Philosophy for 2025

- Listen - Hope - “Love”

There once was a woman who believed love could do many things - - this is the story passed down thru the ages - - many people believed the story - lived their lives accordingly and this was the outcome - - here is one of those stories of LOVE.

Sam hollered at Mom - “hurry Mom, remember we are riding our bikes to the movie today. I need the exercise for football and you promised you’d help me.” “Be right there - open the garage door.” Sam proceeded to do as Mom said - - the excitement of having Mom ride with him brought a happy tear as he lifted the bikes off the holding ramps.

What a perfect, beautiful fall day were the last words Mom heard as two cars speeding past each other on a narrow bridge clipped her son, Sam, crumbling to the ground, neither stopped or even noticed what had happened. Mom screamed, a passerby saw a broken body and a sobbing mother. Ambulance called - outcome.

He is alive but probably will never walk again. Might take years to even heal - - so many broken bones - - luckily he’s still alive.

“Lucky.” thought Mom - how can you call that lucky. - - Mom spent most her days watching her son, answering questions, days on end in the hospital. Finally the day came. Sam could go home - - but not normal - - riding in a wheel chair.

Family supported as they could - Dad working, brothers, sisters going to school - - and Mom - determined to find the ones who did this to their son, spent hours with police, on face book, social media, TV, radio - - life was gruesome - how could she possibly help her son if the ones who did the damage weren’t found and prosecuted.

The search continued, until one day, as she was sitting on the cell phone, almost screaming cuz nothing was being done, a passerby pushing a stroller, stopped and questioned. She told them of the accident, about her poor son and not being able to find the ones responsible.

The lady with the stroller, listened and then questioned if she had ever heard of the woman who believed LOVE could do all things. Mom had never heard of her. All Mom could say was LOVE can’t heal my son - but finding them will. The lady with the stroller handed her a piece of paper and left. Mom continued her search - - blue and red car- - drivers, not sure - -.

That evening at supper one of the children picked up a piece of paper, “What’s this - - Love can do all things - -.” Mom had thrown the paper into the garbage but missed and it ended up on the floor. She told the family about the woman with the stroller, how she had asked if I ever went to see the woman who believed LOVE could do many things - - much discussion ended with, “Mom, why not try.”

Mom went to see the woman. She told Mom how one day some thugs beat up her son - - she never stopped believing her son would live and change the world - - but during the night he passed away - - but she still believed - - and just before taking him to the morgue, someone saw a toe twitch - - never forget, a Mothers love is never wasted.

Mom returned home, forgot about finding drivers, used all her energy loving Sam and telling him one day he will walk again, be a football hero - -, and today Sam travels the world telling parents to never give up on their children - - just keep Loving and believing in them - - for LOVE can do many things.

I KNOW WHAT YOU DID LAST SUMMER

When five friends inadvertently cause a deadly car accident, they cover up their involvement and make a pact to keep it a secret rather than face the consequences. One year later, the past comes back to haunt them as they learn someone knows what they did last summer. Stalked by a mysterious killer, they soon seek help from two survivors of the Southport massacre of 1997.

Cloud Seeding Operations Summary For Aug. 25 - Aug. 31, 2025

BISMARCK, N.D. - Dry conditions and seasonal high temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s dominated the weather last week in southwestern North Dakota.

In the District 1 operations area, which includes Bowman and part of Slope Counties, no operational flights were flown last week. Rain enhancement operations remained suspended.

This week, a cold front will move through southwestern North Dakota on Tuesday bringing a brief chance for rain and then conditions dry out for the remainder of the week. High temperatures should cool off into the 60s and 70s.

Radar facilities in Bowman operate around the clock during the NDCMP. Radar images can be viewed on the Department of Water Resources' web site at <http://www.swc.nd.gov/arb>. The NDCMP will be extended to September 8 due to wet conditions delaying harvest.

for vice, but as bondservants of God." Peter is still concerned here with the believer's testimony in this world, and he speaks in this verse of the proper uses of Christian liberty, as we see from the words "as free." How believers use their liberty will have a great effect on their testimony with those outside the church, and even with those who are part of the church.

Expressions of HOPE

Reflections on the Words of Life

by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

Last time in our study of 1 Peter, we saw that when believers live according to the Word of God, they will have an impact on society that will silence the critics of Christianity. We move on today to 1 Peter 2:16: "As free, yet not using liberty as a cloak

Daquiri Olson (6th gr) daughter of Lance and Cameo Olson of Mott shot a 49 winning third

Let us begin with something of a definition of Christian liberty. Peter is speaking about a special area of freedom which ONLY the Christian has. We say that America is a free country, and compared with many other countries, it indeed is a place of great freedom. In theory, every citizen of this country enjoys the privileges of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. But this verse is not dealing with the liberty which someone may have as citizen of a certain country. In fact, many of the people to whom Peter was originally writing were not living in a free country. They were slaves and servants, as we see from verse 18 of this chapter. Christian liberty belongs to a person who is a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, regardless of whether he or she enjoys freedom in other areas of life. We read in John 8:31-36: "Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, 'If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.' They answered Him, 'We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can you say, "You will be made free"? Jesus answered them, 'Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin. And a slave does not abide in the house forever, but a son abides forever. Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.'"

The most wonderful aspect of Christian liberty is that the believer is free from the slavery of sin and the condemnation from God which sin brings. God's Word teaches that all of us are born sinful, and we all sin as a result (Romans 3:10-19). This brings us into a type of slavery. Jesus said in John 8:34, "Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin." Because our minds, emotions, and wills are all affected by sin, we keep giving in to sin. It is a bondage which no person can break on his or her own. This slavery to sin results in guilt and condemnation. God has given all people a conscience. Even people who have never read a Bible have a sense of right and wrong, which comes from being made in the image of God. That is why we feel guilty when we give in to sin. Because God is holy, He cannot overlook a single sin. In His holy eyes, our sin makes us deserving of His wrath and punishment. As Paul explains in Romans 1:18, "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men." The glorious good news of the gospel is that Christ sets the believer free from the slavery of sin. Next time we shall see more about this, but I close by appealing to each of us to be sure that we have placed our trust in Christ alone. Only His perfect payment for sin on the cross is sufficient to erase the infinite debt we were under, making us slaves to sin. May we all be set free by the Son!

Thank You!

You could give us a million dollars and it wouldn't mean as much as it does to read all the good things about our communities in Eido Country and it takes but 5 minutes to let others know the good in our communities.

I like the Cracker Barrel—as is! Not the proposed NEW antiseptic looking thing but, the good 'ol southern restaurant that I grew up with. Founded in 1969, in Lebanon, Tennessee, I ate at the one in St. Louis, for the first time, back in the early 90's on a road trip with my wife. My favorite dish? I'm a southerner at heart—chicken fried steak. It's not everyone's cup of tea but, I like the southern theme, the toys, music, regional wares and the old-fashioned stuff that made it unique not corporate. And, apparently others liked it too as it grew from 1 store to over 650 restaurants in 45 states and, as of 2024, $3.47 billion (with a "B") in revenue. Their logo featuring "Uncle Herschel", a caricature of company founder Dan Evins' real-life uncle, Herschel McCartney was always easy to spot from the roadway and, the food was authentic southern fare including another favorite of mine—fried okra.

Enter COVID and the inevitable aftermath faced by all restaurants with, by August, 2025, their savior—the new, enlightened progressive corporate CEO Julie Felss Masino. Starting with the interior, changes to the décor and dining room seating started a cacophony of complaints from fiercely loyal patrons who like the old-country-store ambience. The whip-lash culminated with Masino's next move to "re-brand" Uncle Herschel and adopt a more corporate logo. And, much like the Budweiser Lite Beer fiasco of 2023, their patrons let their cash do their talking this summer as Cracker Barrel stock plummeted some $100 million immediately after the new logo was made public. Making Ms. Masino's comments that the feedback had been "overwhelmingly positive" ring hollow. These are not the droids you are looking for... really?

So, when Cracker Barrel's board did a complete 180 the following week last month, I was actually quite happy. It seems that the sacred adage of "the customer [not the woke sycophant] is always right" has reemerged now that we're not all forced to hide in our basements! And, this virtue-signaling nonsense (really nothing more than wrong, personal opinion based on feelings) has reached its climax. My dad used to say, "opinions are like [expletive deleted]. Everybody's got one and they usually stink." So, I say to the wokesters, "Hey, if you don't like it, eat at your woke, boring restaurant." As for me and mine, I like the Cracker Barrel because it reminds me of home and, that includes the peg boards at each table with the sarcastic comments. Not the ones with the woke comments that insure you won't be traumatized by the game. Have a great week.

deciding what stupid battles to fight for us. Or more likely for their own political wellbeing. How about letting us (the voters) decide which dog they should have in the fight?

Sadly we are living in a scary world these days. Daily I wonder if God has had enough yet. He could put the kibosh on us all - entitled or not at any given time.

Our best bet is to appreciate what we have, work to get what we want and own our own shortcomings. It's up to us, no one else to live a just and respected life.

Life is good today.

Entitled

By Kathy Craig-Harteis

Who are the so-called entitled among us?

I've come to the conclusion that entitlement is a frame of mind. It's all in your head if you believe you are entitled to anything. Narcissist is another option. You are always wrongly accused, nothing is your fault when bad things happen. You are special, others aren't.

I've said it before, but it's worth repeating. None of us are entitled to anything we didn't earn. And, we need to live up to our own mistakes and accept fault as appropriate.

I live a comfortable life. But, the years before now were filled with challenge. I have worked long and hard. I sometimes had more month left than money.

My parents instilled in me the importance of faith, honesty and hard work.

The combination of those things will lead us in the right direction.

I am so sick of politicians

Question: What is mans natural condition before God?
Answer: The natural man receives not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him, neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Corinthians 2:14.
Shall mortal man be more just than God? Shall a man be more pure than his maker? Job 4:17
.....the soul that sinneth, it shall die. Ezekiel 18:4 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me. Psalms 51:5
The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked, who can know it. Jeremiah 17:9
.....there is none that doth good, no not one. Romans 3:12
The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Romans 8:7
Wherefore, as by one man (Adam) sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Romans 5:12 Note: The Bible is very clear in presenting the reality of our natural condition before God.
We are sinners by nature. The Bible says that "all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23) We are born with the propensity to sin and at enmity against God. This gives us a sober picture of who we are and our desperate need of a Saviour.
Question: In light of our sinful condition, what role does repentance and conversion play regarding our salvation?
Acts 3:19 - "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord."
2 Peter 3:9 - "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness;
but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."
Isaiah 55:7 - "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon." Joel 2:13 - "And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil."

Note: Repentance includes sorrow for sin and a turning away from it. We shall not renounce sin unless we see its sinfulness; unless we turn from it in heart, there will be no real change in the life. We can no more repent without the Spirit of Christ to awaken the conscience than we can be pardoned without Christ. It is Christ Himself that "gives repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins." Acts 5:31 Read Ezekiel 33:11 "Turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways"

"Coffee Cake Recipe
(from 1887)"

By Don Taskila
Hettinger County, ND
Feature Writer

Offered by Don Taskila

The calendar tells us that the fall season is coming our way again, and when it does, may I suggest baking the "Coffee Cake Recipe (from 1887)"? The warmth from the kitchen oven will feel 'GOOD'! Note: A yummy, sizeable slice of coffee cake and a hot cup of 'Morning Coffee' or 'Evening Tea'—either choice calls me into feeling grateful for a quiet, peaceful time.

....."Coffee Cake Recipe (from 1887)".....

'Maybe to some cooks, it will seem a little dry, but the raisins and spices really shine through.'

Ingredients

- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup butter
- 2 eggs
- ½ cup molasses
- 1 cup strong cold coffee
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon cloves
- 1 cup raisins or currants
- 5 cups flour

Instructions

- "One cup of brown sugar, one cup of butter, two eggs, one-half cup of molasses, one cup of strong, cold coffee, one teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of cloves, one cup of raisins or currants, and five cups of sifted flour. Add the fruit last, rubbed in a little of the flour. Bake for about one hour."
- Preheat oven to 330° F.
- Grease a loaf pan or small Bundt pan.
- Beat butter and sugar until light and fluffy.
- Stir in eggs, molasses, and coffee.

- Add flour, spices, and soda. Stir until well mixed.
- Add raisins or currants, and stir until well incorporated.
- Spread into the prepared pan. Bake 1 hour (possibly less), or until the center is set.
- Cool, and frost if desired

Cooking Notes:

...Considering the baking time, an hour could be a bit much. Finding the right combination of temperature and the choice of the baking pan's depth.

....The "Coffee Cake Recipe (from 1887)" appears to require a temperature of 330°F. The baking time of one hour is probably too lengthy for a 350° oven, regardless of the type of baking pan used. When the toothpick test comes out clean and the center is well set, you know the cake is done.

.....My first recommendation is to make this "Coffee Cake Recipe (from 1887)" in a loaf baking pan, which was customary for cakes in the 1800s. It still would be delicious in a shallow pan, but remember that you'll need to shorten the baking time, as I indicated before. Make sure the pan you use is well-greased.

.....I suggest using a very light hand when weighing out the flour, and also fluff it before measuring. A little bit more flour than the recipe specifies won't be what you want.

.....In the 1800s, frosting cakes of this kind was rather widespread. Making frosting for the "Coffee Cake Recipe (from 1887)" won't be going out on a limb too much. Use a simple frosting or glaze.

:) Thank "YOU" for reading! :)

Estate Planning Seminar Draws 41 Area Residents to Hettinger!

By Ted Uecker,
WRHS Foundation

To help educate our area public, the West River Health Services Foundation hosted the first of three free seminars on financial planning on Wednesday, August 20, at the NDSU Research and Extension Center. Steve Anderson and Jesse Sailer from Morgan Stanley in Bismarck made the 300-mile roundtrip to share their expertise with our eager-to-learn community.

At 6 p.m. sharp, forty-one attendees from seven area communities checked in for the seminar (on about the hottest day of the year!) and enjoyed a super tasty meal from Kennedy's Fresh Foods – bacon-wrapped pork tenderloins, peppered corn, dinner rolls and ice cold water. (Ted forgot to bring the potato salad out of the refrigerator! It was still scrumptious and much appreciated by all). Thanks to our friends at the nearby Hettinger Methodist Church, participants were also treated to real plates, forks and knives.

Once everyone was nourished, our guest speakers were introduced. Steve Anderson, Senior Vice President at Morgan Stanley and Branch Manager for the West Dakota Group, grew up in Grand Forks, graduated from UND, worked for eight years with a business management company in Bismarck, and has now been with Morgan Stanley for 31 years. His colleague, Jesse Sailer, carried the main portion of the evening's presentation. Born in Jamestown, she graduated from Jamestown High School, earned both her undergraduate and MBA degrees at the University of Mary, and spent nine years as a Senior Wealth Advisor at a local bank trust department before joining Morgan Stanley. She now serves as Senior Vice President at Morgan Stanley and as Vice President of the Western Dakota Estate Planning Council.

Anderson began with a brief overview of the current state of the marketplace. He noted that the market has rebounded and is currently thriving. He also pointed out that lower interest rates have helped balance the bonds vs. stocks ratio in many portfolios. Still, he cautioned that a correction could be on the horizon this fall, as September and October have historically seen such shifts. He then handed things over to Sailer.

Sailer made it clear that her purpose was purely educational, not to tell people what to do with their finances. She approached the seminar holistically, encouraging attendees to explore their options, as each individual or family has unique circumstances and goals for their assets and estate. She emphasized that there is no one-size-fits-all approach.

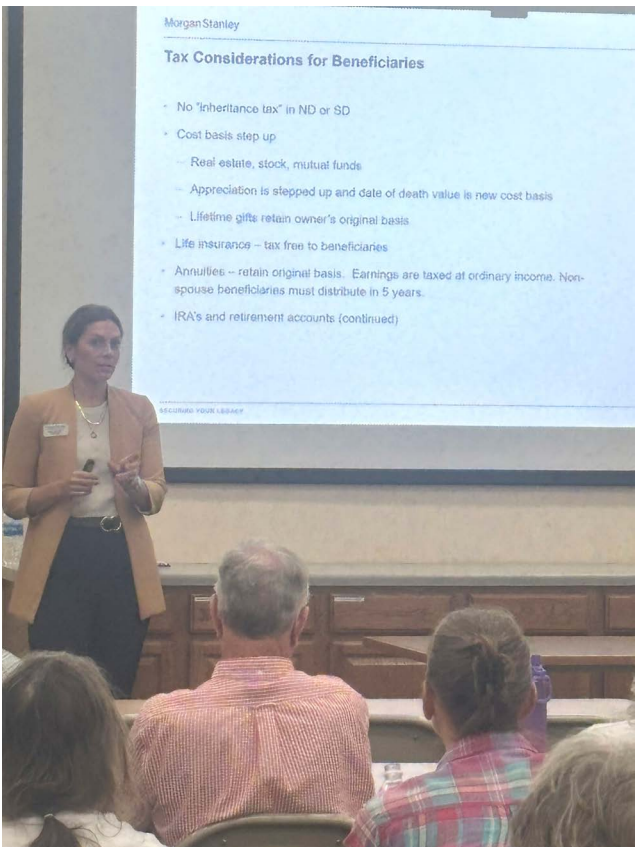

Her presentation covered goal setting, assets, wills, trusts, and more, while also fielding audience questions along the way. She explained the differences between revocable and irrevocable trusts, IRA and Roth IRA accounts, CD's, the "Big Beautiful Bill," federal estate and gift tax exemptions, qualified charitable distributions, and tax benefits tied to charitable giving. She wrapped up with five key takeaways: get organized, build your team, consider your choices, document your plan, and communicate.

A big thank-you goes out to our guest presenters and all who attended. We hope you enjoyed the delicious meal and informative estate planning presentation. Special thanks to Kennedy's Fresh Foods, the NDSU Research and Extension Center, and Hettinger Methodist Church. We are truly grateful.

If you are interested in the next two free financial seminars -- October 29 (Asset Retention & Medicaid Planning with Andria Mueller) and December 10 (Financial Planning with Angie Schwartz), both will be held on Wednesday nights at 6 p.m. at the NDSU Research and Extension Center. Same place. Same time. Great food. Terrific presenters. Please text or call Ted at 701-567-3666 to RSVP at least one week prior to each seminar. Onward!

These were the two presenters for the WRHS Foundation "Estate Planning Seminars." Thank you. Jesse Sailer and Steve Anderson, Senior Vice Presidents at Morgan Stanley, Bismarck, ND

Cindy Schatz
Rites Held

Cindy Schatz, 68, of New Leipzig, ND, passed away August 21, 2025, at Sanford

Medical Center surrounded by her family. Cindy's funeral took place at 11am on Friday, August 29, 2025 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in New Leipzig, ND, officiated by Pastor John Amundson.

Cindy was born on June 26, 1957, in Elgin, ND to Andrew Verne and Delores (Plunkett) Raab. She grew up in Mott, ND with four sisters and six brothers. Cindy attended school in Mott, ND and graduated in 1976.

Cindy met Clifford Schatz at the Burt roller skating rink in 1973 and they later married on June 12, 1976, in Mott, ND. They built their life on the family farm north of New Leipzig, ND and were blessed with three children and nine grandchildren. Cindy worked alongside Cliff, farming and ranching for almost 50 years. She kept busy in the spring by working with the cattle, putting anhydrous on the fields, and making sure several rows of potatoes were planted. Summers were spent baling hay, mowing the yard, planting more flowers, and taking on multiple other projects around the farm. Cindy's exceptional grain cart driving skills will certainly be missed during harvest. She was always working on a project of some sort, tackling a remodeling project or reorganizing something in the shop. Cindy enjoyed gardening, canning, baking, and finding new recipes. Just as she loved growing and tending to her fields, Cindy was constantly supporting and encouraging her kids and grandkids, attending school and life events and always being one of their biggest cheerleaders. Cindy always looked forward to the next big holiday meal that she could plan and cook for her family.

Cindy is survived by her husband of 49 years, Clifford Schatz; children, Jennifer (Bucky) Feigitsch of Bismarck, Brian (Amber) Schatz of New Leipzig, Brandon (Lacy) Schatz of New Leipzig; grandchildren, Morgan and Parker Feigitsch, Anna, Claire and Logan Schatz, Ariel, Brayden, Quinn and Paxton Schatz; mother-in-law, Winifred Schatz of Elgin; siblings, Dennis (Mary) Raab of Carson, Sharon (Ray) Taylor of Miles City, MT, Tim Raab of Dickinson, Wanda Norton (Shawn McFarland) of Mott, Norman Raab of Mott, Terry Raab of New Leipzig; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She is preceded in death by her parents Verne and Delores Raab; father-in-law, Clifford N. Schatz; sisters, Roberta Tilson and Glenda Masulis; brothers, Douglas Raab and Calvin Raab; sisters-in-law, Deborah Roth and Madonna Raab; brothers-in-law, Tom Tilson and Greg Masulis; nephew, Andrew Raab.

Roger W. Gaugler
Rites Held

Roger W. Gaugler, age 74, of Almont, passed away peacefully in his home surrounded by his loving wife and children on Monday August 25, 2025.

Funeral services for Roger were held at 10:00 a.m. MT on Tuesday, September 2, 2025 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in New Leipzig, ND. Pastor John Amundson officiated with burial following in the Assembly of God Cemetery in Elgin.

A gathering of family and friends and a time of sharing stories and memories was held at 5:00 p.m. on Monday, September 1, 2025 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in New Leipzig.

Roger was born to Ray and Mary (Emery) Gaugler on October 21, 1950. He was the 5th of 8 children. He joined the family on the ranch and continued that love of country and cattle for the rest of his days. He attended a one room country school until 6th grade. After the school burned down, he moved to New Leipzig Public School where he graduated in 1968.

After graduation he attended The School of Mines in Rapid City, SD and then Alaska Methodist University in Anchorage, AK. After some wild adventures with his sister Carol and friends he came back to ND to pursue teaching. He taught math in Balt and New Leipzig where he received an Outstanding Teacher Award before he returned to ranching.

He met the love of his life, Ardella Saylor, in early 1975. Their love was fast and furious and they were wed within 6 months of meeting. The wedding was on August 2nd, 1975. To this union Jesse, Eric and Sarah were born.

The early years of marriage were spent teaching, living in New Leipzig and ranching on his father in laws ranch. In 1980 Roger retired from teaching to ranch fulltime.

1989 was a big year for Roger and his family. The ranching operation was moved from Elgin to their forever ranch south of Almont. Also, during that year, he was honored to be a Pony Express rider for the ND Centennial.

He continued to raise kids and cattle all while serving the communities well. He served on many boards including, the school board in Almont, numerous terms on the ND Gelbvieh board and a church elder at the Assembly of God and Word of Life. Something he worked hard for and received in 2022 was the Grant County Conservation Award. Taking care of the land and watching it flourish gave him great joy.

After some rough years he made the decision to sell most of the cows and start crop adjusting. While the downsize didn't last long his adjusting career did. He adjusted for 23 yrs. He loved his time talking to all the different farmers and the connections it created.

Besides ranching he had a passion for hunting and wildlife. For a few years he ran a hunting guide business. Twenty years later some of those same hunters are still coming yearly to not only hunt but to just spend quality time with him and his family. That is the kind of impact he made on people. His kindness and grace made a lasting impression in many lives.

For anyone that knew him his passions and priorities were easy to see. The things most important to him were his walk with his Savior, his family, passing on the legacy of the ranch and just sitting on the hill watching cattle and wildlife.

He leaves behind his wife of 50 years, Ardella. His legacy continues on in Jesse (Karin) of Hills, MN, Eric (Amy) of Almont, ND, and Sarah (Verrick) Schock of Carson, ND. His grandchildren Leeanna and Madison Gaugler, Tanner and Faith Gaugler, Senora, Ivy, Treyvn, Heston and Brinley Schock. His siblings Roberta "Bobbie" Weber of Yuma, AZ, Carol (Jesse) Farnsworth of Eagar AZ, Elaine Holen of Westhope ND, Harold (Jodie) Gaugler of New Leipzig, ND and Scott (Beth) Gaugler of Dunn Center, ND, sister-in-law Debbie Gaugler of New Leipzig, ND and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and in-laws; his sister Doris Benoit; brother Richard Gaugler; brother in laws Lloyd Weber, Paul Benoit and Curt Holen, and niece Beth Rubus.

David Henry
Robertson Rites

Dave peacefully passed away at home in Reeder, ND.

His wife (and the love of his life), Judy, was by his side.

Dave was born to Vivian and Don Robertson of Ashby. He started his youth in Ashby but grew up in North Dakota where he graduated from high school.

Dave entered the US Army with duty stations in the US and SE Asia. He returned to North Dakota and rekindled his relationship with Judy. Together they purchased a closed dairy farm and converted the buildings into Wolf Butte Lodge. The successful lodge drew hunters from all corners of the US, many of them returning year and year for pheasant season.

Dave is survived by his wife, Judy, brothers Robert, Wayne, and Chuck and their families. And survived by daughter-in-law Sarah and husband Jeff. And grandchildren Shawn, Vannessa and Samantha of whom he was proud to call "his grandchildren".

Thoughts for the Week

by June Schmidt

And again, this country is faced with another school shooting. Someone with a perverted sense of right and wrong has taken the lives of young children, at prayer in a church. How is this justified in any sense of the world? But yet what we now have is the media telling their followers that it is the guns that are at fault, that he was a misunderstood individual and that somehow the Catholic Church is responsible for this? What kind of justification is there in this type of reporting? What kind of people would look at this situation and say that these innocents were responsible in some way for what they are going through and what the parents of the lost children will suffer for the rest of their lives?

Yet we can see those on social media that are springing to his defense. He was misunderstood, he was driven, he should not be blamed and instead we need to blame....who? His parents? His lifestyle? His choices....no we should blame the government and particularly the President. For what? Because he was unhappy with the person he was born and raised, for him deciding what he was given was not enough? At what point do we actually have to admit that it was he, who took a gun, went to a church and shot and killed children. Was he mentally ill? Most probably, but where were those that could see that he was hurting and needed help? Why did they not find him help? It's not like mental illness is something to be hidden in this day and age and that there are not people out there professionally trained to do just that. He or someone close to him needed to reach out to those people before this happened, not bemoan the situation after it happens.

Our world has certainly changed. It wasn't that long ago that we were raised to look after ourselves, to take responsibility for our actions and to look out for the safety of others. We constantly see people on the news and on social media asking, if not pleading, for us to be more kind to others. Yet what do we see in the aftermath of these horrific crimes, but the outcry of people supporting what they are doing. They create protest groups to support them, go fund me accounts to hire attorneys for them and somehow try to justify what they have done to an extent it actually makes a sane person wonder where the common sense has gone.

Perhaps all these things that have changed need to not be accepted as normal. Perhaps we need to look again at what we accept because the world tells us it's right and really decide for ourselves if it truly is. Maybe it's time to take a step back from allowing everything to be 'accepted' and figure out when it's not acceptable and begin to make people pay the consequences for their own actions. Maybe it's not acceptable to hide behind the loudest voices and step forward to declare the common sense that seems to be missing in the world today. Maybe we need to be proactive in the education of our children and see what it is that they are being taught rather than leaving it up to others. Maybe we should see what it is they are following on social media and playing on their games that is letting them feel like life is not precious, but projects that killing is 'just a game' and hurting others is acceptable. These things are not something that just pops up, but things that are learned and absorbed over time. If you tell someone that its right often enough when its not, pretty soon they will believe what they have been told instead of what they see. Children are not mean to each other unless we let them be that or teach them that it's ok to hurt others by our words and

1 package (16 ounces) frozen broccoli florets, thawed
4 ounces reduced-fat process cheese (Velveeta), cubed

1/4 cup fat-free milk

our actions. Once they grow up, it's too late to change things then, and we have failed to do what we are guided to do by our parents.

So what do we do now with what we have to work with? I truly don't know because it appears those that we trust to protect us and make the laws that keep us safe are trying to abscond from their responsibilities.

Instead of them stepping forward and taking control, there are too many of them that are seeking to save themselves by blaming everyone else. And the media of today has gone from reporting the news to seeking to pass on their personal opinions and save their own jobs. How sad it is that we have come to this point. May the Good Lord Bless and Keep us All.

A Little Birdie Told Me

By: Vivian Hernandez

A Little Birdie Told Me: "The Lord God Said, It Is Not Good For The Man To Be Alone. I

Will Make A Helper Suitable For Him." (Genesis 2:18)

Dave and I celebrated our 40th wedding anniversary on Sunday,

August 31st. We had a nice evening in Minot at a New Mexican restaurant on Friday, our kids, grandkids and my sister and her husband met us there.

Our daughters did the planning and we celebrated 5 anniversaries. All our kids were married in August and my sister in September. The number of years range from 57 to 1 year, for a total of 126 years of marriage, now that's something to celebrate!

I was the flower girl in my sister's wedding in 1968 and she was my matron-of-honor in 1985. I wore a lovely satin flower girl dress that was grass stained by the end of the night. We both had beautiful church weddings and it felt right to celebrate our 40th anniversary at Mass.

Fr. Gary Benz is the pastor at Glen Ullin, Hebron and St. Joseph's in Rural Grant County. As it happened he would be having the last Mass of the summer at St. Joseph's on August 31st.

St. Joseph's was established in 1911 and Mass is held once a month during the summer and on Christmas Eve. Upon walking into the church there's no question that you are in a Catholic Church. I love the traditional beauty and feel of old churches, the brass sanctuary candle a reminder that God is truly present.

The wooden floors are dry and creek with every step; the pews and kneelers are uncomfortable. Like the pews Fr. Gary's doesn't let me get to comfortable in my faith journey. His sermons constantly challenge and convict me, to love the unlovable: Being a Christian means loving Jesus and Judas.

It's hard to imagine 40 years have gone by; our parents, some siblings and friends have passed. We've moved around the state of North Dakota, traveled some, and owned businesses, changed jobs but the one constant has been our Catholic faith and God's grace will see us through the next 40 years.

A Little Birdie Told Me: "Marriage Is An Ongoing, Vivid, Illustration Of What It Costs To Love An Imperfect Person Unconditionally... The Same Way Christ Has Loved Us."
