Eido Connect's
Philosophy for 2025

- Listen - Hope - "First"

Grandma Mary was visiting with her daughter Sue - - conversation about weather, how things were at home and just before leaving Grandma Mary reminded Sue that it's getting close to Christmas and she was making out her Christmas list. "Almost Forgot" she replied - - oh by the way, haven't seen Johnny for awhile - - better tell him to stop so he can help with ideas - - he was so good at it last year - - such a nice young man, glad he's my grandson."

That evening as Sue was talking to family, rehashing the day - - she remembered - - "oh Johnny - - Grandma said she hasn't seen you lately - - I told her you were busy - - anyway she was wondering if you could help her again with the list?" "Sure, Mom, been busy - - you know how it is."

One thing of great importance for Sue was to be sure the family was the most important asset in life so visiting her mom - - that was number one - - week after week - - then one day she questioned if Johnny had been to see her - -. "No, guess he's pretty busy - - that's okay, he has lots to do."

That evening Sue told Johnny - - "Come sit with me - - I have a story to tell you," - and she began.

The King of Nowheresville was so proud of his kingdom, wanted to meet everyone and said - - put out posters - - King has present for everyone - - come so I can meet all of you.

Excitement filled the area and one by one people came to visit - - some gifts were great, huge and some small but just meeting their King - - that was impressive.

In Nowheresville there was a young man who, was setting aside time to make a visit but upon learning that some gifts were very small and not impressive decided - - why waste the time. So decided to decline.

As time went on the young man would hear stories and he also learned the gifts were getting bigger - - wow was all he could say - - guess maybe now it's time - -.

Posters came out thanking all for visiting. You are a fantastic kingdom - - and the King went back to his castle. - - Young man - - well he kept hearing all the wonderful stories about how gracious and friendly the King was - - but he was the only one in the kingdom who had no inkling of that they were talking about.

"What's that go to do with me?" questioned Johnny., "Nothing, just thought it was a good story!" replied Mom.

Johnny, having just purchased some land, cattle had much to do and knew Grandma would understand but the story Mom told, kept bugging him - - what's it go to do with me, he kept questioning.

That night while watching an evening game show there was a short segment of the word "FIRST" - -. First thing you do - - That night the word First kept him awake - -.

Guess what Johnny did when morning arrived?

"Hunting"

A hunting we will go - a hunting we will go -- remember that song. Seems like we are always hunting for something.

This week the Eido is filled with new and exciting things to go to, do, buy, shop - - from cattle sales to church dinners- a hunting we will go --.

And the biggest blessing is we have looked for the perfect place to live and it's right here - - in front of us - - our communities are the hunting paradises of the world - - and we found it by living here.

Again, many thanks for advertisers, writers, readers - - without each of you we'd have to be hunting - - and we don't need to because each of you are perfect.

THANK YOU

The Playhouse Theatre would like to give a big THANK YOU to everyone who supported us at Burgers in the Park and the Butter Braid Fund raiser. A shout out to Pepsi and Pheasant Bar & Café for donating the food and drinks.

You may have heard we have been having water issues at the theatre. We got a recent bid for $75,000 to fix our issues, which is more than we were expecting. We are trying to get additional bids along with looking for grants to apply for. If anyone has any other ideas, please contact a board member.

One way to continue to support us is to keep coming to the movies on the weekends. Thank you again to everyone for your great support. Please watch our Facebook page for future fund raisers and updates.

THANK YOU

We just cruised by year 55 of the New Leipzig Oktoberfest, and would like to start with 3 simple phrases.... Thank you. Thank you. Thank you! Once again we had a very successful celebration and appreciate all the tremendous support. To the visitors who traveled the many miles to our small community, and those who live within the vicinity we hope you enjoyed the food, events and just plain good old fashion fun. It makes all the hours of planning and organizing worth all the sleepless nights.

There are so many that deserve special recognition from the City of New Leipzig, the vendors, booklet advertisers, organizations, churches, businesses, entertainment, as well as all the participants in the events, and all the great volunteers who stepped up to help with the events. Our tractor pull held on Sunday was fantastic! It has been at least 20 years since the last tractor pull was held here. We do need to extend a special Thank You to the Lemmon, SD Pulling Association, The New Leipzig Fire Department and Auxiliary for the great job hosting the event. Also, to all the food vendors, and all the individuals who loaded those tractors to enjoy a 19 mile trek to travel along the cannonball river, and to those who polished those cars, trucks and etc. to enter those beauties in the car show.

To the businesses who decorated main street making it look so absolutely gorgeous....Thank you. It truly sends a "Welcome to the Oktoberfest" message. To all the home owners who made their front yards so attractive.....Thank you. It's fun to see all the unique displays residents can design using fall décor. Great job everyone!

So, here we go, on to celebrating 56 years in 26. The dates are set so mark your calendars for September 25th- 27th, 2026. Save those dates!

Thank you again for supporting the New Leipzig Oktoberfest and celebrating the harvest with us.

Fusion 2025 Inspires Attendees to Go Beyond Limits

The eighth annual Fusion Conference was held on September 18, 2025, bringing together more than 150 attendees from North Dakota, South Dakota, and Montana for a full day of energy, inspiration, and connection.

This year's theme, Beyond Limits, challenged participants to break through barriers, push past comfort zones, and redefine what is possible. The event featured an outstanding lineup of speakers who brought the theme to life with powerful stories and practical strategies.

Danny Adams, who served as emcee, opened the day with his keynote "Laughter Is Medicine" and later closed the event with "How to Be a Better Teammate." His blend of humor, storytelling, and heartfelt lessons reminded attendees of the power of joy and collaboration.

Jared "Cappie" Capp inspired attendees with his "Build Weird" sessions, encouraging bold thinking, creative risk-taking, and the courage to challenge convention. His message resonated with those looking to innovate and lead with originality.

Liz Fiedler Mergen delivered her keynote, "The Fertilizer Framework," guiding participants to identify what fuels growth, eliminate what holds them back, and cultivate resilience and renewal. Her personal journey and practical insights left a lasting impact.

Beyond the sessions, Fusion created space for meaningful networking and relationship-building, strengthening ties among business leaders, entrepreneurs, and community members across the tri-state region.

Fusion was hosted by Bowman County Development Corporation in partnership with platinum sponsor North Dakota Small Business Development Centers. Fusion's gold sponsors included Bank of Baker, North Dakota Department of Commerce and Dakota Western Bank.

Recycled and Re-loves

By Kathy. Craig Harteis

It took me a while before I could face seeing my childhood home again. Finally, last week we took a drive to Grimes, Ca. To my surprise and delight the new owner was there. He was on the roof working at the rehab of the home.

We visited and he explained the renovations and changes he was making to our beloved place.

My father built the house. How pleased he would be that it is now being rebuilt with the same love and care he put into the original build.

I shared that the owner would feel a good vibe in the house. He said that he already felt it. He also shared that he had heard many comments about what good people Mother and Daddy had been.

I was pleased.

Later, I went to the cemetery to visit my parents and other family members. I told Daddy what I had seen. I suspect he is pleased as well.

Ours was a home filled with love, happiness and welcome. It was a place our friends knew they were welcomed and usually fed.

As the new owner rebuilds our home I feel better knowing he felt the love there and that love will continue to fill the rooms.

Life is good today.

GRANT COUNTY, ND CONTROLLED BURN PROCEDURE

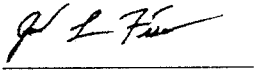

- Any person planning a controlled burn in Grant County must follow this procedure.
- Note: Small fires such as campfires, burning barrels, etc. do not fall under this procedure.
 - Residents wishing to burn should start by checking if what they intend on burning is legal and does not need a variance permit with the North Dakota Department of Environmental Quality: <https://deg.nd.gov/AQ/permitting/openburning.aspx> (also linked at grantcountynd.com)
 - Next residents need to check the North Dakota Fire Danger Rating Map, and Grant County Fire Emergency Declaration & Burn Restrictions. This information can be found at www.grantcountynd.com.
 - Before a controlled burn begins, the person(s) conducting the burn must contact State Emergency Communications Center (State Radio) at 701-328-9921 or 1-800-472-2121 to request a controlled burn, so that emergency responders are not dispatched for reports of fire. Be prepared to give your name, contact number, what is being burned (i.e. a field, garbage pit, tree piles, etc.), location of the controlled burn and anticipated duration of the burn. State Radio will notify the Grant County Sheriff's Office of the location of the burn. The Sheriff's Office will contact the fire chief of the fire district where the burn is located.
 - After the burning is completed and the fire is out, again contact (State Emergency Communications Center) State Radio at 701-328-9921 or 1-800-472-2121 to inform them of the completion.
 - A controlled burn needs to be physically monitored at all times. Once the fire is started, do not leave the site unattended until the fire is completely out.
 - Be prepared if the fire gets out of hand. Call 911 immediately and have resources available on site to mitigate the effects (water, extinguisher, tractor, shovels).

Following this procedure ensures that the State Emergency Communications Center, fire departments, and the Grant County Sheriff's Office are aware of the controlled burn and not unnecessarily called out unless there is a real emergency.

"If you're walking across a football field and, your ears fall off, how many pancakes does it take to shingle a dog's house?" That question was posed by an assistant coach on our football team, at a film study practice, my senior year in response to one of the dumbest remarks that I ever heard a player make in my life. And, it remains the most ridiculous comment that I had ever heard, albeit, it made as much sense as the lineman's comment back in 1975...until now! So far, this year, keen minds in this country have suggested paid leave for employees if their pet dies in New York, Dave Chappelle thinks Saudia Arabia has better free-speech rights than the U.S., novelist Ann Patchett says the best fix for American democracy is to outlaw private education and, my particular favorite, Professor Ibram X. Kendi is calling for a constitutional "Anti-Bigotry Amendment", whereby, group "inequity" is proof-positive of active discrimination. And, how about that older "do away with the electoral college" debacle that was buzzing around last year? I know I wouldn't mind California and New York telling me what to do!

Writer Domingo Martinez advocates forcing gun owners to buy insurance. But, as USA Today opines, "if gun insurance rates were set based on homicide rates (the same way that auto insurance rates are set in part based on local collision data), residents of East St. Louis, Illinois, and other high-crime areas, might be charged 70 times higher rates than New Hampshire residents." Wouldn't that violate Kendi's Anti-Bigotry Amendment? My particular favorite is potential, communist New York City Mayor Zoran Mamdani's proposal to vastly expand government economic "intervention" (read as "interference") in local co-ownership of businesses, of course, coupled with exorbitant taxes "on the rich" whatever that latter term means.

Of course, none of these "reformers" is in favor of actually compelling politicians and federal agencies to obey the Constitution. In particular, their whining about current law enforcement "atrocities" in DC, New York, Memphis, Chicago and other high-crime areas. As if President Eisenhower sending the 101st Airborne, on September 23, 1957, to de-segregate Little Rock never happened. USA Today poses the question, "Do some reformers still see average Americans as a 'basket of deplorables' who need to be muzzled, disarmed, regimented and force-fed correct opinions?" This new mantra, "Democracy Dies in Darkness" completely ignores the last 5 years where, in my opinion, the biggest threat to our "democratic republic" was too many iron fists trying to cancel us. And, I also agree with USA Today's question, "At a time when only 20% of Americans trust the feds to do the right thing", are any of these new "reforms" really going to help since our Constitution mandates the "consent of the governed"? Have a great week.

JMHCC launches outreach program
Jacobson Memorial Hospital Care Center (JMHCC) announces the launch of a new outreach program designed to strengthen preventive health and wellness in our communities.

Through this quality improvement initiative, trained staff members will contact patients by phone to assist with scheduling important preventive services, such as routine check-ups and health screenings, and supporting patients in managing chronic conditions. All outreach calls will come from 701-695-4429.

This program is not a solicitation or scam. It is a trusted, no-cost service provided by JMHCC to support patients in staying up to date on their health care.

"Our goal is to make it easier for patients to access care and maintain their health," said JMHCC Medical Director Dr. Steve English. "By helping patients schedule needed screenings and appointments, we can improve both individual well-being and overall community health."

The program is part of JMHCC's ongoing commitment to quality improvement, patient-centered care and health equity. Outreach staff are trained to answer questions, provide guidance and connect patients with the care they need. JMHCC operates clinics in Elgin, Glen Ullin and Richardton.

Reflections on the Words of Life

by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace
Reformed Church of the Lord
Jesus, New Leipzig

For several weeks we have been considering 1 Peter 2:16: "As free, yet not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bond-servants of God." We've seen several principles of Christian liberty and how it should be used. At least one more principle needs to be mentioned because it is addressed at length in the New Testament—namely, that the believer must always be considerate of other believers in the exercise of Christian liberty. This concept often requires careful balance because there is a danger of falling off one side or the other.

One of the errors into which a Christian may fall regarding liberty is succumbing to legalism. Legalism means living by man-made rules. Some Christians forfeit their liberty by letting others put them under legalistic standards which are not found in God's Word. Take, for instance, the drinking of alcoholic beverage. The Bible strongly forbids drunkenness and abuse of alcohol, but it does not forbid its use altogether. Jesus' first miracle in Cana of Galilee was turning water into wine at a wedding feast (John 2:1-11). And the apostle Paul instructed his ministry partner Timothy to take a little wine for his stomach's sake and for his many infirmities (1 Timothy 5:23). Yet, there are many who have taught that all consumption of alcohol is sin. Now please do not think I am in any way advocating drinking alcohol. Doing so requires much discernment and maturity and self-discipline, and it has brought disastrous results to many people. But the claim that a Christian is forbidden by God's Word to drink is erroneous.

That being said, there is another side into which the believer must be careful not to fall. No one should exercise Christian liberty in a way that might encourage another Christian to do something he or she is not comfortable with. Take again our example of drinking alcoholic beverage. Let us say that there is a new brother in Christ who struggled with abuse of alcohol before his conversion. Perhaps he refrains from using alcohol because he does not want to expose himself to unnecessary temptation. That is a good and wise decision. But if another believer who does not have such a problem flaunts his liberty in a way which encourages that brother to drink alcohol too, then that believer's exercise of liberty has done harm to his brother. We should never assist any believer to violate his or her conscience.

The apostle Paul faced a similar issue in his day. At the pagan temples, many cuts of meat were offered to idols and later sold in the marketplace. Paul knew that those false gods were nothing and that the meat was acceptable for a believer to eat, for the believer had nothing to do with the idolatrous worship in which it was offered. Yet, some believers had not resolved this conflict and were uncomfortable eating meat that had been offered to idols. What was Paul's conclusion? He wrote in 1 Corinthians 8:13, "Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I will never again eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble." A Christian's well-being is much more important than enjoying a juicy steak. Christians' love for the Savior and for one another should keep us from ever using liberty in a selfish way.

Of course, the Lord Jesus is our supreme example. He never let the legalistic Pharisees bring Him under the bondage of their foolish man-made regulations. But neither would He exercise His freedom in a harmful way. When the Pharisees accused Him of wrong by associating with those they considered the scum of society, Jesus made it plain that nothing would deter Him from seeking to reach sinners with His love. That love led Him to willingly bear the excruciating death of the cross in order to pay the penalty for all the sins of all who would ever place their trust in Him. Have you trusted in Him, Friend? May we all know the great freedom of which Jesus spoke in John 8:31-32: "If you abide in My word, you are truly My disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

communities and agriculture.

David and Sue Juntunen are dedicated members of the Slope County community, where service and commitment run deep in both their family and their daily lives.

Dave first came to Slope County in the summer of 1967. He worked on the Tripple J ranch in the summers while attending college at Jamestown College. After graduating in 1970 he was signed by the Washington Redskins and spent 1 year playing football for their farm team the Roanoke Bucks. After football, Amidon became his permanent home in 1971. Dave was involved in a car accident in 1973 that left him with his signature hoarse voice and his wife. Sue was an RN at the Bowman Hospital at the time of Dave's accident. And the rest is history!

Known for his community-minded spirit, Dave is always ready to lend a hand to a neighbor in need. Alongside him, his wife Sue—a lifelong Slope County resident—has been a steadfast partner in family, faith, and community life. Together they raised four children: Sara (Leighton) Redmond, Sam (Rachelle) Juntunen, Tom Juntunen, and Katie (Turner) Harris. The Juntunens' dedication to service, family, and community reflects the values that define rural North Dakota; hard work, faith, and neighborly care.

It is an honor to recognize David and Sue, and their many hours devoted to the ag industry. Please join in the celebration at the 2025 Ag Appreciation Banquet. The agriculture business is at the very heart of Bowman, Slope, and Harding Counties. Help us show them all just how much we appreciate the long hours and hard work they put in. The life of a farmer/rancher is never easy, but the gift they give to all of us is worth it.

Mott's Legion Provides Flag Disposal Site

Mott's American Legion Post has erected a disposal container for used U.S. flags and the public is invited to take advantage of it.

The container is located adjacent to the roadway just north of the veterans' monument in the Legion Park along the Cannonball River.

The monument itself honors men and women who have served in the nation's armed forces.

For reasons of dignity and respect, tattered and torn American flags and those which have faded badly should not continue to be displayed. Their disposal should be in an honorable fashion and the disposal box will be a suitable choice.

On Flag Day in June, the American Legion gathers flags which can no longer serve their patriotic purpose and destroys them by fire in a respectful ceremony.

Funding for the disposal box was provided by M.O.T.T. (the communities nonprofit Economic Development Organization) and the Mott Volunteer Fire Brigade. The Legionnaires send their thanks to both.

The American Legion is composed of men and women who have served America's armed forces.

Coal Springs Threshing Bee Wrap Up

The Coal Springs Threshing Bee enjoyed the best weather the show has experienced for several years. Once again the community showed great support for and interest in the event. While the threshing bee started Friday morning, activities actually began on Thursday with the Dave and Maddie Doan memorial wagon train. Dave and Maddie were club members who were very instrumental in planning the wagon trains that have occurred over the years of the threshing bee. Dave and Maddie passed away last year so wagon boss Rusty Foster headed up this year's wagon train in honor of them. Instead of starting two or three days journey away from the showgrounds and arriving on Friday or Saturday, the teams and wagons headquartered at the showgrounds and went out for day trips arriving back at the grounds each evening. It's always fun to have teams of horses and mules around the threshing bee.

A full day on Friday is still a bit of a new idea, so things are a little slower as vendors get set up and the club makes the final preparations for the weekend. Thanks to all those who came out on Friday! New at the show this year was Robert and Kelly Froning's cow milking demonstrations. People were able to sample fresh milk right from the cow. They ran a small generator and had a vacuum pump to run the milking machine. Very interesting. The Shatzka house was also a treat to see. The club moved the small house to the grounds from Lewellyn and Karen Engelhart's east place a few years ago and have been trying to get it restored since then. This year GREAT progress was made with the help of many people. Lynn Martin sanded the floors and plastered the walls as needed then the Monday before the show, new windows were installed and trimmed out, the walls were painted and the floor was stained. Later in the week antique furniture was put in the house and the result was unbelievable! If you didn't get a chance to see it this year, make a point to see it next year.

Friday night's appreciation supper was provided and served by the Grand Electric and West River Telephone Cooperative. Thank you folks for doing that. It was a great evening with around 200 people served. After supper Lindsey Clark gave a presentation on the history of the town of Coal Springs. This is where the club takes its name from. She did a great job with many very old pictures of the different locations, buildings and people of Coal Springs. Jens Hansen also shared his thoughts and memories. There is so much rich history in the country where we live. We also had a special auction Friday night. Ten custom Coal Springs Threshing Bee caps were auctioned off and the winning bidders' got the right to be in a drawing for a pistol that had been engraved especially for the club by Cindy Kahl of Shadehill. The winner of the pistol was Kent LaDue of Meadow. Thanks everyone for supporting the club in this new fundraiser.

Another treat on Friday was seeing Scott and Shannon Dirk of Vale, SD pulling the stagecoach. The building of this stagecoach, which is more accurately called a mud coach because of its smaller size was started by Gay Hatle and John Grate several years ago. When they passed away Brad and Arlen Hatle took up the project. They took it Arizona where a friend of theirs worked on it. Brad and Pam made several trips there to work on it during their winter getaways. Since it has been completed it has been on display at the Grand River Museum in Lemmon, SD. With the good weather for this year's show, Brad decided to bring it down. Thanks Brad. It will go back to the museum for safe keeping and display.

Saturday was busy with kids activities, a car show, a tractor pull, equipment demonstrations, threshing demonstrations, a parade and the like. This was one of the biggest tractor pulls yet with 80 hook ups. Some pullers came from as far away as Sioux Falls. The auction Saturday night was one of our most successful ones yet. Thanks for all who donated items and those who bid on them. This is one our main sources of income for the club. After the auction Colleen Reinhart from Mandan, ND entertained the crowd singing and playing gospel music. She is a gifted piano player and singer. I understand Saturday gets long, but if you didn't stay to hear Colleen, you missed out on something pretty special.

Sunday morning started with our threshing bee church service, which has grown to be one the best attended events of the weekend. Thanks to all who made it such a good time to be together. Kateri Lopez of Bison led the worship with her guitar and beautiful voice. She is another gifted musician that is a blessing to our community. Jeff Stradinger of Isabel shared a message from God's word. He started his talking by saying "I am not a preacher, but I love the Bible." Thanks Jeff for sharing with us.

After the church service most people just enjoyed visiting with their neighbors and friends and enjoying some of the good food from the lunch counter. We had a parade on Sunday as well and ran the threshing machine. Things wrapped up around two o'clock with the drawing for the raffle items. The winners were as follows: Rifle – Dennis Lindskov, Isabel; Pistol – Teigan Clark, Meadow; Quilt – Travis Storm, Meadow; $100 Beef Certificate – Evan Lopez, Bison; $50 Beef Certificate – Doyle Lennerville, Lemmon; $50 Beef Certificate – Skyler Storlie. Again, thanks to all who supported the threshing bee club by purchasing raffle tickets.

This is the third year we have had a quilt show in the "addition." Thank you ladies for bringing your quilts to display. I apologize to those who were not able to display their quilts due to a lack of display space. We are hoping to increase our capacity to display them next year. A special thank you to Jan Gossman of Shadehill for being in charge of the quilt show again this year.

Thank you to everyone who has a part in the weekend. From those who help with the kids activities to those who donate money every year to help fund the Coal Springs Antique Club's efforts to improve the show every year. Thanks to those who share a kind word with those of us who are part of the club and put on the show. Those words are very much appreciated. Thank you to those of you who bring you families to the show. We want it to be a great place to bring your kids. Thank you to our vendors.

Finally, if you would like to join the club, we would love to talk to you. If the show is going to continue to grow we need more people to help with work of putting it on. We have more machinery demonstrations we would like to do, but often run out of people to do them. If you are interested, please call Wade Hofer at 605 788 2854 or Brian Flatmoe at 605 788 2881 or Trig Clark at 605 515 3120, or talk to a club member you may know.

Wade Hofer, Meadow and Tricia and Jack Herman, Wessington Springs pull the kiddie train with a Farmall B tractor.

Brian Flatmoe, Tayte Clark and Sophia Clark all from Meadow enjoy the shade and the new swing at the corn pit.

Scott Dirk, Vale and Brad Hatle atop of the mud coach pulled by Scott's team of horses.

Grand Electric and West River Telephone Cooperative serving the appreciation supper.

Evelyn P. McKitrick Rites Held

Evelyn P. McKitrick, 97, of Bowman, ND, passed away on Saturday, October 4, 2025 at the Southwest Healthcare Services of Bowman.

Funeral Services for Evelyn were held on Thursday, October 9, 2025 at 10:30 am at the Bowman Methodist Church. Pastor Corey Jenkins officiated with a burial that followed in the Bowman Cemetery. There was a Family and Friends Service on Wednesday, October 8, 2025 at the Krebsbach and Kulseth Funeral Home Chapel beginning at 7:00 pm. Visitation for Evelyn was on Wednesday, October 8, 2025 from 12-9.

Evelyn McKitrick was born October 17th, 1927, the daughter of August and Cora (Bagley) Davidson. Evelyn was born in her home in Mineral Springs, ND and enjoyed life to the fullest with her older siblings Lonnie, Delmer, and Mae. At the age of 3 Evelyn was severely burned in their home by the wood burning stove. Her mother carried her a mile in the middle of winter to the nearest neighbors home to get a car to take her to the hospital. Evelyn spent 3 and a half months in the Miles City Hospital recovering.

She attended elementary school at Mineral Spring Consolidated School and attended high school in Bowman where she would stay in the girls Dormitory. While she was living in Bowman she met the love of her life, Boyd, as he was riding his horse down the main street of Bowman. They married on June 6th, 1946 at the United Methodist Church of Bowman and eventually settled on the McKitrick Ranch, where they welcomed four children into the world; Babs, Terry, Ronald, and Kevin.

Evelyn was always on the move. Whether it be cooking for the men on the ranch, driving grain trucks, sewing, baking pies for the sale barn or decorating cakes. Evelyn loved to serve her community in many ways. She was a clerk of the township for over 30 years. She was very active as a 4-H leader and loved teaching the kids about the world of agriculture. She was also the Clerk at the Bowman livestock Sale Barn for many years and attended the family calf sale every year she was able. Evelyn and Boyd truly loved the farm and ranch way of life and were recognized when they won the North Dakota Distinguished Rancher Award in Fargo, ND.

Evelyn and Boyd retired and moved to town in the year of 1994. To fill her time Evelyn started the giving tree at the Bowman United Methodist Church. After Boyd passed in 2006, Evelyn filled her time with Church luncheons, weekly cards at her home or the senior center, and driving the countryside with her friends. Evelyn loved to attend any event she could for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She found so much joy in supporting her family in every aspect that she could.

Evelyn is survived by her Children Babs and Melvin Iszler, Terry and Marilyn McKitrick, Kevin and Tami McKitrick and daughter-in-law Wanda Belland. Grandchildren; Melody Iszler, Tammy (Bryan) Johnson, Ryan (Tracy) Peterson, Amy (Paul) Fischer, Monica (Joe) Mosbrucker, Garrett (Nicole) McKitrick, Joseph (Carrie) McKitrick, David McKitrick, James (Kelly) McKitrick, Levi (Rachel) McKitrick, Quin (Clay Shields) McKitrick, Emily Belland. As well as many great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Evelyn was preceded in death by her loving husband Boyd McKitrick, her son Ronald McKitrick, her parents, August and Cora Davidson, one great-granddaughter, Natasha, Brothers, Lonnie and Delmer and sister Mae.

Gregory A. Krance Rites Held

Gregory A. Krance, 61, Gladstone, died on Friday, October 3, 2025 at his home.

Greg's Mass of Christian Burial was held at 10 a.m., Wednesday, October 8, 2025 at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church, Lefor, with Fr. Dennis Schafer as the celebrant. Inurnment followed at St. Elizabeth's Cemetery. Visitation was held on Tuesday from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m., at Ladbury Funeral Service, Dickinson, with a rosary and vigil at 6 p.m. Visitation continued one hour prior to the Mass on Wednesday at the church.

Gregory Allan Krance was born July 1, 1964 in Dickinson, the son of Anthony "Tony" and Magdalene "Maggie" (Greff) Krance. He was raised and educated in South Heart, having graduated from South Heart High School in 1982.

He went to work for Myron Eberts doing Custom Harvesting. Greg went on to earn his Auctioneering license and went to work with his dad and family. He enjoyed traveling, harvesting, and working construction.

In 2006 Greg married Marsha Schmidt at St. Mary's Catholic Church, South Heart. They bought and moved to their present ranch in 2011, and it was here where they operated Diamond K Hauling and ranching.

He was a faith filled man who enjoyed saying the rosary. This all started with every Friday night kneeling on the kitchen floor with his family as a child reciting the rosary. He belonged to the Knights of Columbus, South Heart Saddle Club, volunteered with the fire department, and was always willing to offer a hand and his abilities to others. Greg also served on the South Heart City Council and the Parish Council at St. Elizabeth's. He cherished the time spent with his dad just driving around the countryside.

Greg is survived by Marsha and their children, Caleb (Jade) Strecker, Jordan (fiancée Rita) Strecker, and Janessa Schmidt; grandchildren, Kingsley, Blaize, and Briggs; siblings, Brenda (Kevin) Volesky, Jim Krance, Steve Krance, Gordy (Steph) Krance, and Shawn Krance; brother-in-law, Russ (Rhonda) Weber; and numerous nieces and nephews. Thoughts for the Week

by June schmidt

And again, for some unknown reason, it was legal in some states to authorize a license for an 18-wheel semi, weighing somewhere between 35,000 lbs and 80,000 lbs to people who cannot read the language, never took any classes and are unable to recognize traffic signs. This obviously comes in the category of people who try to sell others the Brooklyn Bridge or swampland in Florida as a good idea. Or maybe its in the category of the people who respond to the email messages from the Nigerian Prince that needs your personal information in order to give you millions of dollars. However, this appears not to be an isolated incident and no one is able to answer the question: What were you thinking?

For those of you that don't have a CDL, or a commercial driver's license, these are the requirements. To obtain a CDL, you must have a non-commercial license, pass a medical exam, complete a Commercial Learners Permit for at least 14 days, complete FMCSA-approved entry-level drivers training, and pass written knowledge and road skills tests.

Living in a farm community, there are many people who are able to drive one of these monster trucks, no pun intended, and many that do it for a living. We all know that it takes work and practice to drive a big truck, or we should. Kudos to those that are able to handle them on a regular basis. However, even the best drivers can have a bad day and as with all vehicles, there are things that can go wrong. It's hard enough for the majority of us that learned on a stick shift to have learned the order of the gears in the simplified version, but it does take more skill and practice to learn the order of gears and how to change them in the larger version. Now just try to picture someone with no knowledge of the rules of the road and no ability to read the signs on the highway with a truck of that size. Anybody see any problems with this picture? I bet you do, so then how in the known world did these people get not only one state license but in some cases, multiple states and then were let loose on the general public highways with a cheery wave or whatever they got. Can you say mistake?

Yet here we are with an individual, having both a California and a Washington license to drive a semi, not able to speak English and who attempted to make a u-turn in the middle of a busy interstate highway, causing an accident which resulted in the death of an unsuspecting motorist, and they are feeling sorry for him. Does anybody still think there is a distinct lack of common sense somewhere?

FMCA has documented cases where drivers' inability to read our signs and speak our language may have contributed to a series of fatal accidents. In 2019, a semi-truck driver traveling down a crowded highway at almost 100 mph blew past several signs that warned of steep grades and dangerous curves. The driver ultimately hit multiple vehicles in a fatal crash killing four and injuring others. In January this year, a fatal collision in West Virginia involved a driver fleeing another accident who required an interpreter for the post crash investigation, USDOT said. So it took until this year and more deaths that made the news for the government to sit up and take notice, but not one state that was issuing the permits/licenses objected at the time. Go Figure.

So as we are still in harvest season, we know the majority of the drivers in our area are familiar with the rigs they drive, they can speak english and are aware of the rules of the road. But as we all know, the interstate highway system runs across the state and there are drivers from every state in the union and some from Canada that operate on these roads. For your own protection, be a defensive driver and watch out for the other drivers, don't take unnecessary chances and just because the speed limit is 80, make sure you can handle not only your vehicle but the off chance that the person driving beside you or passing you may not have your skills. Better to be safe rather than get into an unnecessary accident that could risk your life. God Bless you All.

God is my Boss and I'm the Employee. I'm thankful for my salary called Life, with benefits called Blessings. Amen!

God is my Strength Recovery
