"A Smile a Thank You"

Her funeral was large - in fact it was one of the largest ever recorded in the community. People flew in from all over the world. The airport was overwhelmed with flights - all coming for the same reason -- Honor Sara who had done more, changed more and gave more than anyone ever known. Cameras, reporters, even spectators who knew nothing about her were present.

Homilist gave the eulogy - then reports of all the good she had done were open for comments. She gave money to the poor, helped research, you name it, she did it. Hours later a huge celebration was planned - food, fellowship and a farewell to Sarah.

Sarah now saw St. Peter - excited she stood in line waiting for him to call her name and tell her where her eternal living quarters would be. One by one everyone's name was called but not Sara. She stood there alone. As other names were called many people came to greet them, hug them and welcome them - but when St. Peter called Sara - no one came to meet her.

St. Peter stood beside her and said, "Before anyone comes to meet you I must show you something - come with me." Sara followed St. Peter - beautiful landscape, flowers, fields of lush grain - up hills down into valleys and finally reached an area as huge as the universe. St. Peter opened the door, walked in and Sara, Sara, was all she could hear.

Elated she noticed the universe was full, not one more space available. "Sara, Sara, was all she heard. Looking around she questioned "St. Peter - why is half of the universe smiling, while the other half looks so sad?"

St. Peter flicked his fingers as though turning on a huge screen and Sara saw all that she had done to make these people happy - she gave money to a children's hospital - those children were there hollering Sara, Sara. She touched foreign countries who had no water and furnished thousands of water filters to save the people - they were there cheering, Sara, Sara.

Then she saw - "What's that St. Peter?" she questioned. "That is - well let me show you" and they walked to the other side of the universe - Sara saw sad people, people with tears, older people who looked like they were begging - Sara's heart became very sad. She looked at St. Peter and said, "These people don't need anything, they aren't hungry, they have nice clothes, what's wrong with them?"

"Sara, sit here with me and I'll tell you a story." Sara sat on a cloud with St. Peter and he began. "Sara, remember many many years ago when an elderly lady asked you to help her down the steps, you were on your way to an important meeting where you gave a million dollars to the children's hospital - you said you'd send someone - you never knew it but, she fell and that's why she's here. Then there was this little boy whose book - he was on crutches, you kicked it out of the way of an oncoming car with every intention of picking it up but said it's only a book, he can get another one - he's right by the library - you had special friends to meet - again you were doing a good deed - you were giving money to the library.

Off in the corner sat another group of people, nicely dressed but looking very sad - "and who are they?" Sara questioned. "Oh - oh those are the people who brought you a cup of coffee, picked up after you left the office, ordered your food - when you were busy." "They look nicely dressed, I must have paid them well" - "Oh you did, you just forgot to ever say Thank You. Words mean more than money."

As Sara stared across the universe she saw little tiny things she didn't do that could have made a huge impact on others. Sara began to sob - all those people I could have loved but chose to - - -

Rinnning - alarm went off Sara sat up in bed, smiled, jumped out of bed to the smell of Grandma's yummy eggs, kissed her and - - -

Your choice what are all the tiny things you can do to bring a smile to someone's face?

Reflections on the Words of Life

By Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

We saw last time how King Belshazzar was transformed from an arrogant blasphemer of the living God, to a terrified, weak man desperately trying to learn the meaning of the handwriting that had appeared on the wall. He turned to the astrologers and soothsayers in his kingdom for answers, but once again we see the failure of the world's wisdom. Revelation from God was foreign to these magicians. Their magic and astrology were useless. 1 Corinthians 2:14: "But a natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually appraised."

In Daniel 5:9, we see the despair of the ungodly: "Then King Belshazzar was greatly alarmed, his face grew even paler, and his nobles were perplexed." The "great people" of Babylon have no answers, no hope, and can only sit in terror and alarm. The revelry of their drinking party is over.

This scene is a fulfillment of the warning of Isaiah, who prophesied the ultimate humiliation of Babylon in Isaiah 47:10-11, "And you felt secure in your wickedness and said, 'No one sees me,' your wisdom and your knowledge, they have deluded you; for you have said in your heart, 'I am, and there is no one besides me.' But evil will come on you which you will not know how to charm away; and disaster will fall on you for which you cannot atone, and destruction about which you do not know will come on you suddenly."

What we have seen here about Belshazzar is in stark contrast to what we find about Daniel in verses 10-12. Interestingly, this testimony comes from an unlikely source, the queen mother: "The queen entered the banquet hall because of the words of the king and his nobles; the queen spoke and said, 'O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts alarm you or your face be pale. There is a man in your kingdom in whom is a spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father, illumination, insight, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods were found in him. And King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, your father the king, appointed him chief of the magicians, conjurers, Chaldeans, and diviners. This was because an extraordinary spirit, knowledge and insight, interpretation of dreams, explanation of enigmas, and solving of difficult problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Let Daniel now be summoned, and he will declare the interpretation."

Daniel, who at one time was a very highly esteemed man in Babylon, had been largely forgotten. But there is one woman who remembers his great deeds. She refers to Daniel here in typical heathen fashion, as one "in whom is a spirit of the holy gods." Not knowing the true God herself, she does not realize that it is the Holy Spirit who indwells Daniel. Yet, what comes through to her is the fact that Daniel is different, that there is something supernatural about him.

Friends, the queen could not describe Daniel in Biblical language, but she saw the qualities of Christ in him. She saw his godliness, integrity, and humility. Oh, may this cause those of us who are believers in Christ to pause and consider whether those around us see something of the character of Jesus Christ in our lives. May God enable us to let our lights so shine before men, that glory will be given to God. He wants those who represent Him to tell others about Him. Like Daniel, we can warn the world of coming judgment. But we can also point people to the only One who can deliver them from judgment. We can tell them how Jesus humbled Himself and came to pay the ransom price to redeem us from our sins. We can tell them that if they will believe on Him, they too can have everlasting life.

Look at all the services our communities have to offer.

"Weather the Storm"

By Don Taskila - Regent, ND

"Weather The Storm", continue to seek rest and direction in God's Light [HIS Bright Radiance; Hope; and Positive Outlook] will move *Your-Life FORWARD. Remember God's SON [JESUS - Our "Savior"] will deliver and will help to rescue *You through Life's evil forces and DARKNESS during present hardships. I like to think that God's Light also brings knowledge to "Us", to find those new beginnings that He means for "Us" to experience.

Stay "Spirited", and strive Everyday to build *Yourself "Full of Energy" again; allowing only a minimum of physical and emotional pain, as *You look on the other side [the brighter side] with God's Light. Try 1st to feel a sense of Joy in *Yourself again. Safely navigate with Faith; "Weather The Storm". Then, as *You begin to feel BETTER [slowly over time], try to extend [express] Joy outward to those around *You: including Family, Friends, and Strangers too. We All welcome a "Hand

UP" [Encouragement] to climb onto a higher place of happiness [Joy] within ourselves. Try to make each day a day that *You enjoy; then share it- pass it on. Succeed in renewing *Yourself [getting through] a very difficult period in *Your Life.

Seemingly, we can not forever escape from The Storms of This Earthly Life, but with God's Light, we can learn to calmly stand up to them. It always takes courage to "Weather The Storm", and I think wisdom has to come so *We see God's Light. I also know that it takes a Mountain of Patience within *Our Selves to wait for Life's Meanings to ever get back to some kind of Right-Feelings again.

With Christ, we can "Weather The Storm" . - Psalm 107:29: "He made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed."

Closing NOTE: I am not trying to deliver a sermon here, but I am a Believer- who [like *You] has known hardships also.

Be proud
By Kathy Craigo- Harteis

Our country is ever changing. What was once simple and innocent tends today to be complicated and guilt ridden. So many people are unfairly judged. Life in 2022 is a challenge at best. Still, if we dig deep we can remember the pride we once had in our country and in our fellow citizens. I'm proud of who we are. We are a nation that has stepped up when needed. We don't always (hardly ever) agree on many things. Yet there are still among us those who remember. We remember the men and women who fought for our freedoms. For that reason we should never take for granted the price others paid for that freedom. Nor should we abuse or manipulate that freedom for our own gain. I get so angry when I see that abuse. No one deserves more than anyone else. My opinion is that we need to earn what we get. I have worked my whole life. It was how I was raised. If you want it, earn it. I have seen lean times. I've wondered how I could buy milk or food, but never did it occur to me to ask for Welfare. The system is there to help but it is not meant to be an ongoing source of income. I believe in God and Country. I stand for the pledge of alliance. I know that God will protect me and mine. I need only ask. The key is prayer and action. Sometimes God wants us to do our part. As we celebrate Independence Day we need to remember, to be grateful and continue to do our part. The responsibility belongs to all of us to make our nation strong. I am proud to be an American. Life is good today.

Thoughts for the week

by June Schmidt

A post that appeared on facebook in the last couple of weeks goes like this: Years ago we were kinder. Everybody looked out for one another. We need to go back to that. We gotta do better at looking out for each other instead of tearing each other down.

I believe that statement to be the truth right now. Sad to say there are more people concerned with their own self needs and less for others. The current trend is 'what's in it for me' rather than what can I do to get along with others. We had a president once that said: 'Ask not what your Country can do for you, but what you can do for your Country'. Now we see people on the news and social media saying the Government needs to do this and pay for that with no consequence where the money comes from. What does this say about our future?

In a State like North Dakota we are somewhat isolated from the true conditions that many live in these days. We still have neighbors looking out for others and there are still some people that volunteer to help others, but that is changing here as well. Just look around at the number and age of the volunteers even in our own community and the age of many of those volunteers increases each year. Witness the fact that there are not enough volunteers to man the Ambulance Service and a Paramedic has been hired to cover some of the shifts. Organizations that used to be big here are reduced to just a few members and some have completely disappeared, such as the JayCees who used to have a large group of members. And where are the people that used to live in the small towns? Moving to larger towns mostly where they become more isolated from their neighbors and less inclined to volunteer, being more concerned with their own lives and activities.

As the older generation passes away or moves into nursing homes or assisted living arrangements, there are less opportunities to gather as a family. Several times a year becomes once or maybe twice a year and dwindles away to just memories. Friends that spent time together because of their children being friends, grow apart when those children go to school or move away for their own lives and so on it goes. Such is life, but in that change of life comes inevitable decline of the current life that we lead. Will we let that leave because we feel we cannot stop it or do we just stand by and allow it to happen without fighting for it? If you have family that you spend time with remember that it takes effort to keep in touch with them. We don't always agree with what our family does or believes in, but they are the family we have been given, and barring serious situations, sometimes we just have to overlook those things. If we choose to let those family connections fade away, they will and maybe they will never come back again. Is it worth that?

What I guess I am trying to say is that we are people that need connections to others. It may be that the connections are family, or maybe they are friends, right or wrong. It does not do us good to harbor hurts and slights as these generally turn into pain and suffering for us as well. If we want to be healthy in our own minds, we need to look around and see what we can fix in our lives, and maybe by fixing that we will fix something in another life and maybe what is wrong in our Country as well. We can only try. God Bless you all and God Bless our Country on this 4th of July weekend.

They became members of the Lemmon Senior Center and Ed loved to visit and play cards. He was also a founding member of the Coal Springs Antique Club.

LaDonna R. Schatz
Rites To Be Held

LaDonna R. Schatz, age 84 of Elgin passed away on Saturday, July 2, 2022, at Jacobson Memorial Care Center in Elgin.

The Memorial Service for LaDonna will be held at 11:00am MT Saturday, July 9, 2022 at Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church in Elgin with Pastor Allen Finger, officiating.

A gathering of friends and family will be held on Friday evening July 8, 2022 at 7:00pm at Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church in Elgin.

The family of LaDonna

Schatz warmly invites you to dine with them after inurnment of ashes at Bethesda Methodist Cemetery in Elgin.

Honorary Bearers are Beth and Joe Quinn, Lindsay and Ryan Borlaug, Abby and Dylan Berger, Jordan and Mark Bresnahan, Jacey Mayer, Madelyn, Molly, Maggie and Mae Jennings, along with great grandchildren: Amelia, Anna and James Quinn and Paxton, Pike and Presley Borlaug.

LaDonna Rose Barbara (Skalsky) Schatz was born December 18, 1937 in Glen Ullin, ND to Elizabeth (Fibiger) and Frank Skalsky, Sr. She attended Catholic school and graduated from Glen Ullin High School.

She was united in marriage to Kenneth Schatz on March 25, 1956, in Glen Ullin. In 1957, LaDonna and Kenneth moved to their farmstead near Lake Tschida in Elgin, ND. Over the years on the farm, LaDonna had a large garden and helped everyday milking cows, feeding calves, and taking care of her cats and dogs.

LaDonna, better known as Donna, loved to read and play cards with family, her favorite games being Hand and Foot (no cheating Kay!) and Queens. In her earlier years, she refinished furniture, embroidered, and crocheted. Donna crocheted blankets for every one of her children and grandchildren. Donna was active in the United Methodist Church, enjoyed bible study and fellowship.

Everyone who knew Donna, knew that she enjoyed cleaning, dusting away every Saturday afternoon, and dancing a good jig to Don Williams and Neil Sedaka. Her house was spotless, and everyone knew that the five second rule never applied at Grandma's house. In her later years, Donna read books and more books, plus doing puzzles, and finishing a good Find a Word.

She leaves behind her four children: Kirby (JoAnn) Schatz of Elgin, Kerry Schatz and significant other Shannan Senger of Hazen, Kay (Monty) Mayer of Hazen and Kelly (Mark) Jennings of Washburn. Her nine beautiful granddaughters, Dr. Bethanie (Joe) Quinn of Hastings, MN, Lindsay (Ryan) Borlaug of Hazen, Abby (Dylan) Berger of Bismarck, Jordan (Mark) Bresnahan of Grand Forks, Jacey Mayer of Dickinson, Madelyn, Molly, Maggie, and Mae Jennings of Washburn along with great grandchildren, Amelia, Anna, and James Quinn of Hastings, MN and Paxton, Pike and Presley Borlaug of Hazen, ND.

LaDonna was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth, her parents Elizabeth and Frank three-and-a-half-year battle with cancer.

Katie's Mass of Christian Burial was held at 10 a.m., Friday, July 8, 2022 at St. Vincent's Catholic Church, Mott, with Fr. Christopher Kadmas as the celebrant and Fr. Thomas Wordenkemper, OSB concelebrating, and assisted by Deacon Dave Crane. Interment took place at St. Stephen's Cemetery, south of Richardton. Visitation was held on Thursday from 8 a.m.

to 12 p.m., at Ladbury Funeral Service, Dickinson, Thursday from 3 p.m., to 7 p.m., at St. Vincent's Catholic Church, and continued one hour prior to the Mass on Friday at the church. There was a rosary and vigil at 7 p.m., Thursday at St. Vincent's Catholic Church.

Katie was born on March 4, 1990, to James and Patty (Lantz) Thomas of Mott. She was the youngest of four children and her arrival into the world was joyously celebrated by the members of her family who knew that another girl was needed on the farm. She was raised on the family farm, and from an early age, had a special talent for caring for animals. She spent many summers nursing kittens back to health and building live traps to catch mice and release them back into the wild. This affinity for animals was apparent as she would spend hours pretending to be the family dog, rather convincingly, and would also persuade her parents and grandparents to purchase rabbits, ducks, geese, pigs, and horses to add to the herd. Her talents really shined when it came time to work cattle. She looked forward to these days, was always ready to give shots or tags, and never shied away from a sick or injured animal who needed help. Even as her health declined, she continued to care for cattle and horses together with Tanner, and in her last two weeks on Earth, she rescued kittens for her daughter.

When she was not with animals, Katie used her big imagination. Growing up on the farm was never boring with Katie. A stick could be a toy, if it was a "coo-coo" stick that made you see stars. A sandbox could be a kitchen if your cooking show was filmed there. A back yard could be a theater, and a tractor could be a carnival ride. In many of these fun times, music was involved as Katie had a talent for singing and playing instruments. If it was time for a "dance party," cleaning out the shop was not such a terrible chore. She shared these gifts with her daughters, shopping at the basement "grocery store" and building Barbie mansions.

As she grew up, Katie's love for music led her to be a part of the high school band and choir, succeeding in many music competitions. At Dickinson State University, she studied music and participated in the Marching Band, Concert Band, and Concert Choir. In her time at DSU, she worked in the financial aid office, making many lasting friendships. She was also a gifted athlete, enjoying tough volleyball matches, and even took down some vicious competitors in a ping-pong, corn hole, or Spike ball game or two.

In high school, she met her husband, Tanner, and they were married on October 1, 2011. They welcomed five children together and raised them on their farm north of Mott, spending time outdoors gardening and taking care of animals as she loved. She enjoyed entertaining, cooking, baking, playing cards and working side-by-side with Tanner on the ranch. Family and friends were extremely important to her. She fought to be here for her family and loved being a stay-at-home mom. People who knew Katie can already see so many of her wonderful qualities living on in her daughters.

Throughout her life, Katie's strong faith has been an inspiration to us all. She put prayer first and, especially in the years of illness, she would gather those around her and confidently lead prayers. Hospital visitors were not allowed to leave without joining together with her in prayer. She will forever be loved and missed.

Katie is survived by her husband Tanner; daughters, Ruth, Rebekah, Sarah, and Elizabeth; parents James and Patty; brother, Matthew Thomas; sister and brother-in-law, Bridget (Thomas) and Josh Greff and their children, Allison, Violet and Hannah; and brother and sister-in-law, Nathan and Jamie (Meier) Thomas and their children, Jaycia, Lincoln, Lyam, and Jamison; mother-in-law and father-in-law, Tom and Sherry Kautzman; sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Alyssa and Joao Attuati; sister-in-law and brother-in-law, MaLynn and Josiah Billock; grandmother and grandfather-in-law; Ed and Marcy Kautzman; grandmother and grandfather-in-law; Art and Carol Wolf; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Kaye Sehn
Rites Held
Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated on Thursday, July 7th, at 2PM at Corpus Christi

Church (1919 N 2nd St) in Bismarck. The Rite of Committal followed at St. Mary's Cemetery (N 23rd St & E Ave D) and fellowship after at Corpus Christi Parish Hall.

Kay was born on October 17th, 1955 in Mohall, ND. Her parents Marylou and Lynn raised six children with Kay being the 3rd in line. Her childhood was full of love and laughter including the adventures of farm life, small town school spirit, all things music, weekends at Lake Metigoshe, and bonding with her brothers and sister. After high school, Kay went to Minot State University and earned her degree in medical technology. Her career took her to Bismarck where she worked at St. Alexius Hospital and met her dear friend Renée and eventually Renée's brother Kevin, who she married on November 24, 1979.

Kay and Kevin had three children, Matthew, Stephanie and Michelle. After their 2nd child, Kay left her job to dedicate her life to her family. Her greatest passion in life was her husband and kids. She was the glue, the rock, the constant source of unconditional love that made the family grow stronger as each year passed. Eventually, Kay found herself in a new career endeavor supporting Kevin in the creation of an earth moving business, Sand Creek Corporation. She was thrilled for this opportunity because it not only afforded stability for her family, but it allowed her to work from home and continue to do all things for her family. This was a challenge for Kay because dirt work was out of her typical wheelhouse, but she took on the challenge like she did all things in life, with a positive attitude and God by her side. Even though Kay and Kevin retired, Sand Creek lives on through their son Matthew.

Kay loved people. While family was everything to her, it wasn't uncommon for her to strike up a conversation in the line at the grocery store, make a lifelong friend at therapy appointments, or encourage another person with a simple smile or touch. Part of her love for people included helping them. She was always the person to

A Little Birdie Told Me.

A Little Birdie Told Me

By: Vivian Hernandez

A Little Birdie Told Me: "If You Head East on Highway 20 Just South of Buffalo, SD You Will See Some Amazing Rock Formations." Following my visit to Buffalo, SD last week my next destination was The Reva Store. As I traveled east of Highway 20 I came across The Custer National Forest and the Reva Gap Campground. It was a beautiful day so I turned off the highway to check out the campground. The road is gravel, well maintained with several primitive campsites tall pines provide a lovely setting for camping enthusiasts. As I ventured on, the majestic Battleship Rock formations of Custer National Forest were stunning against the blue summer sky. Another side trip the Battle of Slim Buttes Memorial a sad day for Native Americans as their village was discovered on September 9,1876 and attacked by the Calvary.

Finally I arrived at the Reva

Store, owned by Vince & Collette Tift for the past 3 years. The Reva Store has quite a history it was first opened in 1896 and burned to the ground twice: Finding its permanent home in the 1920's. The Reva Store is home to a small grocery store, Post Office, 24 hour card-trol gas, veterinarian supplies, soft-serve ice cream, pizza and more: The Reva Community Hall & Turtle Back Bar complete the Reva Store.

Reva is home to the Turtle Races held every 4th Sunday in July for 46 years! Last year some 300 turtles competed in the races, there's no age limit on the contestants or the turtles. Following the festivities a pot-luck supper is held for all participants and visitors.

I enjoyed a large bowl of soft-serve ice cream and was back on the trail east to Prairie City & Bison, that's a story for another day.

A Little Birdie Told Me: "Take a Day to Discover the Beauty of the Slim Buttes and Enjoy a Bowl of Ice Cream at the Reva Store."
