"The Big Bad Wolf"

"Good morning glad to see you back - have any of you decided what happened to Little Red Riding Hood -- he laughed and said - I'll tell you what my Grandparents told me." and Professor Joe began.

"Fairy tales were used many years ago to tell a story of what was going on at that time. Each Fairy Tale was a story by itself, but my grandparents -- they were different - they liked to combine stories, make us think, use our own imagination- - they always said my imagination can change the world, one person at a time, but first it must begin with me - -."

Here's a story they combined.

Once upon a time there was born into the world a beautiful little girl who loved the color red - - so they called her Little Red Riding Hood -- also cuz by putting her hood up she thought she was protected. But they warned her that red would also attract the big bad wolf.

One day, when old enough she asked if she could visit her grandmother. They said yes but be aware of the big bad wolf. Not afraid she started off into the forest where her grandmother lived. As she passed a stream she heard much noise in the trees behind her. The Big Bad Wolf, she thought so crouched behind some big boulders. She waited - the noise got louder, her heart pounding, closing her eyes she saw - - the Big Bad Wolf - - louder, louder - - what will I do? Then silence - - she opened her eyes and much to her relief she only saw 3 little pigs drinking in the stream.

"Little Pigs, little pigs, what are you doing?" Looking up they laughed - - "Little Red Riding Hood what are you doing out there?" "Going to see Grandma - - you sure scared me - - I thought you were the Big bad Wolf," she replied.

Laughter again came from the three. "Come sit with us - we'll tell you about our story and how not to be afraid," and they began.

"We all wanted a home of our own - - we each knew what we wanted and when Sam, the oldest one told Joe and me what to do and how to build our homes we just laughed and said what does he know? and we did it our way. Well you know the rest of the story, but now we live with him. We are happy, safe, we get in each others way but what we learned is far above the struggles we have with each other - - we learned its important to listen to others, build a firm foundation and we're forever forgiving each other cuz we are all different and always doing something the other doesn't approve of."

"Are you still afraid of the Big Bad Wolf - - he almost caught you." - - "Well checking out all details with Sam," then they laughed. "Sam looked and my house of sticks was really blown down by the wind, Joe's house caught on fire when frying chicken and after running to Sam's house - listening to him, talking to him we found out the Big Bad Wolf was only a figment of our imagination - - its only what we think - - oh we have all the answers but - - its our choice - -."

The three pigs laughed - - "lets go with you and see Grandma."

Class dismissed - -.

Expressions of HOPE

Reflections on the Words of Life

By Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

We have been considering Daniel's dilemma and how he, by God's enabling grace, did not capitulate to the law forbidding prayer to anyone except the king. Knowing that he would violate this law, Daniel's enemies hurried to inform King Darius: "And they went before the king, and spoke concerning the king's decree: 'Have you not signed a decree that every man who petitions any god or man within thirty days, except you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?' The king answered and said, 'The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter.' So they answered and said before the king, 'That Daniel, who is one of the captives from Judah, does not show due regard for you, O king, or for the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day.' And the king, when he heard these words, was greatly displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored till the going down of the sun to deliver him" (Daniel 6:12-14).

Here we see the painful lesson which King Darius learned. These wicked men approached him with great pretense, asking if he had signed the law which they very well knew he had signed, then sprang on him the news that Daniel had prayed to his God. Darius now realized that he had been duped and had caused a good man to be trapped by a bad law.

Friends, there is nothing new under the sun. When Christians stand in the way of the advance of evil, such conditions will arise as those created by these wicked schemers. Even now laws in our own country are more and more targeting those who would wholeheartedly follow the Word of God. May God give His people the same courage that He gave to Daniel.

Our narrative continues in verses 15-17: "Then these men approached the king, and said to the king, 'Know, O King, that it is the law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or statute which the king establishes may be changed.' So the king gave the command, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. But the king spoke, saying to Daniel, 'Your God, whom you serve continually, He will deliver you.' Then a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signets of his lords, that the purpose concerning Daniel might not be changed."

The folly of Darius is a clear illustration of pride coming before a fall. This time one man's pride led to another man's fall. A proud person does not see the problems he is creating. Try as he might, Darius was unable to reverse the law he had signed. How much better it is to humble ourselves BEFORE we act. It is easier to NOT DO than to UNDO something.

There is an uncanny resemblance to Daniel's being sealed in the lions' den and another event which would occur centuries later when another innocent Man would be the victim of a great conspiracy and put to death. Matthew 27:66 says of Israel's religious leaders: "So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone and setting the guard." Thank God that both times, the actions of wicked men were in vain. Dear people, no one can thwart God. No one can overthrow His Kingdom. The ultimate victory is sealed by that One who came forth from the grave and defeated Satan's kingdom. Even if things look very dark, as they did for Daniel and for Jesus, God will have the last word. Daniel's night in the lion's den and Jesus' three days in the tomb only resulted in bringing greater glory to God.

Friends, are you a member of God's victorious Kingdom? The only way in is by relying on what Christ accomplished on the cross as payment for sin—and on nothing else—to make you right with God. Please be sure about this eternally important issue.

Harvest time: spiritual practices bear fruit

*Pastor Renee Johnson
Dakota Prairie Lutheran Parish

First Lutheran in Rhame and Bethany Lutheran south of Rhame*

As summer winds down our thoughts naturally turn to the harvest season. Signs of harvest are all around us—ripening tomatoes, maturing sunflowers, yellowing corn. Our spring planting is about to yield an abundance.

This cycle of planting and harvesting can also be applied to our spiritual lives. We can think about our spiritual practices such as prayer, bible study, devotions, service, and so forth as the 'seeds' that grow and yield a 'harvest' of deeper faith, closer relationship with God, greater understanding of our call to follow Jesus, and increased strength for living out our Christian identity.

Which leads us to ask ourselves: Are my spiritual practices yielding fruitfully in my life? If they aren't, what can be changed? We can also ask, as our farmers and ranchers often do, what can we do to increase our yield? Maybe this is a good time of year to add a new devotional book or to embark on a new plan to read through the New Testament or to begin a routine of more intentional prayer time in the morning or evening. What can each one of us do to ensure that our spiritual practices continue to yield fruitful, faithful results in our lives?

Maybe this is a good time of year to embark on a new plan toward greater health. The Apostle Paul, writing to the Romans, said, "I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect" (Romans 12:1-2).

Paul encouraged them to think of their bodies as a living sacrifice, identifying the way they treated their bodies as a form of spiritual worship. He urged them not to "be conformed to this world." And then Paul went on, encouraging them in this spiritual practice in order that they might reap the fruits of transformation and renewal as they draw closer to God and grow in understanding of God's will.

That's a crop worth tending. May you reap an abundance of blessings as you continue to pursue spiritual practices that deepen your relationship with God.

Trip of a lifetime

By Kathy Craig-Harteis

Tomorrow, daughter Velvet and I will fly to Edinburgh, Scotland where our journey will begin. I never dreamed that one day I would explore Scotland and Ireland. To do it with Velvet is the bonus.

We've planned this trip for nearly a year and finally it's here. As in everything, we don't know what to expect. Regardless the ever-positive Velvet assures me that no matter what, it'll be an adventure.

We've made our plans hoping that the Covid fears would wane and they did. This past week the UK's beloved Queen passed and now Charles is King. Things will likely be different there. Still, it's an adventure.

I've packed and re-packed. I've condensed the baggage to one small bag and a backpack. I have surprised my kids by managing this. I'm not known for packing lightly.

This past week granddaughter Lea turned 13. We are extremely proud of her and the kind young woman she is becoming.

We can all learn a lot from Lea. She appreciates everything. I hope she continues to feel that way.

For now, I'm ready for the adventure, and life is good today.

Get your calves off to a healthy start with the Gain Smart program from BioZyme. The three-step program starts with Vita Charge Cattle Drench, that promotes feed and water intake during times of stress. Step two includes the vita Charge Stress Tub recommended for calves for the first two weeks post-weaning. The third and final step is to feed Gain Smart minerals to your calves to achieve a healthy, efficient gain. Now through the end of October take $5 off per stress tub, and $2 off per bag of Gain Smart Mineral.

The last of the sisters

Sister Agnes to retire from hospital

BY JAMES C. FALCON
james@nordaknorth.com

GARRISON – Sixty years ago, Sr. Agnes Reinert began her nursing career as a student nurse at Garrison Memorial Hospital. In two weeks, she will be ending it in the same place she started.

Later this month, Sr. Agnes will retire from the hospital to return to her religious community in Bismarck. In her own words, Sr. Agnes has come "full circle," she said with a laugh as she sat in the conference room at CHI St. Alexius Health Garrison on Sept. 7.

She first came to Garrison to work at the Garrison hospital "for the clinical experience" in the summers of 1962 and 1963. Sr. Agnes was a student at the University of Mary, where she graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing in 1964.

While she went on to pursue her career after graduating, Sr. Agnes would find herself returning to Garrison.

For several years, Sr. Agnes worked as a nurse at St. Alexius Hospital in Bismarck. As a nurse, she rotated to every department.

"I think my biggest challenge as a nurse was when I was asked to be replacement acting director in the intensive care unit," she said.

The director at the time went on honeymoon. "I just presumed she was coming back; she didn't," she said. "I just did it, whatever needed to be done."

For 10 years, from 2002 to 2012, Sr. Agnes also served as a law enforcement chaplain with the Bismarck Police Department.

"That was a good experience," she said.

Sr. Agnes did ride along with assigned officers and assisted with different tasks, such as death calls, "if they allowed it," she explained. "There were one or two occasions when they said 'stay in the car.'"

In addition to this, Sr. Agnes was also a teacher, training students in pastoral education, as well as the LPN program at the University of Mary.

She also had stints working at the Jamestown State Hospital and the hospital in Carrington.

Nurse, teacher, Sister
Sr. Agnes' exposure to religion started early.

She grew up on a farm between Richardton and Mott in southwestern North Dakota. The local parish parochial school at St. Placidus "six miles off of (Highway) 8" was where Sr. Agnes and her sisters were educated by the Holy Cross Sisters. However, a visit from school board members raised the ire of their mother; they had informed her that her daughters were attending school outside of the school district.

"We were supposed to go to the public schools," she said.

Their mother relented and the following year, Sr. Agnes and her sisters attended public school; Sr. Agnes was in the third grade and continued through eighth grade until she attended high school in Mott.

Her mother, Catherine, had also received education by the Holy Cross Sisters in Wisconsin, but due to overcrowding in the schools, she returned to North Dakota.

In addition, Catherine's older sister – Sr. Agnes' aunt – Sr. Lidwina was a Sister of Notre Dame in Mankato, Minnesota. As children, Sr. Agnes and her siblings would visit her in Schefield, a small town between Dickinson and New England.

The feeling of wanting to become a Sister herself "was kind of with me, but not that strong," Sr. Agnes said.

During her freshman year, her home economics teacher asked her students "to put down your first, second and third choices of career you were interested in."

Her two older sisters were training to be nurses at St. Alexius and their mother had been a nurse, so Sr. Agnes wrote down nursing.

"Then I thought 'ahh, maybe I could be a teacher' so I put down teacher," she said.

Then, before she knew it, she wrote down 'Sister.'

"Where that came from at that time, it wasn't as conscious, but I put it down. I thought 'you know, maybe.'"

After graduating from high school, she followed the first path: nursing. She was halfway through her diploma program when her nursing instructor, Sister Leola – one of the Benedictine Sisters who taught in the program – approached her.

"Miss Reinert, it just seems like you've been preoccupied lately," Sr. Leola said to her. "Is there something you want to tell me about?"

There wasn't, Sr. Agnes told her.

However, she continued, someone put a Novena booklet in her mailbox. Then, she told Sr. Leola about how she was thinking about "seeing what it's like" in the convent.

"When are you going to do that?", Sr. Leola asked.

"I thought after nursing training," Sr. Agnes responded.

Sr. Leola was quiet for a moment.

"So you think it's okay if God is calling you to have him wait until you're ready?"

Sr. Agnes paused. She never thought of it that way.

It was Dec. 6, St. Nicholas Day, which was Sr. Agnes' father's Name Day. She called her parents and after wishing her father a happy name day, Sr. Agnes told her mother her intentions.

The next day, Sr. Agnes' parents drove up to Bismarck. They had lunch with Sr. Agnes and then took her to the priory. Two days after telling Sr. Leola her intentions of the convent, Sr. Agnes was received at the priory.

Sr. Agnes admits that she wanted to "try it for two weeks and it'll be out of my system." The desire to be a Benedictine Sister was there, but it was "hidden in me."

"I tell people I think I'm still trying it," Sr. Agnes said with a laugh. She then added: "It's been a very enriching spiritual journey."

And the journey isn't over yet. Her move to the monastery will be the next chapter.

It's time to go to my other community.

Her most recent chapter – "this time" at the Garrison hospital – started nine years ago in July 2013 in pastoral care.

"As a chaplain, I'm available to all people, regardless of denomination," she explained. "I am called when there is a critical situation, like in the emergency room; or a death to be with family for support. That's been a big part of my chaplain work."

Since arriving back to Garrison, Sr. Agnes has worked part time and is on call.

"I think that presence, that support is really important for families when they are in a critical situation, not knowing what's going to happen," she said, adding that she tries to be with them to help "keep things hopeful."

When she isn't working, Sr. Agnes said she loves to garden, help clean up the yard at the hospital and also visit around town. She also likes to fish on Lake Sakakawea.

"It's been a thrill to get out on the lake and even catch fish," she said with a laugh.

However, the day after Labor Day, Sr. Agnes tendered her two week notice.

She admitted that age played a factor in her decision.

"At my age, I need to leave before I'm going to need help myself."

"A few little health things," such as macular degeneration in one eye, also helped push Sr. Agnes in her decision to retire.

She has lived alone in the convent, located above the clinic, for about eight years.

"I'm quite an independent person, but it's time to go to my other community – my home community," she said, speaking about the Annunciation Monastery, located south of Bismarck on the University of Mary grounds. Here, she explained, Sr. Agnes will "get reintegrated and reinvested in my religious community."

As a Benedictine Sister, "we don't retire as such," she said. That devotion will always be there; it will just be exercised in different ways, such as assisting other Sisters in daily tasks or helping around the convent.

"I just have a yin to go traveling to see more of the country," Sr. Agnes added.

Outside of traveling to Germany for her sister's wedding or for religious conferences, such as a five-week conference in Rome, Sr. Agnes has never been outside of the country, nor has she seen much of this country, at least from a recreational point of view.

Last of the sisters

Sr. Agnes is the last Benedictine Sister to work at the hospital. After she leaves, there won't be another.

"We have no one else to come in and follow, either as a nurse or chaplain or any other position," she said.

When Sr. Agnes first started at the Garrison hospital, 50 years ago, there were a number of Benedictine Sisters in the ranks.

"We were at least eight, if not 10," she said. "We had a fairly nice sized community here."

Those sisters were older she said and many took the path that Sr. Agnes will soon take: retiring to the monastery.

When the hospital opened 70 years ago this past February, the hospital was staffed mainly by the Benedictine Sisters of the Annunciation Monastery (then known as the Convent of the Annunciation) in Bismarck. According to a story which ran in the McLean County Independent on Feb. 7, 1952, those among the staff included: Sister Andriette as administrator, Sister Angele in charge of nursing services, Sister Eleanor in charge of the X-ray department, Sister Mary Hyacinth in charge of anesthesia and Sister Lucilda in charge of the dietary department.

In addition to the shift in the Benedictine Sisters' overall presence at the hospital, Sr. Agnes said that "most everything has changed" since she first started at the hospital 60 years ago. Before, there would be "a very active hospital and staff and things happening. Now, things have all changed."

She noted that the recent downsize in staff – the number of employees who left the hospital because of the COVID-19 vaccination mandate – was "a disaster for many many small hospitals and larger hospitals, too."

Despite the geographic distance, with Sr. Agnes in Bismarck, she said that she will "continue to worry about the hospital situation."

"We've struggled so long and hard to get staff – and staff that will stay. In my resignation notice, I did put down my thoughts and prayers are going to continue for the hospital will be sustained in future times."

Returning visits to Garrison are definitely in Sr. Agnes' future.

"I hope to come back once in a while," she said, adding with a laugh: "Maybe at fishing time, here or there." James C. Falcon

A Little Birdie Told Me

By: Vivian Hernandez

A Little Birdie Told Me: "Why Not Minot? The Roosevelt Park Zoo of Course!" The Little Birdie turned 60 last week and yes my feathers are completely grey! My two daughters and three grandsons were off to the Roosevelt Park Zoo in Minot to celebrate the milestone. We took our kids to the Minot Zoo when we lived in Bowbells: it's great to continue the tradition with my grandsons.

The Riverside Park Zoo opened in 1921 as the first zoo in North Dakota: Renamed in 1922 to honor President Theodore Roosevelt. The zoo is open year-round with various hours depending on the season.

Adapted for the Armur River climate along the Russia/China border these large Armur Tigers prefer the cold and often nap to store energy for the hunt. Roosevelt Park Zoo is home to 5 such cats, 2 adults and a set of triplets. Other highlights include the giraffes meandering around their enclosure.

My favorite part of the zoo would be the amazing plant life. Flowers everywhere, in large pots in the ground beautifully adorn the walkways.

The North Dakota Medal of Honor Memorial is a wonderful tribute those who gave all. Staff Sergeant Jack J. Pendleton of Sentinel Butte is one of the honorees. Staff Sergeant Pendleton served in Company I, 120 Infantry, 30th Infantry Division, US Army. On October 12, 1944 his company was pinned down under machine gun fire, Pendleton volunteered to lead his squad after crawling some 130 yards he was wounded in the leg. He deliberately drew enemy fire upon himself allowing the second squad to advance undetected and destroy the enemy position; he gave his life for his country and comrades.

Another beautiful site is the Ten Commandments proudly displayed. Let's pray that we remain One Nation, Under God, Indivisible with Liberty and Justice for All!

A Little Birdie Told Me: "Visiting a Zoo is a Great Way to Pass on Family Traditions."

Lucille Seifert Rites To Be Held

On Sunday afternoon, August 28th, 2022, Lucille Seifert, passed away at the Lakeview Memorial Hospital in Stillwater, MN. She was 95 years old.

Lucille Helen Wagner was born on January 4, 1927, to Fred and Helen (Schorsch) Wagner of Richardton, ND. She grew up on a farm near Mott, ND, during The Great Depression. Lucille both graduated from Mott High School and moved to American Falls, ID in 1945, working as a waitress near the Pocatello Air Base at the end of World War II. She wed Martin Seifert on June 4, 1946, entering what would become a 65-year marriage. After moving back to North Dakota, Martin and Lucille farmed and ranched north of Haynes, ND on Meadow Lake Ranch. There, she became mother to six children*. Shortly after Martin's death in 2011, Lucille moved to Oak Ridge Place in greater Stillwater, MN. She spent nine years there, and, upon leaving, the staff called her "an icon."

Lucille loved to garden, canning a variety of vegetables. She milked the cow, operated farm equipment, drove school bus, served full meals for the field and home, and raised her family. As such, she taught her children the value of hard work. She also taught them the value of fun: Lucille and Martin traveled visiting family and friends along the way, fished, gambled, and played cards - she never met a card game she didn't like. Most importantly, she taught them the value of love. Lucille, along with Martin, demonstrated this love by improving and renewing her children's homes, imprinting cherished memories upon her children and grandchildren in the process. She leaves behind a tremendous legacy... and a mouth-watering doughnut recipe.

Rosary will be held at 6:30 PM MDT at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Hettinger, ND on Friday September 23, 2022, with a wake and biographical movie to follow. A Funeral Mass for Lucille will be held on Saturday, September 24th, 2022, at 11:00 AM MDT at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Hettinger, ND, with a burial service to follow at Hettinger Cemetery. Lunch will be served after the burial service in the church basement. All friends and family of Lucille are welcome to attend. In lieu of flowers, the family would ask donations be made to Holy Trinity Catholic Church Hettinger, ND.

† Lucille is preceded in death by... Fred and Helen Wagner (Parents), Joann Wagner and June Hanson (Siblings), Martin Seifert (Husband), Thomas Seifert and Frederick Seifert (Children), Taffy Seifert (Grandchild)

Lucille is survived by children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren... ### Amber Christine Beld Jensen Rites Held

Amber Christine Beld Jensen, 46, Whispering Pines,

North Carolina, previously from Bison, South Dakota, died tragically on September 6, 2022, in her home in North Carolina.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, September 17, 2022, in the school gymnasium in Bison, where she spent many hours in school. Pastor Brad Burkhalter officiated. Friends and family members are encouraged to share their special memories of Amber.

Amber was born to Ken and Beth Beld, Bison, SD, in Hettinger, ND, on September 7, 1975. She left this life on September 6, a day prior to her 47th birthday. She is reunited with her dad in heaven, who passed away when she was only four.

She spent her school years at Bison School, graduating in the spring of 1994 as a Regent scholar.

During those school years, Amber was active in high school sports. She was a high school junior and part of the starting five when Bison's girls' basketball team made its first-ever appearance in the state tournament in Watertown, South Dakota, where they claimed the fourth-place trophy. She was part of the cheerleading squad that won first-place honors in several competitions, including the state contest. Her squad also qualified for and competed in national tournaments in Dallas, TX, and Minneapolis, MN. She was chosen to perform during the Aloha Bowl's half-time show on Christmas Day in Hawaii in 1993 and was a charter member of South Dakota's first state cheerleader squad. She was a distance runner in track and qualified several times for the South Dakota State Track Meet. She was also part of a drill team. She was crowned Bison's Snow Queen in 1993 and went on to compete for the state crown in Aberdeen, South Dakota.

Following graduation, she attended one year of college at SDSU in Brookings, SD, and then moved to Washington State, where she married David Jensen in a private ceremony on June 17, 1995. She received her associate degree in Interior, Residential, and Commercial Design from Clover Park Technical College in Tacoma, Washington.

Two children were added to their family in Washington: Jaleigh Bliss on December 1, 1995, and Colten David on April 8, 1999.

The young family moved to Fort Bragg, North Carolina, that same year. They eventually purchased their lovely home in Whispering Pines, where they continued to reside until Amber and David's recent deaths.

They were members of Our Savior Lutheran Church in North Carolina.

Amber had her own successful business, Fine Design by Amber, where she kept more than busy (often having to turn clients away) designing kitchens and bathrooms and consulting on interior design. Her work was often featured in local magazines. She was recently nominated for the local "Best of the Pines" award. Amber entered her own newly-designed and functional kitchen in a nationwide contest in Taste of Home magazine, winning 2nd place and cash. Her family was featured in their January 2011 national publication.

Her favorite place on earth was their beach condo on Topsail Island, off the North Carolina coast. Often, she took her work there, enjoying long walks on the beach with her faithful little Dachshund, Greta Bean (1-1-2011 to 9-6-2022). She always referred to the beach as her "Happy Place" where she could spend a good amount of time "reflecting, reading and praying." It was a place where she always found peace.

Amber was preceded in death by her father, Ken Beld, on February 6, 1980, her step-father Roy Hulm on February 20, 2017, and her brother Kyle Hulm on August 14, 2018. Her husband, David, and Greta Bean died the same day that she did. Also preceding her death were her grandparents, Henry and Helen Beld and Eugene and Minerva Leitch, and one uncle.

Her untimely demise leaves many to mourn her loss who will miss and love her forever, including her children, Jaleigh Jensen (special friend Alex), Sandy, Utah and Colten Jensen (special friend Dina), Raleigh, NC; her mother, Beth Hulm, Bison SD; siblings, Jason (Wendi) Beld, Timmath, CO; Kendra (Pete) Theobald, Papillion, NE; Ryan (Raven) Beld, Spearfish, SD; Jared Beld, Aurora, CO; and Kirk Hulm, Box Elder, SD. Also, her mother and father-in-law, Mary Jean and Eldon Jensen, Lemmon, SD; and brothers-in-law Derek (Mitz) Jensen, Cedar Rapids, IA., and Greg (Tonya) Jensen, Hettinger, ND; and sister-in-law Kari Jensen (Kyle) Thomas, Woodbury MN; along with numerous, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and many, many friends.

Until we meet again, sweet girl!

(lovingly written by her Mom)

Condolences may be sent through our website at www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com.

William P. "Bill" Oberlander Rites Held

William P. Oberlander, age 71 of Mott, passed away on Wednesday, September 7, 2022 at the Jacobson Memorial Hospital in Elgin, ND.

William (Bill) was born April 9th, 1951 to Edward and Mary (Haugen) Oberlander, the oldest of five siblings. The manner in which Bill carried himself was marked by an admirable work ethic, a friendly demeanor, sharp wit and taking pride and care in all that he endeavored to learn and work on throughout his life. He gained extensive experience in many trades, starting when he graduated in 1969 working construction until he became an over the road truck driver from 1977-1991. He was known to take very meticulous care of his truck, and was capable of repairing anything on it.

When Bill decided to move away from trucking, he made a bold step to increase his skill set by going back to school to become a welder. Upon graduating in 1994 Bill began working as a production welder for Melroe Bobcat Manufacturing in Bismarck. He brought his attention to detail with him and was esteemed for his abilities.

He worked with Melroe of Bismarck until 2007 and briefly returned to trucking until taking a position at Mott Equity Agronomy in 2010, where again, his commitment to his work made him stand out until he retired. Retirement allowed him to focus his attention on gardening, home repair and tinkering on vehicles.

Outside of his success in the industry Bill enjoyed listening to music and reminiscing.

He kept his mind active through crossword puzzles and other games. He enjoyed reading and expanding his knowledge, and even his casual T.V. viewing consisted of watching game shows to keep his brain engaged.

Bill will be remembered for his hard work, humor and friendly nature.

Surviving are his wife, Nadine "Rose", Mott, ND; 2 daughters, Steph (Jody) Messmer, Mott, ND; Jennifer (James) Ray, Bozeman, MT; son, Billy (Erin) Oberlander, Mott, ND; 5 grandchildren, Ellie, Kat, Jorja, Zack, and Quinn Messmer; sisters, Fran Oberlander, Billings, MT; Nancy Mellmer, New England, ND; 1 brother, Tim Oberlander, New England, ND.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Deb Oberlander.

In lieu of flowers, the family would ask donations be made to the Mott Ambulance Service.

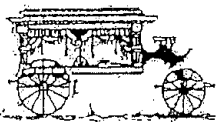

A Memorial Service was held at 10:30 am Tuesday, September 13, 2022 at the Mott Evangelical Community Church, 903 E 2nd St. Mott, ND.

Burial was in Sunnyslope Cemetery at Mott.

Diane F. "Tootsie" Brewer Rites Held

Diane F. "Tootsie" Brewer, 69, of Bowman, ND, passed away on Thursday, September

8, 2022 at the St. Alexius Medical Center in Bismarck.

Funeral Services for Tootsie were held on Monday, September 12, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. at the Bowman Methodist Church. Pastor Ray Sherwood officiated with a burial that followed in the Bowman Cemetery. Visitation for Tootsie was on Sunday, September 11, 2022 from 12-9 at the Krebsbach and Kulseth Funeral Home Chapel.

Services were live-streamed here: <https://www.facebook.com/rachelle.brewer.54>

Diane "Tootsie" Brewer was born on September 18, 1952, in Dickinson, ND, the daughter of Clarence and Rosella Magnuson. At birth, her father nicknamed her Tootsie, which became her assumed name throughout life. She was raised on the family farm south of Haley, ND with her parents and three older brothers. She attended country school through the 8th grade and graduated from Scranton High School in 1970. After graduation, she attended college in Rapid City and upon returning worked for MDU for a few years.

In 1973, she married Robert (Bobb) Brewer and moved to the Brewer farmstead northeast of Bowman, where they farmed and ranched all of their lives. Shortly after her father passed away in 1987, Tootsie started working for Rick Krebsbach, at Krebsbach Funeral Home, where she worked for 17 years. It was an honor and privilege for Tootsie to assist in caring for those that had passed and provide comfort for those left grieving.

Tootsie loved her family and friends but was especially fond of her children and all of their friends. Some of her happiest moments were spent cooking and gathering with others. When Tootsie's house was full of kids, whether they were ages 6, 14, or 22, she always made sure they felt welcomed and loved. She was notorious for having cupboards full of food, a candy drawer, a fridge full of pop and her famous goulash. She truly loved all people, children and animals. As a young girl, she had a very special horse named Patches and 2 pet raccoons. Over the years, she had numerous dogs and cats, but two of her most dearly loved, were Bo and Cody. Her grandchildren, which she not so patiently waited for, were so very special to her, and again always made sure she had their favorite snacks in her cupboards. Tootsie's laughter and smile will live on in the hearts of so many.

She is survived by her husband Bobb of 49 years, son and daughter-in-law, Ryan and Jodi Brewer, Bowman, daughter and son-in-law, Rachelle and Sam Juntunen, Amidon, 6 grandchildren: Trey, Aspen and Bowen Brewer and Jace, Kylie and Tenley Juntunen, her brother Darwin Magnuson, Bowman, Sister-in-laws: Susan Magnuson, Rocks Springs, WY, Verna Torpen, Rapid City, SD, Peggy (Terry) Harzinski, Bismarck, ND and Janet Haralson, Sidney, MT and several nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents and 2 brothers, Darrel and Dennis Magnuson.

Wordsmith

Can't find your specs?
 (French from 'specticulum') meaning to spy on someone from afar, say a balcony or a church steeple. However, if you fell off, that would be spectacular. Those watching might speculate (bet) as to where you would land. If you survived that would be spectacular. Laying bets on whether his 'specs' would survive the fall would be speculation. The guy who watches from afar and does not get involved is a spectator.

Knowing this won't make so much as a speck in your vocabulary.

This is actually such a thing as 'passive vocabulary.' Could you say a wink or a raised eyebrow is 'passive vocabulary?' The one 'listening' doesn't need to hear vocalization to know what is being said. Body language is not passive because it can have a negative aspect. The word 'vocal' involves voice. Two people trying to vocalize when they speak different languages could better be called 'babble'. Each person has a vocabulary but it is only understood by a person with the same vocabulary.

You can learn a second language not your own from a book or a disc, but until you hear it 'verbally' you will not be able to pronounce the words in such a way that they are understood by a person reared in that language.

In every language there are idioms (from the word 'idiot.') synonyms and homonyms. Synonyms are words having the same meaning such as 'organized' and 'arranged'. A homonym is a word that sounds the same as another word and may even be spelled the same way but means something different such as tear (from your eye) and tear (a rip in your shirt) Whereas an idiom is a form of expression in your particular language. The one speaking an idiom knows what he is talking about but to the one hearing, it does not make sense.

Remember: 'The yokes on you.'? Because the speaker's vocalization is his first language, he could be speaking an idiom about you that is a slur and you wouldn't know it because you are an idiot.

The word vocabulary is from the Latin vocabulum (preceding, before)

A verb is an action word whose meaning can be altered or modified by adding a prefix: A jug is a large, round container usually made from earthenware crock that has a small opening and two ears. When you add the suffix, head, to the noun, Jug, you get a person with lots of homework and a 60 IQ. When you add 'ed' to crock, you get a drunk.

Thoughts for the Week

by June Schmidt

Just heard a phrase when I was watching a program that said: Living My Best Life and it got me wondering if that is what we are actually doing or if this is just a catch phrase by some marketing group that just wants us to spend a little more money.

It definitely appears that these days we are spending a lot more time watching television and social media than ever before. When I was growing up there was television and advertising, but it was a more gentle persuasion of showing items and a suggestion that it would be what we wanted, but print like catalogs and especially magazines were more of the edgy ideas of life. Programs were refined to never show absolute reality so nobody died with a lot of blood and there was more censorship of words and ideas even to the point of twin beds and never showing a lot of skin. Not as bad as the 50's and 60's since the 70's were more of the free love and peace era.

Now its in your face, nothing is out of bounds and tasteful or not it is on display on television and the internet every day of the week, every hour of the day. Children are exposed to every lifestyle, every word that used to be banned and nothing is hidden. Even children's animated shows are discussing and showing things that can cause grown ups to wince and scramble to find other things for their children to watch. But then again, the offerings on internet programs can be so readily available that it becomes impossible to screen every thing that your child watches. Sure you can screen movies but some things that they are attracted to such as video games that their friends watch or play may be beyond your control. How early do you have to start out explaining to your children what is a good thing and what is not, and really if their friends are watching it how do you stop it from happening? Since children have normal curiosity, are they really going to listen to what their parents think is right? And what happens if their parents are playing the games that they don't want their kids to play? I wonder if they are really prepared to face the world of today let alone what may come in the future.

Then again, I feel like advertising for the most part is treating the population as if they are not smart enough to make their own decisions without some high dollar campaign telling us what we want. Since when did this become a thing? Personally I think most of the commercials nowadays treat the general public as less than intelligent and pushing the idea that only by buying whatever they are advertising are we going to be happy in this life. This is the kind of advertising that I expect around the holiday season for little kids so that they can go begging their parents for the next latest and greatest toy that they have to have or they are just going to totally die. But we adults are not children and I don't think that we should be treated in the same way, however, I may be wrong. Maybe people want to be told what they should do, where they should go, what they should wear and use and what they should eat. I think that means we are losing some imagination and individuality but maybe I am in the minority in this idea. I truly hope not. When we depend on others to tell us what to do and how to think about ourselves we have lost some part of ourselves. Only by making our own decisions can we grow and become better people. There are so many voices out there and just because they are the loudest does not mean they are the right voice for us all. How sad that some people do not or cannot think outside of what they are told that they want. It makes for a sadder world for all of us.

The whole point of this is that we all have a right to think and decide for ourselves what we want out of our life. Take the information out there that is offered, think about what it means to you as a person and then decide how you want to feel and grow to be the person that you should be in this life. It's what makes this world the wonderful place that it is and how wonderful life can be for each of us. Find your voice and shout it out. God Bless you All.
