in 1913, due to generous exemptions and deductions, less than 1 percent of the population paid income taxes at the rate of only 1 percent of net income. This document settled the constitutional question of how to tax income and, by so doing, effected dramatic changes in the American way of life.

And with those thoughts, there are many people out there trying to tell you how to spend your money to lower some of those taxes. Something all of us need to be aware of in this day of electronic solicitations and constant barrage on television screens, is that not all the people who are asking you to give your hard earned money to them are legitimate. Same with the ones who are asking you by email, phone and mail solicitation to give your personal information to get a 'windfall' that can be yours for the small price of your banking information. We were all taught that before we cross a rail road track we need to Stop, look and listen. I think these words work very well for those solicitations that you are seeing everywhere today. Stop – do not give out any personal information to anyone that you are not aware of personally or that you have been informed by a well known reliable person that you have personal contact with. Look – at the offer that they are giving you and if it is 'too good to be true' as we were always cautioned about, it most probably is. Listen – to those people who you know or have personal contact with over a prolonged period of time when they tell you that something is not right. P. T. Barnum was quoted as saying that there is a 'foolish person' born every minute. Do not let yourselves be counted among those. It is your money and your information and the best advice is not to share it with anyone that you do not know on a personal and long term basis. And if you have any hesitation at all—like that little voice in your mind that is telling you that it is a bad idea—call someone in authority such as the Sheriff's department and they will be able to direct you to the right person to help you.

So as you contemplate this tax season, if you are one of those that get money back, remember that it is often your own money that you have paid in early, so be wary of those that seek to take it away from you. If you file your own return, take care that you follow instructions properly to get back what you can, and if in doubt seek a reputable tax practitioner to help you. Be wary of those that give your money back before your return is processed as they often involve loans at very high interest rates in order to do so. You've waited all year for this, so a couple more weeks is not much and can save you a great deal of money in the process. If you are one of those that are on the other end, I am sure you have already found someone you trust, but if not, check around before taking the first person you find. Not every one is up on all the rules and if you have to pay a little more to get it done right, well maybe that's the right decision for you. In any case, taxes are now part of our lives, like them or not. God Bless you all.

Giving Hearts Night
Features Former & Current Greats!
Plus an Auction!

By Ted Uecker,
WRHS Foundation

"Giving Hearts Night with the Nighthawks & Bulldogs" girl's basketball fundraiser will take place at the Hettinger Gymnasium on Monday, January 23rd. Former 2021 ND Miss Basketball and Three-time ND All-State Nighthawk Samantha Oase, and Two-time All-State Bowman High Player Shelly Andrews-Christensen, will be shooting ten freethrows each and joining current standout senior roundballers Ella Jensen (Hettinger-Scranton) and Ellie Powell (Bowman County), who are each shooting five freethrows, for a combined ten freethrow "Team Ell." Overall, there will be 30 total freethrows shot for pledges.

Anyone – businesses, organizations, families, individuals -- can pledge any amount for one, two or three shooters/team. So far we have received pledges ranging from $5 to $100! For example, if you pledge $20 and select a shooter/team who makes 6 out of 10, then you'd give $20 x 6 or $120 to the West River Health Services Foundation. If you pledge $20 for all three shooters/team, and they made a total of 22 out of 30, you'd gift $20 x 22 or $440. The WRHS Foundation is recommending pledge gifts toward their "Healthcare Heroes Endowment Fund," but will accept any and all gifts no matter where you'd like them placed (Ambulance, Physician Recruitment Endowment, Partners In Health Club, Western Horizons Living Centers, Scholarship, etc.).

In addition to the freethrow shooting at halftime of the Varsity game, the 3rd grade boys will be playing at halftime of the "C" Squad game and the 4th grade girls will be playing at halftime of the Junior Varsity game. All players, from 3rd grade to the Varsity, will be sporting "Giving Hearts" jerseys (via West Plains Inc. and rest of sponsors). Even the coaches, statisticians and managers will be in new red and white Giving Hearts t-shirts and polos. We are asking everyone to WEAR RED for a RED OUT!

Between the Junior Varsity and Varsity games, local auctioneer Andy Mrnak, will be auctioning off three "Comfy Couches" on the stage -- with the highest bidders enjoying the comfy couches in the front row on the stage during the Varsity ballgame. The WRHS Foundation will provide the highest bidders with all of the pop, popcorn and candy you can possibly eat and drink from the couches! Thank you for bidding.

Of I almost forgot -- AD-MISSION IS FREE! Thank you Dakota Western Bank and Scranton Equity for underwriting this event. They are hoping you might "pay it forward" with a gift to the WRHS Foundation or via pledging or bidding at the auction. Plus, there is FREE POPCORN from Commercial Bee Supply and T2 Honey! This will be a sensational night -- kids hustling, parents enjoying, fans celebrating and former and current stars starring!

Please bring your GIVING HEART and your checkbook! We need this top-notch healthcare "close to home." Onward!

A Little Birdie Told Me

By: Vivian Hernandez

A Little Birdie Told Me: "To Survive in Business Sometimes You Have to Think Outside the Box." Valarie Martinez moved to Carson, ND with her boyfriend Tom Steiner in November of 2009. Tom's Mother owned the A&S Country Market SUPERVALU Store and was struggling to keep the doors open. Much of the equipment was old and starting to fail. Valarie had experience in small business management and consulting and offered to manage the store.

In 2018 Valarie decided with the help of a friend to use the empty space adjacent to the grocery store to open a thrift store. Generous community members began donating items and the Community Peddler was up and running. The thrift store provided a needed service to the community and brought more foot traffic into the grocery store.

With the additional income from the thrift store Valarie was able to do much needed updates to the grocery store. Once the grocery store was viable proceeds from the thrift store are donated to community projects and individuals in need.

The Community Peddler donates to: Roosevelt Elementary School in Carson, The Flasher

& Selfridge Schools, Parks & Rec, Ambulance, & Fire Department: The Community Peddler also helps with medical travel expenses and emergency home repairs. Some individuals who have received money repay the funds so others in the area can get help when needed.

Managing a thrift store is a big job but the benefits are many: the Community Peddler has ensured that the residents of Carson have a thriving grocery store and can find the items they might have to travel some distance to purchase. Donations are such a blessing: Items that might otherwise be discarded can be donated and help someone in need.

Valarie is grateful for the wonderful community support for both the grocery and thrift store. Donations of clean gently used items are greatly appreciated; good used men's clothing is always needed. Valarie asks that you call ahead before dropping off items; a building off-site has larger items such as furniture.

The thrift store is open the same hours as the grocery store: Monday - Friday 7:30am - 6:00pm, Saturday 8:00am - 3:30pm. For information call 701-622-3393.

A Little Birdie Told Me: "Great Possibilities Await When You Think Outside the BOX!"

Laura E. Ketterling
Rites To Be Held

It is with great sadness that we announce the death of Laura E. Ketterling, age 98. Laura passed peacefully on December 25, 2022 at the Jacobson Memorial Care Center in Elgin, ND. Laura was born March 14, 1924, in Heil, ND, the daughter of Hayden and Ella (Schultz) Sebastian. She grew up in Heil and attended Heil School through her freshman year. A weekly train ticket carried her daily to Carson, ND, where she graduated from Carson High School in May 1942. Laura married Elmer Ketterling on November 27, 1944, in Wibaux, MT. They made their home on the Ketterling family farm, three miles south of Heil. In addition to being a farm wife, mother, and gardener, she taught school in rural Hettinger County and later was a teaching assistant in Flasher and Elgin Public Schools. Laura moved to Bismarck in 1991 and resided there until 2019 when she moved to the Jacobson Memorial Care Center.

A good waltz or polka would find Laura on the dance floor, a pastime she and her sisters thoroughly enjoyed. She enjoyed reading, jigsaw puzzles, and playing cards with friends. Laura also took a very active role in her community. Christmas, her favorite holiday, found the farm filled with wonderful Christmas dinner smells and families gathering. One of her greatest pleasures was spending time with her grandchildren.

Laura is survived by her children, Daniel Ketterling, Elgin, ND, Douglas Ketterling, Bismarck, ND, Elmer "Jeffery" Ketterling, Heil, ND and Steven Ketterling, Heil, ND; her grandchildren, Daniel Ketterling Jr., Victoria Siegel, Tammy Bell, Samantha Ketterling, Kathleen Ketterling, John Ketterling, Molly Allmon; seven great-grandchildren; her sister, Lucille "Leo" Nagel, Heil, ND; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; her brothers, Hayden (Ora) and John (Viola) Sebastian; her sisters, Esther (Jake) Ferderer, Hazel (Alvin) Ketterling, Wilda (Benjamin) Ketterling, Mildred (August) Heyne, and Joan (Wilbert) Giese.

A memorial service will be held at 1:30 p.m. MT on Saturday, January 28, 2023 at Grace Reformed Church in New Leipzig, ND. Inurnment will be held at a later date.

Condolences may be sent through our website at www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com.

Ann Krauter
Rites Held

Ann Krauter 98, of Fargo entered eternal life on January 15, 2023

Anna was born to Mike and Christine (Schiff) Grundhauser on February 24, 1924, in St. Paul, Minnesota and was baptized at St. Agatha Catholic Church. Anna was given the baptismal name of her grandmother, Anna Loh. In the fall of 1926 Mike and Christine and family returned to the Grundhauser homestead in Stark County.

At the age of 9, Anna made her First Holy Communion and Confirmation at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church in Lefor, North Dakota. She was inspired to her Catholic faith by her teacher's, the Benedictine Sister's from Crookston, MN.

Anna graduated from the 8th grade at St. Elizabeth's Catholic School in Lefor, North Dakota. After her mother's unexpected death Anna at the age of 12 stayed at home to help her dad raise her two brothers.

Ann caught the eye of husband Adam at the dances at the Bayer Hall and the Verin's Hall in Lefor. They were married on June 3, 1941, at St. Elizabeth's Church in Lefor. Together they farmed for 45 years.

Ann was a member of the St. Elizabeth's Christian Mothers Society and her neighborhood "Six plus Six" Homemakers Club.

Ann was a devout Catholic and a faithful member of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church in Lefor while she lived on the farm and at Queen of Peace Catholic Church in Dickinson in her retirement years.

Her favorite pleasures in life were sewing, baking, and most of all dancing waltzes, polkas and schotes with Adam on Saturday nights. Ann had the German Hungarian cooking and baking skills that were a highlight of family gatherings.

Favorites were Sunday soup, chicken or beef paprikash, bean soup and strudels, fresh baked buns and rolls and a Tupperware full of chocolate chip cookies.

In retirement years Adam and Ann traveled many miles in their RV visiting relatives and friends across the United States. Seeing her grandchildren and great grandchildren brought great joy to Ann.

After her husband's death in 2005 Ann remained in Dickinson until 2012 when she moved to Riverview Catholic Health Initiatives retirement community in Fargo to be closer to family.

Ann is survived by her children Adam (Andrea) Krauter, Blaine, MN; Ardella (Clint) Larson, Fargo, ND and Aaron (Cindy) Krauter West Fargo, ND, grandchildren Matt (Cathy) Krauter, Kenosha, WI, Paul (Lillian) Krauter, New Brighton, MN, Emily (Brock) Boos, Dickinson, ND, Mitchell (Abby) Krauter, Rochester, MN, Hannah Krauter, West Fargo, great grandchildren Ella, Blake and Matthis Krauter, Kenosha, WI, Silas Krauter, New Brighton, MN, and Capri Ann Boos, Dickinson, ND, half-brother Eugene Grundhauser and half-sisters Grace (Lester) Schiltz and Deloras (Richard) Faller, sister in-law Bea Grundhauser and numerous nieces and nephews.

Ann is preceded in death by her husband Adam, infant son Alan, parents Mike and Christine (Schiff) Grundhauser and brothers John and Duane Grundhauser.

The family of Ann Krauter are forever grateful to the wonderful, caring staff at Riverview Crosshaven CHI, Fargo, and Hospice of the Red River Valley.

Visitation took place from 5:00 to 6:00 pm at Riverview Place Chapel with Rosary and Prayer vigil to follow on Friday January 20, 2023.

Joseph A. Frieze
Rites Held

Joseph A. Frieze, 86, Bismarck, ND, died on January 15, 2023.

A funeral service was held 11:00 A.M., Saturday, Jan. 21, at House of Prayer Lutheran Church, 1470 S Washington St., Bismarck.

Visitation was held 5-7:00 P.M., Friday, Jan. 20, at Parkway Funeral Service, 2330 Tyler Parkway, Bismarck. A prayer service was held at 7:00 P.M.

Interment was held at Fairview Cemetery, Bismarck.

Joseph Anton Frieze was born Jan. 16, 1936, in Mott, ND, to John and Magdalena (Bastings) Frieze on the family farm. Joe joined the U.S. Air Force in June 1954 and received his G.E.D. in the service. Following his honorable discharge from the Air Force Joe began working for the Plumber's and Pipefitter's Local 300 in 1958. He worked various commercial jobs and industrial power and chemical plants traveling to many states during his 40-50 years until retirement in 1998.

Joseph married Darlene Klein in Bismarck on June 19, 1960. They had five children who they loved very much and were very proud of. He loved spending time with his family.

Joe enjoyed fishing, reading, and gardening. He had a green thumb and always had enough tomatoes, cucumbers and peppers to share with family, friends and neighbors. He started each day reading devotions and his Bible. Reading the daily newspaper and books on history was a favorite past-time. He was a generous and charitable man. He was a long-time member of the House of Prayer

Lutheran Church and helped deliver quilts, serving lunches at funerals and being a greeter as needed. He would drop by local fundraising dinners, not to eat, but to donate money to the person or family in need.

He could fix about anything. He loved watching sports, especially local teams. He enjoyed staying informed on current events and news. He was excellent at cooking bacon perfectly, telling his dad/grandpa jokes, telling rhymes for the little kids and grabbing the dinner bill before anyone else could. He was loved and appreciated by his family and many others and will be missed greatly.

Joseph is survived by his wife, Darlene (Klein) Frieze; daughters, Debra (Kelly) Christiansen, Duluth, MN, Susan (Dennis) Cahoon, Hazen, ND, and Kimberly (Martin) Bode, Edmonds, WA; son, Joel (Kristie) Frieze, Orlando, FL; grandchildren, Tascha (Shawn) McConnell, Sheridan Cahoon, Carly Christiansen, Tyler (Nikki) Christiansen, Anna Bode, Ollie Bode, Mya Frieze, Kalee Frieze, Joseph (Isabel Tapanes) Williams, Jeremy Williams, and Jessica Williams; great-grandchildren, Kylee, Lauryn, and Matthew McConnell; brother, Henry Frieze; sisters, Lucille (Stan) Rice, Kathryn (Norman) Hornberger, sisters-in-law, Arlyce (John) Frieze and Roberta (Leo) Frieze; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his son, Kyle Frieze (2002); parents, John Frieze Sr. and Lena (Bastings) Frieze; brothers, John Frieze Jr. and Leo Frieze; and sisters, Eva Frieze, Alice (Bill) Jung, Ann (Dick) Ehli, Marge (Tom) Emter, Venita Whalers, and Pauline Frieze.

Dad, we love you and miss you very much! Thanks for everything, especially the wonderful memories, so we can hold you close in our hearts.

Robert Ruggles Rites Held

Robert Ruggles, 96, passed away peacefully on Saturday, January 7, 2023, at the St. Luke's Home in Dickinson, ND. A memorial service for Robert was held at 5:00 pm (MDT) on Monday, January 16, 2023, at the Ladbury Funeral Home in Dickinson, ND. Burial will be on a later date.

Robert was born October 13, 1926, in a rural farmhouse southwest of New England, ND, to Isaac and Iris (Evans) Ruggles. He grew up on the family farm with three brothers and one sister. He went to a country school and later attended New England High School staying in the dormitory. As a teenager, Robert helped his uncle Will Byers and aunt Effie and spoke fondly of his time working on their farm which Robert and Idel later took over and it became their family farm where they raised their family.

Robert married Idel Stafford on June 16, 1948, at the Pierce Congregational Church. They raised a family of three girls and two boys, who helped on the farm and experienced the love, patience and encouragement of their parents. Robert was very sharing of his time and talents helping all of his family and friends with all kinds of projects. Robert and Idel were married for 74 1/2 years and were kept young by enjoying time spent with their grandkids and great-grandkids.

Robert enjoyed going on Sunday drives, checking out the crops and stopping to check out any unique rocks he might see.

Anytime he found an interesting rock he would carry it home and throw it on a pile which grew to four feet tall through the years. There wasn't a piece of farm equipment or vehicle that didn't have some precious stones rattling around on the floorboards as the result of a recent find. He loved to share his passion for rocks with many of his grandkids. Another one of his joys was to plant and see pine trees grow. The beautiful trees on the tree farm on the hill along Highway 67 are a lasting testament of his love for trees. Robert had many interests including reading, carpentry, and gardening. His greatest love was for the Lord Jesus, and he shared that love with family and friends. Robert and Idel lived for many years on the tree farm before they moved into the St. Luke's Home in March 2022.

God has blessed Robert with many wonderful years and in turn everyone who knew him was blessed because of knowing him.

Robert was preceded in death by his parents, sister Jean (Fred) Schaar, brothers Lowell (Betty), Willard and Keith and son-in-law Melvin Siverson. Brothers-in-law Arden Stafford, Lloyd Teske and sister-in-law Doris Teske.

Robert is survived by wife Idel; his children, Linda Siverson, Connie (Leon) Scheeler, Kerry (Twyla) Ruggles, Joan (Dean) Karsky, and Pat (Faye) Ruggles; 19 grandchildren and 34 great-grandchildren; and his sisters-in-law Rose (Keith) Ruggles, Eunice (Willard) Ruggles and Ginger (Arden) Stafford; and several nieces and nephews.

Robert's family would like to thank the staff at St. Luke's Home for their wonderful care and many acts of kindness shown to Robert. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be sent to St. Luke's Home.

Krebsbach and Kulseth Funeral Services of Bowman and Ladbury Funeral Services of Dickinson are in charge of the arrangements.

Belle Marie Kvale Rites Held

On January 10, 2023, at the age of 97, surrounded by family, Belle Marie Kvale went peacefully from life on earth to life in the presence of Jesus, her Lord and Savior.

Funeral services for Belle were held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, January 14, 2023 at the Calvary Lutheran Church in Lemmon, SD. Pastor Charlotte Kvale and Tim Holdahl officiated with burial following in the Greenhill Cemetery at Lemmon.

Visitation was held from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. followed by a family service at 7:00 p.m. all on Friday, January 13, 2023 at the Evanson Jensen Funeral Home in Lemmon, SD.

Belle was born September 15, 1925, to Ransom H. and Edna (Cunningham) Walter in Adams County, North Dakota. She attended a three-room school at North Lemmon and graduated from Lemmon High School in 1943, walking over a mile each way to school. Belle was a very good speller and competed in the county spelling bee several times. She enjoyed playing baseball and was a fast runner.

After high school Belle worked for Brodsky's Market, then attended Northern State College in Aberdeen, graduating with a bookkeeping degree. While attending college, she worked at Socony Vacuum. Upon returning to Lemmon, she worked for Braught's Super Valu. She married Norman Kvale on July 9, 1949, and they celebrated over 64 years together.

She and Norman had four children: Richard, Dale, Tim and Beverly. She always raised a big garden and did lots of canning. She drove the silage truck, did the farm bookkeeping, brought home-cooked meals with home-made bread and desserts to feed those helping work cattle, and did all the other things a farm wife does. She was a member of the Happy Hour Extension Club, Calvary Lutheran Church, and was a 4-H Leader. She and Norman enjoyed being a part of the neighborhood Card Club and spent many fun evenings with neighbors and friends.

After the children were grown, she spent her Wednesdays in town quilting at Calvary Lutheran in the mornings, having lunch at the church, and then bowling in a Ladies league. She made sleeping bags for the homeless and quilts for Calvary graduates. After taking a dance class at the Steakhouse, Belle and Norman spent many evenings on the dance floor. They were members of the Morris-town Dance Club.

Belle and Norman were avid supporters of the Boss Cowman celebration and were selected as Boss Cowman Honorees in 2002.

Later in life, Belle started writing poetry. If you got a Christmas or birthday card from Belle, it probably included a personalized poem. She did daily crosswords and kept a diary until 1998 when her eyesight started to fail. She loved games, especially word and card games, with Quiddler becoming a favorite.

Once Belle's eyesight became too bad, she moved into Five Counties Nursing Home. There she enjoyed bingo and playing Quiddler with her visitors.

Belle was preceded in death

WORDSMITH

If you were aide to the CEO and suddenly you find yourself emptying waste baskets and sweeping the floor, you have been relegated. The word comes from the Latin Relagatus meaning to send away. The CEO is the Corporate Executive Officer.

Definition: Corporate: To make into a body. (From the word corpse)

Executive: He who carries out the duties of a corporation.

Officer: A person appointed to carry out the duties of the corporation. (No wonder it was shortened to CEO. You'd have to have a BA in office speak to understand all the anagrams that are being used these days.)

The CEO could also be the Chief Executive Officer. All others are subordinate to the chief even when he is not qualified for the job. A company that has three eight hour shifts has a manager on each shift but they all answer to the shift overseer. If something goes wrong he can shift the blame to his subordinates. Or...if he shirks his duties he is shiftless. If he is conducting illegal business on office time, he is shift. If you catch him in the act and report it to the CEO, you will be shifted to another shift. That is how you get relegated. (sent away.)

The word shift comes from Old English sciftan...to divide

(time) or be separated.

Less, a suffix is from Old English word meaning loose. To be relegated is to be cut loose and your paycheck will reflect this. The prefix DE denotes a separation, away from, or go in reverse. It was a long tough climb to the position of Aide to the CEO. You feel confident, full of yourself. You go out and celebrate with your fellow workers. You stagger home and forget to set the alarm.

In one fell swoop you are relegated to emptying trash baskets.

Conclusion: A man goes into Walmart and buys a tall kitchen trash can. He takes it to the check-out and pays for it. The clerk puts it into a big plastic shopping bag and he takes it home. In his kitchen he removes the new trash can from the big shopping bag and puts the trash can in the corner. Then he balls up the shopping bag and tosses it in the trash can.

Could this be called REDUNDANCY? "I RE-DONED-IT. SEE?"

As a means of conveyance, sack is a verb. As an item it is a noun. Now that it is trash is it once again a noun. It comes from the Scandinavian word, trask, as twigs, leaves, wood scrap that has been stripped off and is of no value; any worthless, unnecessary or offensive thing such as foolish talk.

Expressions of HOPE

Reflections on the Words of Life

by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

In our continuing study of the book of Jonah, we considered last time that the sailors asked Jonah what they should do to calm the raging sea, and Jonah instructed them to throw him overboard. That is not what the sailors wanted to hear. We see their response in Jonah 1:13: "Nevertheless the men rowed hard to return to land, but they could not, for the sea continued to grow more tempestuous against them." Rather than immediately taking Jonah up on his suggestion, the sailors still attempt to return to land by rowing even harder. They seem to think that Jonah's suggestion is unnecessarily drastic. But they don't know Jonah's God and how seriously He takes sin. We have seen several examples of irony so far in our chapter, and here is another one. These idolatrous men have a respect for Jonah's life, even though he has put their lives in danger by his disobedience. Sadly, sometimes unbelievers show more kindness and compassion than believers do.

The sailors row hard to try to make it to land. And isn't this an illustration of what we human beings tend to do many times? How often do we try our best to bring about an outcome that we desire? But sometimes we are only fighting against God, and our efforts are futile, as is the case here.

Our next verse is truly amazing. Jonah 1:14: "Therefore they cried out to the LORD and said, 'We pray, O LORD, please do not let us perish for this man's life, and do not charge us with innocent blood; for You, O LORD, have done as it pleased You.'" Many Bible translations, including the one used here, use the word LORD in all capital letters when it refers to the Hebrew word YAHWEH. This is the name of the only true God. It is the name that God gave to Moses in Exodus 3, and it means, "I AM WHO I AM." God is in a category all by Himself, and YAHWEH is His sacred name. Three times these pagan sailors cry out to YAHWEH. This is the only incident in Scripture of unbelievers praying to the true God.

Christians should be spreading the word that there is only one true God. And the only way to know Him is through Jesus Christ. As Peter said in Acts 4:12, "Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

The sailors' plea, "Do not charge us with innocent blood, for You, O LORD, have done as it pleased You" reveals several important points about these men. First, they have a reverence for life and know that murder is wrong; thus they fear the Creator's disapproval in what they are about to do. They seem to understand that God is sovereign and will judge human actions. They also believe He can be appealed to for justice. What a contrast is their cry to that treacherous cry of the Jews at the trial before Pilate concerning the only innocent Man who ever lived: "His blood be on us and on our children" (Matthew 27:25).

Astonishingly, the prophet Jonah, the one who knows YAHWEH, remains prayerless while these pagan sailors fervently pray to Jonah's God. Lord willing, we shall see the outcome of this dire situation next week. But I close by reminding us how vital it is that we be right with the God of the universe. Oh, may we heed the words of Jesus in John 17:3: "And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent."
