"I saw the face of God" Only I didn't recognize Him

Fun loving Bob had a beautiful daughter - talented, charming, out going. "Peach of a daughter," he always said. But Tami - well she was outgoing, life of the party, everyone wanted her around - - and of course, her beauty capture one young mans heart. Married she moved away, to far to get home very often. Bob wrote her, called, some times she was available, some times not. And every so often Tami would send a picture or two of their children - but her comment always was the same - - . "Dad, you know how busy we are - job - children, activities - - you understand?" And Bob always said, "It's okay honey - love you anyway."

Many years went by and year by year Bob grew older. Some of his friends wrote Tami - - wish you could come see your Father. "Someday," she would write back. "Right now we've got the lake home to take care of, Kids in soccer - - later - - after summer - - the end of summer we'll come visit."

Bobs health declined and one day while thinking of how to fit visiting her father into the schedule she received a text - "Father passed away last night - - .

Arrangements made at home, flight schedule okay, she was about to board plane when flight canceled due to pouring rains. Frustration filled to the max - - anger, whelmed up till she almost lost control - - finally - - rains stopped and she boarded the plane - - sure messed up my schedule - it'll take me weeks to get my work done now - - darn - - and ranting and raving she continued her discussion about terrible timing.

Taxi met her at the airport - - heart began beating a little faster as he pulled into the driveway. Had been a long time since she was home - - house seemed lonely - - quiet. Turned the key, entered and for the first time she allowed the tears to flow. Sitting in Papa's old rocker she sobbed - - then she began reminiscing old memories - how Papa had driven 100 miles to get her because kids had left her out at the lake; her first driving experience -- hit the curb for going to fast and Papa only said, "You learn from your mistakes," First boyfriend break up - Papa just held her as she cried, first sunrise when Papa made her get up to see it. And the list of good things her Father did just for her were endless.

"Wonder how he did all those things for me?" was the question in her heart as she headed to the funeral home -- made arrangements and returned to pick up something for him to wear.

"This one, no maybe this one, no - - this is the one - - the jacket he wore all the time - - tattered torn - - that's okay she said. He loved this jacket. Reaching into the pocket to make sure they were empty she pulled out a small tiny - - looked like a book. "The New Testament" was on the front cover.

"That's how!" She said. "That's how he put up with me all these years, loved me, waited for me, never judged - - ." I saw the face of God thru my Father. I just didn't recognize him.

"This Fathers Day - celebrate your Father. He may not carry the New Testament in his pocket but he does carry you in his heart."

If you haven't had a PSA or are due for a PSA screening, why are you waiting?

The goal of screening for prostate cancer is to find cancers that may be at high risk for spreading if not treated, and to find them early before they spread.

Screening for prostate cancer begins with a blood test called a prostate specific antigen (PSA) test. This test measures the level of PSA in the blood. PSA is a substance made by the prostate. The levels of PSA in the blood can be higher in men who have prostate cancer. The PSA level may also be elevated in other conditions that affect the prostate.

Out of every 100 American men, about 13 will get prostate cancer during their lifetime, and about 2 to 3 men will die from prostate cancer. The most common risk factor is age.

Cloud Seeding Operations Summary For June 7-13, 2021

BISMARCK, N.D. - Hot and dry conditions continued in southwestern North Dakota last week with above average high temperatures in the 80s and 90s. Midweek thunderstorms brought a brief reprieve to the ongoing drought conditions.

In the District 1 operations area, which includes Bowman and part of Slope Counties, aircraft conducted seeding operations on the evenings of June 8 and 10. There were nine flights flown by project aircraft last week for purposes of hail suppression, rain enhancement, reconnaissance, or repositioning.

Southwestern North Dakota should see minimal chances for thunderstorms this week and continued above average temperatures in the 80s and low 90s.

Radar facilities in Bowman operate around the clock during the NDCMP. Radar images can be viewed on the Atmospheric Resource Board's web site at <http://www.swc.nd.gov/arb>. The NDCMP will continue through the end of August.

Dr. Toshi Is In!

Dear Dr. Toshi,

I noticed blood in my stool. Does that mean I have a hemorrhoid?

Maybe. Maybe not. You may think that blood in stool is from hemorrhoids because you often hear about them, but that's not the only reason you may have blood in your stool. Until you're evaluated by your doctor or provider, no one can say for sure what's causing the blood in the stool.

Blood in stool can be caused by many things. It can come from hemorrhoids as you may have heard, but it can also come from other conditions such as anal fissures (small cracks in the skin around the anus), infections, inflammatory bowel disease (such as ulcerative colitis and Crohn's disease), diverticulosis and diverticulitis, ulcers, gastritis, vascular problems, benign polyps, and colorectal (colon and rectal) cancer, to name a few. The point is that rectal bleeding is not normal.

Even moderate amount of blood from the rectum can lower the amount of blood in your body pretty quickly, causing anemia, and you may notice dizziness, weakness, fainting, and pale skin color if this happens. You may have abdominal pain, too. It's wise not to wait and see, but to see your doctor or other provider right away if you notice blood in your stool.

It's also important to look at your stool to see what it looks like and to notice what symptoms are associated with your bowel movement. This information can give your doctor a lot of important clues. It's helpful if you note your stool's color, hardness or softness, whether it's watery or not, if there's blood mixed in with the stool or is just on the outside of the stool, if it was on the toilet paper when you wiped, or if you saw a lot of blood in the toilet, for instance. Blood that's bright red in color generally comes from somewhere closer to your anus, whereas darker blood comes from somewhere up higher in the GI tract since it's partially digested. So, blood in the stool isn't always bright red. It can be a maroon color or even black and tarry.

By the way, some medications and supplements can also cause black-colored stool, so it's important to tell your doctor or other provider what medications and supplements you're taking.

Blood can come from the upper GI tract, which includes the esophagus, stomach, and the first part of the small intestine called the duodenum. The lower GI tract includes the cecum, colon, rectum, and anus. The rectum is the last 6 inches of the colon. Last week I talked about how long the small intestine is, but it's not as common for blood to come from the small intestine as it is from other parts of the GI tract.

As I mentioned above, colorectal cancer can cause blood in the stool, and it's the third most common cancer in both men and women in the United States. There are several things that can increase your risk of getting colorectal cancer, which you can actually change. (There are also other risk factors that you can't change, such as your age, genetics, and ethnicity, for instance.) The risk factors you can change include your diet, weight, and exercise. A bad diet, being overweight and lack of exercise are strongly linked to the risk of getting any cancer, but certain types of diets raise the risk of colorectal cancer specifically. For example, many studies have shown that a diet high in red meat (beef, pork, lamb, or liver), processed meat (like hot dogs and lunch meat), and cooking meat at high temperatures (frying, broiling, grilling, or charring/blackening) increases the risk of colorectal cancer. Smoking and moderate to heavy alcohol use are linked to an increased risk of colorectal cancer, too.

I hope this article helped you realize that blood in the stool isn't always from hemorrhoids. So, if you see blood in your stool, please make a visit with your doctor or other provider right away.

players are ranked, with the top half thrown into one half and the bottom half thrown into another hat. Then a player from each hat is drawn and they form the two-person team. Your entry fee is waived if you're playing in the HCC Invitational Tourney on the weekend. The entry fee is $15 per person for non-tournament players. This year, the Fuglie Family has gifted $500 "In Memory of Jay" and toward the "Par 3 Shootout." Uecker Yards also added $200, to create a $700 pot to be paid out to the top teams in the field. Please sign up by 3pm Friday, by calling HCC at 701-567-2339.

Of course, the following two days, June 26th and 27th, is the renowned "Hettinger Country Club Invitational Tournament." Known as "Thee Golf Reunion," this tourney has created many friendships over the years (Kind of like an annual reunion of friends and wannabe golfers, if you will). Jay Fuglie and his always competitive spirit, participated in many of them. This tournament is the largest fundraiser of the year for the Hettinger Country Club. Usually 80-88 players convene for the two-day, four-person team, 36-hole tournament each year. Many local volunteers and HCC Members have worked their tails off, to create a classy, grass-green, 9-hole golf course for our community. Some are still trying to keep it that way. Thank you.

Owyn "Jay" Fuglie was born to O.J. and Phyllis Fuglie in Hettinger, December 27, 1954. He was the third of seven children. He graduated from Hettinger High School and Dickinson State College. Jay was an avid, low handicap golfer, who grew up in Hettinger playing at the Hettinger Country Club. His dad O.J. helped Joe Manning, Al Tanous, Jimmy Ecker and others design the sand-green golf course where it is still located today (now with a few minor revisions and grass greens and teeboxes). Needless to say, Jay honed his skills here quite well, winning numerous local tournaments and always a favorite among the youth with his competitive and never-give-up spirit. Jay was also an avid hunter and fisherman. He had a long career as an insurance agent in Williston. We will miss Jay, as he left this life, for wider fairways and tougher pin placements, on January 12, 2021.

Please consider joining us for the "Par 3 Shootout" in Memory of Jay Fuglie at the Hettinger Country Club on Friday, June 25th, 5:30pm. Please call the HCC at 701-567-2339 to register prior to 3:00pm same day. Thank you.

Next Friday, June 25th, at 5:30pm sharp, the Hettinger Country Club will host their Annual "Par 3 Shootout." It is a crazy, fun, two-person team, par-three, nine-hole format - which leads into the "Hettinger Country Club Invitational Tournament" on Saturday and Sunday, June 26-27. This year the Shootout is in Memory of Jay Fuglie, a Hettinger born and raised golfer, who is now playing 18 (maybe 36) a day in heaven - where his putts are always past the hole and his dad's 8-iron is as solid as ever.

Early Weaning a Drought Management Strategy

Early weaning can help reduce pressure on native pastures and extend forage supplies for adult beef cows.

Rainfall is one of the most important factors that influence management decisions on the ranch, according to North Dakota State University Extension livestock specialists.

This year is no different because most of North Dakota is experiencing severe dry weather. Drought conditions drive management of native pasture, crop residue and cover crop acres. Typically, even with good moisture during mid to late summer, the nutritional value of native pasture is in decline. This decline is accelerated under dry conditions.

Early weaning is one of the management decisions that can help reduce pressure on native pastures and extend forage supplies for adult beef cows," says Janna Block, Extension livestock systems specialist at NDSU's Hettinger Research Extension Center. "Early weaning simply means weaning calves at an earlier age to reduce forage usage while not compromising calf health and performance."

Dairy calves often are weaned as early as 8 weeks of age. This is achieved through proper nutrition with feeds that promote rumen development. This enhances the development of the rumen so the calf can survive very well without the nursing milk diet. From the standpoint of feed efficiency, feeding calves directly is more efficient than feeding cows to sustain milk production.

Beef calves can be early weaned successfully from 60 to 150 days of age.

Most producers notice that nursing calves also will consume forage, whether through grazing or being fed harvested forages. Research shows that early weaned cows will consume as much as 35% to 45% less forage than normally weaned cow-calf pairs.

Early weaning typically results in improved body condition of dams due to decreased nutrient requirements. A cow weighing 1,400 pounds would require about 16 pounds of energy (total digestible nutrients, or TDN) and 2.5 pounds of crude protein (CP) on a daily basis in late lactation. This same cow's requirements would decrease to 12 pounds of TDN and 1.7 pounds of protein after weaning. In addition, water requirements would decrease by about 55% to 60%.

"It is important to distinguish between early weaning and creep feeding based on the goals of each strategy," says Zac Carlson, Extension beef cattle specialist.

"Creep feeding is the act of providing supplemental feed to nursing calves," he notes. "The primary goal of creep feeding is to increase weaning weight of calves. While creep feeding may result in some substitution of forage for creep feed, it does not reduce nursing pressure on cows. Therefore, this practice will not provide the same forage savings and increases in cow condition that can be gained from early weaning."

Early weaning should not compromise calf health and it should enhance performance. The key to successful early weaning is to treat groups of calves as unique. Weaning by pasture group is preferred, with no commingling of other groups after weaning for at least 45 days. Even though all calves have been born and raised on the same ranch, the pasture group is the stable unit as it relates to shared organisms and social pecking order.

"If weaning includes commingling all pasture groups at the same time into a common weaning pen or pasture, be prepared to begin treating calves for respiratory disease 10 to 14 days postweaning," says Gerald Stokka, Extension veterinarian and livestock stewardship specialist. "Alternatively, make provisions to bring all cows and calves together such that the social order and shared organisms of calves can be re-established prior to the stress of weaning. The more space that is provided (i.e., pasture weaning), the less the pressure on re-establishing social structure and the less transmission of organisms during this stressful time."

Other potential risk factors may influence health at this time as well. Lack of passive immunity, temperature fluctuations, heat stress, nutritional stress prior to weaning, dusty pens and handling stress may impact the healthy transition to weaning negatively. The lack of adequate passive transfer of immunity from the birth mother to the calf increases the risk of postweaning death.

Temperature fluctuations may compromise the normal respiratory defense mechanisms of calves, as do heat stress and dusty pen conditions. Dry conditions may result in nutritional stress prior to weaning, so make sure that appropriate protein, energy, and mineral supplements are provided prior to and after weaning.

If calves need processing, such as for vaccinations or deworming, do it early in the morning or delay processing until temperatures moderate. Processing can be done at the time of weaning; however, only products that benefit the animal at weaning and do not compromise the immune response should be used. Processing done at least three weeks prior to early weaning is preferred and provides the opportunity to administer booster doses post-weaning if necessary.

Facilities may need some remodeling if weaning calves that are significantly smaller than normal. Calves become adept at finding ways to return to their dams or at least escaping the weaning facility. Because smaller and younger calves may have difficulty competing for feed and water, sorting them into several pen groups based on size and age may be necessary.

"Early weaning is a management tool that can significantly reduce forage and water demand," Block says. "In addition, with proper preparation, calf health and performance are not compromised."

A Good Father
 by Pastor Ed Kvalle
 Bowman Assembly of God

Father's Day has just past us and it is a day that I reflect on more and more the past few years as a father myself. I love watching my children grow and develop and become who Jesus has made them to be. God desires us to be secure in His love and transformed by His love.

I would like us to consider a portion of Scripture from 1 John 3:1-3 which says "See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure."

It is beautiful passage of how much God loves us and yet it can also be difficult to accept for a variety of reasons including a difficult or absent relationship with our own father or father figure. Nonetheless, we do not earn our affection from God or salvation by being good enough; rather we put our trust in Jesus through faith alone and grace alone and trust He will transform us into His image. Yes, we purify ourselves, we follow and obey, but we also stumble and fall.

Our hope is not in being good enough, trying harder, working harder. Rather, we know that God is a loving Father, Jesus is a loving Savior, and the Holy Spirit is working in us to make us like Jesus if we have begun the process of surrendering our life to the will and purpose of the Triune God. We serve Jesus out of love, gratitude, and a hope to become like Jesus not out of fear of punishment.

Our perspective can be changed forever by bad experience, but let us trust that God is a good father and loves us and wants not to punish, but to save. Jesus said best in a passage many of us know and love in John 3:16-17 "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him". Salvation and transformation, not condemnation or punishment motivates God's affections for each of us. Let us draw near to our Father's love today!

Happiness keeps you sweet.
 Trials keep you strong.
 Sorrow keeps you human.
 Failure keeps you humble.
 And courage keeps you going.

Coyote Corner – School Receives Excellent Review Score

Some of you may have been aware or even involved in our recent review by the state. The process by which our school is evaluated and scored, which is done by a company called Cognia. I will cut to the chase and share we scored a whopping 304.68. Now I know this number by itself really doesn't mean a lot. First off it is out of 400 and second, the highest score the review panel that scored us had seen before was a 320. The average score on this review for schools across the nation is between 278.34 and 283.33. We scored a solid 27 points above that mark. This score was given by a panel of three reviewers. These reviewers reviewed data provided by the school as well as interviewed students, teachers, parents, administration, board members, and community members. For the quality of our performance, our leadership team was invited to present at the fall Cognia (the organization who does school reviews) Conference on the good things we are doing at our school.

I will take a minute to remind everyone reading this that in 2019-2020 we were selected as one of 10 schools making larger than expected gains closing the achievement gap by the National Dropout Prevention Center. Between 2017 and 2019 we held the second-highest growth scores in the state for reading. In 2014-2015 we were recognized as a Nationally Recognized Title I School. In 2016-2017 our title coordinator, Roxann Tietz, was recognized as an Expectational Title I Educator. In 2020 our high school principal, Terry Bentz, was recognized as the ND Principal of the Year. I think it is good to remind ourselves once in a while of the good work we do.

I believe it is easy to think about the things we'd like to have. To find ourselves saying, "if only we had one of those slick career and technical centers Bismarck, has top of the line electronic devices, the newest curricular material, or a host of other things we can find ourselves envious of, then we could be special." Resources certainly help, but alone they do not provide the world-class education we do in our fine institution. You do not need to be a big district to accomplish big things.

We were specifically praised in our review for two things. One was the strength of our culture. The Cognia team was impressed with how we embodied our message of providing a positive and safe environment that promotes lifelong learning. They commended us for not only being worried about the academic wellbeing of our students but the child as a whole. We were also commended in how we involved our stakeholders in the operation of our school in a transparent manner. The review team said we truly had a caring and supportive environment.

Now we did have things to improve upon, of course. One of which was the integration of technology within our instruction. An area we have already put into our improvement goals for next year. The team also wanted to see our professional development more informed and guided by data. They complimented us on having a strong foundation and encouraged us to continue to build upon that foundation. But let this not detract from the fact we outperformed the majority of the schools in the nation reviewed by Cognia.

We thank all of the parents, students, teachers, board members, and administration who participated in this review and made it a success. We thank all of our community members who make us a better school and we always strive to make our community a better place. We want to embody what it means to be Pack Strong and without the good work everyone does, that would not be possible. I believe we can safely say we are living up to that commitment.

"America, The Beautiful"

54 Years Later . . .

fortunate to have been born the 11th of 12 Children in the early 1950's in America, the son of Sicilian immigrants. I owe so many great Americans who reached out to help me along the way. Pictured on the left is my little sister and me on the front steps of the Guardian Angel Home Orphanage in 1965, where we were raised since our family situation was very impoverished. On the right is me 54 years later. American is a wonderful place to live. I am grateful to a long list of considerate people who reached out to help me like the Sisters Of St. Francis in Joliet, as well as the many businesses who gave to us at the orphanage to keep us going. God Bless America as we reflect on our heritage on this 4th of July, 2021. Sal (www.saldileo.com)

Sal Di Leo returns after 30 years to the Catholic orphanage outside Chicago that he and his siblings called home in 1963. This is the beginning of a journey of discovery and remembrance as Sal is forced to reconstruct his life as it really happened, including some of his most difficult years at Boys Town in Nebraska. As an adult, Sal tried to rise above his turbulent past in an aggressive quest for power and money. Successes soon led to failures. Eventually, NFL Hall Of Fame Coach, Bud Grant, convinces Sal to go back to his roots and look for the good in his life and valuable lessons he learned from the Nuns as an orphan in order to go forward.

An entrepreneur who has successfully tackled many challenges in business and in life, Sal volunteers much of his time serving those in need. With his family, he founded St. Francis Lodge, a free retreat center where nuns, priests and others can reflect and rest to enhance their lives and work. The State Fish Art contest, which he started in Minnesota to help kids learn about conservation through art, is now offered in all 50 states and 12 countries.

Sal has been actively involved with Rotary and the Lions Club, and he has spoken to service clubs around the United States about his life and the importance of gratitude. His self-published memoir, Did I Ever Thank You, Sister?, rooted in his childhood experiences in a Catholic orphanage, is available worldwide, now being adapted to a major motion film.

The proud father of two adult daughters who have successfully left the nest, Sal has been married to his lovely wife Beth for 40 years. A 1977 graduate of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln. Currently semi-retired and a Business Development Consultant for Mc Gough Construction in Fargo.

Sal Di Leo's message on the 'power of giving and gratitude' is what built America. Everyone should hear this message.

Little Acts Of Kindness Makes A Difference

At almost 70, I have seen a lot of ups and downs in the world. Having been the 11th of 12 Children and being born in the early 1950's, we were poor. But, there was always someone who reached out to us with a helping hand, like the old milk man in Joliet, IL. We couldn't afford much but somehow he found a way to get us the extra milk and items we needed to help us make ends meet. I found out years later he would ask his boss for a discount on the items he would drop off at our house after his route was completed, at least once a week, and would pay for it out of his pocket. He couldn't been making much. I truly believe little acts of kindness make all the difference in life. I certainly have not forgotten after 60+ years that man's kindness. Now, the whole world needs little acts of kindness. Find someone or some organization to help, with little things. Remember, a lot of little people doing little things adds up to big things being done. I have found a little organization to help called Spark-Y Youth Labs which teaches kids online sustainability and a host of other valuable life skills (www.spark-y.org). If you are looking for a place where kids and education are what you wish to help, this is one to consider. I am grateful. Sal (www.saldileo.com).

Make good choices
- do hard things

By Kathy Craigo-Harteis

Yesterday I watched as my son Val and Sami completed a 35 mile bike race around Harmon Lake in Mandan, North Dakota. Later grandsons Vaughn and Kohen competed in the kids race. All had respectful finishes and Sami even took second place in her division. The boys experienced their first speed race. Vaughn has done the 13 mile Maah Daah Hey endurance race before, but he found a speed race was more challenging. But he did it!

More than once yesterday I heard Val and Sami tell the boys to make good choices and do hard things.

It's a great way to build good character. I'm proud of all of them.

Daughter Velvet and I came along on the trip to be Auntie/Grandma Nannies. It's been a wonderful time.

I'm so impressed with the philosophy of doing hard things. It's hard for me to do some things these days, but I always remember that I should try.

If you've read this column in the past you know I have little patience with whining, always giving up people.

I'm probably paying for my lifelong determination these days. Lots of things on my old body hurt. But still, I believe it's always best to try.

We've had high winds and heat in North Dakota this week. We came home one night to find our patio umbrella spinning like a propeller. It was a struggle in the wind to get it secured. One night the wind was so strong it caused waves big enough in the pool to empty it a bit.

There were tornadoes in some parts of the state. Luckily we were spared in Beach.

But dawn race day yesterday it was pretty close to perfect.

Remember to make good choices and do hard things. Life will be good today.

Donald Merriman

Donald Wilford Merriman was born December 24, 1922 in a sod house south of Lemmon, SD to parents Arthur and

Edith (Thorpe) Merriman. There were 10 children, with 7 surviving beyond childhood. The family moved to the community of Seim (now under water at Shadepill Reservoir) to work on farmland Don's grandfather Wilford had purchased. Don enjoyed school with a few of his brothers and sisters in the Seim one-room schoolhouse, and his love of learning persisted throughout his lifetime. He graduated from high school in Lemmon, SD after boarding "in town" with his brother Russell. Don worked for Boeing Aircraft in Seattle Washington in 1941, and on to San Diego for more work in the aviation industry. He enlisted in the Navy in 1942 during WWII.

Don enlisted in the Navy in 1942 during World War II, began basic training in San Diego and had additional schooling to become an Aviation Radioman before receiving his dispatch orders to the Solomon Islands in the South Pacific. Don remembered the journey as very tense, sailing on a fuel-supplying merchant ship, a prime target for enemy aircraft. He was moved from island to island following the Marines and doing cleanup after the battles that had ensued. In the spring of 1944 Don got emergency leave to return home after his father died. He received leave in two segments to plant and harvest for his mother in South Dakota. Due to this arrangement, he served much of his service at Fallon, Nevada. There he met Frances Waltz, from Akron, Ohio who was teaching in Fallon. Thus began a relationship that spanned 73 years. Don and Frances became engaged in 1945, and in November of 1945 Don received his Honorable Discharge.

The couple was married in Brookings, South Dakota on May 31, 1946. The initial years of the marriage were busy with farming, creating a home, establishing a garden, and over time from 1947 to 1963, growing a family that included two daughters and two sons. The community around Shadepill grew with both people and activity as the Shadepill Reservoir started to be developed beyond the initial planning stages in 1948. It was also the time that Don took over a rural route mail contract, and Don and Frances retained that route for 49 years. In the summer of 1949, crews began to move in to start the initial phases of construction of the Shadepill Reservoir. Much of the housing and staging for the Dam took place at the nearby Hager home and Shadepill Post office.

The Shadepill Reservoir and Grand River figured heavily in the next stages of Don's life. Providing for a growing family by farming on the reduced acreage lost to the dam was challenging. Don had been interested in irrigation for some time, since his father had been enthusiastic about irrigation. He learned everything he could, and eventually went on to irrigate his own land. Shortly thereafter, he started promoting and selling irrigation equipment part-time in the area.

By 1981 all four children were married and grand-parenting and occasional golfing were added interests.

In the 1980s Don and Frances visited Hawaii and Australia. Later Don and Frances traveled to Fullerton, California to spend the winter months with Frances' brother. After 2000, broken bones and extended recoveries for both Don and Frances dictated it was time to leave the farm. Don and Frances moved to Lemmon in 2002.

Living away from the farm, Don found ways to get involved in town life. He started to take an interest in local municipal events, the Senior Center, and the American Legion. In his 80's he learned to use the computer, mostly on his own, and soon became an avid researcher. He had such a thirst for knowledge that the internet opened up a whole new world for him. He believed in healthy living, exercise of both mind and body and tried his best to practice both.

Donald loved visits from his grandchildren and great grandchildren, and playing "Donald Duck" with his name, taught them to call him Grandpa Quack Quack. He enjoyed teaching them to play dominos and card games, and encouraged them to think big in their dreams for the future.

Donald is survived by his two sons, John (Brenda) Lemmon SD, Richard (Sari) Aberdeen, SD, and two daughters, Claudia Merriman, Lemmon SD/Burnsville MN, and Nancy (Ken) Smart, Brooklyn Park, MN., 9 Grandchildren, 10 Great Grandchildren, and 2 Great Great Grandchildren, Sisters, Marvlyn Braaten, Pryor Oklahoma, Elizabeth Wacker, Bowman ND, and brother, Roger, Spearfish, SD. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Frances, his infant brothers, Darrel and Arthur, infant sister, Florence, brothers, Russell and Glen, and sister, Lucille Lutz, his son-in-law Ken Smart, and great granddaughter, Kirra O'Connor.

A memorial celebration will be announced later.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com

Richard R. Magstadt Rites Held

A celebration of life service for Richard Magstadt, 95, of Dickinson was held at the Evangelical Bible Church Tuesday, June 8 at 10 a.m. with Pastor Tim Privratsky officiating.

Richard Roland Magstadt

The two most powerful forces in the world are love and prayer. Use them!

was born on July 15, 1925 in rural Burt to Fred and Magdalena (Eder) Magstadt. He grew up on the family farm, attended a rural country school as well as Hebron High School.

Richard worked as a mechanic at the Pontiac garage in Hebron and on the Burlington Northern Santa Fe railroad. It was during his time on the railroad when he met the love of his life, Arlene Treiber. Richard and Arlene were married on September 24, 1950 in Hebron. He and his bride then moved back to continue work on the family farmstead. To their union, Victoria, Sherry, Lee and Melissa were born.

He was an active and loyal community member, serving in many roles and on several boards. These service positions included being a security officer for Hettinger County for 31 years; Hettinger County Assessor for 45 years; Mott Rural Fire Department for 5 years with a one year presidency position, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Board for two years; Odessa School Board for 12 years and on the Mott School District School Board for 9 years. Many people, including Richard himself, enjoyed roller skating at the Burt Hall where he served as a security officer.

He lived on the family farm until 1989 when he and Arlene decided to relocate to Dickinson. Richard worked for Dickinson Parks and Recreation for 14 years, and took pride in making sure the city parks and ball diamonds were mowed and ready each week. He particularly enjoyed friendships he made at Parks and Rec while working there, as well as also mentoring the young men he worked with.

An avid hunter, Richard loved to butcher and was quite good at it. He made the best sausage and loved to share with others the fruits of his labor. He spent many hours in his wood-working shop, where he built a replica of his farmstead, hay binders, vintage wagons pulled by horses, and additional wood projects.

Richard loved people, especially his family. He and Arlene welcomed anyone into their home with generous hearts, and no one left a stranger or hungry. He had a great and contagious laugh, and a special nickname for everyone he considered family. He loved to play cards with family and friends and was a great teacher to any rookies learning to play. Richard was loved fiercely and will be dearly missed.

Richard is survived by his wife of 70 years, Arlene; children Vicki (Dave) Miller, Fargo; Sherry (Richard) Schatz, Bismarck; Lee (JoLynn) Magstadt, Dickinson; and Melissa (Kelly) Friedt, Mott; ten grandchildren; Alicia (Travis) Gunwall, Mott; Amanda (Bobby) Brown, Fargo; Rick (Heather) Schatz, Bismarck; Brandy Jo (Dan) Frei, Hazen; Bethany Schatz (Monty Weigum), Bismarck; Amy (Travis) Czapiewski; Dickinson; Nathan (Haley) Magstadt, Abingdon, VA; Kayla (Steve) Olson, Beulah; Kelsey (Matt) Dobitz, Mott; Karagan Friedt, Mott. 21 great-grandchildren, Kitana Schmidt, Kayden Redich, Kobbie Gunwall, Harmon, Bentley and Kinly Brown, Aubrey and Conor Schatz, Emmalia, Parker and Cooper Frei, Elysium Weigum, June Czapiewski, Harrison Magstadt, Emma, Adeline and Luke Olson, Charlie, Blake, Mason and Lottie Dobitz. One half-brother Roger (Jane) Kugler, Vermillion, SD; sister-in-law Francis Hieb, Bismarck; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers Walter, Marvin, Raymond and infant brother Herbert; sisters Freida Ward, and infant sister Martha; half-sisters, Ella Lennick and Hertha Shelton; nephews Gene, Bruce, David and Deron Magstadt and nieces Wendi Magstadt and Kim Weatherly.

Arlene Siewert Rites Held

Arlene Elsie Siewert was born on January 6, 1941 to LeRoy and Elsie (Erdman) McFarland in Hettinger, North Dakota. She attended Ellingson school and graduated from Hettinger High School with honors in 1958. She also attended Black Hills Teacher's College for one year. Arlene married Manley Siewert on September 12, 1959 and to this union three sons were born; Delroy, Daluss, and Dalynn. Arlene loved gardening and working with livestock. She once bottle-fed and raised a buffalo calf that had been rejected by its mother. An accomplished seamstress, she made clothes for herself and her family. One of the things she enjoyed most was teaching her 4H club boys' how to cook. Over the 10 years she was a leader, she taught 25 boys. She was the leader of the ladies church group in Scranton, North Dakota and in Hot Springs, South Dakota.

One year Arlene made suckers for the boys' junior class to sell at games as a fundraiser. They were so popular that she continued making them for the next 20 years. She added Kuchen, Lefse, Pizzelles, and choke cherry jelly to her repertoire and began selling these items at craft sales. Her Kuchen was in great demand and one season she made 1500 Kuchen! Her choke cherry jelly went all across the nation and was even shipped to two countries overseas.

After moving to Hot Springs, South Dakota, she and her husband became Mountain Man Nut and Fruit distributors which kept her busy in her retirement years. Arlene was also an avid journal keeper. She documented everything from major events to everyday happenings at the end of each day and had quite the collection of notebooks!

Arlene's greatest loves were her Savior, her family, and her many friends. Fellowshiping with all of the above brought her much joy.

Arlene has been a resident at Weston County Manor in Newcastle, Wyoming since January 26, 2021. She passed away on June 2, 2021.

Survivors include her husband of 61 years, Manley Siewert, her sons and daughters-in-law, Delroy and Cindy, Daluss and Lynette, and Dalynn and Tammy; eleven grandchildren and ten great grandchildren. Preceding her in death were her parents and her brother, Eugene McFarland.

Graveside services were at 2:00 PM on Thursday, June 10, 2021 at Rose Hill Cemetery in Spearfish.

Arrangements were under the care of the Fidler-Isburg Funeral Chapels and Isburg Crematory of Spearfish. Online condolences may be written at www.fidler-isburgfuneralchapel.com

Ronnie Holdahl Rites Held

Ronnie Holdahl, age 68, of Lemmon, SD, passed away suddenly on Saturday, May 29, 2021, in Pinedale, WY.

Funeral services for Ron was held at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, June 4, 2021 at the NEW HOPE WORSHIP CENTER in Lemmon, SD. Pastor TJ Shockley officiated and burial with full military honors followed in the Greenhill Cemetery at Lemmon, SD.

Ronnie Lee Holdahl was born to Morris and Vera Holdahl on September 9th, 1952 in Lemmon, SD. He was the fourth of six boys. He first attended school at Paranto #4 (a small country school) and later attended Lemmon High School, graduating in 1970. Shortly after, he enlisted in the Army for two years, serving a tour overseas in Germany. Upon honorable discharge in 1974, he enrolled in an avionics program at the Alexandria Area Vocational Technical Institute in Minnesota, learning to repair electronics and radios. He briefly moved to Oregon then returned east to Lemmon to work for Redman Implement. He then moved to Dickinson, ND for a short time. Ron finally settled back home in Lemmon to work for the town of Lemmon and as an EMT. In Dickinson, he began dating his future wife, Delilah. After their marriage, Ron took up farming and ranching full time. He also gained 3 children, Brad, Brenda and Brooke, upon marrying Delilah. Later, Ron took to raising what was his best and finest crop: grandkids, and great-grandkids.

Ron taught all of his kids to dance, drive and check cattle with a calm smile, despite the numerous accidents and narrowly avoided catastrophes. His grandkids (and wife) were quite the handful. His ability to remain sane and keep everyone together was a challenging feat of epic proportions. Britnai, Adam and River, his oldest grandkids, had a need for speed that he managed to tame after they all wrecked the four wheeler, golf cart and the infamous Barbie car. Thanks to Grandpa, they are all "decent" drivers now. Riley and Cale, the younger grandkids, thankfully were more cautious and needed to be encouraged to go over 5 mph. Grandpa could fix everything from tractors to broken hearts. Adam once broke something irreplaceable and just shrugged with the answer "Grandpa will fix it".

Ron was often the voice of reason and wisdom with those who knew him. Family was incredibly important to Ron and it was never about blood to him. After one conversation with a lonely stranger, they would be claimed by him. Those in his family knew that there wasn't anything he wouldn't do for you. Ron was a loyal and devoted brother. His brothers were some of his best friends. He wouldn't take no for an answer when offering help. No one was going to tell him what to do and oddly enough he was usually right about things.

When the great grandkids came along, Grandpa was thrilled to transition to Papa. He gained 4 new shadows to work on the farm with him and make him dress up like a princess. Papa was always happy to spend time with Emma, Kylea, Josie and Macy. He couldn't tell them no and they have had some wonderful adventures. Papa was the calm in the chaos of our family for these girls. He read countless books and watched way too many Disney movies with all his kids. Throughout all of those times, Ron was accompanied by one of his faithful, canine sidekicks. His dogs are waiting patiently for Ron in heaven so they can all head to the pasture together. Buddy, the most recent dog, is missing him here but is a comfort to all of us.

Ron will be dearly missed by all who knew him. He has left a hole that will never be filled but he also left a legacy of reaching out to those around you and bringing them into your family.

Ron is survived by his wife, Delilah, Lemmon, SD; children, Brad (Carrie) Derschan, Lemmon, SD, Brenda Derschan, Rapid City, SD and Brooke (Casey) Dauwen, Pinedale, WY; five grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; five brothers, Bob (Mary), Yankton, SD, Don (Tami) St. Maries, ID, Tom (Nancy), Buffalo, SD, Tim (Bev) Dickinson, ND and Jim (Carole), Watertown, SD; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Morris and Vera Holdahl; two brothers-in-law, Lonnie Thom and Ward Barnes; three nephews, Jim Holdahl and Samuel Holdahl, Nathan Barnes; niece, Helsah Holdahl; and his four legged best friend, Roo-Bob.

The funeral service was livestreamed and a link will be made available on Ron's obituary on our website at www.evanson-jensenfuneralhome.com.

A memorial has been established.

Reflections on the Words of Life

by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

From even a cursory reading of the gospel accounts of Jesus' life in the New Testament, there can be no question that He was often misunderstood and frequently the object of scoffing. But one of the most ironic scoffs Jesus ever received came while He was hanging on the cross. Matthew tells us this in Matthew 27:41-42: "Likewise the chief priests also, mocking with the scribes and elders, said, 'He saved others; Himself He cannot save. If He is the King of Israel, let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him.'"

On the one hand, this scoff is a tremendous "dig" at Jesus. It is an attempt to entirely discredit Him. These religious leaders in the nation of Israel wanted to make it plain to all onlookers that Jesus was a sham and that His miracles were a hoax. Of course, the evidence for Jesus' numerous miracles was everywhere. The blind were seeing; the lame were walking; lepers were healed. And then there was Lazarus. Jesus had raised Lazarus from the dead, and it was hard to deny the miraculous with Lazarus walking around in public. Yet these religious leaders thought they would use this opportunity to attempt to discredit all that Jesus had done.

After all, if He were really such a miracle worker, couldn't He just take Himself off the cross?

But on the other hand, there is something very ironic about this scoff of the chief priests, scribes, and elders. For there is a great truth contained in it which they no doubt never intended to convey. Yes, it is true that Jesus had saved others. But it was also true that He could not save Himself. Now, don't misunderstand me. I am not saying that Jesus did not have the ability to save Himself. He could have come down from the cross at any time if He wanted to. He told the disciple who was trying to defend Him when the soldiers came to arrest Him in the Garden of Gethsemane, "Put your sword in its place, for all who take the sword will perish by the sword. Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with more than twelve legions of angels?" (Matthew 26:52-53).

The truth is, Jesus decided not to come down from the cross. Jesus made this clear when He said in John 10:17-18, "I lay down My life that I may take it again. No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again." In fact, the main reason why He came to this earth is so that He could be put on the cross. And here is where the unintentional truth of the scoffers' statement comes in. He couldn't save Himself if He were going to save us. Jesus came to save sinners. Let us see this in His own words in Mark 10:45: "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

Jesus came to die for sinners because it was only in this way that our sins could be pardoned by a holy God. Perhaps you have heard the line in the old hymn, "What can wash away my sin? Nothing but the blood of Jesus!" Thank God for such a wonderful Savior! Praise His name for such willingness to die in the place of sinners.

Dear friend, don't seek a relationship with God on any other basis than the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross. To ask God to receive you any other way is an insult to His holiness. Remember Jesus' words from John 14:6: "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me."

RECIPE OF THE DAY
PECAN PIE BARS

2 cups all purpose flour
 1/2 cup granulated sugar
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 3/4 cup butter, cold
 4 tablespoons milk
 4 large eggs
 2 cups chopped pecans
 3/4 cup packed light brown sugar
 1 cup light corn syrup
 4 tablespoons butter, melted
 2 teaspoons vanilla extract

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease a 13x9 inch baking pan. Set aside. In small mixing bowl stir together the flour, sugar and salt. Using either a pastry blender, fork, or butter knife cut in the 3/4 cup butter (slice the butter into tablespoon size slices, add it to the flour mixture, and mash it up until the mixture resembles crumbs) Pour in the milk and mix with fork, then with hands to ensure the moisture is evenly distributed in the flour mixture. Press the dough into the greased baking pan. Bake at 350 for 20 minutes, the top of the crust will be a light brown color. While the crust is baking, prepare the pecan pie topping. In a medium size bowl lightly beat the eggs. Add in the light brown sugar, light corn syrup, melted butter, vanilla extract, and chopped pecans. Stir to combine. Spread this over the hot crust after it's baked for the 20 minutes. Bake again for another 20 minutes, or until the pecan pie filling has set (when you wiggle the pan the filling will no longer jiggle). Remove from oven and allow to cool. Cut into bars.

33rd Annual Fun, Run & Walk to be Held LIVE!
 By Ted Uecker, WRHS Foundation
 The 33rd Annual West River Health Services Foundation's "Fun, Run & Walk" event will be held LIVE on Saturday morning, July 3rd, with a scenic 3K run or walk around beautiful Mirror Lake in Hettinger, North Dakota. This "friendraiser" began in 1988 and has been going strong ever since. Originally started to fund exercise equipment at the WRHS Rehabilitation Center, the Fun, Run & Walk has now evolved into raising funds mainly for active community projects (new ice skating rink, open swims, exercise classes, local youth sports, etc.), with some net dollars being utilized for West River Health Services and Western Horizons Living Center Projects (mainly for resident activities at the Care Center and Assisted Living Center). Registration is open now through the day of the event at wrhs.com. If you register by June 28th, the price is $15 per person, including your t-shirt! From June 29th through July 3rd, registration is $20 per person. Sign up the whole family! There's an event for all ages.

The Registration Table will be open bright and early from 6:30am - 7:15am on Saturday, July 3rd at the east end of The Granary in Mirror Lake Park. The 1K Kid's Run will start at 7:30am, followed shortly thereafter by the Adult 3K Run and the 3K Walk.

There are numerous awards for the 1K Youth race, both male and female in the following age groups: 5 and under, 6-8, and 9-11. In the 3K Run, there are awards for male and female 12-16 year olds, 17-29, 30-49, and 50+ age groups. Plus, there will be awards for the youngest overall 1K runner, the fastest overall male and female 3K runners, the youngest walker, the most senior walker (pre-registered), the most senior runner, and the Clydesdale Award for the 200+ pound 3K runner. And there also is a Family Participation Award for the most pre-registered family members.

And don't worry about inspiration -- to get your feet movin', DJ Music will be provided by our own long-time Western Horizons Care Center employee Bart Damjanovich.

Of course, refreshments and bananas will be provided for all of the participants via our sponsors Kennedy's Fresh Foods and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company. In addition, a number of fine businesses are sponsoring this grand event: Blue Cross Blue Shield of ND, Bone & Joint Center, Consolidated Telcom, Dacotah Bank, Dakota Western

2020 Community Challenge Project Update
Splash Pad at Rotary Park

In 2020, Brosz Engineering was announced as the winner of the first ever Community Challenge put on by Bowman County Development Corporation! This project was submitted and won the community vote. During the plan development for this project, Brosz Engineering was approached by the Bowman Park & Rec Department about an opportunity to combine their Splash Path project with another project also planned at Rotary Park. The School of Promise has plans to install a new playground at Rotary Park designed for children in the 1 to 5 year age range. Combining a "dry" playground area with a "wet" playground area is becoming a common theme in recreational areas throughout the United States.

"Brosz Engineering is excited about the opportunity to partner with the School of Promise and Bowman Parks and Rec Department to bring this new vision for a wet and dry playground to reality," said Jon Brosz, 2020 Community Challenge Project Lead.

With a combined group effort, the project has increased in size and is even better than the original plan. Instead of a 10' sidewalk featuring several water features, the updated Splash Pad consists of a 35'x55' concrete area with 28 water features. Not only is the project larger, but it will also be able to cater to a larger age range.

As the project grew, the timeline was extended. The Splash Pad at Rotary Park is now expected to begin and complete construction in 2022. Brosz Engineering met with the Community Challenge Committee and had an extension approved through Bowman County Development Corporation.

If you have any additional questions on the Splash Pad at Rotary Park or would like to donate, please contact Jon Brosz at Brosz Engineering.

Exact features are still tentative and plans are subject to change with product availability.

The 14 Mott-Regent FFA members joined over 1200 other FFA members from across the state and participated in a variety of competitions designed to develop critical thinking skills and effective decision-making, foster teamwork and promote communication while recognizing the value of ethical competition resulting in individual and team achievement.

Damjanovich participated in the Small Animal Care Contest. "The contest was fun, and it is important because learning, not just the basics of feeding pets, but learning anatomy, medical terms and breed identification can help you in your future," she said.
