Leah and Joan, laughed, snickered and joked about the advertisements in their communities - - Spring Cleaning posters were all over town, radio announcement, Face book, - - you name it - - Spring Cleaning was the word.

"If people just kept up with their cleaning year around there would be no need for Spring Cleaning," laughed Joan. "I agree," chimed in Leah, "well gotta go." "Seems kinda fast, wonder what's going on with her - we were having such a good time - -," were the thoughts running wild in Joan's head - - "oh well."

The two separated and agreed to meet again on Tuesday which was their weekly day of reminiscing - -. "See you Tuesday," and out the door, seemingly quite fast, went Leah. Her mind was on speed dial - - "wow, sure glad I could leave" and turned on the radio - - Spring Cleaning - - first station - reaching over and flipping the station she heard - Cleaning your heart - - What's that all about? listened, flipped the station, but something brought her back to that station - - the talk ended with a question - - how much Spring Cleaning do you need to do in your own heart?

Nonchalantly Leah threw the idea out the window - - reached home and - - as she look around her home she noticed a few articles in the room that she really didn't even like. They weren't pieces of clutter but just thing she really didn't need."Guess maybe that's what everyone talks about for Spring Cleaning, I'll just get a box from the basement and maybe I'll give them away," and opening the basement door, turning on stairs.

Expressions

There they are, reached for the box and, not remembering she had already filled box, it tipped and down came everything - -.

Loosing her balance, Leah also ended up on the floor. By now, frustrated beyond words she wept. Now what? The fall had turned her around - feeling things was not an option as to which way the steps were - so she just sat - - maybe, maybe?

In her time of sitting she began remembering her fright of the dark, her fear of the basement when she were little, how she was told to pretend everything would be okay and how one day someone very special came into her life and turned the lights on - - substation fixed - - lights came on.

Leah smiled - - happy she had chosen to do a little Spring Cleaning.

Sometimes we need that special someone to turn on the lights for us - - you may be that person in someone elses life - -.

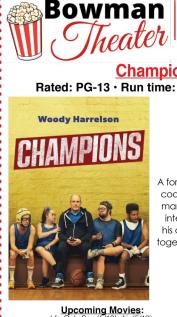

the lights, she proceeded down steps. Reaching the bottom step, lights flickered, went out.

Top door had slammed shut, darkness engulfed the basement - - I know where the boxes are - - and I know everything in the basement. I'll just feel my way around, grab the boxes and be on my way up the Today help someone do Spring Cleaning with a listening ear.

Reflections on the Words of Life

by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

We have been studying the repentance of the king of Assyria and his call to all in the city of Nineveh to repent likewise. Today we arrive at Jonah 3:8: "But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God; yes, let everyone turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands."

It seems strange to us that animals were included in this call to repentance, but in ancient times, rituals such as this often included animals. Though the Ninevites were almost surely polytheists, they are ready now to acknowledge the God whom Jonah proclaimed as the only true God-and to humble themselves before Him. Such crying to God as the king is commanding must come from the heart. God is the omnipresent, prayer-hearing God. To pray to Him is to acknowledge that He is in control and has the power to change things. How awesome it is when a whole community of people cry out together for God's mercy. Our nation needs much of this today.

Besides telling his people to cry out to God, the king instructs everyone to turn from evil and violence. Friends, when we look around at the conditions in our country, we see an abundance of evil and violence everywhere. Our nation has turned its back on God, on His design, on His commandments. Our children are taught in public school that the universe came into being by a massive explosion and that human beings are the result of random chance. People are being told that they are free to choose whatever gender they prefer to be, and babies by the thousands are being slaughtered in the wombs of those who should be the most tender and loving mothers to them. But friends, let us not be like the Pharisee in Jesus' parable who compares himself with the obviously wicked tax collector and boasts before God about his own righteousness (Luke 18:9-14). It is easy to look around and find someone more sinful than ourselves and to conclude that we are "good people." But God's Word doesn't allow for that. The Bible clearly states, "There is none righteous, no, not one" (Romans 3:10). We can give ourselves a little test. Do we love God with all our hearts, souls, and minds and our neighbors as ourselves? In the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7), Jesus says that if we look upon someone with lust, we have committed adultery in our hearts. If we hate, we have committed murder in our hearts. So how do we really measure up? The truth is that no one measures up to God's absolutely holy standard. That is why we all need the same thing-the Savior who paid the penalty of sin for all His people and who gives His perfect righteousness as a free gift to all who put their trust in Him to make them right with God. Please be sure you are relying only on what Christ accomplished on the cross for salvation. "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 6:23)

WRHS Foundation Hosting 46th Annual Perennial Plant Sale for Auxiliary Legacy Scholarships! By Ted Uecker,

WRHS Foundation

We've certainly received moisture here in March! Soon your gardening beds will be soft and ready - for transplanting out your overgrown perennials, and then possibly planting a few new varieties. We have just the answer for you.

1) Around May 17th or so, thin out your perennials; put 'em in a pot or something.

2) Bring them to West River Ambulance Garage in Hettinger prior to noon on Friday, 5/19.

3) Come back to the Garage at 2:00 pm that same day to purchase some new, unique perennials and give a goodwill donation toward our Auxiliary Legacy Scholarship. A gardener's paradise!

That's right, on Friday, May 19th, from 2:00-4:00 pm, the "46th Annual West River Perennial Plant Sale" will be held at the West River Ambulance Garage (307 Adams Avenue, Highway 12). You might want to be there right at 2:00 pm, as last year most all of the perennials were gone by 3:15! For a goodwill donation, you can purchase perennial plants, and the good feeling that 100% of your gift is going toward a local area student pursuing a healthcare degree, via our "Auxiliary Legacy Scholarship." And remember, vou can deliver vour overgrown perennials to the Ambulance Garage before the sale (Thursday night or Friday morning prior to the sale at 2pm) -- to pay them forward! Not only will you be allowing someone else to replant them, but also the WRHS Foundation will receive goodwill donations for the perennials, which will then be paid forward for local student's academic scholarships The West River Health Services Auxiliary, which began seventy-three years ago in 1950 with the new Community Memorial Hospital in Hettinger, started with a group of local volunteers, who helped raise funds for needed healthcare amenities, as well as sewing sheets, curtains, towels and baby bonnets for patients. Eventually the WRHS Auxiliary raised more funds for improvements to the hospital/clinics, plus scholarships for local area students. One of their annual fundraisers, for 46 years now, was the Annual "Perennial Plant Sale.<sup>3</sup>

Since the WRHS Auxiliary disbanded four years ago, it was hoped that the WRHS Foundation would take on the Auxiliary's "Perennial Plant Sale." With the help of longtime volunteers and employees, and former Auxiliary Members, Barb West and Jennifer Seamands, (with one year off due to Covid in May 2020), we held our 45th Perennial Plant Sale last year, raising $1,770 for our Auxiliary Legacy Academic Scholarship for a local area student (Naomi Salazar from Hettinger), who is pursuing a Pre-Dental degree at the University of Alabama.

Therefore, we need local gardeners to consider thinning out their perennial flower beds and gifting them to our WRHS Perennial Plant Sale. Barb West (701-567-2736) and Jennifer Seamands (701-567-4650) are available via telephone if you have any questions about the sale. Just bring your perennials Thursday evening or Friday morning to the West River Ambulance Garage and whatever you'd like to offer for a freewill donation (some years, we've received small trees, annuals and vegetables. Strawberry plants, rhubarb and raspberry plants are always best sellers!)

Thank you for considering thinning down your perennials in your garden and making a donation to our 46th Annual WRHS Foundation Perennial Plant Sale on May 19th. Plus, thank you for attending and possibly making a goodwill donation toward our Auxiliary Legacy Scholarship. We always need more sensational care givers. TOGETHER we can and are making a difference for top-notch healthcare,

Well, we can tell it's an upcoming presidential election because everything on television, the Internet and the printed media is just plain depressing! I mean everything you read/hear is designed to make you upset and to feel helpless or angry. Otherwise, the talking heads apparently think that we would be too laiz a faire to actually get to a poll and cast our ballot. But, a reality check is in order. We don't vote in our ND primary until June 11, 2024, and the general election isn't until November 5th. So, why do we need to start all the negative publicity over 13 months before the 1st ballot and 18 months before the final curtain call. All of this hyperbole and monkey house poo flinging is not really accomplishing anything except to polarize even more citizens and get them worked up isn't it?

I mean when people are getting upset about someone else reciting the pledge of allegiance or singing our national anthem, haven't we just gone a little too far? I was raised on the live and let live philosophy NOT this pre-

Pat Merriman & David Crane 701-824-2591 vailing "words are violence" misnomer. Because when you accept that latter philosophy, aren't you really saying that when someone else offends you, you have the right to react violently? but getting actually hit is a whole 'nother subject. The National Institutes of Health says that the best estimate is that over 31% of us suffer from some sort of depression. So, listening to even more depressing caterwauling in the media can't help. My suggestion is to do what we did in the old days-find something that brings you joy and shut off the iPhone, iPad, laptop, TV, or electronic device. Taking a walk with your spouse or your dog seems like a better way to spend your time. Have a great week!

communion, the Lord's Supper, and other names depending on your tradition. Jesus upon eating His last meal with the disciples before His crucifixion stated in Luke 22:19 "Do this in remembrance of me". We take communion to remember what Jesus did for us, what Jesus taught us, to remember He is with us even now, and that He will return.

It is central that we remember what Jesus did for us. It is also vital for us to remember what Jesus is doing amongst us now. In our local congregation and among every congregation communion is an opportunity for us to remember that we are not alone as followers of Jesus. We are or can be part of the family of God that is made of every believer whether in our local congregation or around the globe. When we take communion we recognize that we are a part of the church and that everyone else partaking with us is and can be part of the church.

communion and aspects of what communion means, but I trust we agree that remembering who Jesus is, what He has done, what He is doing, and that He will one day return and prepare a place for those who follow Him is at the center of communion. Jesus has offered us a meal.

Jesus has shown us the way to follow Him. Will we come to the table? Jesus is inviting us not only to remember what He has done and be in relationship with Him; but to show us a way that we can be in relationship with other people through the incredible gift of the local church and the life giving relationships it offers to us as the Spirit of God transforms our lives to be like

Jesus. Come Lord Jesus! How we long for the day when you return and we can eat with you!

Happiness is a choice, not a result. Nothing will make you happy until you choose to be happy. No person will make you happy unless you decide to be happy. Your happiness will not come to you. It can only come from you.

Life changes

By Kathy Craigo Harteis I'm happy to be having time with friends and family here in California.

I've been busy since arriving and admittedly the old girl is kind of tired.

Life changes. We change. My pod of people seen the same, but the atmosphere of the county I grew up in is different. Life was simpler in the 60's.

Friend Deb with whom I'm staying and I have talked a lot about it this past week. Our youth was a magical time. We didn't feel the pressures the kids deal with now.

We feel blessed to have been raised in the country lifestyle. Nothing was handed to us. We earned our way. Those are great life lessons.

We entertained ourselves without video games. Fresh air was our playground. If at the end of the day we came in dirty and sweaty it had been a good day.

Sadly we've lost some friends along the way. We remember them well and don't forget. Some went to Vietnam and didn't come home. Others grew older and left us then. We are in the zone.

Tom and I travel a lot because that is what we like to do. But, mainly we don't want to wake up and realize we're too old or sick to do it.

I heard for years how my parents would travel in retirement. They put it off and then it was too late. They weren't healthy enough to do it.

Join us! National Hospital Week May 8-12

Jacobson Memorial Hospital Care Center (JMHCC) in Elgin will celebrate National Hospital Week with activities May 8-12, including discounted prices on certain lab tests. The theme for the week is "We Are Health Care."

"We invite the public to celebrate the week with us, and encourage everyone to take advantage of the screenings we have scheduled," says JMHCC CEO Scott Brooks.

As part of the activities, JMHCC will offer free blood pressure screenings from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, May 12, in the banquet room of Our Place Cafe in Elgin. FOOD DRIVE PLANNED

Also as part of the activities, the staff at JMHCC will be holding a food drive for the local food pantry.

"JMHCC is always looking for ways to give back to the community and this is just one way our staff would like to continue that tradition," Brooks said. A drop-off location will be placed at the Elgin Community Clinic for anyone who wishes to donate items for the food pantry.

DISCOUNTED LAB TESTS Discounted prices on

10 different lab tests will be available during clinic hours during the week at the Elgin Community Clinic, Glen Ullin Family Medical Clinic and Richardton Clinic. Specific tests are shared in this week's ad.

2023 Community Challenge Winner

The 2023 Bowman County Community Challenge saw two incredible projects make it to the live, community vote. After over 5,000 votes and a two week voting period, a winner has been declared. The 2023 winning project is the Scranton Baseball Complex Kid Park! Congratulations to Scranton Lions and their partners in this project: Scranton Public School and Friends of Firemen.

Scranton's Baseball Complex is a hot spot in the summer. The current park was completed in the 1980's and is in need of an upgrade with added safety measures. This project will include new playground equipment and a flex fiber floor. During the summer months, this baseball complex is a gathering area for many families in and around the town of Scranton. Most evenings, this park hosts up to 50 families as baseball practices and games are being held. By updating this park, it will have an enormous impact on the area's children and work towards improving the quality of life in the community of Scranton and beyond. This project is proposed to be completed in the Summer of 2023.

This project is supported both in resources and financially by Scranton Public School and Friends of Firemen. The remaining needed funds will be garnered by these organizations. The total project cost is $25,000 with $10,000 being awarded from the Community Challenge.

Community online voting was held April 10 – 24 between two projects: Scranton Lions' Baseball Complex Kid Park and Meowsers' Free Spay/Neuter Vet Clinics. Both projects were fun and would have been of great value to Bowman County. "The number of votes and passionate people we had behind these two projects was incredible to see. We are grateful to have another successful year of the Community Challenge. We love seeing our communities projects come to life," said Brooklyn Engelhart, Bowman County Development Corporation.

The Bowman County Community Challenge was created by Bowman County Development Corporation and funded by Bowman Tax and Tourism. Previous awardees include: Brosz Engineering (2020) Wet & Dry Park Complex at Rotary Park, Southwest Shooting Club (2021) Southwest Shooting Club (2021) Southwest Shooting Complex, and Crossroads Custom Designs (2022) Art Installation at the end of Bowman's Main Street.

"Playing High School Sports" By Don Taskila nd.featurewriter@gmail.com

The general consensus is that 'High School Sports' enable student-athletes to cultivate a successful mindset that will benefit them in both college and their future careers. Playing sports provides a POSITIVE opportunity to learn about how-to experience success while working together with teammates toward long-term and short-term game play objectives. According to research, participating in 'High School Sports' has even been associated with earning student-athletes naturally take on leadership roles. High School *Coaches are frequently devoted fans and lifelong athletes in their respective sports. They genuinely care about the young people they mentor and enjoy what they themselves do for a career. It's common that the sports relationships between both student-athletes and their coaches last well into the future. Other common times are when a life lesson or a specific sporting memory is recalled. 'High School Sports' offers a fantastic setting for whole-

> Cooperation and teamwork abilities are crucial at every stage of life. The learned capacity to get along with people and cooperate to complete a task is essential to leading a successful, forward-thinking existence, from the playground to the High School sporting event and then further on into a young adult's chosen career. Students who participate in 'High School Sports' learn some very important and effective life skills, I be-

> Student-athletes are more likely to form lasting connections with teammates when they experience the highs and lows of competition with the same group of people over the course of an athletic season. Sports can offer chances for social interactions to develop through supporting one another, encouraging a friend to improve, and being there for someone when they've messed up. 'High School Sports' teams give a space for young people to bond as well as a social setting where friendships can develop in a

> Some students find that participating in 'High School Sports' helps them focus and perform better in class. It's generally accepted that there are two key factors that determine how well students succeed in school when they participate in sports. The first is simple; to engage in. school athletics, students must have a certain grade level. The second is a little more in-depth and has to do with how well the brain functions. Some students find that practicing plays and strategies on their sports team improves their ability to think logically in the classroom. For some sports players, the mentorship gained through sports or the bonds formed between teammates has a positive impact on their academic performance.

Maintaining physical activity is crucial, particularly for a developing body. It has long been thought to be true that student-athletes better care for their own minds and bodies by gaining strength and exercise training through "Playing High School Sports". The ability to train, practice, and compete regularly is a skill that student-athletes may use to their advantage from the start. It is also stated that many young people who participate in 'High School Sports' go on to maintain active lifestyles throughout their adulthood.

Highway 21 Treasure Hunt June

"Time

It's time to start planning for North Dakota's largest rummage sale event, the annual Highway 21 Treasure Hunt, scheduled for 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. MT Friday and Saturday, June 16-17.

"Now is the time to start planning your sale by marking your items, finding a location and calling the community organizers to be listed," shares Luann Dart, who coordinates the event.

Participating communities holding citywide rummage sales include Flasher, Carson, Heil, Elgin, New Leipzig, Mott, Regent and New England. Rural residents are welcome to host sales, too.

Anyone holding a sale is encouraged to stay open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. MT both days. Those who plan to have their sale during different hours should state those hours on the listing.

"It's discouraging for folks to drive to our communities and find that some sales have closed early, so we need to try to avoid that," Dart says.

Those holding sales will not be charged. All advertising costs are paid for with donations from civic-minded organizations, including the Elgin Lions, West River Telecommunications and the Hettinger County JDA.

To hold a rummage sale, contact the following community representatives by June 12 to be listed in the information made available to visitors and

Grants Available to Benefit Golden Valley, Slope, Hettinger, Grant, Morton, and Oliver Counties

Bismarck, ND., April 19, 2023 - The North Dakota Community Foundation (NDCF) is pleased to announce that it will be administering Grid United's Community Investment Program (CIP), providing grant dollars to support communities in Golden Valley, Slope, Hettinger, Grant, Morton, and Oliver Counties. Grid United is an independent transmission company that builds new long-distance, interregional transmission lines to enhance grid reliability and resiliency. The CIP will support the six North Dakota counties in which Grid United's North Plains Connector - a transmission line connecting the U.S. eastern and western electric grids in Montana and North Dakota - will be located.

Grid United is dedicated to partnering with participating communities and as a result, CIP funds will support innovative projects that enhance quality of life while strengthening communities in this corner of Southwest North Dakota.

"We are thrilled to partner with the North Dakota Community Foundation on the North Plains Connector Community Investment Program," said Michael Skelly, Chief Executive Officer of Grid United. "We aim to foster long-term partnerships with the communities in which we develop projects and look forward to helping address community needs in Golden Valley, Slope, Hettinger, Grant, Morton, and Oliver Counties. Through input from local voices, the program hopes to fund innovative projects that enhance the quality of life in North Plains Connector communities."

NDCF's existing community foundations in this part of the state will distribute the CIP grant dollars in the following counties: the Golden Valley County Community Foundation, the Bowman & Slope County Community Foundation, the New England Community Foundation (Hettinger County), and the Mott-Regent Community Foundation (Hettinger County). Each local community foundation has an advisory committee of 5-9 local residents who know the needs in their area and will review grant applications and recommend awards.

In those areas where a local community foundation doesn't already exist, NDCF is working with area leaders to create a process for the distribution of Grid United CIP grant dollars. The intent is to have local residents connect with area non-profits and service organizations and guide the allocation of the funds to those projects/programs that provide the greatest benefit to the area.

Grant application deadlines vary by community and each community will have two grant rounds every year. Grant applicants must be either a 501(c)(3) nonprofit or government entity. Organizations that provide community services but that are not either entity may apply through a fiscal sponsor. Only online applications will be accepted. More information will be announced in the future regarding the individual grant rounds.

Eligible projects must have a broad impact on the quality of life for a significant num-

Thoughts for the week

by June Schmidt

My gummy vitamin is shrinking! Now this may not be an earth shattering statement to most of you as like me, you have probably noticed that everything that we purchase these days seems to be doing one of two things, either shrinking in size or increasing in price. According to those in power these days, inflation is stabilizing, but since statistics do not take into account food prices, like usual they don't know reality. I remember when we used to have 5 cent candy bars. They began to shrink over the years and were replaced by the new 10 cent candy bar that was 50% bigger at double the price. Somehow no matter how you look at it, we the consumer are on the losing end of this.

As the years go by there are so many changes that have occurred that we have had to adapt to. Some have been good and others not as much. Food is one thing that has become more available to most people in the world. I come from the generation following WWII and our parents often raised a lot of the food that was put on the table. We had first hand knowledge of planting and taking care of the vegetables and often helped in canning the food that was used Eido/Connect Country over the winter months. If you are so familiar with, but go to were lucky to have a freezer and any larger town and they are big raised your own livestock, there business. Nowadays we can get was always at least one day in almost anything delivered to our which all hands were needed door. Amazon is a multi-billion to process the meat that was dollar business that specializes eaten over those winter months in handling every kind of item until the next butchering day. they can figure out to offer to And that often meant plucking today's shopper. No longer do feathers if that was the day that we need to drive to a larger the chickens you helped take town and spend hours going care of over the summer were from store to store searching for big enough. And if your Grandthat special item that we want. ma was one of those that used All we need to do is sit down in feathers in pillows, it was a lot our living rooms or wherever it harder picking the geese dry to is convenient, and search for preserve all the down for that what we want and then in one wonderfully soft feather pillow click, we can have it sent in a or feather bed that kept you few days to arrive at our doorwarm at night. These days are step. We are linked to stores now few and far between for and providers all over the world the younger generation and if for every type and kind of food, you would ask them about this beverage and item of clothing or you would probably get a refurnishing available. sounding ICK. But that means

There are a couple of drawbacks to having all that at our fingertips. One is lower sales for our local businesses, as with increased costs of shipping and limited space, they cannot compete with the internet. So sometimes it becomes a choice for us between convenience and in the support of a business that may not survive without us. Possibly we take the local businesses for granted that they will always be there when we need the odd item right away so that should give us some pause when we start our shopping quest. Another is the quality that we get from online shopping at a much lower price. Sometimes we don't get what it is that we thought we were getting. Descriptions can be sketchy and reality can find that what we receive was absolutely not what we ordered and the hassle of trying to return it can cost more than just chalking it up to a bad decision in the first place

"Time"

So I guess the moral of this story is that sometimes we find that the old ways were better than new and convenient ways, but there is always room for improvement. We just need to walk that fine line to make sure we don't lose track of the best things from the past and don't trade it all away for the convenience of the present. God Bless you All.

margarine until the mixture clings together. Press into a greased 9 x 13 inch pan. Bake at 350° for 20 minutes. Beat together eggs, sugar and lemon juice. Sift flour and baking powder together and add to the egg mixture. Pour over the baked crust. Bake 25 minutes longer at 350°. Sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Community Foundation Announces Special Grant Deadlines and Dollar Amounts for 2023

The Mott-Regent Community Foundation has announced that it will be holding two grant rounds in 2023 with significant additional grant dollars available from Grid United's Community Investment Program (CIP). Applicants must be a 501(c)(3) nonprofit tax-exempt organization, a government agency, or have a fiscal sponsor with one of those designations, and must provide services in Mott, Regent, or the surrounding area. Grid United, an independent transmission company and donor to the region, is gifting $88,000 to be granted in 2023 along-side the foundation's endowment earnings of $6,300. The grant dollars will be divided up into the two grant rounds as follows:

· SPRING Round (applications due by June 15): $44,000 • FALL Round (applications

 Organizations may apply in both rounds.

Interested applications should apply online at www. ndcf.net/MottRegent. Click on the "Apply for Grant" tab, review the information there, and then click on the "Apply Here" button to start the process.

Applications will be reviewed by the local foundation's advisory committee. Members include Morgan Kouba (Chair), Alex Aldinger (VP), Karen Kouba (Past-Pres), Kevin Carvell, Linda Swindler, William Gion, and Katie Kouba, Kendra Carlson. For more information, contact one of the committee members or email them at mottregent@ ndcf.net.

The Mott-Regent Community Foundation is a component fund of the North Dakota Community Foundation (NDCF), a qualified 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Earnings from the fund are given as grants and special gifts from donors are distributed to organizations that serve Mott, Regent and the surrounding area.

For more general information please contact John@ndcf. net the Regional Development Director for NDCF.

Nlagic orking Together Spring Has Finally

Sprung. . . by geno sloan

Although snow stubbornly refuses to melt in a few places, most yards are sporting some green color, and we can now hear lawn mowers humming in the air. Tulips and Daffodils are peeking out of the ground guickly. Bright colors will soon beautify the flower beds.

Spring means more birds and squirrels for me to feed on my back deck. I watch as they entertain me with their antics and "pecking" order. Sparrows are the most polite and shy. When a Blue Jay lands on the deck, sparrows all step aside. Then the Black Birds arrive, causing the Blue Jay to back off a bit. Squirrels and Doves are the ones who rule the dispensing of birdseed and peanuts on the deck.

Last week I was privileged to view two rabbits in my back yard, playing a game of tag. They were having a great time and it reminded me of my youth when my friends and I raced back and forth to see who was the guickest and most agile at other one. They don't seem to
