Received this letter from Beach, ND from Aha Va Kerr, and we will write the exact wording as we received it - very good and thank you young ladies for sharing with us.
Just a Note we are baking duzzert pizza and some won is so exsited!

"I need something to do to stretch myself to make a difference."

"I have an idea - lets run the Bismarck Marathon to qualify for Boston marathon" - No - Yes - you're crazy - - no - yes - okay - thirteen miles, Saturday, September 18th, 2021. The three agree.

This was last year 2020 - - Now what? We've made the commitment to each other - darn - wish I hadn't said yes - - this is dumb -- oh well - - I'll try! Guess I better start preparing - - I'll run a few blocks today - try to get into shape - - darn it's cold - oh, to bad - snowing, guess I won't run today. Text message - - "Are you getting in shape?" Sure, how about you - - I'm working out every morning, at the gym - - running on tread mill - -.

Text to second - - "starting your training?" "Sure - - darn, Derek keeps after us - - Thanks Derek for reminding me," as Mary gets into the vehicle making her way to teach the kindergarten class at Mott.

These conversations continue throughout the rest of 2020 and into 2021. August of 2021 - - Hot beyond ones imagination - - to hot to run today - - text message - are you running - - sure says Nicole as she prepares breakfast for her children, runs them to school and thinking of all the e-mails she has to answer.

Getting closer - are you signed up - yes, changed plans - running Friday night - - me too changed to six mile run - - excitement begins to grow - - all except ones who hear about the plans of these three. - - Must be crazy - - what you doing that for - - why would you do that? No encouragement from others, but something kept the three on track.

Big day arrives -- Friday - - Mary at starting line - lost between hundreds of other runners - - National Anthem sung, count down we scream, "Mary" as she passes by the spectators. She waves with huge smile and off she goes. Waiting, watching eventually she comes back across the finish line - -.

Saturday morning - Derek among hundreds - - 13 miles - - how's he ever - must be crazy - - route takes him across bridge into Mandan, why would anyone - - National Anthem count down and off he goes - -.

30 minutes later, Nicole and Jess, her friend - - line up - National Anthem count down and off they go - - 6 miles - why would anyone - - oh well, we'll sit and wait.

Runners eventually one by one return, among spectators, some pushing baby strollers, some pushing wheel chairs with handicapped, some older, some from other countries, other states, some could barley walk, - - a purpose - a reason - -.

Nicole and Derek eventually after over an hour of running, cross the finish line - - you see the stress, sweat, pain, struggle, determination on their faces.

After each race we questioned - why did you run - what kept you going - what was it like?

Mary answered. The reason we race isn't to beat each other, but the feeling of working toward and achieving something we thought might be impossible.

The end of the race is like Heaven. We gather with other people to celebrate the race we ran and the journey of life.

Nicole's answer - told Jess can't run - I'll finish by walking. Jess says no we'll just run slower.

Dereks answer - - after first 5 minutes I thought I must be crazy - what am I doing - I began to hurt, pain was all over then I kept offering up the pain for those waiting on the finish line - they were waiting for me.

And I - - well I sat with my hands in my pocket trying to keep warm. While waiting for awards a thought of my own.

The greatest reward of coming to this event was - - just before the first send off on Friday as the National Anthem was being sung I looked up and a jet was just doing a fly over. Then I thought of Mary, running supporting her sister, niece and friend who ran with her.

I remembered Nicole, how determined she was and although wanting to walk, Jess said no we'll run just a little slower and stuck with her and Nicole said OK and kept going.

And Derek, well, he's a guy but when he said I offered my pain for those waiting for me on the finish line - -.

Sometimes we need to stand with our hands in our pockets and just marvel at the graces we receive thru others. I will never forget that race where three different, people, 3 different ages, never gave up.

This week try putting your hands in your pockets - - gives you a warm feeling you may never forget.

THANK YOU

We would like to give our LONG overdue thank you to those who helped when our son, Zack, had an accident with our semi on a gravel road north of the Cedar Dam on August 2. We can't tell you how much we appreciate all those who helped us with putting the fire out and making sure that Zack was OK. The Scranton Fire Dept., Slope County Sheriff, Scranton First Responder's, and Bowman Ambulance were focused, professional, and diligent. The neighbors who were nearby and offering a helping hand were unbelievably kind and reassuring. We are so very grateful to live in a farming community where help and comfort are ingrained in the people, without hesitation. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Say Thank You

By Kathy Craiggo-Harteis

It's simple to say thank you. You'd think so. But apparently some folks don't see the need.

There are givers and there are takers in this world.

The givers just get joy from giving and keep doing it even when not appreciated. Takers have a "gimme" attitude. They expect to get. They see no need to say thank you and they certainly don't see the need to give back.

I've been thinking about this a lot lately.

My friend Mark Miller is a giver. In the last few years he has struggled with health issues. Lately they have escalated and he's been in the hospital and eventually a rehab facility. He could lay there and feel sorry for himself, but that is not what he's been doing. Instead he's been making little wooden animals and giving them away. Mark says giving to others is what makes him happy.

I've often been the recipient of Mark's kindness so I know he is genuine.

This week we set out our wooden turkey made for us by Mark. He's a great giant of a bird and looks wonderful as a fall decoration on our front porch.

Mark has made more than 160 of the critters and he tells me ours is likely the last one he'll make. It is a treasure for sure.

Also tucked away and slowly being doled out are the last jars I have of Mark's homemade marmalade. Also a gift.

Kindness goes a long way. Mark is a master of kindness. We can all learn from him.

The challenge for this week is to be gracious, thankful and giving. Be the person you were taught to be. Be a Mark.

Life is good today

Why Run?

Running is like a metaphor for life. When a race begins, there is excitement and cheering, just like when you are born there is cheering and excitement. Then the runner is a quarter of the way into the running race, a person marvels at all the different types of people here. Half ways into the race, a person must drive themselves to overcome the obstacles. You may feel you can't finish, but then you find your inner strength and you realize you're more capable of so much more than you thought. While I am running, I see so many different people and I see people that come from different walks of life. We are here to all achieve an inner goal that says..."Yes, I Can do this." The reason you race isn't to beat each other, but the feeling of working toward and achieving something we thought might be impossible. The end of the race is like Heaven. We gather with other people to celebrate the race we ran and the journey of life.

A LITTLE BIRDIE TOLD ME
By: Vivian Hernandez

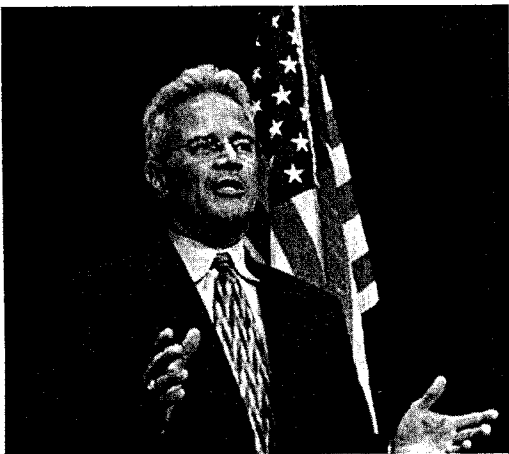

A Little Birdie Told Me: Sal is coming to the Enchanted Castle on Oct.6! Who is this "Sal" what's his game, why is he coming, where's he coming from? Could it be Salazar Slytherin from the Harry Potter novel The Chamber of Secrets? Is there a Chamber of Secrets beneath the Enchanted Castle? Probably not Salazar Slytherin died hundreds of years ago and is a mythical character. Or could it be the American actor, singer and director "Sal Mineo"? Sadly he's also dead, he was stabbed to death in his car in Hollywood in 1976: may his soul rest in peace. Maybe it's Sal Maglula one of the Cocaine Cowboys; unfortunately he's serving a life sentence in a super maximum prison in Colorado.

If this has you curious about the "Sal" coming to the Enchanted Castle: A Little Birdie Told Me you should check the Eido for more information on this mysterious "Sal!"

Reflections on the Words of Life

*by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord
Jesus, New Leipzig*

I'd like for us to look today at a passage in Acts chapter 6, where we have an account of a problem that arose in the early church in Jerusalem. This group had one of those problems most churches would love to have. They were growing by leaps and bounds; people by the thousands were coming to faith in Jesus Christ and being added to the church. But with such rapid growth there often come problems. In this case the problem is described in Acts 6:1: "Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a complaint against the Hebrews by the Hellenists [Greek-speaking Jews], because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution."

The early church cared for the poor and widows by helping them with daily needs, often providing meals. But some widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food, and the apostles immediately sought a solution. We find their recommended course of action in Acts 6:2-4: "Then the twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, 'It is not desirable that we should leave the word of God and serve tables.

Therefore, brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business; but we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

The apostles realized that the need was legitimate and asked the believers to put their heads together and to find seven godly men who could attend to the problem and see that all the widows were cared for. But note that the apostles did not themselves engage in meeting this need. And they gave this reason why: "It is not desirable that we should leave the word of God." In verse 4 they state what would occupy their time: "We will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

Here is lesson desperately needed by contemporary churches. It is wonderful for churches to have an outreach to help the needy, but they must not neglect the two most important ministries of all: the preaching and teaching of the word of God and prayer. Sadly, there are churches with little or no spiritual life because these things are no longer central. Several years ago it was common for churches to have a mid-week Bible study and prayer meeting. And in their Sunday morning worship, the preaching of the word of God was central because it was believed that listening to God speak through His word is absolutely essential to the health of God's people. But today, preaching and teaching of the word and prayer are more and more going by the wayside. In some cases sermons are being cut so short that very little good can come of them. Even worse, some do not come from the Bible at all. Their messages are worthless because they are the thoughts and ideas of mere men instead of the word of God, which is alive and powerful because God the Holy Spirit is its ultimate Author.

The apostles would not, even for a very important need, leave the ministry of the word and prayer. Without the preaching and teaching of the word of God, no believer will grow spiritually, and no unbeliever will be saved. Without prayer, no part of the church's work, including preaching and teaching, will be effective.

Oh, that we might get back to these two fundamental ministries. Mankind's greatest need is to be restored to a right relationship with God through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and the only source we have for understanding that is the Bible. And we must get back to prayer. The apostles gave themselves to it CONTINUALLY! We cannot expect God's blessing upon our labors for Christ unless we cry out to Him for it. Oh, may we see a resurgence of these two ministries.

Also if hay bales remain in the ditches of county roads after October 15, 2021 the county will remove the hay bales and the landowner may redeem them by paying the cost of removal. If not redeemed by November the hay will be sold to pay the cost of removal. The Township Board of Supervisors do not need to advertise for weed cutting in their Township.

Dakota Gardener: Save Your Tender Bulbs for Next Year

To preserve plants for next year and to save money, consider lifting and overwintering your expensive tender bulbs. By Esther E. McGinnis, Horticulturist NDSU Extension

We live in an era of reduce, reuse and recycle. We also have a Midwestern ethic of thriftiness. Can you apply this ethic to your flower garden? Yes!

In a short period of time, our annual flowers will be killed by fall frost if left in the garden. To preserve plants for next year and to save money, consider lifting and overwintering your expensive tender bulbs.

Tender bulbs is a generic term for summer-blooming plants from the tropics and subtropics that have fleshy underground storage structures such as bulbs, rhizomes, tubers and corms. Gardeners plant them in late spring after the danger of frost has passed. Examples include dahlias, cannas, caladiums and gladiolus.

After the first light frost has killed the aboveground foliage, dig up the root system using a pitch fork or shovel. Carefully dig around the perimeter of the plant making sure not to wound the underground structures. Wounds allow entry points for bacteria and fungi that may cause rotting over the winter.

Cut off the foliage and brush off excess dirt. A garden hose can be used to wash off dirt for most tender bulbs but not gladiolus. More on gladiolus in a minute.

Cannas, caladiums and dahlias should be cured for one to three days. Curing means allowing the underground structures to dry indoors at room temperature for one to three days. Discard any structures that are rotting or infested with insects.

Gladiolus corms are a special type of tender bulb that should not be washed or else they will rot. Corms should be allowed to cure for three weeks before storage.

All tender bulbs should be marked with their species and cultivar. An easy way to do this is to write the name on the bulb using a permanent marker. Tags may also be used.

Place the tender bulbs in a well-ventilated container such as a cardboard box. Plastic containers should be avoided because they keep the humidity too high around the bulbs.

The container should be filled with a dry media such as peat moss, vermiculite or sawdust. To prevent rotting, dust the bulbs with an approved fungicide and place in the media with space between the bulbs.

Store the bulbs for the winter at temperatures between 40 degrees and 50 degrees F. Finding an appropriate storage area can be challenging to prevent the bulbs from freezing or else rotting at a higher temperature. A heated garage works well if the temperature is regulated. Alternatively, find the coolest and darkest corner of your basement.

In early April, pot up the bulbs in small containers to coax the bulbs out of dormancy. These tender plants can be transplanted into the garden in mid- to late-May depending on your average last frost date.

Tender bulbs should not be confused with hardy bulbs. Hardy bulbs are planted in the fall and include crocus, tulips, hyacinths and daffodils. These hardy bulbs can remain in the ground over the winter.

For more information about gardening, contact your local NDSU Extension agent. Find the Extension office for your county at <https://www.ag.ndsu.edu/extension/directory/coun->

BARN QUILT

*I was asked to put together a class to paint Barn Quilts.
What is a barn quilt?
It is a large piece of wood that is painted to look like a quilt block.*

*The History goes back 300 yrs.
It was too costly to paint a barn so they painted different patterns on the barn. The designs were believed to protect and bring good fortune. Different patterns celebrated different heritages and helped to identify the farm. Today they are a work of art.
They are still used on barns but also on houses, garages, fenceposts and indoors etc.*

To sign up and for more info call Betty Ruggles (608) 449-5093

2ft x 2ft boards are primed and ready to paint your design on.

I have some designs worked up, but feel free to bring your own ideas. You may not be able to finish in a day but the studio will be available to finish up at your leisure.

Thoughts for the Day

by June Schmidt, Mott, ND

This last weekend we were privileged to share the wedding festivities of a local couple and during one portion of the dance, the DJ called all couples out on the dance floor and proceeded to eliminate them one by one by how long they have remained together. The survivors of that dance were a local couple that have been together for 57 years. Congratulations to Howard and Alice Steiner who have shared their highs and lows of married life for a more than remarkable time in this day and age.

Weddings are always joyous affairs with a bit of sadness thrown in. Joy for the couple who are saying their vows and starting out on a new life together and a bit of sadness for the parents who are saying goodbye to their little boy and hello to the man that has chosen his partner. Those of us that heard those vows spoken that are married or who have been married, remember saying those words ourselves. And some of us look back at all the years that we have shared the highs and lows of married life and wonder where did the years go.

How does the time get away from us so quickly? Why does it seem that the years speed by faster and faster as we get older? We say the same words every time when we see the children and grand children grow up - where did the time go? There is a song who's lyrics are: Turn around and they are two, turn around and they are four, turn around and they are the young ones walking out of the door. I guess such is life and we just have to take it as it comes.

It's hard when we are young and raising families to conceive of the day when we will no longer be the center of our children's world, but it happens. One day when we aren't paying attention they no longer want to be held or hugged and want to spend time with their friends instead. Then they are gone to college and out in the world and even though we may worry about them, we know that they are making their own decisions in life and we just have to hope we did all we could to help them

We can't heal
the world today. But we can begin with a voice of compassion, a heart of love, and an act of kindness.

make the best ones.

So there we are, looking at all the young faces in the crowded room, some dating, some with small children of their own, who are happily bouncing and dancing and we have suddenly become the older folks that we used to see at the wedding dances when we were young. Of course everyone older than 35 at that time was old to us and now I am thinking 90 is more like old and I am middle aged - at least that's what Facebook tells me and if I see it there it must be true! And the nice part of it is that there is so much happiness flowing around that it gives us all a bit of a boost.

And what is the moral to this story? Well I guess its that we truly need to enjoy every day that we have and that if we are lucky enough to be able to share it with friends and family, how wonderful that is. Counting our blessings that we are alive and able to do so, spending time laughing and reminiscing with old friends and conversing with new ones. And most of all wishing the new couple the best of those wishes to share their highs and lows and one day they may be the oldest couple at their Grandchildren's weddings. Cheers!

Dear Families

I'm proud of your families. I'm happy to have spent this time together. My only regret is, I'd like to have been with you longer. Share and care and be at peace with each other. Think fondly of me and God watch over you always.

Do not cry that I am gone, Laugh like we did together. Don't be sad very long. Be happy that I was here. Now I'm spending time with Dad.

Mitch Bradan Miller Rites Held

Mitch Bradan Miller, age 27, of Hettinger, ND died unexpect-tantly and suddenly in his farmhouse in rural Haynes, North Dakota on September 9, 2021.

Mitch was born on October 4, 1993 in Hettinger, ND at West River Regional Medical Center. He tried to go to Wee-Care Day-care but was insistent on farming and riding the bus with his dad, even though he lived three blocks from the Hettinger Public School.

In 2012, Mitch graduated from Hettinger Public School, after attending K through 12 grades, and graduated with farming degree honors. Mitch participated in football, wrestling, basketball and baseball but this took up too much time, away from his true love . . . . . farming and ranching. In fact, when most wrestlers stated their goals, like I want to be a state champ, Mitch would always state, I want to be the biggest farmer in Adams County. Mitch was a great pitcher when playing baseball, and claimed he always pitched the best in his cowboy boots. Raise your hand if you are a Chiefs fan . . . . . You would be on Mitch's team, as he has been an avid Chiefs fan since the days of Priest Holmes.

After high school, Mitch bought his first herd of cattle and started farming his own acres too. As the years went on, Mitch developed relationships with landowners. His drive and ambition allowed Mitch to grow and become more successful with each passing year. If you saw a field planted, then sprayed by Mitch Miller, you knew there were little to no weeds within any of his crops.

Mitch's attitude was work hard and play hard. He enjoyed hunting deer with his friends and brothers, and always enjoyed the pheasant hunts when the whole gang like his Grandpa Alan, Grandpa Billy, Uncle Bruce, Uncle Jack and any other friends who came down to "bag a bird". Great memories were made in Grandma Mary Beth's kitchen over a smorgasbord which included bacon, sloppy joes, chicken wings, burgers, potato salad, caramel rolls . . . . . never a vegetable.

Mitch became an uncle in 2015, first Grayson and then Levi. Mitch was known as a fun-cle . . . . . wrestle the kids, toss them around and walk out the door all before bedtime, wishing grandpa and grandma "good luck".

Mitch was known for his beautiful smile, a person to count on, upbeat and positive attitude, a loyal friend but never liked liars. It's believed Mitch's blood was John Deere Green.

Mitch is survived by his parents Terry and Staci Miller, Hettinger; brothers Grant (Kelsey) Miller, Bismarck, ND and their sons Grayson and Levi (nephews); Cole Miller, Hettinger; grandparents Alan and Cynthia Willyard, Carrington, ND and Billy Powell, Mott, ND; uncle Henry (Carol) Miller, Hettinger, ND; aunt Maureen (Rick) Clifton, Cheyenne, WY; aunt Melanie Miller (Mark Frieze), Dickinson, ND; aunt Pam (Jack) Kutz, Sykeston, ND; uncle Bruce (Michelle) Willyard, Carrington, ND; and numerous first and second cousins.

Mitch is preceded in death by his grandfather Maurice Miller; grandmother Mary Beth Powell; aunt Karen Harp; and uncle Jay Willyard.

Pallbearers include: Grant Miller, Cole Miller, Dustin Clark, Cory Christman, Ben Laufer and Tate Resner. Honorary pallbearers were Mitch's nephews Grayson and Levi Miller, and his classmates from 2012 and his mentors involved in farming and ranching.

The hardest goodbyes are for those whose stories weren't finished . . . . . condolences to Mitch's family can be sent through the website at www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com

Cards may be sent to Terry and Staci Miller, PO Box 46, Hettinger, ND 58639.

The Funeral Service was held at 10:00am Tuesday, September 14, 2021 at the United Methodist Church in Hettinger. Pastor Duane Coates officiated with burial in the Hettinger Cemetery.

The Service was live-streamed on the website www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com and going to Mitch's obituary and clicking on "View Funeral Service Here".

Debbie C. Hill Rites Held

Debbie C. Hill, age 67 of Lemmon passed away at her home on Friday, September 10, 2021.

Graveside services for Debbie were held at 2:00 p.m. MT on Wednesday, September 15, 2021 at the Hillview Cemetery in Isabel, SD.

Debbie spent some of her younger years with her older brothers and sister. Due to an unfortunate tragedy, they were all placed into foster care. She came to live with the Miller family at a young age and it didn't take long and she fit right in. She helped balance the girls against the boys. Debbie attended her school in Isabel, was a member of the drill team and graduated from Isabel high school in 1972. She attended business college in Aberdeen for a short time.

Debbie moved to Lemmon and established her residency where she raised Cody & Peter. She worked at Five Counties Hospital for 23 years and during this time she enjoyed decorating the nursing home for all the holidays for the residents to enjoy.

She loved playing pool and was quite the pool shark and could swindle a person out of an occasional dollar or two, sometimes more. She liked going to the lake with friends just hanging out and taking in the solace and beauty of Mother nature. She had an infectious and energetic smile that would light up any room and anyone around her couldn't help but to be happy with her.

Debbie was blessed to be able to spend time with her granddaughter, Ezra.

Debbie is survived by her four sons, Cody, Peter, Anthony and Aaron, her foster mom, Phyllis Miller; nine brothers, Elliot Whiteshield, Delano Cook, Amos Cook, Claude Haugen, Myron Erhardt, Bugsy Erhardt, Loren, Jerome and Jim Miller; four sisters, Denise Cook, Jacqui Haugen Baumeister, Pixie Haugen and Marlene Stewart; one granddaughter, Ezra; and numerous nieces, nephews and extended family.

She was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Lisa, son, Allen; two brothers, Robert Whiteshield and Martin Whiteshield; two sisters, Charlotte Whiteshield Sebert and Mary Whiteshield.

Condolences may be sent through our website at www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com.

Howard Dale

Brooks Rites Held

Howard Dale Brooks, 91,
Bowman, ND, died Sunday,
Sept. 12, 2021, at the SouthwestMedical Hospital, Bowman, ND, after battling COVID. He was supported by family members when he passed. Howard will be greatly missed, but we know he will be watching over us and will always be in our hearts and memories.Howard was born July 13, 1930, to Harold and Ruby(Gausemel) Brooks in Bowman, ND. He grew up on the family farm north of Bowman, with 2 brothers and one sister. He attended Cottage Grade School, and graduated from Bowman High School in 1948 as Valedictorian of his class. Howard attended the North Dakota Agricultural College (now NDSU) for 3 years. Howard met his future wife Pauline McDonald, Fargo,
ND, at an NDAC football game.
They married in Fargo, ND, on Sept. 17, 1951. He enlisted in the United States Air Force, serving from 1951 to 1955. A daughter (Cheryl) was born while Howard was stationed in Illinois. Howard became a weather forecaster and spent part of his military service in Japan. After his discharge from the Air Force, Howard returned to his family in Bowman to farm and ranch with his father and brothers.They had 2 more daughters (Tracy and Dianne) and 1 son (James) while on the farm north of Bowman. Howard moved his family to a ranch northwest of Rhame, ND, in 1960. He surprised the township by also bringing Angus cattle. Two more sons, Robert and Lee,
joined the family there.Besides farming, ranching,
and providing for his wife and 6
kids, Howard was also active in the community. He served as a 4-H leader, was on the Crawford township board and the Slope County ASCS County Committee for many years, and served on the Rhame school board for 16 years without ever running for the position. Howard was also a board member of the Bowman Grain Elevator, serving as secretary for many years.Howard worked very hard to improve his land and Angus herd. His farming and ranching expertise was recognized when he received the Outstanding Agriculturist Award from NDSU.
Howard also received an award from the Bowman Chamber of Commerce for Notable Achievement and Contribution to Agriculture, Civic Involvement and Leadership. His kids also appreciated the quality of his herd,
winning blue ribbons and trophies for their 4-H steers. They also appreciated his support for their education; all 6 kids graduated with college degrees.Howard was extremely intelligent, able to read about something and then do it. When Howard and Pauline built their dream house on the Rhame ranch, Howard did a lot of the work himself (plumbing, electrical, and construction). He also had a good memory and excelled at playing cards. Pinochle was a favorite game playedwith the family. Howard also had a very dry and great sense of humor. He was a quiet man but his words were always appreciated. He was a strong, patient, kind and loving husband, father and grandfather.Howard and Pauline moved to Bowman, ND, in 1990, when Howard semi-retired. For many years after that he continued to provide help to his son Rob on the Rhame ranch. He built a shop behind his house in Bowman and filled it with woodworking equipment. Howard enjoyed wood-working, reading, trading stocks, and was a self-taught computer whiz. He also played cards (rap poker to supplement his retirement income) twice a day uptown, carrying on the tradition his father Harold enjoyed.
A favorite question to ask him
was how was his luck that day?
Howard also had a life-long passion for flying, and had a single engine pilot's license for many years. Howard and Pauline also enjoyed traveling, including trips to Nebraska, Arizona and New Mexico to visit family. They were blessed to share 70 years of marriage together.Howard is survived by his wife Pauline Brooks, Bowman, ND; his sister Connie Padgett (Dave) Custer, SD;
his sister-in-law Noel Nord-berg, Bowman, ND; daughters Cheryl Brooks, Grand Forks,ND, and Tracy Kralicek (Dave Lunn) Mesa, AZ; and son Rob
Brooks (Holly) Rhame, ND.

ing are his daughters-in-law

Dawn married Dennis Gress on October 22, 1969 and they were blessed with three children: Darren Lee, Dustin Ray, and Bunnie Marie. While her sons were in high school, there were numerous kids that came through her house. She loved being a second mom to all of their friends and often kept them in line with a fly swatter. She made many trips back to Buffalo to watch her grandkids numerous sporting events, proms, graduations, etc. She will be missed dearly by her family and friends but we will cherish our memo-

By: Vivian Hernandez

Roosterville Outfitters is located on the scenic Cedar Creek in Adams County. Owners Tim and Charlene Millerin have been hosting pheasant and deer hunters for the past 18 years. It took 3-4 years to build up their client base, now they are booked for the season with many repeat hunters.

In the month of October Tim will do guided hunts everyday. Max & Cooper their hunting dogs are constant companions and very friendly as well. The yard is beautifully maintained with mature trees throughout. Charlene provides a sack lunch: for evening meals hunters can grill or menus from local restaurants are available. Accommodations include: cabin sleeps 6, trailer sleeps 6 & the barn loft sleeps 2. The cabin is

Exciting News!

The Hettinger Area Chamber of Commerce recently received some very exciting news about one of our newest, most innovative endeavors: The Rural Collective has been selected as the winner of not one, but two state awards for the innovation and excellence with which it was designed.

For those who don't know, The Rural Collective is a co-working and collaborative workforce center in Hettinger, ND. Prior to creating The Rural Collective, the dilapidated downtown space it occupies had been vacant for years. This newly renovated mixed-use community space has allowed access to opportunities for education and professional development in the community. In addition, because the space is equipped with amenities lacking in most of the few existing meeting spaces in town such as a high-definition color printer/scanner, high-speed wireless & wired internet donated by Midco, audio/visual conferencing technology, touchscreen smart board, a kitchenette, complimentary office supplies, modular furniture, a video surveillance system, accessible parking & facility, and all hours key card access, The Rural Collective has met the needs of dozens of individuals, businesses, events, and organizations. In addition to day passes and event rentals, yearly and monthly memberships are available for students, youth organizations, businesses, individuals, and community organizations.

Thus far in 2021, The Rural Collective has been host to over 150 meetings and events and 30 professional development classes. The Rural Collective has become the go-to collaborative and open community space. In addition, the development of The Rural Collective was timely, offering an ideal space to work remotely. The space has proven a major draw for residents and travelers in the area alike.

So, consider this our personal invitation to you: join The Rural Collective. Not only will your membership grant you 24/7 access to this award-winning community facility, but it will also help support the innovation and valuable asset to our region.

If you have any questions about memberships or rentals, or if you would like a tour of the facility, please don't hesitate to contact the Hettinger Chamber of Commerce at director@adamscdc.org or 701.567.2531. You are also welcome to learn more at www.hettingernd.com/trc.
