Eido Connect's
Philosophy for 2024

- DECISION -

“No Mans Land”

Time Machine stopped - fuel said empty - - nothing, no way to get back home - - nothing for to see except empty space - - no green grass, no homes, no trees, rabbit, people - nothingness - - .

A feeling of great fear entered MeMe - - what am I to do, will I ever get back home, will things ever be normal again.

Seeing nothing, MeMe, thought/hoped - maybe - maybe just over the hill so took one last look backward - Time Machine was definitely gone - .

MeMe shook self, jumped up and down, pinched several places on body - - am I just in a bad dream, do I need to wake up - - am I - - no I'm not dead - - all kinds of questions formed for MeMe until finally the realization finally sank in - - I am in unknown territory, alone, and what am I to do. Not having an answer MeMe sat down, looked around and saw or heard nothing.

Gotta figure out what to do - - no one here to help me. Just sitting, as strange as MeMe thought, the sitting seemed to bring memories to the front of MeMe's brain. Instead of being afraid, MeMe began to walk. Felt good, fresh air, every step seemed to put a little more courage (of which MeMe had none) into MeMe's system.

Looking around and seeing nothing, MeMe realized that was definitely one much needed attribute - - courage - - how can one live without courage - - when there is no place to run, no one to talk to, no where to go - -. MeMe thought about courage - what was courage in this situation. Never had to face courage before - always someone around to help with any problem - - now it was time for MeMe to deal with who MeMe really was! Who was the real MeMe - - questions began forming.

Vaguely, MeMe, with all the questions floating in and out, remembered a story in Grandfather's Book. She could visualize him sitting on the edge of the bed - reading - - chapter 6 “No Mans Land”. Every time he finished the story, the children would laugh and said they surely never wanted to go there - Grandfather always answered with - - wait and see - - someday - and he would smile, kiss the children good night and sometimes, one of the children would wake up and say they dreamed of no mans land - - would share their story and - - MeMe never had that dream - - now wishing the dream was part of - - well maybe if I had dreamed of it, maybe I would know what to do! Maybe Grandfathers stories - - maybe we should have listened better - - .

Up the hills, down the valleys MeMe walked - - will I ever get home - - am I in a dream - has my life just been a dream. Questions, questions, but no answers - - but more MeMe walked the more thoughts ran thru the mind -- and more thoughts brought much attention to the fact that MeMe was in a place where Grandfather had talk about - - .

No Mans Land

* A place where no one can find an answer from someone else.

* Must figure out answers for oneself, when things go wrong, can't blame anyone else.

* So easy to look at someone else and how lucky they are -- but don't know how hard they had to work before they reached that point.

The list went on and on for MeMe, then a thought came - - the man missing from the cross - - maybe just maybe - - - - - .

Goodness

Once again advertisers, writers, readers prove that life is wonderful. The stories and pictures couldn't be in the Eido, in fact there would be no Eido if it weren't for the advertisers. Be sure to thank them again for allowing stories, thoughts, memories to be a part of our lives. Every time we hear, read or experience something good, it fills our hearts, lifts us up and - - you know yourself how you feel when you hear something good.

Harold and the Purple Crayon

Rated: PG • Run time: 1 hour 29 minutes

Sept. 13th & 15th &
Sept. 20th - 22nd

Friday • 7:30pm
Saturday • 7:30pm
Sunday • 2pm
(with subtitles if needed)

Inside his book, adventurous Harold can make anything come to life simply by drawing it. After he grows up and draws himself off the book's pages and into the physical world, he soon learns his trusty crayon can set off more hilarious hijinks than he thought possible. However, when the power of unlimited imagination falls into the wrong hands, it will take all of his creativity to save both the real world and his own.

It just keeps getting a little goofier every day! I've heard about these trolls who send you unsolicited emails threatening to "disclose your on-line viewing habits", or, that nude photo that you sent to a "girl in California", to the entire world; and, then, soliciting +/- $1,000 to make the problem go away. But, no one had ever reached out to me personally with the scam. Until today. The gmail email lists my law office's phone number and home address while "warning" me to cooperate because "you have no idea what I'm capable of" and "I ain't playing games". There's even a photo of the wrong house attached to the email to convince me that this buffoon actually knows where I live. The author claims that he's been monitoring my browsing habits and, iPhone to garner my disgusting personal habits. WOW! If I only cared!

Guess the clown didn't get the memo I was in the hospital for almost a month and, therefore, unavailable to engage in any of these disgusting habits. Or, that, as a honey badger, I genuinely do NOT care whether he posts this crap or not even if it did actually exist. Because, at the end of the day, do you have any idea how stupid you have to be to threaten a state prosecutor with a patent criminal violation of NDCC Chap. 32-49 or Section 12.1-17-07.2? Of course, if I simply pay $1,950, by Bitcoin, my protagonist tells me that all of my troubles simply pass away, right? NAH! I think I will simply tell the fool to take his "keep the secret fee" and shove it up his... In the meantime, I'll forward the email to our sheriff and we'll see what that pops up.

And, unlike the new generation of Americans who actually care about what other people think about them on-line, at my age, I couldn't care less what this chap or anyone else out there thinks about any of my "disgusting personal habits". After all, they're MY personal habits! And, FYI, Mr. gmail.com, you have NO idea what I am capable of either! Let's contact the feds and find out, shall we? Have a great week.

Sweet Honey BBQ Sauce | Sweet Heat BBQ Sauce

About Crossfire Barbecue
Hello! My name is Heidi Mellmer, and I started Crossfire BBQ from my home kitchen in Reeder, North Dakota. Each ingredient that is used in my sauce is all natural, including honey that is produced locally in Hettinger, North Dakota! I use natural honey to stay away from the use of artificial sweeteners. It is my goal to keep all ingredients in this sauce natural, which makes production slightly more expensive. I believe this is worth it to share a product that I can proudly stand behind.
Thank you so much for supporting my small business!

Memories, milestones and mishaps

By Kathy Craig Harteis

About 25 years ago we were a nation in shock after the shooting at Columbine High School in Colorado.

Sadly in those 25 years mass shootings are no longer shocking. It has become fact that it is happening. Will happen again. Yesterday it happened in Georgia.

I heard one student interviewed say she knows she will not be safe anywhere.

That's a sad situation. Our kids should never have to fear anything.

At this point however fear is not unwarranted by any of us.

Think about it.

On we go living the best lives we can. Hopefully we continue to keep doing the best we can and keep praying for one another and our nation.

Update: This old girl camped in a tent, didn't shower or style her hair and hiked up a hill to an outdoor biffy for 2 days. It was wonderful.

I loved reliving memories of camping with my kids. I relished the new memories made with grandkids. There's nothing quite as good as an excited three-year-old running to grandma to tell her he caught two fish. It was great.

Not without mishaps, I did manage to trip and fall a couple of times. No harm done, I still managed to hike around the lake. Yay me! I'm a tough old girl.

I'm very thankful to son Val and his wife Sami for honoring my wish to camp again. Bless them both.

Home again. Today we are in the final stages of hail damage repair. The roofing crew has been on the roofs of the house, garage and shed all day.

By weeks end the project will be finished.

Life is good today.

I'm really not into Spring Cleaning... Come to think of it, I'm not into Summer, Fall and Winter Cleaning

Adams County Weed Cutting and Hay Removal Policy

Therefore, all weeds and grass along Township roads, designated by each Township (Organized and Unorganized) and the Village of North Lemmon, shall be mowed no later than October 1st of each year.

The prescribed height of the stubble to be left shall not exceed six inches. The minimum width of the cut shall be nine feet. A windrow may not be left on the roadway or shoulder of the roadway.

Maps provided by the Townships or the County for Unorganized Townships designating the roads to be mowed will be on file on the County Website for the landowner or operators review.

The Adams County Road Department will mow County roads by October 15th of each year.

All hay bales on County road right-of-ways shall be removed by October 1st of each year. Failure to comply will result in Adams County assuming ownership and removal of the bales by Adams County or its designee.

Approved at 8/9/2022 county commission meeting

A Little Birdie Told Me

By: Vivian Hernandez
 A Little Birdie Told Me:
 "There Is A Season, And A Time For Every Matter Under Heaven." (Ecclesiastes 3:1)

It has been a year now that we moved in with our Daughter and her family at Hazen Bay. Dave and I have our bedroom and everything except our clothes remains in storage. It's amazing how little we really need on a daily basis! Sometimes I try to remember what all we have stored away thinking, "Do we really need any of it?"

This past week we started construction on what's being called a "Mother-in-law suite." The addition will be 18X40 with a basement. We moved from a two-story farmhouse with a basement and 6 outbuildings and certainly downsized then. If you recall my story at the time we filled two roll-offs and hauled away 27 flatbeds, 3 semi-trailers, a horse trailer, enclosed trailer and two mini-vans!

We have collected antiques, toy tractors, guns, knives and tools of every shape and size and to what end? Now we have the daunting task of getting rid of the majority of what's left, but how? All this has me asking myself, "Why did we collect all this in the first place?"

The older I get the less attached I am to things and feel the need to be free of stuff. It's time to focus on what's really important in this life, God & Family.

A Little Birdie Told Me: "It's Time To Leave The Shackles Behind And Dance In The Freedom Of Christ."

2024 District 1 Cloud Seeding Operations Summary

BISMARCK, N.D. - As of September 1, cloud seeding has concluded for the District 1 operations area of the 2024 North Dakota Cloud Modification Project (NDCMP). For the season, there were 72.32 flight hours flown in the district, which included Bowman and part of Slope counties. Of those hours, 35.85 were flown for dual seeding purposes (rain enhancement and hail suppression), 1.54 for hail suppression, 9.12 for rain enhancement, 16.65 for reconnaissance, and 9.16 for aircraft repositioning.

Overall, 2024 District 1 flight hours were below the five year average of 97.74 hours. There were 22 operational days out of a possible 92 project days when hail suppression, rain enhancement, and/or reconnaissance flights were flown in the district. Dual purpose seeding flights were flown on 10 of the operational days, hail suppression on 1 day, rain enhancement on 3 days, and reconnaissance operations on 14 days.

Planning meetings for the 2025 NDCMP will be held in January. Seeding operations are currently scheduled to resume June 1.

Twenty Animal Rescues Across North Dakota Join Forces to Raise Money and Awareness for Homeless Animals

Twenty North Dakota animal rescues and shelters have come together to host two weeks of online giving, aimed at helping animals in need across the state of North Dakota. NORTH DAKOTA RAISE FOR RESCUES is all about raising money to help animals AND, just as importantly, raising awareness of the problem of too many stray, abandoned, and neglected pets in our state.

For Belle's Sake -- Rescue/ Rehabilitation, Furry Friends Rockin' Rescue, Hairball Haven, Kitty City, Kriiter Krazy Reptile and Exotic Rescue, Meowwers Cat Rescue, Miles of Love Dog Rescue, Mondak Animal Rescue, Prairie to Peaks Animal Assistance Foundation, Oreo's Animal Rescue, Purrfect Pound Pals, The Crazy Cat Crew, The Humane Society of Richland/ Wilkin Counties, The Stray Sanctuary, and TLC-ND Animal Rescue. Rescues are located across North Dakota.

"Just as important as raising funds is raising awareness of the pet overpopulation problem in North Dakota and how we need help from our communities to solve it," said [spokesperson last name]. "We need to be having more discussions about the need for spaying/neutering, pet adoption, fostering, and volunteering. We encourage everyone to donate from the heart and help spread the word about this event to help all the animals."

People can find information about the event on the Facebook page of any of the listed rescues. There is also a separate Facebook page just for the event - @NDRaiseforRescues. For questions or more information about the event, contact Kady Hansey Walker with Meowwers Cat Rescue in Bowman at 701-979-5602.

"Animal rescues and shelters in North Dakota are overflowing and they are working every day to save more stray, abandoned, injured, and neglected pets," said [full name and title of spokesperson]. "These pets need care, shelter, and food every single day -- and that costs time and money. North Dakota Raise for Rescues is a joint effort -- all the rescues and shelters working together -- to raise money for the many pets in need in our state."

From Sept. 2 through the 15, donors can donate any amount and will receive a pet water bottle sticker mailed to them as a thank you. Donations can be made at cdhs.ejoinme.org/NDR4R2024 or by texting RESCUE to 366283.

Proceeds from the event will benefit Adopt-A-Pet FM, Animal Empowerment League, Central Dakota Humane Society, Coal Country Animal Rescue, Diamond in the Ruff Pet Rescue,

SOLDIER FOR THE AGES
By Francis Martin

Kadee had lived with this dissension in the Martin family ever since James told her about it. She asked Shorty where Kathryn was calling from. He just sighed and said, "Some women's prison in California."

Kadee felt a shiver come over her. "Really?"

"Life sentence."

"I'm glad that your folks don't know about this."

"She made her own choices."

"Did she tell you why?"

"Ah, yeah. She killed some guy. When I told her about how James just disappeared off the face of the earth, she laughed and said, 'How do you know I didn't kill him?' That's when I hung up."

No one ever heard from her again.

A couple of weeks went by before they heard from Dunn County again. He was glad that he had not believed the man was James. The letter was not from the coroner, but the Crime Lab. It said, "We regret to inform you that in the process of sending the remains to the Crime Lab, they had accidentally been put in the wrong box. The remains were cremated along with the other items. We apologize."

Now the remains were gone forever. Kadee said, "Hallelujah!"

She and Shorty sat on the deck at the house they had inherited from Paul and Caroline in Minnesota. There was just enough of a breeze to keep the mosquitoes away. The lake rippled between pink and purple as the sun went down. Cicadas chirped in the brush and trees.

"I promise never to talk about this again, but I've got to tell you that that night, when I had to take the kids back to the house, James had been distant and moody all that week. I mean worse than ever. It was as though someone else was trapped in his body and was trying to get out. When I left the campfire, I told him I would come back as soon as I took care of Nicky's teething problem. Deep down in my heart, I knew what was going to happen. When he didn't come home by morning, I just knew that was a reality. He was gone."

Kadee had never told Shorty this. There wasn't anything he could have done, anyway. She told him about how it was when they were kids and she used to be left with Dan'l when her mother went to work. Dan'l and James were best buddies, so when Dan'l went to Martins', to see James, she went with him. If it hadn't been for that, her life with James probably never would have happened.

"Somehow, I just knew we would not grow old together," she admitted, "Pauly was born when he was in boot camp. Nicky was born when he was at Ft. Benning. Beth was born when he was in Vietnam. He never had a chance to be a father to any of them. The only good years we had were when we were in school together. I was madly in love with him just like half the girls in school."

"Yes. We Martin boys were lady killers," he said with a big grin, "Maybe it was the way we looked in our basketball jerseys."

"Well, that too."

It was quiet beside the lake. "Here come the mosquitoes," Shorty said swatting one that was buzzing around his forehead.

They went into the house. "Did we get any mail today?"

"Oh yes. Sorry. One from Beth. I forgot to tell you about what she said."

"No more James' theories, please."

"Well, kind of....There was a lecturer at the college in Minneapolis who, she says, could pass for James when he was in his twenties."

"Beth never saw her father."

"True, but I have albums of pictures of all of us. I have their graduation pictures and a whole section of James and Dan'l when they were in the military. That was the only way I could see to tell them about their father. Then one day, Nicky said to me, 'He's not my father. Shorty is.' That's when I realized that just because a man may be their progenitor, does not mean he is their father."

"So, what does Beth say?"

"His name is 'James Martin.'"

If a picture is worth a thousand words, then Shorty's face said it all. Pure skepticism.

"Let me read it," Kadee said, Dearest Mom and Dad,

I only have a few minutes before class, but I have to tell you about this. There was a man here from West Point who gave a lecture and interviewed some students about life in the military.

Now get this...His name is James Martin. Gen. James Martin. He was born May 25, 1974, the day James disappeared. He is one of the youngest generals in this country.

He passed out some brochures as we came into the gym and I'm sending the one I got to you. Now if you look at James' high school graduation picture, you'll get the picture. I mean this is just fascinating. He grew up in a small town in Wyoming by the name of BIG HORN. You know, like the Battle of the Little Big Horn? He went to the University of Wyoming in Laramie where he joined ROTC. Since his area of greatest interest is History, he teaches the history of war in this country.

I'll call you later and tell you more. I've got 19 students waiting for me to tell them how to become published writers. They should ask someone else. Both of my books were published but were only modestly successful. I just haven't found anything captivating to write about. If you can think of something, call me up.

Love Beth

Pastor Julian Burgess - Western Plains Baptist Church

This week we are looking at 1 Kings 19:1-18 and Elijah the Prophet. We are going to be looking at his work for God and how it effects his life and the rest of his life. Elijah's ministry took place right around when Ahab was King and this man was a very very evil man and compounded his evil by marrying Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal, King of the Sidonians. He was King of a people no Jew was to marry into their culture. We start out in 1 Kings 17:1 when Elijah says no more rain till, he says so.

Then Chapter 17:2-7 God has Elijah to go into hiding and that He would command the Ravens to feed him and he was to drink from the Brook Cherith. After this in 1 Kings 18:1 God tells Elijah to present himself to Ahab and He would allow it to rain. In the meantime, Ahab and Obadiah are out looking for water and grass for what is left of their horses and donkeys. While looking, 1 Kings 18:7 Obadiah runs into Elijah and Elijah says go and tell your master, Elijah is here.

1 Kings 18:9-16 Obadiah hesitant to go and tell Ahab that he has found Elijah, goes anyway fearing that Elijah would be gone and Ahab would take his life. 1Kings 18:16 Ahab and Elijah meet and it was a heated confrontation about Ahab and Jezebel worshipping the baals. So, Ahab and Elijah make an agreement they would settle whether baals or God was the True Living God.

We all know that story, each took a bull and built an altar and sacrifice to see which god would take the sacrifice with fire. It was God, the True Living God of Abraham, Issac and Jacob. 1 Kings 18:40 Elijah destroys all the so-called prophets of baal. Then 1 Kings 19:1-3 Jezebel threatens to kill Elijah by the next day.

Elijah then runs away back to Judah and hides. He goes to a broom tree and sits down under it and prayed, that he might die, and then said, it is enough! Now Father take my life, I am no better than my Fathers. He feels defeated, helpless, tired, confused and a failure. It is enough. He has done everything he knows to do to get his people back to following God rather than being idol worshippers, but he feels he has failed, they just wanted to kill him. He was ready to give up and die, it was hopeless.

First of all, we all have felt that way. Elijah lost sight of his call, his call is to share and to present the truth to his people, and he did that. Elijah was looking at the circumstance. Jezebel had killed all the prophets of God. Jezebel was trying now, to kill him. He was all alone. God tells us over and over and over; He will never leave us nor forsake.

Exodus 3:12 God told Moses that I will certainly be with you. When Moses died and Joshua took over for him, Joshua 1:9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go. Jeremiah 1:8 Do not be afraid of their faces. For I am here with you to deliver you, says the Lord God. All these were Godly men of the Bible, that He never left them on their own.

When God calls us to be obedient to Him, whatever He has asked us to do, He has already laid the ground work. He has already made the path for you to travel, all you have to do is say yes or no. That is the hardest part of all, to put total Faith and Trust in God and allow Him to be in control and you follow.

Matthew 14:28-31 says it best. Peter saw Jesus on the water and said if you are Jesus allow me to come to you, and Jesus said come. Peter stepped on the water and all was good till he took his eyes off Jesus and he begin to sink and Peter screamed out to Jesus to save Him. Jesus took him by the hand and brought him in the boat. Peter quit looking at Jesus and started looking at the situation, and got in trouble quickly.

Elijah quit depending on God and got to looking at the situation that he was not capable of, handling nor did God ask him to. That's why God ask Elijah, what are you doing here. Elijah was running away God and what God had asked him to do, because Elijah had stopped looking to God for his guidance and direction, and started looking to himself. God said stop, pay attention, you're not all alone. Obadiah, has saved 100 of my prophets, 1 Kings 18:13. Then 1 Kings 19:18 I have reserved 7000 in Israel that have not bowed to the baal and every mouth that has not kissed him. See Elijah looking at the wrong thing.

When we take our eyes off of Jesus and get caught up in trying to do alone what God has asked us to do through Him. John 15:5 says, I am the vine, and you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without me you can do nothing. I encourage you to read the Bible. To study and pray over your reading of the Scriptures. That God would allow you little bits of understanding that you can hide in your heart, and in your mind to think on. Jesus is a relationship. To build your relationship with Him daily, read your Bible and Pray every day.

Almont's Labor Day Celebration

A crowd filled the streets of Almont on a sunny Monday morning, September 2nd, to help celebrate the town's 65th Labor Day Reunion. A parade, street races, a tug-o-war, inflatables for the kids and a variety program were on the agenda.

But the fun wasn't limited to Monday, it all started Friday, August 30, with an old, classic family movie shown at the Almont Museum, followed up on Saturday by BINGO and a scavenger hunt and karaoke later that night. Sunday was a warm one, but it didn't stop folks from turning out to take in the Almont Shown & Shine car show, Golf Darts and street dance featuring The Cody Charles Band.

The cars started rolling into town early Monday morning in anticipation of the annual Almont Labor Day parade—they arrived in classic cars, driving tractors and souped-up lawn tractors, some vehicles pulling decorated floats and throwing candy to kids anxiously waiting for the fun, and they came on horseback, some even walking in the parade.

The Almont Legion Post was recognized as the Grand Marshalls this year, and other special guests included the New Salem-Almont High School Band and Morton County Sheriff. The parade, which also included local church entries, other businesses and some political candidates, was followed by drawings for door prizes courtesy of local and area businesses and civic groups, street races for preschool children all the way to adult men and women, a boys-against-the-girls tug-o-war, barrel train rides for the kids courtesy of Kelly Dawson, inflatables and tours of the local museum.

People lined up for great food by Muddy Creek and Hound Doggs, as well as chili and mouth-watering, home-made pie with your choice of hand-scooped ice cream served at the United Lutheran Pie & Ice Cream Social, rolls and coffee served by the Almont Woman's Life Chapter, and more ice cream at Carolyn's Creamery where the vintage ice cream parlor atmosphere is as enjoyable as the ice cream and the company.

The variety program included a host of talent and music was the order of the day. Every seat was filled at the Almont Legion Hall, the new venue for the program this year, as the reunion attendees enjoyed the program as arranged by Sheryl Johnson with the help of Colleen Reinhardt.

As the afternoon turned to evening the last of the crowd headed for home and planning began amongst locals for next year's celebration.

Mott Public Library Awarded Grant

Mott Public Library was awarded a $1500 grant from the North Dakota Community Foundation. The grant was used to purchase two new children's dry erase tables, 8 new children's chairs, 1 new dry erase easel & various art supplies for children. All of these purchases have greatly enhanced our children's section of the library.

This grant also allowed us to have two scheduled art classes taught by Janelle Brackel this month. Children from ages 6 and up are invited to sign up for the paint class on September 17th from 10-12 or September 18th from 3:30-5:30.

Please contact librarian, Selena Merriman, to sign up, via text, 701-300-2801. We want to thank the NDCF for this generous grant to our library!

 Serving Belfield, Daglum, and Medora Lutheran Churches

Remember a big box of crayons with all the colors? Some were even colors I didn't know existed! Did you have a favorite color? Maybe your favorite color has changed over the years or maybe it has stayed the same. The favorites are easily recognizable. This box of crayons is one that contains crayons that are almost brand-new and others that are so short and stubby that they can barely still function as a crayon. They are all shapes and sizes and it becomes clear which are the favorites!

Are people that way? Who are your favorites? Do you choose them based on the way they dress or the way they look? Do you choose them based on their habits, their language, or their skills? Maybe you choose favorites because they think and look and act like you. James 2:1 states: "My brothers and sisters, do you, with your acts of favoritism, really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ?" as if to say, "because it doesn't look like it!" James calls partiality/favoritism a sin. James 2:9 "But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors."

Instead, Jesus reminds us to love ALL our neighbors. (Lev. 19:18, Matt. 19:19, Matt 22:39, Mark 12:31, James 2:8, etc.) Then, Jesus takes it one step further. In addition to "love your neighbor as yourself," Jesus says, "Love one another as I have loved you." (John 13:34-35) Not only are we to love others as we love ourselves (which can be great or not so good at times), we are commanded by Jesus to love others as God has loved us!

No matter the shape or size or color or ability or religion or lack of religion or any other differences of our neighbors, we are commanded to love all people following the example of Jesus. We can choose our favorite colors, and we might even have our favorite people, but showing no favoritism means we treat all people equally. When people are treated unfairly, James tells us it doesn't look like we even believe in Jesus. (James 2:1)

It doesn't feel great when others are treated better, and I don't feel that great when others are treated worse than I am treated. However much we struggle as humans, the good news is that God shows no partiality!

Acts 10:34: "In truth I perceive that God shows no partiality."

Deuteronomy 10:17: "For the Lord your God is the God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, mighty, and awe-inspiring God, showing no partiality and taking no bribe"

Ephesians 6:9: "There is no favoritism with him"

Romans 2:11: "For there is no partiality with God"

Therefore, YOU ALL are God's favorite!!

Ian Keith Traquair Rites To Be Held

Ian Keith Traquair, known as Keith to his family and friends (or just "Mr. T" to his beloved students), passed away peacefully due to complications from Alzheimer's on August 5th, 2024. He left this world with his children by his side and his favorite music bringing him comfort. He was 73. Keith was born on February 23rd, 1951 in Melfort, Saskatchewan, Canada, where his passion for music was clear from an early age. When most children might have reached for a doll or a toy car, Keith stood on his tiptoes to plunk out a melody on the piano and begged his parents for lessons (he cried until they agreed). Whether it was a jazzy tune on the trumpet or an improvised concert on the piano, Keith played music as easily as he breathed, and it didn't take long for music to become an integral part of who he was. Naturally, he received his bachelor's degree in music from Dickinson State University in 1973, and found himself eager to help inspire and educate the next generation to love music the way he did.

After teaching for a few years, he had an opportunity to chase another dream: becoming a professional musician. Over the next two decades he traveled the world, performing with The Jerry Lakes Show, the Roy Clayton Band, Janie Fricke, and more. He entertained the troops, delighted crowds of people, and charmed his bandmates with his seemingly effortless talents and affable personality. His biggest fans, Brianna and Kristopher, were born in 1985 and 1988, respectively.

In the '90s, he exchanged his keys to the tour bus for keys to the classroom, revitalizing music programs and igniting a passion for music in a countless number of students. While he won several awards over the years, including the Fellowship Award from Dickinson State University, and the Golden Apple Teaching award, his proudest accomplishment was watching his students grow up and follow their dreams, knowing that music would always be an important part of their lives.

Keith retired in 2021, but was never one to sit still for long—he spent his "retirement" writing and recording music, road tripping across North Dakota (or at least to McDonald's for his favorite cup of coffee), mowing lawns, and FaceTiming with his friends and family.

Keith is survived by his daughter, Brianna Traquair; his son, Kristopher Traquair; his sister, Marion (Sid) Bowles; and his brothers, Glen (Lilian) Traquair and Colin (Joëlle) Traquair. He is preceded in death by his parents, Ian and Audrey Traquair, and his sister, Jean Traquair.

A memorial service celebrating Keith's life and music will be held on October 26th at 1pm at the Ladbury Funeral Home & Chapel. In lieu of flowers, the family has established the Keith Traquair Scholarship Fund to help continue his legacy and inspire future musicians. Donations to the fund can be made at <https://keith.traquair.fund>

Alvin Will Rites Held

Alvin Will, age 82, of Elgin, ND, passed away on Sunday morning, August 18, 2024 at the Jacobson Memorial Hospital in Elgin, ND.

Funeral services for Alvin were held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, August 24, 2024 at the Ebenezer United Church of Christ north of Elgin, ND. Pastor David Skjoldal officiated with burial following in the church cemetery. A time of fellowship and luncheon was held at the Elgin Community Center following the burial. Visitation was held one hour prior to services at the church on Saturday.

Alvin Adolph Will was born south of Mott on March 1, 1942 to Adolph and Bertha Will. He joined his brothers, Ervin and Melvin, and his sisters, Lorraine and Mildred. His younger sister, Donna, joined the family the following year.

Alvin went to area country schools but never finished high school, as he was needed on the farm, when his father started to lose his eyesight. On November 1, 1964, Alvin married Marian Miller, who had moved from Hazen to be a nurse at the Elgin Hospital. They were married almost 40 years until Marian died of cancer in 2004. They had a daughter, Melissa, in 1965 and a son, Kevin, in 1970.

Alvin was active in his younger years with the Elgin Fire District, as a Buckskin township director, and in the Ebenezer United Church of Christ.

Milking was in Marian's blood, and in 1971, she convinced him to start selling milk. That started Alvin's career as a dairy farmer, and he now has the last dairy farm in Grant County.

Alvin loved farming. He liked being out in the field in a tractor or tinkering in the shop on equipment. Farming was his life, and even from his recliner, looking out the window, he made sure things got done.

Dogs were his soft spot. He loved his boys and made sure they were fed well, sharing his supper, hot dogs, sausage, and vanilla cookies.

Alvin spent the last six weeks in the nursing home after a fall at home and passed away on August 18, 2024.

He leaves behind his son, Kevin; daughter, Melissa; sister, Donna Worcester; brother and sister-in-law, Melvin and Ruth Will; his in-laws, Carolyn and Don Feldman, Joyce and Jerry Bloms, and Carol Miller; Max and Laurie Miller; Marian's uncle, Leslie Miller; and many nephews and nieces. He also leaves behind his boys, Oscar, Charlie, and Gus.

Preceding him in death is his wife, Marian; his parents; his in-laws, Ruth and Harold Miller; brother and sister-in-law, Ervin and Esther Will; sisters and brothers-in-law, Lorraine and Ervin Sprenger, Mildred and Norman Leischner, and brothers-in-law, Mark Worcester and George Miller.

Condolences may be sent and a livestream of the service viewed at www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com

Joyce Veal Rites Held

Joyce Veal, 92, passed away Friday, August 30, 2024 at the Western Horizons Care Center in Hettinger, ND.

Joyce's visitation was held at 11 a.m., Saturday, September 6, 2024 at Grace Bible Fellowship in Bison, SD. Funeral service was held at 2 p.m. Following the funeral, Joyce's family and friends were invited to share in a meal and fellowship before leaving for the burial at the Chance Cemetery at 4 p.m.

Joyce Elaine Wilson was born April 18th, 1932 at Chadoin Township, SD to Mabel (Peterson) and Louis K. "LK" Wilson. She was the sister of older brothers Milton "Russell", Doyle, younger brothers Louis and Dale, and younger sisters Hope and Faye.

She grew up on the family ranch on Rabbit Creek south of Chance, SD and attended country school in Chadoin Township. After her family moved to the Peterson farm south of Bison, she attended high school in Bison, graduating in 1949 as salutatorian of her class. On September 2nd, 1949, Joyce married Ralph Miles Veal of Bison, where they lived and raised two sons, Niles born June 4th, 1951, and Ridge born June 8th, 1956.

Throughout Joyce's life, she always had a job. While in high school she kept books for Watson's Implement of Bison. After graduation she was employed by the Soil Conservation Service. In 1962 Joyce started work in the accounting department for Grand Electric and West River Telephone, where she continued for 40 years until retirement in 2002.

In addition to her dedication to work and family, she enjoyed traveling to visit friends and family. Ralph and Joyce were avid bowlers over the years. They enjoyed many hours bowling in leagues and loved spending time with friends. In later years she and Ralph drove through most of the Western states in their motorhome. On their 50th wedding anniversary they went to Niagara Falls to celebrate. After their excursion East, she and Ralph agreed they liked the West best.

Joyce was very generous and an exceptional giver of gifts. She never forgot the birthdays of her sons, daughters-in-law, grandkids, and in later years their spouses and great grandchildren. Joyce made Christmas a special time for her family. Some of the happiest childhood memories for her grandchildren were Christmas at Grandpa and

Grandma

Joyce was preceded in death by her parents LK and Mabel Wilson, her husband Ralph Miles Veal, her brothers Russell, Doyle, Louis, and Dale, an infant sister Arlina, and her sister Faye.

Grateful for having shared her life are Niles and Jean Veal of Sheridan, WY, their children Shelly (Michael) Wayne of Kanab, UT with Eryn and Isabel; Cody and Lorena Veal of Sheridan, WY, with Wyatt and Easton; Ridge and Peggy Veal of Bison, SD and their children Ben Veal of Bison, Todd (Kim) Veal of Platte, SD with Hunter, Ryker, Asher, Thayer, and Kyle; Penny (Ben) Goold of Gillette, WY with Erin, Eric, Brooklyn, Brynlee, and Grant; Ryan (Sharla) Veal of Hulett, WY with Haley, Garret, Kasey, Taya Mae, and Daniel; sister Hope Reder of Sturgis, numerous nieces and nephews, and cousins.

Joyce's family and friends are encouraged to sign her online guestbook at www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com.

A livestream of the video can be viewed on the website also.

Sometimes silence is the best answer

The only true wisdom is in knowing you know nothing.

"First day in Heaven" especially catfish!! If he ever caught anything other than a catfish it was promptly turned into fertilizer for the surrounding native flora.

Dad would tell stories of spending many days and hours with his Grandmother fishing for bullheads while drinking bottles of beer.

On June 2nd 1971, Dad married the love of his life, Mary Ann Wolf. To this union two children were born, Ernie and Melissa.

In May of 2008 dad's life was forever changed when the absolute love of his life, his wife, Mary passed away. He mourned for his wife until the day of his passing.

Dad had a fantastic green thumb. He always had a gigantic garden every year. While mom was alive, she canned most of the vegetables from the garden and the rest was given away.

Dad also enjoyed baking. He loved to bake the "old recipes" If he didn't like how it turned out he would throw it away and start all over.

Dad was a country man. He was most at home on the farm. He loved doing the morning chores, gathering eggs, feeding the critters.....

The most important part of the year for Dad was lambing season. Dad was a true to heart sheep farmer. No matter how big or small the flock, he could recognize everyone of them by name!

He loved to spend time in the lambing barn caring for the brand new lambs and mothers. Dad had a great love for all animals.....except mice!!

Dad's greatest passion were his grandchildren Katelynn and Jase Sauvageau. They were the twinkle in his eyes. Dad's whole world revolved around his grandchildren. His days were filled with coming up with new things to spoil them.

Dad is survived by his children. Ernie and Niki Shear of Scribner, NE as well as his grand dogs Kya, Ranger and Mischa.

Melissa and Jason Sauvageau and their children Katelynn and Jase Sauvageau.

Brother: Scott, Emily and Ryan Shear of Bowman, Lori (sister) and Lonny Bagley of Billings, Mt. Connie (sister) and Ron Buchholz of Eagan, Minnesota, Brother: Dennis Shear of Bowman, Sister in Law Janet Holt and family. As well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Dad will also be greatly missed by his loving friends Lee Wayne Richard, Vince and Ella, Allan Halm. Just to name a few.

Dad was preceded in death by his parents, his loving wife Mary Ann Shear, sister Sandra Dubisar, grandparents, aunts and uncles.

Services for Robert "Bob" Shear Held

Memorial Services for Robert were held on Friday, September 13, 2024 at 11:00 a.m. at the Krebsbach and Kulseth

Funeral Home Chapel, Rodney and Betty Strobel officiated the services with fellowship that followed at the Bowman Lutheran Church.

During the early morning hours of February 18th, Dad passed away, after a short but hard fought battle with pancreatic cancer.

Dad was born on October 27, 1948 in Rhame ND, to Robert Ellsworth Shear and Dolores Marie (Thorson) Shear. He was born second oldest in a family of 6.

During dad's childhood years he spent a great portion of them living in Montana. His most lasting memories were made out there. Dad enjoyed the Montana landscape and feeling crisp clean air and the Big Sky over head.

Dad greatly enjoyed fishing,

Reflections on the Words of Life

by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

We have been looking in 1 Peter chapter 1 at the necessity and purposes of suffering in the life of the believer. We have seen that suffering is one of the main ways that the Lord purifies the faith of His people and brings glory to Himself. For as He sustains His people in their trials and as He makes them more Christlike by them, glory is brought to His name. We concluded our study of verse 7 last week. The verse ends with the words "Jesus Christ." This leads into the opening words of verse 8: "whom having not seen you love." The "whom" obviously refers back to Jesus Christ, and it is that word "whom" that I would like for us to consider. When Peter says "whom" here, he obviously means to the Lord Jesus Christ as He is presented in the Bible. And this is no minor point. There are many religions and even non-religious groups that have some sort of admiration for Jesus Christ. Yet the Jesus Christ they admire is not the Jesus Christ of the Bible. Christ is taught in some religions to be a created being—a great one, but nevertheless only a creature. In some religions He is presented as a great prophet. Many consider Jesus to be one of the greatest, perhaps the greatest of all ethical teachers. But what does Peter mean by this word "whom"?

The Jesus Christ that Peter is referring to here is the One whom the apostle John describes in the opening verses of his gospel: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made" (John 1:1-3). Jesus Christ is no less than God! He is the Creator of all things and the One to whom all human beings are accountable. It is actually denying the Lord Jesus to speak of Him as a great prophet or ethical teacher or example, if one means that He is ONLY these things.

When people say they believe in Jesus, it is important to know whom they mean. Is it the Jesus of the Bible? Do they believe that He is God? Because as soon as you say that Jesus is God, then you are obligated to worship Him. Some of the early Christians died for this very reason. The Roman Empire at the time of Christ and in the years following, proclaimed the deity of the emperor. The believers, though very good citizens, could not go along with this. They denied the deity of the emperor because they know that there is only one God, who exists in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. And we who are true believers in Jesus Christ today must not be satisfied to see Jesus' name on a list of the great religious leaders in history. Our desire is to encourage others to join us in bowing before the Jesus, who is the eternal God, the only Lord and Savior. Jesus is God the Son, who left glory in order to become a man. He lived in perfect obedience to all that God's law required. He healed the sick, raised the dead, opened deaf ears, and gave sight to the blind. He taught the truth of God with all the authority of the One who Himself is God. But He became man in order that He might be the Savior of the world. For in His death on the cross He paid the price for the sins of His people. He was the atoning sacrifice on their behalf, and He purchased them that they might be God's people forever. Friends, please be sure that you know and believe the truth about Jesus. Please be sure you are trusting in Him alone to make you right with God. May we all bow the knee to King Jesus, God the Son.

Thoughts for the Week

by June Schmidt

In a recent event in our local school, there was a lockdown that resulted in a local student being removed from the school for issuing statements of violence to teachers and other students. It is unfortunate that this type of behavior has happened in a small school in our rural community and it resulted in expulsion of the student. My question is why is there a student in a high school anywhere so traumatized that their answer to their life is to threaten to try to take another persons life and think it is acceptable behavior to brag about it.

I realize that it is impossible to return to life in the 1950's, 1960's or 1970's when the worst thing that could happen to you in school was either to get departed, get a wedgie or get locked in a locker. Or if you were a girl, to have someone walk into the locker room when you were changing, or to walk out of the bathroom dragging toilet paper, or the ultimate to have your 'visitor' when you went to school with a white skirt and no backup supplies. I know you can't die from embarrassment, but it sure felt like that back then.

I probably shouldn't be so surprised when every day, there are news reports in our state of knifings, shootings, assaults and whatever every time you look at a news source. People seem to feel that they can act out their feelings however they feel like it, without regard to consequences, and I wonder where this all comes from. Is it possible with the onset of all the violent games online and X-Box and even on the phones, that children are so used to seeing this that they fail to recognize reality from fantasy? If you play a game of first person shooter type, do you realize that it is just a game when you are young or is it similar to the situation when children are upset and distraught and think that suicide is not final? I wonder what goes through their minds about death since it is well known one of the reactions not to realize the finality of it at a young age due to the thought processes that are still forming.

Fortunately, someone did take this person seriously and told the right people so that the student was removed from the school. If they said this as a joke, perhaps the expulsion of the child will make clear to them that this was unacceptable behaviour and they need to reconsider their outlook on life. If it was not a joke, then it is possible that they can get some counseling to figure out why they feel violence is an answer to anything, as we are not normally aggressive when growing up. Yes, we all get mad, but most of us know what is the difference between correct responses and incorrect ones. It is always possible that this person came from a situation where this was not normal behaviour, but perhaps they were pushed one too many times so they need a reset. We will probably never know, but being a Christian, I would hope that they can be redeemed and understand why what they said was not the proper response.

So what can we do about this in our lives to help stop this behaviour. Perhaps we need to look closer at what games our children are playing and see if they understand the difference between gaming and life. Perhaps we need to see what their response is when they get mad when they are still small enough to change an aggressive attitude. Perhaps there just needs to be more attention paid as a family or even showing children the love that we feel for them. We can't change everyone, although that would be a wonderful thing, but we can change those that surround us by example and even by affectionate behaviour. A hug among family should be a recurring event and not just saved for a special occasion. My Mother loved to hug us frequently, which made me a hugger which I have passed on to everyone that I can. It's hard to be mad at someone that hugs you, so I wish you all a hug today. God Bless you All.

RECIPE OF THE DAY

ORANGE PINEAPPLE LEMON DESSERT

1 lemon cake mix
 1 can mandarin oranges, not drained
 3/4 c. oil
 4 eggs

Mix the above ingredients and place in a greased 9 x 13" pan. bake at 325 to 350° for 35 to 40 minutes. Test cake with a toothpick to see if the middle is done. When the toothpick comes out clean (without any mix on it) the cake is done.

1 container Cool Whip
 1 can pineapple (drained)
 1 pkg. instant vanilla pudding

Mix the above ingredients and spread on top of cake after it has cooled. Keep cake refrigerated until serving.
