Zentner House Moving of Mott, removes old building on Main Street Mott, ND - housed Reiny's Shoe Shop and thru the years several other businesses.

Jeffery picked up his cell phone- should I, shouldn't I - - maybe tomorrow, closed his eyes and went back to sleep - - didn't have to work today - - again he heard the ring - - turned over - - kept ringing - - picked it up - - only words of "I'm sorry," registered.

Wide awake by now, Jeffrey shook his head, must be a bad dream, can't be real, was going to see him last weekend, Fathers Day, didn't go -- now he's gone - can't be - - and Jeffrey sat on the edge of the bed.

After minutes, which seemed like hours, Jeffrey called his sister - - "is it real, did you get the same phone call I did?" Questions, questions without answers -- "Meet you at Mom and Dads" and hung up - -pack, call office - - thoughts ran rampant through his brain - - finally on his way only then did he remember his Father telling him about a secret door he had found and wanted to show Jeffrey - - "but I was too busy" and he pulled over to the side of the road and allowed the tears to flow.

Arrangements made, funeral service over, Jeffrey then spoke to Mom about Father's secret door. Mom knew not a thing about it but questioned heavily, wanting to know more. All Jeffrey could say was "he told me he wanted to show me a secret door he had found. Several times he would begin to tell me about it but I would say "Maybe tomorrow Dad, Maybe tomorrow."

Guess now it's too late, "I'll never be able to find that secret door - anyway I'm sure it was just his imagination - - "Maybe tomorrow" and kissed his Mom and sister their goodbyes, climbed into his car and back to his real life - - work, pleasure, normal.

Cards, condolences were received for the next few weeks - - talking about his father helped but nights were nightmares - - he kept hearing check the secret door and his dreams were filled with running away. Fear mounted and he realized he had been running from fear all his life.

As he started acknowledging his fears, he slept more peacefully, but the nerving feeling stayed - secret door. Talking to his Mom and sister gave no answers except - - come home and look for it -- which he did - -.

He looked everywhere - - the barn, the hen house, the attic, the basement - - even an old root cellar his grandfather had built many years ago -- but he found nothing. "Guess there really wasn't a secret door anywhere" he told his Mom. "Guess I'll go home tomorrow - - dad must have just - - well you know - -.

That night, tossing and turning Jeffrey found his secret door. He looked through the keyhole - - amazed at what he saw, opened the door and - - -.

We all have a secret door that needs to be opened but "Maybe Tomorrow."

Life moves on - every good deed you do is passed from one generation to another. You may not notice how our one small smile may affect someone else; or how one small deed will last a life time. Obituaries, history are all parts of our life. May we as small communities continue supporting and passing on our memories to each other - - this week especially when we see fireworks for sale - - signs of our freedom preserved - fought for and cherished by our grandparents, parents. May our communities continue to grow and cherish each other - we do live in the best part of the world.

Reflections on the Words of Life
by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

We left the prophet Jonah sulking in anger as he waited to see what would happen to Nineveh; while at the same time joyful over the plant that the Lord had prepared to shade him. But his joy was short-lived. For in Jonah 4:7 we read, "But as morning dawned the next day God prepared a worm, and it so damaged the plant that it withered." So Jonah barely had time to enjoy the shade of the plant before it was gone. God prepared a little weevil, as the original Hebrew reads, to eat the root of the plant, withering it and leaving Jonah to feel the full impact of the scorching heat.

Friends, this is a reminder to us not to put confidence in our earthly comforts which God has so graciously given. The same God can easily remove them. And if so, we should respond like Job who said, "The Lord gives and the Lord takes away; blessed be the name of the Lord." How foolish to put confidence in the good things of this world. How quickly circumstances can change. Sickness and losses can come suddenly without warning. It only takes "a little worm," unseen and seemingly insignificant, to change everything.

The man in Jesus' parable who had such a bumper crop that he tore down his barns and built bigger ones was most unwise. He assumed he would have many years to enjoy prosperity. However, as Jesus taught in Luke 12:20, "But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul will be required of you; then whose will those things be which you have provided?'" Our lives, says Scripture, are but a vapor—here today and gone tomorrow.

In verse 8 things become even worse for Jonah: "And it happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he grew faint. Then he wished death for himself, and said, 'It is better for me to die than to live.'" After preparing the plant and the worm, God has a third appointee: the wind. The fierce wind and beating sun caused Jonah to become faint, which probably means sunstroke. Being out of tune with God, Jonah repeats his request to die. We recall that he expressed a death wish back in verse three. His rationale there was that God's ways were, in his estimation, unreasonable. Why should God spare the wicked Ninevites, Israel's enemies? But here, Jonah has become preoccupied with himself. Just when he thought he was the object of God's favor, that sign of favor is removed, and he has a small taste of God's judgment. Having lost the plant that made his life tolerable, he sinks into despair. Jonah should have told himself, "My nice plant may be gone, but my God is not gone. And still having Him, I have all that I need." When the believer is out of step with the Lord, even little difficulties are magnified and seem unbearable.

How foolish for people to ask for death because they do not like their current circumstances, perhaps circumstances they themselves have created. We need to have the attitude of Paul who, though he believed dying and being with the Lord was "far better" than remaining in this world, had the attitude that whatever the Lord wanted for him would be best (Philippians 1:21-26).

Friends, I have heard many people say of a deceased person that he or she is in a better place, much better off now. That is true ONLY if the person was a believer in Christ. If we go out of this life the way we come into it—under God's wrath—we enter unimaginable suffering that will last forever. So please be sure that you are trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ alone to make you right with God. That is the only way we can have forgiveness, peace with God, and eternal life in heaven.

Dear God, Is It True...
A Sunday School teacher shares these notes her students wrote to God.

Dear God: Maybe Cain and Abel wouldn't have killed each other so much if the had their own rooms. That's what my Mom did for me and my brother.

Dear God: If you watch me in church on Sunday, I'll show you my new shoes.

Dear God: I bet it is very hard for you to love all of everybody in the whole world. There are only ve people in my family, and I'm having a hard time loving all of them.

Dear God: In school they told us what you do. Who does it when you're on vacation?

Dear God: Are you really invisible or is it just a trick?

Dear God: Is it true that my father won't get into Heaven if he uses his bowling words in the house?

Dear God: Thank you for the baby brother, but I prayed for a puppy.

Dear God: Please send me a pony. I've never asked for anything before, you can look it up.

Dear God: You don't have to worry about me. I always look both ways.

Dear God: Of all the people who work for you, I like Noah and David the best.

Dear God: My brother told me about how babies are made and how they're born. I doesn't sound right to me, was he kidding?

Dear God: I would like to live 900 years, just like the guy in the Bible.

Dear God: We read Thomas Edison made light. But in Sunday School, they said you did it. I bet he stole your ideas.

Dear God: Did you mean for the giraffe to look like that, or was it an accident?

Dear God: Who draws the lines around the countries?

Dear God: I went to a wedding, and they kissed right in church. Is that okay?

The successful man will profit from his mistakes and try again in a different way.

Don't just let your business or your job make something for you, let it make something of you.

A couple of weeks ago, I wrote about my nostalgia for fig bars. And, this past Monday, one of the EIDO readers (my neighbor's mom) stopped by our law office to commiserate and bring me some great fresh figs. Thank you! So, don't take today's article as a solicitation for anything but, this past Sunday, I noticed another post-COVID anomaly when I tried to buy some fresh fruit up in Dickinson. I mean I don't want to sound like a wuss but, aren't melons supposed to be soft and sweet? I never ate pre-pandemic, natural produce that actually crunched when you bit into it except for, maybe, apples. So, what's up with that? I mean, it ain't like we're spending less money for an inferior product or anything!

In school, I was taught that harvesting out-of-season actually led to produce being covered in chemicals and preservatives by growers to increase shelf-life while ripening artificially. We were also told that such chemicals and gases emitted during that process actually caused vitamins and micronutrients to break down, resulting in less nutritious food. So, if that's the

by

Pat Merriman

Attorneys at Law

David Crane

problem what has happened, since January, 2010, to make that process more acceptable? And, honestly, aren't most of these melons and berries actually "in season" right now, so, is it just that wholesalers and growers are harvesting too early in the shipping process? What gives?

Regardless, a little on-line research reveals that even youtube.com viewers are flummoxed over the sad state of produce right now as there does not appear to be any consensus as to the cause. Everything from the "insane" retail cost of the produce, it's "hit or miss quality" even in the regions where it is grown, speculation as to the supply-chain "crisis" in areas where rail hubs and transportation aren't factors, to pointing fingers at big-box stores, profiteering, and panic-buyers. So, there really isn't any consensus as to the cause and, frankly, it doesn't seem likely that the problem is going away anytime soon. And, if the root cause is, as the NY Times opined on 03/13/2018, "most of America's fruit is now imported...is that a bad thing?"; don't we have a federal FOOD & Drug Administration and Dept. of AGRICULTURE? Just asking. Have a great week!

The best dads

By Kathy Craig Harteis

A lot of people think they had the best dad ever. I don't claim that mine was the best, but I can say he was among the best.

Jim Bowden, my dad, was hard working, both at his job and at showing affection for his family. His faith in God, his teaching by actions guidance helped mold my sister and I to be the women we are now.

Daddy was a self made man. He lacked extensive education but he made up for it with hard work and determination to succeed.

He along with his older brother John owned and operated a successful land leveling business for many years.

Daddy gave all the credit to God. He showed by example the faith he had and his willingness to share with others.

Countless teenagers found acceptance by both Mother and Daddy. They knew our house was a safe place. Our house always seemed to be the gathering spot for our friends.

As the story goes, my dad wanted a son. He had two girls, me being the youngest. My willingness to go to the field with him, work hard or not be afraid to get dirty was the closest he got to having a son.

There was an occasion some years ago when I spent a whole day mowing weeds on an otherwise dirt-filled property of my folks'. At the end of the day I was dirty, hot and sweaty. But, I was happy. I felt my dad's presence with me the whole time. I felt as if he was watching and cheering me on. I felt as if he were proud of me.

Having lived once again in California during the last years of my parents' lives I had opportunities to continue learning life lessons from both of them.

It seems sad to me that it takes us so long to realize the wisdom of our parents.

I have spent many times wishing I could once again ask them questions.

My granddaughter Latrice came for a visit this week. She showed a real interest in learning more about me and my family.

It is a blessing to have the younger generation eager to learn from us. Surprisingly we are now the older, wiser ones. I guess it is true that with age comes wisdom.

Life is good today.

Thoughts for the Week

by June Schmidt

Pride is defined by Merriam-Webster as "reasonable self-esteem" or "confidence and satisfaction in oneself." Oxford defines it as "the quality of having an excessively high opinion of oneself or one's own importance. Lately it appears that pride is front and center for everything. While it is fine to have pride in your accomplishments or pride in your children, are we forgetting that pride is also one of the seven deadly sins? Do we have to wave our pride in what we are and what we have over and above what everybody else has? Since when is our pride more important than everyone else's pride?

Life is a funny thing. We are told by our parents how proud they are of us when we are little when we do something they think is right. We show talent or accomplishment in something and we are showered by compliments and love and we strive to get more of that feeling again and again. It's what drives us to do well. That's not a bad thing as we should take pride in what we do if we do a good job or receive accolades for it, but at what point does pride in what we do turn into selfishness and self absorption? And why is our pride more important than others that we must shout it out to the world on a daily basis? Currently, there is pride this and pride that, and if anyone says anything about these, they are judged automatically wrong without reason or explanation and deemed phobic.

Witness what is happening in sports these days. When a sports player or coach kneels to pray, he is deemed wrong, but when a drag group wants to portray themselves as pseudo nuns and put on a show, that is considered acceptable behavior. Since when does making fun of someone's lifestyle or beliefs acceptable behavior. Do we not know better or are we failing to remember what we were taught when we were young? There have always been those that fly in the face of conventional thought just to make a point or create a sensation, but the majority have then expressed their objections which has hopefully made those people reconsider their actions as unacceptable behavior. However, lately any objection to such behavior has been slow in coming and actually has been crushed by the vocal minority. It is now unacceptable to object to any behavior that we may think of as unacceptable as it may offend the person or persons right to freedom of speech. In fact any objections are overwhelmingly rejected and any person is vilified for speaking those objections. So we have become a population of people who have stopped objecting to anything and now anything goes.

So has this now entered into selfishness? Is what we want more important than what anyone else wants? Do we stop considering what someone else thinks before we act on our thoughts? Are we teaching our children that what they want is more important than what is right? And who is determining what is right? Are the rules different for us now than what they used to be? Pride in the bible is defined as self-worship and self preservation at all costs – and people pleasing is the direct result of pride. Some think people pleasing is a positive trait because they're so clearly concerned with serving others. But if that is true, then that means that whatever people do that makes them happy is right. And we know that that is false as that means hurting others and being unkind because it makes you feel good is right and we all know that is wrong or should know that. It appears that selfish behavior is the result of too much pride and is something that we need to realize has become normalized.

So how do we change the current trend? Realization that it is an unacceptable trend would be first, but that is not a popular statement today. We need to teach our children what is right and what is wrong not only by words but by example. We need to spend more time reinforcing positive behavior and discouraging negative behavior. We need to see people as people and not in terms of groups or stereotypes. No one should be considered as better than anyone else by virtue of talent or money, but by their actions to and for others. Our children need to see that what they do is worthy of pride, but not to the extent that they become 'better than' others. Everyone has a talent in something, so no one should be so full of pride and conceit that they deem themselves over anyone else by virtue of that talent. Can we change the future? It is yet to be determined as unless people are willing to change, it may not happen and reinforcing bad behavior by not objecting to it can only create more of the same. God Bless us All.

Cloud Seeding Operations Summary for June 12-18, 2023

BISMARCK, N.D. - Wide-spread rains of one-half to one inch fell over southwestern North Dakota during the middle of last week. Conditions were not favorable for cloud seeding operations due to the embedded nature of the rainfall.

In the District 1 operations area, which includes Bowman and part of Slope Counties, no flights were flown for seeding operations last week.

An active weather pattern for showers and thunderstorms returns to southwestern North Dakota this week with high temperatures cooling off into the 70s from Tuesday through the coming weekend.

Radar facilities in Bowman operate around the clock during the NDCMP. Radar images can be viewed on the Atmospheric Resource Board's web site at <http://www.swc.nd.gov/arb>. The NDCMP will continue through the end of August.

Expressions of HOPE

Adopted?

by Pastor Ed Kvaale
Bowman Assembly Of God Church

Adoption is near and dear to my wife and I. Both of our children have been adopted as infants; even though I daresay most would not think that is if we did not share the fact. But the adoption I would like to talk about as we celebrated Father's Day this year is the Holy Spirit adopting each follower of Jesus into the family of God. The Book of Romans begins by laying out sinful humanity's problem with their relationship with God without Jesus. Paul then goes on to say in Romans 8:15 that for all those who follow Jesus: "For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!"

Jesus welcomes all into the family of God. No one is too young, old, hurt, broken, or sinful to be welcomed into Jesus' family and His extended family, the church. Talking about family systems can be difficult. However, whether we come from a stable home or one with more stress than we would like to remember, Jesus is offering us a family life which is truly unique. In Romans 10:9-10 the Apostle Paul will say, "Because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved". It is by grace through faith alone we are saved; we do not have to earn our way into the family of God. We can freely receive God's free gift of grace, by asking and believing that He has done all the work for us! Not only that but we receive a tremendous inheritance. Just read Ephesians 1-3 and see how Jesus wants us to participate in the blessings of the church (the family of God) no matter what our background has been. We only need to be in Christ. We do not have to wait to be adopted, anxious and uncertain, like children who sometimes feel trapped in the foster care system. No, we just need to come to Jesus and He will take us into His family. Yes, He will call us to grow in emulating Jesus and welcome those He has welcomed into the family too. I am so thankful Jesus adopted me, when I was, as Scripture says, "still a sinner". Let us make the churches of Bowman and Slope County places where people are being adopted and welcomed into the family of God!

The two most powerful forces in the world are love and prayer. Use them!

14' by 40" long livestock shelters. The runners are 5 1/2" in diameter. The upright posts are 5" in diameter being 8' on one side and 10' on the other. All lumber is douglas fir and is connected to posts with two 3/8" carriage bolts. The outside sheets of steel are 29 gauge. These were primarily built with livestock in mind, but would make great two full sized vehicles garages, shops or just general storage. Total weight of the shelter is estimated to be 5 tons.

70th Year of the North Dakota High School Rodeo Finals

(BOWMAN, ND) – Bowman Area Chamber of Commerce hosted the 70th North Dakota High School Rodeo Finals (NDHSRF) in Bowman June 7-11, 2023. This event has been hosted in Bowman for over 30 years. Students from across the state work throughout their season to qualify for the state finals in hopes to qualify for the national competition. The week starts off with Rifle and Trap Shoot, Cutting Performances, and Reining Performances, and over the course of the weekend there are the main five rodeo performances. The grandstands fill at the excitement of the top high school cowboys and cowgirls. The rodeo weekend is complete with concessions, vendors, and commemorative clothing. This event would not be possible in Bowman without the support of local businesses. Performance sponsors include Bowman Sales and Service, Professional Autobody, Dakota Western Bank, Dakota Community Bank & Trust, West Plains, Inc., Frontier Travel Center, and Dakota West Credit Union.

Congratulations to the Champions in the following events: Bare-

CHAPTER TWO

The hay was cut and lay in long windrows across the field. It had rained the night before, leaving the alfalfa too damp to bale. James was driving the tractor that pulled the sweep rake. Every row had to be turned so the hay could dry out. James was multi-tasking. This ground was where George Custer and company had camped on their way to Montana in 1876. The hay would be neatly raked leaving the ground visible, so James was looking ahead to be sure he was keeping the rows straight, looking behind to make sure the rows were straight and checking the ground as the tractor passed over it in case the rake brought up something left by Custer and Company. Even knowing how many times people had gone over this field, he was hopeful that he would find something, someday. The rake made a clinking sound. James looked back just long enough to make the windrow crooked. He kept moving until he noticed that the rake was leaving a thin row of hay that didn't get in the wind-row.

"Shoot!" He shifted the tractor into neutral and let it stop. He jumped to the ground and went around behind the rake. A snarl of hay was caught between the spindles. He started pulling the hay out. There was something else in there. After scraping his hands and getting poked by the other spindles, he could see the remnants of ...something. It was in the ground. The leather part looked old, rotten and fragile. Something said to him, don't pull on it.

He shut off the tractor and ran to the shop that was about five hundred yards away. He got a spade and started back when he saw Dan'l coming and his little sister with him. They met at the gate.

"Hey!" Dan'l shouted, "Where're you going?"

"I found something," James shouted as he kept on going, "Come on!"

Kadee, blond and spritely, ran ahead of him and got to the tractor first.

"What's going on, Dan'l?" James asked, "Are you baby-sitting?"

"That's what I got for leaving her pony at the cattleguard. I get to drag her around with me for two weeks."

"Could be worse, you know? At least she ain't ugly."

"I guess it depends on who's looking," Dan'l said, "What did you find?"

"I don't know yet. It came up with the rake and it's buried. It's old and I don't want to pull on it in case it falls apart. I'm gonna dig it up."

"I guess I better start out away from it," James said as he pushed the spade in the ground with his booted foot.

"Nothing here," he said as he moved to another spot. He pushed the spade down and loosened the dirt. Kadee bent over and picked whatever-it-was out of the hole and handed it to James with a sneaky little smile on her lips.

"What is it?" Dan'l asked.

James turned it over and over in his hands. "Don't know."

They looked up when they heard a truck coming into the yard and stopping in front of the shop. James' dad got out and looked at the kids in the field.

He pulled off his hat and scratched his sweaty head. He said to Caroline, "Well, he must not be broke down. You don't fix a rake with a spade."

James, Dan'l and Kadee left the field and went to the shop with the whatever-it-was. James laid it on the work bench and his dad examined it.

"What is it?"

"Don't know. It's not any part of a harness that I know of. Look at this brass button. It says U.S. ARMY."

James pointed to a square of metal. "Is that part of a buckle?"

"Pretty rusty, but I'd say yes," Paul said as he scratched off some dirt. "Look James, I don't know much about this stuff, but your grandfather might. How much more hay do you have to turn over?"

"Maybe a third of the field."

"Well, this, whatever-it-is has lain there for about 75 years. When you get that field done, you can take it up to Gramps." And he walked to the house.

Donald Dale Wiesinger Rites

Donald Dale Wiesinger was born on June 15th, 1945, to parents Oscar and Marvina Wiesinger in Lemmon, South Dakota. He graduated from Lemmon High School in 1963.

Following graduation, he enlisted in the Navy and served for 4 years, including 2 tours of duty in Vietnam in 1966 and 1967 on board the USS Worden. While in the Navy, Don was a radar man. He was honorably discharged at the rank of Petty Officer 3rd class. For his time in service, he was awarded the Vietnam Campaign Medal, the Vietnam Service Medal, the National Defense Medal, and a Good Conduct Medal. After he was discharged from the Navy, he returned to the family ranch outside of Lemmon to work with his father. In 1972, he moved to Southern California and began working as a carpenter, where he remained for more than 45 years until his retirement. In 2020, Don moved to Maury City, TN, to be near his kids, several grandchildren, and a great grandson. Don was a man of many talents.

His hobbies included playing rhythm guitar and bass guitar, as well as several other instruments. He enjoyed repairing and improving various stringed instruments in his spare time.

He passed away on November 29, 2022, while surrounded by his loving family in his home.

He is survived by his wife Chris Wiesinger, of Maury City, TN; three daughters, Charlotte Curl (Keith), Karla Thompson, and Amanda Roy, all of Bells, TN; seven grandchildren, Kyle Wiesinger-Thompson (Elita), Mariah Thompson-Orozco (Frank), Alex Thompson-Hughes (Matthew), Adam Curl, Hannah Curl, Jackson Roy, and Alyssa Roy; one Great Grandson, Sora John Hughes; one brother, Ed (Maxann) Wiesinger, of Shadehill, SD; one sister, Donna Havens, of Sioux Falls, SD. He is also survived by a daughter by marriage Lisa Cunningham of Appleton, WI, granddaughter Ashley Reynolds, grandson Chris Trujillo (Shauna) and their children Robin, Amira and Kalista; 3 nieces and nephews and families. And finally, he is survived by his lifelong best friend, Carl Slaughter of Delaware, whose friendship remained steadfast throughout all the trials and triumphs of his life.

He is preceded in death by his parents and two sons-in-law: Manny Thompson and John "Tripp" Roy III.

Memorial services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, June 28, 2023 at the Spencer Memorial Presbyterian Church in Lemmon, SD.

The Memorial Service will be livestreamed on the website www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com and can be viewed by going to Donald's obituary and clicking on "View Funeral Service Here".

Rites Held for Linda Ann Blees

Linda Ann (Kalina) Blees, 79, passed away on Thursday, May 4th while under Hospice care at Augusta Place in Bismarck, ND.

Memorial Services for Linda were held in Bowman, ND at the Bowman Methodist church on Friday, June 23rd at 11:00 a.m. There was a Family and Friends Service on Thursday, June 22, 2023 at the Bowman Methodist Church beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Arrangements by Krebsbach & Kulseth Funeral Services in Bowman.

Linda Ann (Kalina)Blees, age 79, formerly of Bowman passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 4th, 2023 under Hospice Care at Augusta Place in Bismarck, ND after a recent illness.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, June 23rd at 11am at the United Methodist Church in Bowman. A friends and family service will take place on Thursday, June 22nd at 7pm at the United Methodist Church.

Linda was born December 3rd, 1943 in Bowman, the first of four children to Ben and Myla (Jorgenson) Kalina. She was a 1961 graduate of Bowman High School and attended one quarter at DSC. She then moved to Minneapolis to work. Linda married her former classmate, best friend and love of her life Terrence (Terry) Blees on June 5th 1965 and they made their home on the Blees farm north of Bowman. She worked at the Gateway restaurant and later as the Bowman High School secretary for 30 years while raising their two sons, Paul and Jeff. She was very involved in their farm and ranch operation, caring for dairy and beef cows, chickens, and sheep as well as helping with crop farming as needed. Linda always grew a large garden and loved plants and flowers of all kinds, especially the wild crocuses growing in the pastures near her home. She had a passion for reading and often had multiple books going at the same time. It is said she had read every book in the Bowman public and school libraries before graduating from high school and also read the dictionary and the Bible from cover to cover.

In November of 2021, Linda moved to Bismarck and resided at Edgewood Vista which allowed her to be closer to family. While there she still considered Bowman her home.

Linda loved her family more than anything. She enjoyed every minute spent with her grandkids teaching them about life on the farm, attending music and sporting events, picking wildflower bouquets, painting stick horses, sharing her love of books, star gazing and planning all sorts of fun adventures. She was so proud of her grand babies, and talked frequently for all to hear of how incredibly smart they were.

Linda had a heart of gold and lived to help and do things for others. She was known to take home bound community members out for meals or make and deliver meals to their homes. She loved to help plan extended family get togethers, make our favorite oatmeal cookies in double and triple batches for snacks on our drives home and welcomed into her home any person or animal in need. Linda had such a love for animals and raised many special pets over the years. She took in a stray dog, Rusty, who turned out to be the perfect companion for her over the last several years.

Linda was survived by her sons, Paul (Lori) and Jeff (Kris) both of Bismarck. Her grandchildren, Jordan (Nicole) Blees, Lincoln, ND and Brett Blees, Bismarck. Megan (Joel) Porter, Nashville, TN, Ryan Blees (Sadie), and Adam Blees, Bismarck. Her great-grandson, August Porter, Nashville.

Her brother, Rich (Dianna) Kalina, Florence, AZ. Her sisters, Jeanette Kalina, Baker MT, and Faye (Rick) Hegg, Ft. Myers, FL. Many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Welcoming her to heaven, are husband, Terry, her parents, Ben and Myla mother and father-in-law Bill and Isabelle (Johnson) Blees, brothers-in-law, Wayne and Gerald Blees, and sisters-in-law Ellen Blees and Pat Netland, nephew Samuel Kurle and many aunts and uncles.

A big thank you to the caring staff at Edgewood Vista, Sanford Health and Augusta Place for the wonderful care and support provided to Linda and her family during this very difficult time.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by Krebsbach and Kulseth Funeral Home in Bowman.

Darwin Oliver Rites Held

Darwin Oliver, age 84, of Lemmon, SD, passed away on Tuesday morning, June 13, 2023 at the Five Counties Nursing Home in Lemmon, SD.

Funeral services for Darwin were held at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, June 21, 2023 at the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Lemmon, SD, with Pastor Spencer Allen officiating. Burial with military honors were held at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday afternoon at the Galloway Cemetery near Meadow, SD.

Visitation was held from 1:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. follow by a friends and family service at 7:00 p.m. all on Tuesday, June 20, 2023 at the Evanson Jensen Funeral Home in Lemmon, SD.

Darwin Herbert Oliver was born on February 23, 1939, in Perkins County, SD, to Dell and Luella (Hyland) Oliver. He grew up on the family ranch near Meadow, SD, attending rural Thompson School through 8th grade and graduating from Lemmon High School in 1957. Following graduation he attended SDSU Ag School in Brookings for two years before enlisting in the Army National Guard where he was stationed in Washington State for one year of training.

He was united in marriage to Arlene Gaaskjolen on September 16, 1962. Their marriage was blessed with four children, Monte, Darin, Ryan and Cody.

Darwin and his father were one of the first ranches in the area to implement Charolais cattle into their operation. He took great pride in growing and improving his new herd, winning numerous awards in local county fairs. While eating a steak, he would always claim he knew whether it was a Charolais or not!

Darwin enjoyed attending his children and grandchildren's events throughout the years, especially the rodeos, his vacations to Yellowstone Park and Branson, MO. If there was a Charolais bull sale anywhere in the western Dakotas, he was probably there, looking for the next best genetics, visiting with old friends and making new ones. And of course, he always enjoyed a good bowl of ice cream.

Darwin had the "unusual" talent of selling raffle tickets. In all of the organizations he was involved in, he was the "Go to Guy" to raise money, leaving home with a pocketful of tickets and returning with a pocketful of cash!

He was very active in the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Steer Inc., Ranchers Camp, Meadow Cemetery Board, Coal Springs Threshing Bee and a longtime member of the S.D. Gideons, Grand River Grazing Association, Lemmon Junior Livestock Show, International Charolais Association and Bratvet-Green American Legion Post #66.

He was called to his eternal home in heaven on Tuesday morning, June 13, 2023, at the Five Counties Nursing Home in Lemmon, SD.

Darwin is survived by his four sons, Monte (Jessie), Darin (Janet), Ryan (Lacey) and Cody; four grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; three sister, Bonita (Gene) Lyon, Darlys Clark and Lynette (Ken) Even; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Arlene; his parents; sister, Della Mae Hatle; brothers-in-law, Ben Clark and Gay Hatle; and Arlene's parents, Garnet and Vergil Gaaskjolen.

A memorial has been established.

Condolences may be sent and the livestream of the funeral viewed at www.evansonjensen-funeralhome.com.

Rites Held for Dean Baesler

Dean Baesler, 84, of Bowman, ND, passed away on June 11, 2023 at the Southwest Healthcare Hospital in Bowman.

Funeral Services for Dean were held on Monday, June 19, 2023 at the Bowman Lutheran Church at 10 am. Burial followed in the Bowman Cemetery. There was a Family and Friends Service on Sunday, June 18, 2023 at the Krebsbach and Kulseth Funeral Home Chapel in Bowman beginning at 7:00 pm.

Don't cry for me for I am free from this body that would not let me do the things that I love. Construction has been my life, early to rise with a thermos of coffee and out the door I would go. Whether it is a Cat, Dozer, or Queen Mary (Ford Cab over truck), I am in my glory hauling loads to Minneapolis, building that road, oil location, hauling dirt, scoria or gravel. In the winter months, plowing snow to open those roads so we can get to and from what we all feel is so very important to us. A good auction where you get a good deal, like the truck that was bought when the cat jumped up on the keyboard or just simply visiting with friends that share the same interests. Music; how I love those polkas and waltzes; especially Molly B on Big Joe Polka Show. You can find me sitting in my chair with the music cranked in my garage sharing the delightful sound with the neighbors and watching the younger kids drive by to find that yes, I do like to listen to my music loud too.

Dean was born on May 10, 1939 the son of Emil and Marie (Stern) Baesler in New Leipzig, ND. Dean received his education to the 8th grade at a country school north of New Leipzig. He lived on the home place where he farmed and ranched for Pauls and neighbors in the area. At the age of 16, Dean worked for Swindler ranching and farming, the Sprecher Coal Mine north of New Leipzig and drove truck for Roehl and Schriock. Dean met Janice Bertsch in 1960 and they were married on December 22, 1962 at the New Leipzig Lutheran Church. To this union 2 children were born; Dawn Diane in 1963 and Darren Dean in 1965. Living in an apartment in Elgin and later moving to Bowman in April of 1963 where Dean worked for Melvin Miller Construction working in the Uranium mine by Ludlow. Later he went on the road hauling grain to Minneapolis with the Queen Mary. He invested into the company in 1968 and later in 1984 bought the Corporation and ran a successful company until selling out in 1988 and then turning around and getting into the construction again but on a smaller scale with his son by his side to help run things. At the age of 71, Dean slowly turned the corporation over to his son Darren and he would continue to check things out to make sure things were being ran like he thought it should be. The one thing he had was a soft spot for his grandkids. He usually showed his love by buying them 4 wheelers, electric scooters, and mopeds. They could probably ask him for about anything and if he found it at an auction or pawnshop he would get it for them. One thing about papa was he loved to give ooh ahh's, couldn't leave papas house without a big ooh ahh.

After losing the love of his life in 2010, who was always by his side in running the company, Dean did meet someone special; Adline Kinney to share his life with for a short time until their health separated them.

Dean is survived by his children; Dawn (Tony) Heick and Darren (Lois) Baesler all of Bowman, grandchildren; Amber Heick of Fargo, Daniel Baesler of Fargo and Matthew Baesler of Bowman, sister, Doris (Clifford) Okken of Arizona, sisters-in-law, Eileen Baesler of New Leipzig and Helen Baesler of Williston, Fran Bertsch and Deb of Omaha, NE and numerous family and friends; and special friend, Adline Kinney.

Dean was preceded in death by his parents Emil and Marie Baesler, wife, Janice Baesler, Brothers Don Baesler, Duane Baesler and infant brother; in-laws, Herman and Annie Bertsch, in-laws Laverne, Steve and Erin Seehafer and Laverne and Mike Stegmiller.

Memorials suggested by the family asking donations to be sent to Bowman Ambulance, Bowman Fire Department, or the Bowman Lutheran Church.

If you don't think Americans trust in God, watch how they drive.

Wordsmith

From research I found that the Chaldeans (residents of Babylon & vicinity) were among the most superstitious people in ancient times. Their many idols, gods and goddesses brought about the downfall of the Israelites. The Israelites looked at all this wealth, power and property and were persuaded to believe that it was because of the gods they worshipped that they had all these things. The consequences of such persuasion was why Jehovah God let them be captured by the Babylonians and exiled to Chaldea. (You like this false religion so much, now you can go live with them.)

The word mare (not horse, silly) is the name they gave to a demon who supposedly caused people to have bad dreams. They imagined that this demon came only at night and had relations with women. Hence, even today, when a person has a bad dream, it is called a night-mare.

Everyone dreams in their sleep, but not everyone remembers what they dreamed about. You might even wake up in a panic, sweating and frightened, but you don't know what caused it.

Nebuchadnezzar had one of those kinds of dreams. He was so shook up that he called in all of his soothsayers and demanded that they tell him what he dreamed about.

Soothsayer: From Middle English, soothsewere. The word 'soothe' comes from this word. They claimed that they only told the truth, (sooth) or they pretended that they did.

But Nebuchadnezzar was smarter than these leaches. He told them that if they couldn't tell him what the dream was, he would have them all put to death.

This was a case where God put the dream in his mind and deliberately didn't let him remember it. Even though the prophet Daniel was not among the soothsayers, he did not want the king to put all these men to death. The soothsayer's admitted that only God could tell him what the dream was and what it meant. Daniel was the only man in Babylon who did not worship false gods. He prayed and Jehovah showed him the dream and the meaning.

Even today, people troubled by a dream look for someone to explain it. They go to palm readers, they pour over their horoscope, they find someone who has a crystal ball or a deck of tarot cards or a wee gee board. And they spend their hard-earned money in the process. Nebuchadnezzar promised gifts and presents to the astrologers if they could recall the dream for him. The seer is smarter than the person who wants to understand what the dream means.

Have you heard of profiling? The fortune-teller reads the dreamer by looking at his or her clothing choices, hair style, mannerisms, noting how much education he has by the words he uses. How much money he has by the car he drives, the jewelry she wears, even the perfume she wears, the age and culture she came from. That's profiling.

The 'fortune-teller' knows that the dream is not a vision from God. It's a dream. I once knew a woman who dreamed that she was driving around in a new car with a fat cat. This cat talked to her about all the things he owned and how much he had in his bank account. Well, she was dating an older, heavyset, wealthy man that she had some premonitions about.

Cats are notoriously, ah, furtive. Milk is okay, but cream is better. Meow mix will do, but Fancy Feast costs more so it must be better. The rug is soft, but the pillow is softer. Could this be where we get the expression, 'fat cat' when we are referring to those who have more than they will ever need and got it with a glib tongue?

She finally figured it out. There wasn't anything mysterious about it at all.

A Little Birdie Told Me

By: Vivian Hernandez

A Little Birdie Told Me: “Assumption Abbey and St. Mary’s Church in Richardton, North Dakota have been sharing the Faith for Over a 150 Years.

The Assumption Abbey traces its roots back to the Benedictine revival in Europe following the anti-Catholic activity during the French Revolution and Napoleon’s rule in the mid-19th Century. Communities were established in the United States: First in Pennsylvania in 1846. The Benedictines of Assumption Abbey trace their roots back to this 19th century movement. The founder Fr. Vincent Wehrle a Swiss Monk was sent to the Dakota Territory after three years of after three years as a missionary in Arkansas and two years in Indiana as an assistant pastor.

In 1889 the Dakota Territory was divided into North and South Dakota, Rome divided the Vicariate of Dakota into two dioceses. The Diocese of South Dakota in Sioux Falls, and North Dakota in Jamestown.

During the 1880’s Germans from Russia and Germans from Hungary began to settle the Dakota Territory. Catholics in southwestern North Dakota were underserved, in 1899 a handful of monks from St. Gall’s began monastic life at Richardton. In 1903 the community was raised to the rank of Abbey and Prior Vincent Wehrle was named Abbot of St. Mary’s Abbey. Abbot Wehrle was embraced as “Apostle to the German-Hungarians and German-Russians.

Construction of the church took four years and on Christmas Eve 1908 the first Mass was held.

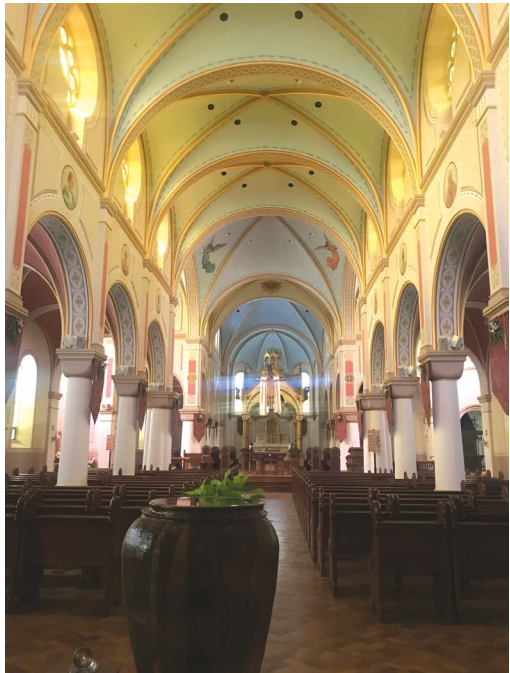

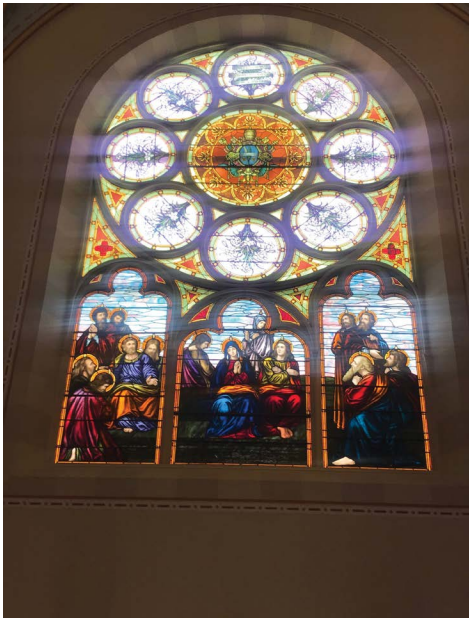

In 1924 the Abbey was forced into bankruptcy.

In 1926 a new superior was named by Roman decree and the Richardton Community began to experience a revival: in 1931 the community petitioned Rome for restoration of independent abbey status. The request was granted. By the 1940’s the entire debt was paid and buildings renovated.

Assumption Abbey and St. Mary’s Church have undergone many changes over its history including the renovations and renewal of the abbey church started by then Abbot Fr. Patrick Moore in 2000.

In 2006 Assumption Abbey community had some 60 members: 35 living and working at the Abbey involved in a vital life of liturgy and self-sustaining work on the Abbey ranch, garden, orchard, apiary, kitchen, carpentry, garage, offices, gift shoppe and wine cellar.

A Little Birdie Told Me: “The Twin Steeples of St. Mary’s Church & Assumption Abbey v Apart of the Prairie Landscape and Continue to Welcome the Faithful and Visitors to the Area.”
