“The Key in my Pocket”

“Mom, Mom, Professor Joe - - well we found out who the Big Bad Wolf was, you know who he is?” Silence on the other end, Josie continued - - “do you, Mom, do you know who he is?” “Not sure Josie - - give me a hint.”

“Wanted to wait for the weekend but - oh Mom - his answer was different and can't wait to tell you about it. But gotta run to class - - I'll call you at lunch time - anyway it'll give you time - - ask dad too - maybe you can figure out who is the Big Bad Wolf.”

Mom and Dad discussed who they thought was the Big Bad Wolf, came up with all kinds of answers, then agreed they both wanted to be present when Josie called.

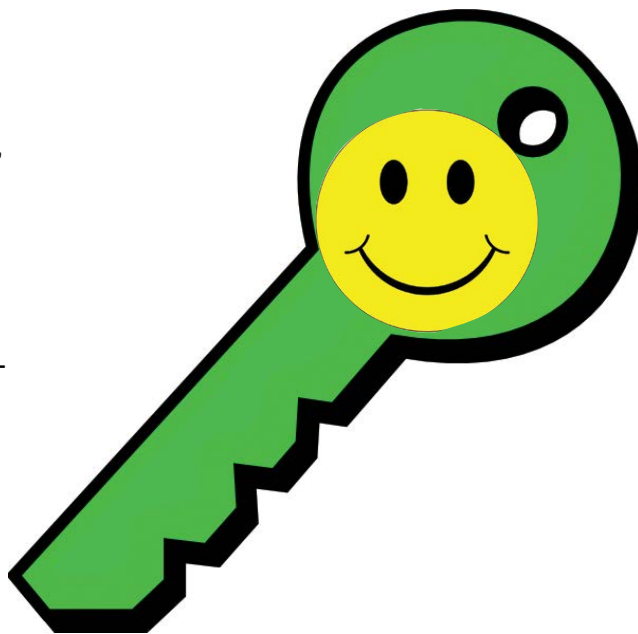

Lunch time, cell phone answered, crying heard on the other end. “Josie, Josie, you all right?” Wiping away her tears Josie responded. “Yes Mom, it was just our final class with Professor Joe. He told us this was his last class, he's retiring. He taught us so much. We just never realized it. But it's okay, gotta hurry Mom - - so who is the Big Bad Wolf? Mom, Dad - - what did you decide?” “Not sure - kinda have an idea but you tell us.” - - And Josie began.

“Our project was to figure out the Big Bad Wolf - - write who it was on a sheet of paper - then he read them - - the wind who blew over the stick house, the fire, the man who gave sticks to Little Pig, the Wicked Step Mother and the list went on and on. We all agreed to each of those people. It's just like our day - - the heat bill, the price of gas - - we all laughed, agreed how the story ties into our lives - - then Professor Joe said W R O N G wrong answers - - the answer was remember the Little Pig who cried we, we, we, all the way home.

We were all stund, so we argued - - we, we, we, worked together. Then Professor Joe walked around the room and handed us each a key.” - - “Now, he said - - depending on how you use this key - -you choose - - use it to be the Big Bad Wolf or the we, we, we, who will make a difference in other peoples lives. One negative comment about your city, your country, your friend, your parent - - you are the Big Bad Wolf - - one smile, one hello to a child, one good morning, one piece of garbage picked up on the street, one dime spent in your community, one thank you - - your choice - - -.

But

If we, we, we, all use our keys to open the hearts of others by our love - - not our Big Bad Wolf - - Lets start today - - that's when he told us he was leaving.

Mom, Dad, I've been the Big Bad Wolf many times to you - - only I always said it was you. Hopefully carrying the key in my pocket will remind me.

Everything we do, say, affects someone else - - makes a difference in their lives.

As we enter the 29th year of the Eido, may we too began by carrying a special key in our pocket that opens our hearts to goodness. Thank you for allowing us to serve you all these years. We started 28 years ago with this Motto - Eido (I do) believe in what you are doing.

As we are starting our

all we can say is

Thank You for what you are doing!!

Reflections on the Words of Life

by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

We have been considering the decisions which King Darius made after God delivered Daniel from the den of lions. First, he released Daniel from the lions' den. Second, he had Daniel's accusers and their families thrown to the lions, and they were gruesomely slaughtered.

This brings us to the third and final decision of Darius, which is quite remarkable. Daniel 6:25-27: "Then King Darius wrote: To all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. I make a decree that in every dominion of my kingdom men must tremble and fear before the God of Daniel. For He is the living God, and steadfast forever; His kingdom is the one which shall not be destroyed, and His dominion shall endure to the end. He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions."

Darius here expresses some amazing realizations about God. He now sees Him as the living God, in contrast to the lifeless idols of the nations. Sadly, he does not seem to have realized that God is also the life-giving God, who gives spiritual life to those who repent and turn to Him by faith in Christ, who at that time was the Messiah to come. He proclaims that God's Kingdom is indestructible and enduring, unlike any other kingdom on earth. And he understands that Daniel's God is a very powerful and personal God. He cares for His people and delivers them with signs and wonders.

Yet for all of this, it appears that Darius was unconverted. He refers to God not as his God, but rather as the God of Daniel. This is a striking example of the blindness of the natural man. A person can realize God's existence and even His sovereignty and power. But not until the heart is changed can one truly see the Kingdom of God. In John 3:1-8 we read, "There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, 'Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him.' Jesus answered and said to him, 'Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.' Nicodemus said to Him, 'How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?' Jesus answered, 'Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.'"

King Darius could see some amazing truths about God, and Nicodemus was a devout religious leader in Israel, but such things do not cause a person to be born again into God's Kingdom. The new birth is a miracle which only God can perform. Friends, has this new birth happened to you? Someone may ask, "How can I know whether it has?" If you have come to see yourself as a sinner needing a Savior and are trusting in the work of Christ alone to save you, then you have been born again. If, however, you cannot say this about yourself, you can ask God to show you the truth about your condition and to grant you the gift of faith in the only Savior. God will not turn away anyone who comes to Him sincerely seeking His grace in this way.

Kennedy's Kindness Raises $2,026 For WRHS Foundation

By Ted Uecker, WRHS Foundation

Kennedy's Fresh Foods did it again. They stepped up for our community healthcare system by gifting 50 huge, orange pumpkins and 5 tasty turkeys. How does that equate to helping our local healthcare? First of all, they didn't have to do anything at all! They could go on about their business, selling groceries and making their profits. But Kennedy's look at things differently than the Amazon's and Sam's Clubs of the world. They pay it forward to local, rural community nonprofits as a way to say "thank you" to their regular customers. Secondly, Kennedy's has access to pumpkins and turkeys.

And they agreed to give our West River Health Services Foundation 50 pumpkins and 5 turkeys, if we could get our area community members to give $10 or more for a pumpkin at the "KNDC Farm & Home Show" at the Hettinger Armory from 11am-6pm on October 21st. Then, if local folk gave $10 or more, they'd be entered into a drawing each hour, for one of five turkey gift certificates at Kennedy's. It's what we call a "win-win-win" for all of us.

Cutting to the chase - 54 community individuals and families gave from $10 to $500 each, totaling $2,026 in one afternoon at the Farm & Home Show for the local healthcare system! Where did the gifts go? People gave $946 for our "Healthcare Heroes Endowment Fund;," $550 for "Partners In Health Club;," $225 for "WRHSF Scholarships;," $165 for "West River Ambulance Service;," $50 for the "General Fund;," and $30 each for "Physician Recruitment Endowment," "Western Horizons Living Centers," and our "WRHS Surgery Center." Wow! Thank you. Our WRHS Foundation is grateful.

The five people drawn for free 16 pound turkey gift certificates at Kennedy's Fresh Foods included: Jean Dahl, Karmen Eslinger, Cindy Ham, Byrdee Butterfield and Mary Steg. Plus, we had youth drawings for a coloring kit, a lava lamp, a hover ball and two card games (Skipo and Uno Flip). The winners were: Patricia Knudson, Mark West, Daniel Skogen, Camdyn Fried and Briggs Boxrud. Congratulations to all who entered into the drawings and thank you for stopping by our WRHS Foundation booth.

Special thanks to Kennedy's Fresh Foods for gifting us 50 pumpkins and 5 turkeys. We were amazed at the response - thirty minutes into the show and half the pumpkins were already gone! By 3 pm, they were all gone! Unbelievable! And thank you to Nolan Dix at KNDC for hosting the event. We enjoyed being back out visiting with the public, as we had missed the last two Farm & Home Shows due to the Covid pandemic.

In fact, we are back in full force with our 44th Annual "Community Turkey Luncheon" on Thursday, November 3rd, 11am-1pm, at the Hettinger Lutheran Church Basement. You can call Ted at 701-567-3666 between now and November 2nd to place an early delivered order. Or call 701-567-2598 the day of the event, November 3rd, to place your delivered order. Or, better yet, you can come to the Hettinger Lutheran Church Basement, dish up and sit down with your friends and enjoy a hot turkey dinner - including homemade turkey, dressing, gravy, cranberries and your choice of pie. All for a goodwill donation, which helps propel our WRHS Foundation's "Academic Loan Program," while at the same time paying forward a gift to the Hettinger Backpack Program. Let's keep the momentum going! Onward!

"I Promise"

In the movie "Hook" Robin Williams plays a father who is a career-driven, work-oriented, and self-centered father who often said to his son, "My word is my bond" and then he would break his "word" to his son. Toward the end of the movie, though, he realizes what is truly important in his life and that is his relationship with his two children and his wife. The movie is a good one to watch as a family.

Today we may not say "My word is my bond," but we do make promises throughout our lives. I believe we first say or hear the words when we are young. How many times as a child did we say, "I promise," and generally follow it up with "I will never do it again"? We said the words when we were young, and we have heard the words spoken by our children, grandchildren, and others we have known in life.

As we grew older, though, the words "I promise" took on a fuller and deeper meaning. As teenagers when we said "I promise" it began to mean more, because if a promise was not kept there was generally unforeseen consequences to not keeping the promise. Hurt feelings, friendships ended, lost trust to name a few. And then, as we mature into adulthood, we do not so much say the words "I promise," but we express them in other ways. We sign contracts, loan papers, affidavits, legal documents that are binding and specific. The old days of a handshake to seal an agreement are long gone, at least for the most part.

The words "I promise" though, still do hold an importance in our lives, especially when they are spoken in marriage as a promise to live out the vows that have been spoken. They hold importance in our lives in the promises we make to God when our child is baptized and becomes a member of God's family on earth. The words "I promise" speak to the relationship we have with God and with family, friends, co-workers, business partners and others in our life. The words "I promise" are important for who we are as followers of Christ.

As much as "I promise" is important for us to say, God said the same words to all the world centuries ago. In Jeremiah 31:31-34 God says, "The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, 'Know the LORD', for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more."

We do not hear or see the words "I promise" in this passage of scripture but they are the central message. God made a covenant, a promise to the nation of Israel that God fulfilled in sending the Messiah. No, the word Jesus, Messiah, Savior, Redeemer, Anointed is not found in this covenant, this promise of God, but it is the promise of a Savior, Jesus the Christ, that God is promising to all the world.

Yes, the words "I promise" have meaning in and for our lives. When we say "I promise" we are actively living out our relationship with someone else to do what we said we will do. We are in essence living out our relationship with God as we live in relationship with family, friends, and others throughout our life. God said "I promise" to the world and God sent God's Son Jesus to fulfill God's promise of eternal life for all who believe. We say "I promise" as we strive to live out our relationship with God in Jesus the Christ and the relationships we have with one another in our lives. When you say the words "I promise" take them to heart.

KCs Hold Fundraiser
 By Marlene Kouba
 Gregory Borski Fourth Degree Assembly #1640 held a fundraiser in the Mott Knights of Columbus Hall on October 22, 2022. The public was welcome. The purpose of the fundraiser was to help members purchase new suits to conform to the regulations to serve as honor guards as they serve parishes on special occasions and show respect for their deceased Brother Knights. The menu included ribeye steak, baked potato, garlic toast and desserts. Members of the Assembly were the cooks and servers. Donations can still be sent to Deran Lefor, 4630 98th Ave SW, Gladstone, ND 58630.

REQUEST TO OUR COMMUNITY

We are a very giving community and thanks go out to all that give time and help where needed. That time of year is approaching for Holiday fun and events. We would like to continue the tradition that started with the pilgrims, of gathering together to give thanks and feasting, through the Thanksgiving Community Dinner. But many that started this event have now retired. Without others willing to give some of their time this event will not be able to happen. IF enough help can be found the Thanksgiving Dinner will happen, so please offer a few hours to help a great Thanksgiving Tradition continue.

Happy Birthday Tom

By Kathy Craig Harteis

Greetings from Bismarck, ND.

Tom and I have been here for a couple of days to celebrate his birthday.

It doesn't take much to entertain us when you get to our age. Shopping in bigger stores than we have at home, going to a movie and dining out is what makes us happy.

The movie we caught was "Ticket to Paradise" with Julia Roberts and George Clooney. We thought it was great and would watch it again.

It's been a good weekend and I think he's had a fun birthday.

We'll head home today and expect snow by evening. Apparently our beautiful fall was short lived. But as all good North Dakotans know, that was likely first fall. We'll have another before winter sets in.

I noticed more merchandise in the stores this visit. For far too long the shelves were often bare.

Maybe things are improving. We'll see.

With Tom's birthday now passed I know mine is looming in just a couple of weeks.

I'm ever thankful for birthdays that find me still upright and functioning. I don't like getting old, but it's a fact of life for all of us. No matter, I'll go down fighting.

I admit to being a tad bit high maintenance. I'm not so much so that I can't do a good days work though.

The key is to keep moving. I had to laugh at myself last week. I was out for my walk and feeling so proud that I was mustering the energy to do the half hour stint around town. Then I see a younger, fitter woman jog by me. My pride slacked a bit.

But, admittedly I was never a jogger even when I was younger.

It's all good. I may be walking with my jacket on while others jog past me, but I'm moving. That's the important thing. It's all good.

Life is good today.

An Unusual Halloween Story

by Geno
It was Halloween in Smalltown, North Dakota. Kids donned their masks and costumes to prepare for trick-or-treating.

This past year, old Mrs. Hagrah had moved into town and purchased one of the oldest houses with not much paint left on it. She was very friendly, decorating her yard with ghosts, pumpkins, and big orange lights to welcome the kids for treats.

After Jimmy and Amy got home from getting as much candy as they possibly could, they went to their rooms to sort it out. Kids are smart. They know who gives the best treats. The new lady, Mrs. Hagrah, had outdone everyone this year. She gave a very large, special candy bar for every child. It was even gift wrapped with spooky paper. Jimmy and Amy decided to eat her candy bar first. It was "deliciously divine" but very different tasting. They really enjoyed it. After they were done eating, they put the rest of the candy away for later, picked up their toys and books, put on their pj's, brushed their teeth, and went out to kiss mom and dad good night. Then they said their prayers and went to sleep.

The next morning they made their beds, dressed, combed their hair and went to the kitchen for breakfast. While eating they visited with each other, grabbed their books, and left for school. Their mom was pleased, as usually there were fights and spats. When she went to their rooms, she was more surprised to see the beds made. No toys or clothes were on the floor!

She called her neighbor, listening to the same experience at their house. They were happy but perplexed at the sudden positive change in their children. They decided to call the school and warn the teachers to "watch" for strange actions during the day. After school the teacher called to report nothing but politeness and courtesy from the children. They all did their assignments without whining or complaining. There were no fights nor problems on the playground for the first time since the school term had begun. It was a wonderful day at home and at school!

The next morning Jimmy had to be called three times before he got out of bed. He hassled Amy for staying in the bathroom too long, griped about the cereal, and said the toast was burned. After the children left for school their mom went to their rooms to find unmade beds and toys all over the floor. "I guess things are back to normal," she sighed. "It was great while it lasted!"

At school that day, the teacher broke up a couple of fights on the playground. Then the students tattled on each other, tried to cheat on a test, and groused when she assigned homework. "I guess things are back to normal. It was great while it lasted!" That morning old Mrs. Hagrah sat at her dining room table studying her large candy bar baking manual. "I think that worked well. I gave everyone a pleasant day. It's too bad the portion in that recipe only lasts for twenty-four hours. Now, let me see what I can come up with for next year! Heh, Heh, Heh!!"

State Contest For Students

By Marlene Kouba

Agriculture is the leading economy in North Dakota and brings in over $6.6 billion in cash receipts every year. We lead the nation in raising edible beans, canola, flax, honey, oats, peas, durum and spring wheat. We grow other crops and raise livestock, too. Agriculture is important to many people.

How many words can be made from the letters in the word AGRICULTURE? That is the challenge for fifth grade students all over North Dakota. Many students are more observant than others and some are good at puzzles.

This contest will be to find out who can find the most smaller words in that one long word. Students should number the words they find. There are 5 vowels but no O and 6 consonants. It will be a challenge. Put your full name, address and school on the back of your entry.

Students or their teachers should send their entries to Marlene Kouba, 6160 105th Ave SW, Regent, ND 58650. Entries should be postmarked by or before November 12. Those with the most correct words will get cash prizes.

This contest is being sponsored by North Dakota Women Involved in Farm Economics (WIFE). WIFE is a grassroots organization committed to promote agriculture and improve its profitability.

A second service will be held 11am Monday, October 31, 2022 at the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Lemmon. Interment will take place in Greenhill Cemetery in Lemmon, with Military Honors provided by the Brattvet-Green American Legion Post #66.

Arrangements are with Leverington Funeral Home of the Northern Hills in Belle Fourche. Both services will be available to view online, from David's obituary page, located on the funeral home's website: www.LeveringtonFH.com David's video tribute will be also made available there as well.

At the family's request, please do not send flowers. In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred to the Foothills Community Church or the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Chaplain (COL) David P. Peterson, Retired, was born on January 4, 1941 in Lemmon, South Dakota. He graduated from Lemmon High School in 1958 and received his BA degree from Covenant College, St. Louis, Missouri in 1962. He continued his studies at Covenant Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri, receiving a Master of Divinity in 1965 and was ordained as a Presbyterian Minister in July 1965. While at Covenant, David met the love of his life, Sandra, and they married on June 9, 1964.

As a Chaplain in the U.S. Army, David ministered to soldiers of all ranks for 30 years. David was as equally concerned about ministering to enlisted soldiers and non-commissioned officers during two combat tours in Vietnam as he was about ministering to the most senior commanding officers during Operation Desert Storm. In his assignments throughout the United States, David positively impacted soldiers and their families with his living Christian testimony. He provided comfort, wisdom, and encouragement to everyone he knew. He retired from active-duty service in 1995 and moved to Sturgis, South Dakota.

Following military service, David served as the Executive Director of the Presbyterian and Reformed Joint Commission on Chaplains and Military Personnel (PRJC) and Coordinator for Chaplain Ministries, Mission to North America (MNA), Presbyterian Church in America (PCA). In these roles, David recruited, sponsored, and mentored dozens of Chaplains who served in multiple branches of the military and communities of service. He retired from this ministerial role in 2010.

While David had many significant professional accomplishments, his source of joy was serving God, serving others, and uplifting his family. He and his beloved wife, Sandra, created a refuge for family gatherings where wonderful memories were created for his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, extended family, and so many others. He fixed four wheelers, saddled up horses, guided pheasant hunts, prepared the swimming pool, jumped on trampolines, and refereed family skeet shooting competitions. He did all this with contagious enthusiasm, a fun-loving attitude, and an endless supply of "grandpa sayings" that endeared him to all. He never faced a task too great that he couldn't complete for the enjoyment of his family. The love he showed and generosity he shared left a legacy of happiness, joy, and love. His life will continue to be an inspiration for many generations.

David is survived by his wife, Sandra of Sturgis, South Dakota; son, Jeffrey (Lili) Peterson of West Point, New York, daughters, J'Lane (Peter) Dunning of Beaufort, South Carolina, and Julie (Paul) Durfield of Hattiesburg, Mississippi. David's grandchildren include Jessica (Joshua), Kayci, Sydney (Ian), Olivia (Blaine), Benjamin, Joseph, Anna, Stephen, Clara, Meghan, Faith, Ginny, Caleb, Hudson, Heath, Colter, and Jeremiah, as well as great-grandchildren James and Elizabeth. He is also survived by brothers Robert (Karen) Peterson of Lemmon, South Dakota, Roland (Jane) Peterson of Lemmon, South Dakota, Kenneth (Pauline) Peterson of Aberdeen, South Dakota, and sister Delores Long of Lemmon, South Dakota.

David was preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Winnie Peterson, his brother, Charles, brother-in-law Art, and sisters-in-law, Rosemary and Ruth.

Dennis D. Olson Rites Held

Dennis D. Olson, 77, of Bowman, ND, passed away on Monday October 16, 2022 in Bowman, ND.

Funeral Services for Dennis were on Saturday, October 22, 2022 at 2:30 p.m. at the Bowman Assembly of God Church. Pastor Ed Kvaale officiated with a burial that followed in the Bowman Cemetery. There was a time of sharing stories and memories with a Family and Friends Service before the funeral from 1-2 also at the church on Saturday, October 22, 2022. Visitation was at the Krebsbach and Kulseth Funeral Home Chapel on Friday, October 21, 2022 from 12-9.

Services Were Live Streamed On The Bowman Assembly of God Facebook page.

Dennis Dean Olson passed away in a tragic car accident on October 17, 2022 when God saw fit to take him to Heaven. Dennis was born on May 11, 1945, to Russell and Pearl Olson in his Grandpa Alfred Moor's house in Slope County, North Dakota. He spent his whole life working on his father's farm and ranch.

Dennis struggled with major depression and anxiety most of his life. These mental issues kept him from accomplishing a lot that he would've liked to accomplish in life. But he was a very talented self-taught mechanic. He saved the farm many dollars fixing machinery over the years, and he didn't mind getting greased up in the process.

On June 30th, 1973, Dennis married Laura Justice from Ridgeway, Virginia. To this union were born two rambunctious boys whom Dennis dearly loved—Danelle Dean and Daryl Dennis. He was very proud of who his sons became.

Dennis was a faithful attendant of Bowman Assembly of God for many years. He surrendered his life to Jesus as a teenager and served Him the rest of his life. Dennis had a beautiful singing voice, although not many people got to hear it. His church would have Singspiration nights once in a while, and one of his favorite activities to participate in was the Hymn Guess. He only needed to hear the first few notes of a hymn, and he could guess what it was long before anyone else. He had a true love for old hymns and could sing many of them from memory. Even with joys like these, life had become a burden for Dennis. The Lord released him from that burden, and although we will miss him, we surrender him to God to spend eternity with his Savior.

Dennis is preceded in death by his parents, Russell and Pearl (Moor) Olson, and sister, Janice White. He is survived by his wife of 49 years, Laura (Justice); his siblings, Annette (John) Culbertson, Lois, Melvin

Public Invited to Annual Prayer Day November 16 at the University of Mary

BISMARCK, ND — A quick visit to Father Nathan Cromly's website, it is evident he is one of the most engaging, inspiring, and adventurous nationally known speakers one would ever meet. One might even meet him hiking in Colorado where he currently ministers, or on a trail in the Badlands of North Dakota where he's been known to accompany campers. He uses those opportunities in "God's country" for fellowship and faith formation. He's served as a Catholic priest of the Brothers of Saint John since 2007. In 2003, Cromly founded three integrated ministries: the Saint John Leadership Institute, the Saint John Leadership Network, and the Eagle Eye Ministries — all of which, have touched the lives of tens of thousands of teenagers, married couples, families, and business professionals — including Michelle Duppong, a North Dakota native who Bishop David Kagan has opened a diocesan investigation to determine whether it could lead to her beatification and canonization. Eagle Eye Ministries is where Cromly and Duppong came to know each other and worked together before her years as a FOCUS Missionary. Cromly is featured in a forthcoming documentary about her life, "Thirst for Souls: the Michelle Duppong Story." The University of Mary and its Saint John Paul II Center for University Ministry is honored to welcome Cromly and the public to the 45th annual Prayer Day event Wednesday, November 16, 2022, 10 a.m., in Founders Hall of the Lumen Vitae University Center (LVUC). Cromly's keynote, The Need for Everyday Saints, which is free and open to the public, will follow Mass at 9 a.m. in Our Lady of the Annunciation Chapel. A panel discussion commences at 11 a.m. followed by lunch and fellowship at noon down the hall in The Crow's Nest Campus Restaurant. Five-dollar lunch tickets are available for purchase in The Crow's Nest at mealtime. Breakout sessions begin at 1 p.m. led by featured theology faculty of the University of Mary Dr. Michael Morris ("Prayer in the Old Testament"), Dr. Michon Matthiesen ("Prayer in the Liturgy"), and Dr. John Kincaid ("Prayer in the New Testament"). Pumpkin Winners

The pumpkin listed in last weeks Eido raised by Lynn and Holly Waddell weighed 100 lbs. 11 oz. Christina Geertz, Regent and Tina Lefor, Gladstone/Lefor both guessed the closest weight. Each are the winners of a box of homegrown potatoes. 109 people guessed the weight from 73 lbs. to 400 lbs. It was a fun contest and Lynn said maybe we'll have another contest next year.

Thank you Lynn and Holly for your inventive fun contest. Gives us something to smile about.

Thoughts for the Week

by June Schmidt

One of the definitions of the word Perception is a way of regarding, understanding or interpreting something; a mental impression. The problem with the word is that it is subjective by each individual. One person can see or hear something and think one way and every other person can see or hear the same thing and based on their perception it can be seen or understood as something entirely different.

When we were kids there was a game where we sat in a circle and one person whispered something in the ear of the person beside them and then that person turned to the person on the other side and passed on what he heard. By the time it got around the entire circle, the message that started out was entirely different than what it started with. We all got a laugh about it as it was funny to hear what each person heard and then what they passed around.

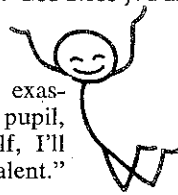

What I am thinking is that there is a possibility that social media has become the new game in which a message is put online and when it is passed around from person to person, website to website, the message becomes changed from what it was originally started out as. So the problem becomes to find out what the original message is and what part of that message is the truth and what has become garbled by repetition and misinterpretation.

There's a song from the 70's called "We won't get fooled again" sung by The Who and the lyrics of the chorus are as follows. I'll tip my hat to the New Constitution, Take a bow for the New Revolution, Smile and Grin at the Change all around. Pick up my guitar and play, Just like Yesterday, Then I'll get on my knees and Pray, We don't get Fooled Again. The last lines are Meet the New Boss, Same as the Old Boss. When we were young in our 20's we thought we knew it all and we all knew what was going on was wrong and that there had to be a better way. The funny part of it all is that while some things changed, most things didn't and here we are again listening to people that say we have to change and they are sure that their way is better than the old way. Amazing how what goes around comes around again.

So how does change really come about in today's world? Is it really done by those who want change or is it done by those that are powerful enough to force change. Is it done by the man in the street or the man in an Ivory Tower that has the money or the connections to get people to see things his way. I don't have the answers to that question. I do know that we all have a civic responsibility to care what happens in our world, but with the world that we live in do we have any power left? If we pick a man that we think is a good man and believes as we do to do the right thing and represent us in Government, does that mean that he will? Who do we believe anymore because if you listen to social media and the news channel of your choice, there are varying opinions on every person. Which one is the right one? How do we judge a person anymore? People tend to filter out any information that does not correspond to their own views. So it stands to reason that we all have our own opinions therefore, each statement that we hear has to be judged by our own perceptions and not the perception of others. So as the day comes when we are asked to exercise our right to vote, what will we do? It is interesting to see that change comes every time there is an election of some sort. Is it a good change or a bad change. Kind of sounds like the line in the Wizard of Oz movie when the Lilliputians ask Dorothy if she is a Good Witch or a Bad Witch. Only time will tell if there will be a change or if it is like the words of the song: Meet the New Boss, Same as the Old Boss. God Bless you all.

"I'm warning you," said the exasperated piano teacher to her pupil, "if you don't behave yourself, I'll tell your parents you have talent."

Visiting Noah's Ark

by Sharon Larson

Ever found yourself wondering how large a boat would have to be in order to carry two of every land animal that existed a few thousand years ago? A group of adults went on a Diamond tour sponsored by Badlands Ministries on Oct 8-16 to the Ark Encounter and the Creation Museum.

Ark Encounter is a Christian young Earth creationist theme park that opened in Williamstown, KY in 2016. The centerpiece of the park is a large representation of Noah's Ark, based on the Genesis flood narrative contained in the Bible. It is 510 feet long, 85 feet wide and 51 feet high. Noah's Ark is the largest timber-framed structure in the world, built from standing timber, in part by skilled Amish craftsman. Step inside to explore 3 decks of world-class exhibits about events that led up to, during and after the Great Flood as recorded in the Book of Genesis. At the Ararat Ridge Zoo you can meet animals from around the world and discover how they are a part of the Noah's Ark story.

The tour also took us to the Creation Museum in Petersburg, KY. This is a 75,000 square foot building which has a special effects theater, a planetarium, botanical gardens and insect collection. The museum depicts humans and dinosaurs coexisting which reflects young-Earth creationist beliefs. There are 140+ state of the art exhibits on creation science, including a dinosaur exhibit.

The tour also included a stop at the Cincinnati Museum center where we enjoyed a OMINMAX show of the National Parks in the US, a holocaust exhibit and a history of the Cincinnati region.

Yet, most words that begin with X are pronounced as 'Z', such as in Xylophone. An Xbec is a three masted boat of yore and an Xeno is a stranger and a Zinnia is a flower.

If it sounds like X, more than likely it begins with EX. As a prefix it means former as in X patriot, X wife, or X convict. A patriot is someone who loves his homeland but when he gets tired of being landless, homeless, without sustenance and covering, he goes to another country where he is an X-patriot.

After much research I came across the name ZAMZUMMIN. I thought this interesting because there are many tribes in Africa with names that begin with 'Z'. That is 'Z' as in Zulu.

At Deuteronomy 2:20 it reads: The Rephaim dwell in it in former times and the Ammonites used to call them Zamzummin. (2) They were a great and numerous and tall people.

And who were a great and numerous and tall people? The Zulu. So how did these people who are in N.W. Africa today come to be there. Well, you have to back up, retreat, call 'Roots' or research the progeny of Noah.

Jehovah God intended for the earth to be filled with a righteous race of people. They would be every size, shape and color that they are today. God is not partial. One of Noah's sons was named 'Ham'. Remember that ancient people sometimes gave their children names that describe their outward appearance. Ham came from an ancient word meaning 'dark'. Genesis 10:6...And the sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim and Canaan. Gen.10:15 says 'Canaan became father to Sidon, (Zidan) (19) So the boundary of the Canaanites came to be from Sodom and Gomorrah and Mizraim (Egypt).

The Exodus from of the Israelites brought them into Canaan that God had promised to the children of Abraham. The movement of millions of people was no secret. The 'roots' from Abraham are Ishmael, his son from Sarah's Egyptian (Cushite) maid, Hagar. In Gen. 21:21 it says that Ishmael's wives were from Egypt. (Mizraim)

There were no laws at that time against what people today call incest. Therefore, from research I concluded that the decedents of Ham were a dark skinned people.

So what did they do when they became aware that the Israelites were going to take Canaan? Well, what would you have done?

If you were in modern day Jordan, you could go across Sinai to the Gulf of Suez. Reed boats had long been in use going back and forth from Sinai to Egypt. So, I am speculating that many 'tall' people from the land of Canaan escaped into Africa where the Zulu and Zamzummin are today with their many names and words that contain the letter 'Z'. Z is for zebra.

Bringing Communities Together

EIDO

Volume 1 No. 1 — Wednesday, October 19, 1994

COME JOIN US

We at Eido Shopping would like to invite you to be a part of this shopping guide.

We moved to Mott 11 years ago, to farm. Our farm wasn't large enough to keep us busy so we went into printing which was Erv's profession for almost 30 years. With this adventure came the Eido Printing, Eido (pronounced I Do).

AN INTERESTING NOTE.
About Our Employees
 Ervin Schneider - started his printing field at the Mott Pioneer Press
 Donnavée Schneider - former Editor of the Mott Pioneer Press.
 Mark Resner - former sales representative of the Sunbeam
 Oscar Rogers - former Editor of the Mott Pioneer Press.
 JoAnn Wegh - former employee of the Mott Pioneer Press.

The Ei is taken from Ervin's name and Do from Donnavée's name. From Eido we found this motto - "Eido believe in what you are doing." We have tried to live with that motto because each of you have so much to offer and each opportunity that you have, to bring a smile to someone's face, creates a belief in another person.

Our hearts and minds have been toying around with an idea to create an opportunity to draw our small communities together. The Eido Shopping Guide came from this toying around.

Each of the communities in our trade area have special gifts to offer. Sometimes we fail to see these gifts, namely because we don't know they exist.

We invite you to use the Eido Shopping Guide to inform each other and create a pleasant atmosphere of working together to build stronger communities. Eido Shopping Guide will help us discover the talents and services we have in Adams, Hettinger, Grant, Sioux, Perkins and Corson counties of North and South Dakota.

We ask you to join us and place this motto in your hearts - "Eido (I do) believe in what you are doing."

We would like to thank our advertisers who made this first issue such a success, and also a thank you to the Grant County News for their story. It's your help that made this all possible.

A Little Birdie Told Me

By: Vivian Hernandez

A Little Birdie Told Me: "North Dakota Nice is Alive and Well in the Lefor Community!" LeRoy Reiner knows this first hand: LeRoy now 84 years old grew up in the Lefor area. He quit high school after his junior year and joined the Navy. He moved to California and started a machine shop business in Santa Clara. Trimac Mfg. provides: "Seamer and related high precision tooling to the Canning and Can Making Industry, both domestically and internationally." LeRoy also owned and operated a commercial salmon & albacore 45' fishing vessel, The BlueFin.

LeRoy continues to live in California and has a small home in Lefor, ND where he spends a few months each summer/fall. The account of the events from a recent fire at his home in Lefor is in his own words.

I will be forever grateful to the Gladstone and Regent Volunteer Fire Departments for the quick response to the 911 call for a backyard shed fire at about 9:15 on Oct. 10. Jared Kaufman and wife Tanner and 1 year old son Cooper, live across the street. They had a window open and smelled smoke, looked out the patio door and saw fire in my backyard. Jared came, banged on my house, his Wife Tanner immediately called 911; the fire was already very large. No chance for fire extinguishers or garden hose. Jared used the garden hose initially on grass fire going towards the house. Levi Hollinger a friend showed up, Jared gave the garden hose to Levi so he could make personal calls for help to Gladstone and Regent Volunteer Firemen that he knew. Levi Hollinger was able to keep the grass fire from migrating towards the house.

Local people including Jared & Levi know many volunteers firemen personally, what a great connection.

Shortly after the 911 call and calls by Jared two fast speed trucks showed up. They were able to control the fire and more important keep my house from catching fire. Shortly there after the large fire trucks showed up, 18 units total: Including a large water truck. 45 Volunteer Firemen were in Lefor at my house and surrounding area to prevent houses and out-buildings from possibly catching fire. Everyone stayed until at least 11:30 pm to make sure there were no dangerous "Hot Spots."

I cannot express my deep appreciation to the Regent and Gladstone Volunteer Firemen, showing up to fight a huge potentially very dangerous accidental fire.

Tina McDevitt lives on the next block south of my house, she carried a whole case of bottled water, very heavy to the Firemen, "45 total!" In case anyone needed water to drink: Very Courageous! I want her to be recognized for her action, she is a petite woman to carry a case of water that far. Tina is an asset to the Lefor community always doing silently different things for different people.

Also I want to thank Leny and Delinda Kaufman and their friends who stopped by to support me, during this very traumatic experience. Dennis & Cindy Schneider and their son Jake brought their farm water truck to assist with the fire. Honorable Mention goes to Brad Greff with Farmers Union Insurance for handling all the claims.

In regards to the burn barrel, the fire was completely out in the barrel for at least 4 hours. Something had to have landed on the shed and kept hot for 3 plus hours. I checked the barrel at 6:10 pm after picking apples for 3 plus hours. The small amount of cardboard boxes had long been burned, only ashes left. I checked the barrel before going into the house, pushed ashes with a tree stick and added an M&M candy box lying on the grass. I placed the stick and candy box in the barrel, two days after the fire I checked the barrel, to my surprise the candy box was brown on the bottom but not burned, neither the stick or the candy box were burned.

LESSON: Do Not Trust Burn Barrels, Potentially Very Dangerous! Four hours after the fire was out a very dangerous shed fire was caused.
