Queen Isabella made the journey to No Mans Land - funny name for a community but they chose the name cuz it didn't really belong to anyone. A huge celebration was planned - music, dancing, food - -. Everyone for miles and miles came - - what a celebration it was - - best ever everyone said.

Queen Isabella was a most beautiful Queen - - she had heard about the celebration from across the ocean and wanted to witness this sort of celebration. And all she could do was laugh, be happy, much much thankfulness until the day of departure - - her diamond necklace, from her country, when installed as Queen was gone. The necklace, worth billions of dollars was no where to be found. An all points bulletin was put out - - nothing.

What to do? City council said if we offer a reward - - which Queen Isabella said one million for who ever finds it.

This created much excitement and interest - - people started looking everywhere - - garbage cans, under rocks - - sure kept the community busy - - most everyone, except Don - -.

Now Don - - he was a young energetic man, loads of ideas and ambition - - worked hour and hours but seemed to get no where. Couldn't see for months, one step forward. Seemed as though he took one step forward and ended up 10 steps backwards. With all the excitement looking for the diamond necklace, someone questioned Don - - hey, you gonna look for the necklace. Don just shook his head and said “No! Wouldn't find it anyway!”

Days turned to weeks and no necklace. Queen Isabella made flight arrangements to fly home - sad, but accepting the necklace was gone.

Don continued the work he had set out to do - - always working hard and diligent as he went along - -. His parents had taught him well. Seemed like things were slowly going his way. Seemed like one hour of work was now making some progress. Continued working, evening setting in but wanted to finish project - - bright moon tonight - felt exuberant at what he had accomplished, about to call it quits for the night, moon glisten off - - picked it up - - Queens necklace. Winds must have blown and covered it with dirt - -.

Queen was elated - - news spread like wild-fire - - cell -phone, TV cameras - - Queen offered Don his million dollar reward, in which he responded - -.

“No thank you Queen Isabella, I wasn't looking for it plus, in my struggle with ups and downs I received more than a million dollars in cash,” - - and Don went on to respond - -.

“My parents taught me how to be courageous and never give up.

My brother wrestled with me and said I was strong.

My sister said I had a gentle spirit and would make a wonderful husband some day.

My Grandparents always said when you think you are drowning stop at a church and just sit.

My aunts and uncles always said keep in touch with family cuz we all have something to offer.

So you see, Queen Isabella, every good word passed on to others is worth more than the million dollars you offer - - every good word keeps my hope alive - - gives me energy - - and blessing I'm not looking for - -.

“Hurry - Hurry - Hurry”

Once upon a time Little Red Riding Hood visited her Grandma - - oh how beautiful the weather was. She had a cold drink and went home. Beautiful day.

Next day she visited but said - sorry - gotta hurry - - got much to do. On the way home - - tripped and fell into the hole of the big black bear.

Darn, now what - -. Answer - guess if she weren't in such a hurry - - stayed and read Grandma's Eido she would have seen all the wonderful activities going on in Eido Country, all the business places, school activities, inspirational notes - - etc - etc - - just slowing down and enjoying the beauty of Eido Country she would never have fallen into the hole. So this week, slow down and enjoy everything you see in Eido Country.

Rural Grocery Store Sustainability Grants Awarded to 11 North Dakota Communities

Bismarck, ND - Eleven rural communities across North Dakota have been awarded a combined $1 million through the Rural Grocery Store Sustainability Grant program to support local food access and economic development. These grants will help sustain and strengthen grocery services in small towns, ensuring residents have access to fresh, affordable food close to home.

The 2025 grant recipients from our area and award amounts are:

- Bronson's Marketplace, Bowman - $57,664
- Golva Grocery - $61,190

"These grants are a lifeline for small-town grocers who serve as anchors in their communities," said Commerce Community Development and Rural Prosperity representative Nicolette Blumler. "We're proud to help support these towns in keeping shelves stocked and doors open."

"The Rural Grocery Store Sustainability Grant is valuable to our region in helping communities sustain food access to residents and ensuring small businesses can serve communities for years to come," said Roosevelt Custer Regional Council Rural Growth Coordinator Andrea Bowman. "New coolers and automated systems will have a big impact on maintaining efficiency, reducing costs, and keeping fresh food options available."

The Rural Grocery Store Sustainability Grant program was made possible through legislation passed by the North Dakota Legislature in Senate Bill 2228 (SB 2228). Each award includes a 20% community non-state match, ensuring local investment and sustainability.

For more information on the Rural Grocery Store Sustainability Grant program, go to <https://ndgov.link/rural-grocery>.

was and, I recalled my grandma Vera. Every Sunday, she started smoking the roast beef at 6 AM and, by lunch, after church, we all headed over for Sunday dinner and, that was the status quo. So, I told my student... "time". Smoking meat is time consuming but, anything good is worth waiting for and, in a culture that prizes instant, immediate gratification, it just gets harder and harder to find good food regardless as to the price. And, folks, a microwave is NOT a cooking device, right?

Well, in my humble opinion, based on the samplings that I have taken since I got up here in 2013, Famous Dave's had no equal within a 3-hour, roundtrip drive. My favorite antic was to have my wife call ahead when we were at Costco, order a slab (or 2) of ribs and a quart of baked beans to go. I can only say that the eventual meal was the highlight of the week. I'm going to miss Famous Dave's and, can only hope that someone else does us the privilege of replacing that BBQ. Sorry...but, that's my addiction and, love me some BBQ. Have a great week and, keep your fingers crossed! Maybe we'll get lucky with a new place.

EVER DOLLAR BAR & GRILL LUNCH MENU

Happy Place

By Kathy Craig Harteis

I have a few happy places where I value time spent. Everyone has that place. For me it's the mountains or the coast. Today we're on the coast. Fort Bragg to be exact.

We've worked long and hard on our vacay place since arriving in California last week. So, as a reward we are enjoying a few restful and cooler days at the ocean. As I write, I can hear the rolling ocean waves outside our hotel balcony door. There's nothing like the peace that sound brings. Indeed it's my happy place.

We've worked long and hard this past week making our new digs our own. We couldn't be more pleased with our place. It is just what we needed.

Thanks Matt for all of the things you left for us.

I've already had some good visits with family and some friends. It's good to be back for a while.

You never really lose the roots where you were raised.

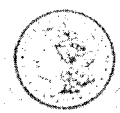

We went to church on Sunday at the First Christian Church. My brother-in-law Samuel Krouse pastors there. My sister Ann, Samuel and I grew up together at the First Baptist Church in Colusa. So, Sunday service reminded me a lot of those days. It felt right. Sometimes God just blesses us.

There have been ongoing acts of violence recently. With lives lost, families shattered and grief abundant still some among us continue to seemingly call for more violence.

I don't get it. Why would anyone wish to see more people die? We have to wonder from where these ideas are originating.

Continue to pray.
I'm not going to give up. Life is good today.

Reflections on the Words of Life

by Pastor Paul Ferrie,
 Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

We are deviating once more from our regular study of 1 Peter, due to the recent tragedies that have occurred in our nation. Such disasters tend to cause despair and make people wonder whether there is any hope in this dark place. There is hope, and we find it in God's Word. So today we turn our thoughts to a wonderful event that happened shortly after the Lord Jesus was born into this world as the God-man. It is described for us in Luke 2:25-30: "And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. So he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law, he took Him up in his arms and blessed God and said: 'Lord, now You are letting Your servant depart in peace according to Your word; for my eyes have seen Your salvation.'"

Simeon was a godly old man. He was eagerly waiting for the long-expected Messiah whom God had promised much earlier in Israel's history. But Simeon had received a most unusual gift—a special revelation from the Lord that he would not die until he had seen the Messiah. And our passage unfolds that this happened just as God had promised. In God's amazing providence, Simeon was at the temple exactly when Mary and Joseph arrived there with their Baby. Note this man's response after taking the Baby in his arms and praising God: "Lord, now You are letting Your servant depart in peace." Simeon is not plagued with the fear that most find crippling: fear of dying. We read in Hebrews 2:14-15 that one of the reasons why eternal God became the man Christ Jesus, was that He "through death might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery." Living with constant fear of death is indeed slavery. But Simeon would depart in peace, without such fear. The same is true of the apostle Paul, who said, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Philippians 1:21).

How is it possible to be delivered from this gripping fear of death, enabling one both to live in peace and to die in peace? First we must be partakers of the greatest and most important peace there is, and that is peace with God. The Bible plainly tells us that we are not born at peace with God, but in fact are at enmity with Him (Romans 8:5-8). But Jesus Christ, the promised Messiah, came to pay the penalty for the sins of all who would place their trust in Him. And for those who are trusting in Him: "Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:1). Once a person has this greatest peace, he or she can live with hope. For the believer in Christ, no matter what difficulties might be faced in this life, an eternity of endless joy awaits.

Simeon explains the source of his peace: "For my eyes have seen Your salvation." That salvation his eyes saw was a Person. Simeon knew that this Baby he was holding was the One promised by God in Isaiah 9:6: "For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." Friends, there is no true and lasting peace without God's salvation in Christ Jesus, the Prince of Peace. If He is Lord of your life, you have His promise that He will never leave you nor forsake you, no matter how hard and painful life in this fallen world might be. And then He will bring you to the eternal home which He has prepared for His children, where all will be joy and peace. If you have not placed your trust in Him, please do so. Unless Jesus comes first, every one of us will face death. Oh, may we die in peace, as did Simeon.

Happiness is not based on possessions, power, or prestige, but on relationships with people we trust and respect.

NOTICE

Weed cutting notice to all landowners or Operators that weeds must be cut

Notice is hereby given to all landowners or operators to cut all weeds and grasses adjoining their lands along those roads defined as roadways by the Township supervisors and the Hettinger County Board of Commissioners including weeds and grasses growing within the public right-of-way bordering such highways and their lands. Such cutting shall be completed by October 1, 2025. Cutting with a swather is not adequate, maximum stubble height of 4 inches and a minimum of 13 feet must be cut using a mower. If the weeds and grasses are not cut along county roads or is not cut adequately to prevent snow buildup, the county will mow the weeds and grasses and charge the adjacent landowner at a rate of $150.00 per one-half mile. The county will begin cutting ditches on October 1, 2025. If the landowner fails to cut the weeds and grasses along township roads adjoining their lands, the township Board of Supervisors may cause such weeds and grasses to be cut and the actual cost shall be charged against the land of the landowner and shall become part of the taxes levied against the land in the ensuing year. Also if hay bales remain in the ditches of county roads after October 15, 2024, the county will remove the hay bales and the landowner may redeem them by paying the cost of removal. If not redeemed by November the hay will be sold to pay the cost of removal.

The Township Board of Supervisors do not need to advertise for weed cutting in their Township.

By order of the Hettinger County Board of County Commissioners and the Township Supervisors.

A Little Birdie Told Me

By: Vivian Hernandez

A Little Birdie Told Me: "If You Build It They Will Come."

Rae's Boutique opened on May 6th of 2025 on Main Street in Hettinger, North Dakota. Owning a boutique is every little girl's dream and Rae Vaught was no different.

Rae grew up in Jamestown and has lived in Hettinger since 2009: Rae and her husband Vince have two grown children, Ben and Josie. When the opportunity to purchase the perfect building arose Rae jumped at the chance to make her dream come true.

Rae had a contractor do the big renovations but the painting and decorating are all Rae's hard work. The walls are done in black and white setting off the clothing displays beautifully.

Rae carries several brands of clothing in her boutique and is working on getting a limited supply of Cinch and Wrangler very popular brands in the area. Rae only carries a few sizes of each item; no one wants to be seen wearing the exact same shirt when they're out to dinner.

The boutique is very tastefully designed and Rae gets help from her part time high school students on what's trending. Rae's Boutique has clothing, shoes, scarves, belts, jewelry and sunglasses. Rae has a partnership with the new print shop Graphic Attic to provide Nighthawks apparel and can print the logo on just about anything by request.

Rae has gotten a limited food service license and is now offering OCIE protein bowls. Rae purchases her fruit from Kennedy's Fresh Food in Hettinger and has first choice of all the green bananas.

Rae is very community minded and wants to provide unique clothing and food to her customers that aren't available anywhere else in Hettinger. Rae is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and is grateful to the Adams County Community & Economic Development Department for all their help in making her dream a reality.

In the future Rae hopes to have home goods such as blanket, towels and décor. Her goal is to keep her merchandise affordable and unique. Rae's Boutique is open Mon-Fri 10-6 and Saturday 9-1, checkout their Facebook page for sales and new items: Be sure to stop by her booth at the KNDC Farm and Home Show coming in October.

Russell Williams Rites To Be Held

Russell Williams, 58, of Hettinger, ND, passed away on Monday, September 22, 2025. Visitation will be held from 12-2pm, followed by the funeral service at 2pm, all on Saturday, September 27, 2025, at the Prince of Peace Chapel of the Evanson Jensen Funeral Home in Lemmon, SD.

Russell Ray Williams passed away in his home with his family by his side on September 22, 2025, after a long battle of cancer. Russell was born on September 29, 1966, in Hettinger, ND to Raymond and Betty Williams. He grew up on the same ranch his grandparents Harry and Pauline Williams homesteaded, Williams Ranch, near Lemmon, South Dakota, with his sister Sara D'Inecco.

He married the love of his life, Roberta Williams on June 30, 1991. This union created two children, Lexy Bay in 1994 and Reece Ray in 2000. Russell and Roberta continued to pursue their passion for ranching with their two children. He took a break from ranching and pursued a career driving a fuel truck from 2011 to 2021 before returning to his true passion of ranching. He could do most things on the ranch from cows to machinery. Russ had a love and true passion for the land. He thanked the Lord every day for this blessing. He always enjoyed motorcycles, hunting, music, jokes, and instilling the love he had for his home to his children.

Russ loved spending time with his kids more than anything. When he wasn't working, he was helping with homework, horses or dirt bikes. He spent endless hours practicing with his kids until dark. He always believed if you start something you finish it. The kids were very involved in motocross, rodeo, 4-H, and sports - he and Roberta managed as a team to get them to many events. The last few years of his life he was proud to be called "Papa" by his three young grandchildren Blair, Rhett, and Ellis. Russ had an obsession for music, and you could usually find him listening to his favorite artists in his free time.

Russell is survived by his wife Roberta Williams of Hettinger ND, his children Lexy (Samuel) Boldon Chadron, NE and Reece (Megan) Williams Lodgepole, SD his grandchildren Blair Boldon, Rhett Williams, Ellis Boldon, his sister Sara D'Inecco Denver, CO, and his Mother in Law, Vesta Frank

Thoughts for the Week

by June Schmidt

And again, we see that violence has taken the life of a man that was seeking to speak the truth as he saw it. He was not a violent man, he was a man like any other, with a wife and children who will mourn him to the end of their days. He did not speak for violence, but for understanding and peace and someone ended his life before it's time simply because he did not say what they wanted him to say. There are no words to explain this type of action and it speaks volumes that his family was instrumental in encouraging him to turn himself in for his crime. But no matter what the outcome is for him, it still leaves this world with one less voice for understanding and peace.

Today was the memorial service for this man and there were no riots, no burning buildings, noone trying to shoot police or break into buildings and steal from others. Only people getting together to celebrate the life of a man that tried to make a difference in this life. How different this is from the occurrences from the other side. We see people speaking of love and understanding and even forgiveness by the wife who has lost the partner that was meant to be there for her.

But from others that should know better, there were words of vitriol claiming that he was killed to make him a martyr to a cause by the people he chose to stand with. Others cheered his death and danced around in glee. Some made comments on his demise at work and some lost their jobs as they put themselves in an undefendable position by their employers. Social media posts are claiming that the comments were 'just in fun' and 'free speech' and should be overlooked as we do have the right to say whatever we want. This is true, but there is a time and a place for all things and it's not on your work time to cheer the demise of anyone. It should never be part of your normal life, but the world sees things much differently now. There have been others that were shot for their beliefs in our history. It will probably happen again as it appears to be a never ending scenario in this world we live in today. But we need to be better people and not reward those that take a life simply because they don't agree with someone's words.

I have said this before when the last people were shot that those that did the killing are getting rewarded for doing wrong. How different it is when the reaction is on the other side. We should not be cheering killing and rewarding bad behavior by setting up funds to defend their poor actions. We should be better than that. Killing is wrong and if you take someone's life, what value do you put on life? Is it not precious to you? We are all about free choice and rights for all, but we are justifying someone else for taking a life and removing their choices. How can we condone this and support what they are doing? It is beyond me.

Today is a day of sadness simply because a man is dead that should not be. We need to do better as a society, but how do we change when this is so prevalent. So many refuse to see anything but what they are told and continue to support things that they should know are wrong. We speak of kindness and understanding, but when it comes in conflict with what we are told, somehow that flies out the window. We need to be more in touch with our hearts and what we were told by our parents and our church and believe less of what we are told and more of what we know in our hearts is true. Only when we return to a better understanding can this be done and unfortunately I cannot believe it will happen soon. Maybe one day we will see a return to the values we held so dear in our hearts. God Bless you all and God Bless and keep Charlie Kirk.
