Parents are Jesse and Rachel Steiner of Dickinson. Grandparents are Ray and Phyl Steiner of Mott and Gary and Mary Ramsey of Dickinson. Pictured is Grandpa Ray

"Jamie, Farmer Jones told me to give this to you. You have been such a good help to him so - - here it is," and Mom handed Jamie the box.

Don't shake - handle with care were the words printed on the outside of the box. Jamie opened very slowly as not to break the object inside the box. "Look Mom - look" he screamed as he stared at the contents inside the box. There, nestled inside the box was a nest with two huge eggs - - instructions - keep warm, touch lightly, and turn every day. "Oh Mom, I've wanted these a long time." And he carried the box to the warmest corner in the house - - close to the fireplace, but not to close.

Days went by - then Thanksgiving morning he heard- - crack - crack - running to the box he saw two tiny little eyes looking up at him. Elated Jamie sat by the box most of Thanksgiving Day. That night he made a small bed by the box - - he waited but nothing from the other egg.

Morning came and knowing he had responsibilities to take care of - help feed cattle, gather eggs-- he hurriedly did the work then picked up the little bird - - "Gotta have a name - - Tom - - I'll call you Tom after my friend in school who fell off his horse, hit his head and never came back to school again.

Inseparable, Jamie and Tom were never alone. Tom would sleep by the bed, sit by his chair as he ate, followed him around every corner, walked to school with him and sat on the branch outside the school house - - waited for school to be over and they were together again till the next school day.

Years went by, Tom was growing older and Jamie, well his concern now was what will I do with Tom - - who will take care of him? Questions and concerns filled his every moment. One day, having to take an exam, Jamie had to tie Tom to the barn post - - "now you stay here, I'm sorry but you just can't go with me - - you'll be okay." And Jamie left for school - - all the time thinking, hoping Tom would be okay.

Exam over, Jamie ran for home only to find Tom missing. Running into the house, thinking Mom and Dad played a trick on him - - "No," Mom said. "Had to help Grandma today." Mom, Dad and Jamie searched the farm, yard, buildings - - nothing.

Jamie cried for days. School, food, friends, family - - nothing could help him. Dad concerned went to see his pastor, told him the story and Pastor Joe said, "Here I have something for you." Then explained to Dad how to use it.

That evening after eating. Dad said, "Jamie come sit with me." Sunlight was fading and darkness began falling between the trees. Dad allowed Jamie to talk, then he told Jamie of the Magic Dust, Pastor Joe had given him. He told me if I just sprinkle a little on you every night, soon you'll feel better.

Dad reached into his pocket, grabbed a hand full of Magic Dust and sprinkled it on Jamie. Each and every night after that Jamie and Dad sat on the porch swing, talked, then Dad would sprinkle Magic Dust on Jamie - -

Now Jamie has children of his own and this Thanksgiving he said, "Dad, remember that magic dust you use to sprinkle on me - sometimes I need it for my children - - what was it and where can I get some - -?"

Dad reached into his pocket pulled out a hand full, sprinkled Jamie, his grandchildren.

"Grandpa - that tastes like sugar," the little grandchild screamed. "It is," said Grandpa - - pass out a little sugar and Magic things happen.

May you have a blessed Thanksgiving and remember - pass out a little sugar, and Magic happens.

"Brief Sentences attached to Fall"
by Don Taskila - Regent, ND
Don't you just Love the season called Fall? The colorful comings and goings of Fall let us know that life itself is truly a gift. It happens that some of us buy school supplies. Perhaps it makes others of us... want to send a bouquet of newly sharpened pencils to those classmates we fondly remember. Fall makes our outside-world look like a thick top crust of brown sugar and cinnamon. Fall leaves don't all fall straight down, many of them soaringly fly into the air first saying goodbye to Summer. Yes, it's hard to let go of Summer, but what makes that goodbye a little easier is the fact that the Northern Fall is on the other side- ready to enclose our bare arms with warm and cozy sweaters or long-sleeved undershirts. Fall brings the rising winds of seasonal change, so the breezy air around us becomes wild and cold. The Fall brings both blue skies and cloudiness, and the sites in the air often appear golden and crisp; including a backyard, evening campfire shared with family and friends-when it's not been a droughty year. Fall turns apples into delicious pies and talked-about cider. Fall is the mosaic of the year's three passing seasons before Winter. Fall and Spring have always been my two favorite seasons. I'm so glad that I live in a country where there is Christmas and Thanksgiving!

Here, finally are twelve other "Brief Sentences attached to Fall":

Fall still runs flavored teas & coffee.
Fall? You mean football season!
Fall... Don't stop be-leaving.
Fall... My weekend plans include lighting all my household candles.
Fall... You're never too old to play in the leaves.
During Fall, my blood type is Pumpkin Spice.
FALL-ing in love.
Fall is a colorful, fuzzy socks season.
I like drinking a Fall Pumpkin-Latte.
Children are 'The Cutest Pumpkins' in the Fall patch.
Painted in all the colors of Fall.
Did you hear the joke about the tree? It'll leaf you laughing!

Today I shall behave as if this is the day I will be remembered!

My interest is in the future, because I am going to spend the rest of my life there

And so it begins. . .

By Kathy Craigo-Hartels

I have a sure fire sign that the holidays are upon us.

My birthday has come and gone and I've had my holiday singing birthday call from singing pal Vern.

This morning the Christmas music was playing and I am planning favorite things; Baking, decorating and tree trimming and gingerbread icing with the grandkids.

I look forward to making the traditional Craigo Clan favorites as well as trying a few new recipes.

Last week we spent a few days in Red Lodge, Montana and we ate a few of the Amish treats available there. Now I've figured out how to make their fabulous raspberry rolls (or so I think) so I'm going to give it a try. With the traveling we've done this year, I've learned a thing or two about different foods. It'll be a long winter here in North Dakota so I plan to practice some new things.

Tom spoiled me a bit for my birthday and gifted me with some great things. Some practical, some beautiful and overall wonderful.

I know I am blessed.

Number one is to be as old as I am and still moving every day. Gotta keep moving!

With the pleasure of staying in a cabin in the mountains also came a bit of guilt.

We dropped off Rocky dog at the doggie hotel before leaving. Since we've been back he's pretty mellow, but I swear every now and again I catch him giving me the side eye. He's either trying to figure out why we left him or he's plotting his revenge. Who's to say? Life is good today.

JMHCC recognized nationally for quality care

For the second year in a row, Jacobson Memorial Hospital Care Center (JMHCC) has been recognized nationally for its quality care.

As part of National Rural Health Day Nov. 18, JMHCC in Elgin announces it has been recognized as a top hospital in quality care, earning a 2021 Performance Leadership Award for top quartile performance in quality.

JMHCC was spotlighted by The Chartis Center of Rural Health and the National Organization of State Offices of Rural Health for overall excellence in quality. The Performance Leadership Award program utilizes the results of the Hospital Strength INDEX® to recognize top performance among critical access hospitals, and rural and community hospitals.

"Our team does a great job of providing quality care. We provided quality patient care before we entered a pandemic, and through these more difficult times, we continue to confirm that our entire staff is patient-focused," said JMHCC CEO Theo Stoller.

The INDEX is the industry's most comprehensive and objective assessment of rural hospital performance. Performance Leadership Award recipients are rural hospitals ranking in the 75th percentile or above in the INDEX performance pillars for quality, outcomes or patient perspective.

"We are proud to mark this year's National Rural Health Day by recognizing rural hospitals' steadfast commitment to serving their communities and delivering high-quality care," said Michael Topchik, with The Chartis Center for Rural Health. "In the face of tremendous challenges, these top quartile performers continue to exemplify the power of rural and create a blueprint for excellence in quality, outcomes and patient perspectives." J MHCC, a critical access hospital, operates clinics in Elgin, Glen Ullin and Richardton.

A LITTLE BIRDIE TOLD ME

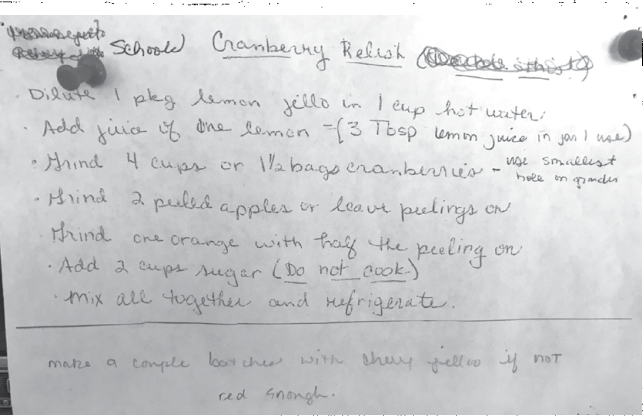

A Little Birdie Told Me: "There's More Than One Recipe For Cranberry Relish." by Vivian Hernandez

Every year around the end of October several women gather at the church kitchen at St. Mary's in New England to prepare the turkey dinner for the Fall Festival. Every year there's a debate: whose recipe is the original one, do we use lemon Jell-O only or should we add red Jell-O? This year was no different, as we chopped, peeled and boiled water the battle raged on. Gallons of cranberry relish ready at last, or so we thought; the ladies took one look at the finished products and decided it was "Not nearly red enough!" Red Jell-O was the answer. Off to the grocery store for the missing ingredient I went, with 6 packages in hand, I returned. In an effort to lighten the mood I presented the head cranberry relish preparer with a snack pack of red Jell-O. She looked at me in disbelief: I waited a moment and then gave her the six packs of Jell-O. She sighed with relief and returned to the task at hand.

I've been told people come just for the cranberry relish. I heard someone did pass over the turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes and yams to load their plate with cranberry relish, but I can't prove it. The good news is, if you missed out on the cranberry relish that night we have 24 quarts leftover! A quart of the famous cranberry relish can be purchased for $5. As a public service the recipes in questions will be published just in time for Thanksgiving.

I'm no gourmet cook and I've always felt a recipe was more of a suggestion. I rarely follow a recipe, usually because I get started and realize I don't have all the ingredients. A perfect example of this would be my pie baking on Saturday. In my effort to get ahead of the Thanksgiving rush, I decided to bake pies and freeze them. I prepared my homemade pumpkin pie filling naturally I had to adlib a bit. The recipe called for cream, I substituted one can of evaporated milk and one can sweetened condensed milk. The gluten free crust recipe called for vinegar, having used all my vinegar trying to eliminate the skunk smell in the cabin I used lemon juice instead. The crust was a success and I ended up with 3 pumpkin and two apple pies. I won't divulge my secret until after Thanksgiving Day. Truthfully I've been asked "NOT" to bring pies to church socials and now you understand why.

A Little Birdie Told Me: "A Recipe May Be Tried a True But There's Always Room For A-Bit of Creativity."

Expressions of HOPE

Reflections on the Words of Life

by Pastor Paul Ferrie, Grace Reformed Church of the Lord Jesus, New Leipzig

We have been considering the ways in which King Nebuchadnezzar tried to turn his young Jewish captives, including Daniel and his three friends, into thoroughgoing Babylonians. These teenagers were bombarded with temptations to compromise and to forget God. But in the case of Daniel and his three friends, the plan didn't work. These young men, despite the pressures they faced, remained faithful to their God. We begin to see the reason for this in Daniel 1:8: "But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's delicacies, nor with the wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself."

Let's think here about Daniel's dilemma. This young man was under tremendous pressure because he had been taught the Word of God. If he had not known the Scriptures, there would have been no conflict in his mind. But he knew that the Law of God explicitly forbade the Jews to eat certain foods such as pork, rabbit, and some types of fish. It is likely that all these were part of the king's diet.

On top of that, Daniel was in a much better position than so many of his fellow Israelites. As you well know, captives taken in battle are not often treated well by their conquerors. But Daniel, being one of Israel's extraordinary young people, was given the rare opportunity which only a few others had to become someone of importance, even in a foreign enemy land. Furthermore, his position might have been viewed as a way to eventually help his fellow Jews.

But it was not Daniel's plan to first work his way into a position of bargaining strength and then to decide not to defile himself. Instead, he purposed in his heart what he would do because he loved God and did not want to dishonor Him. No doubt, many might have said to Daniel, "There are much more serious matters for you to take a stand on. Don't be petty and blow this golden opportunity. If you create a road-block now over a little matter like this, your chances of reaching a place of prominence will be shot down."

But Daniel's decision was firm. The Babylonians might change his name (as we saw last time), but they couldn't change his heart's commitment to God. His decision to refuse the king's diet is something that Daniel made on his own, in private. He knew what was right and decided that he must do it, no matter the consequences.

Sometimes we need the advice of others. But if we know what is the right thing to do, we don't need more advice. Oh, that we had more people like Daniel, people who make decisions based on what is right according to God's Word, no matter what others around them are doing and what might be the results.

Friends, it is often hard to be a follower of Christ. In fact, the apostle Paul said, "All who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution" (2 Timothy 3:12). But the same apostle also said, "Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory" (2 Corinthians 4:17). Whatever difficulties we might be called to face for following Jesus will be more than worth it for all eternity. And even in the very midst of suffering, it is possible to have a joy and peace that unbelievers know nothing of.

Are you a follower of Christ, dear reader? Have your eyes been opened to see that you (as all of us) are a sinner who needs a Savior and that Jesus alone paid the price for sin to God's satisfaction? Are you relying only upon what Jesus did on the cross when He took upon Himself all the sins of all His people and was punished in their stead? If not, please make it your highest priority to be reconciled to God through Christ. And for all who are believers in Christ, may we seek God for grace to be like Daniel in our increasingly ungodly society.

Can I make a difference in my community if I change my attitude?

Mott/Regent High School Community Development Class

The Mott-Regent High School Community Development class joined members of the Visionary Committee to walk a portion of the Cannonball Trail on November 16.

Accompanied by Paula Anderson and Peggy Fiedler, the students were asked how they could improve the trail and participate in its expansion.

The class came up with many ideas including additional signs, information and facts about the many sites along the trail, benches to sit and enjoy the wonderful view and what wildlife and plants to look for along the trail.

This visit was just the first step in the Community Development class's involvement with this project and will continue to work with the organizers to promote and enhance the trail.

"As the freshman class we are happy to be helping and improving the Cannonball Trail," said Kazen Nelson. "Even though we were freezing, we still enjoyed the beautiful view," added fellow freshman Jorja Messmer.

Ida A. Kufeldt Rites To Be Held

Ida Kufeldt, age 77 of Mott, ND, passed from this life on Saturday, November 13, 2021 at St.

Alexius Hospital in Bismarck, ND after fighting a battle with kidney failure.

Funeral Services will be held on Monday, November 22, 2021 at 11:00am MT at Neuburg Congregational Church north of Burt, ND. Pastor John Amundson will officiate with burial at the Neuburg Cemetery. The service will be live streamed and available for viewing on the Evanson Jensen website by clicking on Ida's obituary.

Visitation will be on Sunday, November 21, 2021 from 1-5pm MT at the Evanson Jensen Funeral Home in Mott, ND.

"News? Got any news?" Those were usually the first words spoken when you called Ida or when she called you.

Ida Alvina Friesz Kufeldt was born November 30, 1943 at home on the farm northwest of Elgin, ND to August and Alvina (Delzer) Friesz. She attended the Antelope Country School completing the eighth grade.

Ida married Karl Kufeldt on December 7, 1960 at the Neuburg Church. To this union one son, Allen was born on November 16, 1962. Allen passed away November 10, 2005 from cancer. Ida and Karl lived on their farm, north of Burt, until moving to Elgin in fall of 1986. While on the farm, Ida enjoyed gardening and helping Karl with farming as needed. She always kept a nice, clean and tidy house. Once they moved to Elgin, Ida spent time babysitting for people in town and helped Karl with his lawn service. Later they moved to Mott. She lived in her apartment until October and after a hospital stay, she moved into Dakota Hills Assisted Living in Elgin.

Ida was faithful to her thriving Neuburg Church. She gave memorials to help with projects and a new church sign in memory of Karl. She enjoyed watching the videos of the concerts held there. Ida never missed a Sunday visit to Karl at the Good Samaritan Society Nursing Home, blessed to have special friends Otto and Diane Vetter take her, until Covid struck.

Ida enjoyed looking for the "glasses" in the Eido paper, calling weekly to visit with and tell Erv, Donnavée and Joann where they were located and sometimes received the five dollar reward for her search. Ida looked forward to the trips to the country when Morell would take her and Erma out and travel the back roads, trips to the old homesteads, out to see the new baby calves and cows, driving around to area towns to look at the Christmas lights. There were many visits to the cemeteries to decorate graves on Memorial Day or just to visit Allen, her parents and sister and then Karl, with the final stop always being at Neuburg.

Ida loved getting the mail and faithfully waited for the mailman every day, another person to visit with. She enjoyed outings with Bernell and going to have a bite to eat. She talked to her sister-in-law, Erma Achtenberg on the phone daily.

She is survived by her sisters Pauline (Friesz) LaPointe, Plains, MT; Violet (Friesz) Dahle, Hillsboro, ND; brother Richard Friesz, New Leipzig, ND; sister-in-law Erma Achtenberg, New Leipzig, ND, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents August and Alvina Friesz, husband Karl, son Allen Kufeldt, brothers Emmanuel and Rudy Friesz, sisters Bertha Hirning, Martha (Friesz) Fischer, and Ella Friesz, and sister-in-law Dena Schneider.

Cards may be mailed to Morell Hirning 5626 84th Ave SW Mott, ND 58646

Tracy Rosenow Rites

Memorial service for Tracy Rosenow, 58, of rural Harding County, SD will be Saturday, November 20, 2021 at 10:30 a.m. at the Hettinger Lutheran Church in Hettinger. Rev. Selva Perianon will officiate and Tracy's ashes will be buried at the Hettinger Cemetery. The Memorial Service will be live-streamed on our website, click on the link in Tracy's obituary to view the service.

Tracy May (Burck) Rosenow, passed away Monday, November 15th, 2021 at Sanford USD Medical Center in Sioux Falls, SD after a brief illness.

Tracy was born February 1, 1963 at the Community Memorial Hospital in Hettinger, ND. She was the third of four daughters born to William G. and Marian O. (Dockter) Burck. She was baptized and confirmed at the Hettinger Lutheran Church. She attended Hettinger Public School, graduating with the Class of 1981.

The location of Tracy's childhood home offered many great prospects for Tracy: Living across the street from the Hettinger Public School gave her the opportunity to sleep in longer and get home sooner than most of her classmates. This was a great benefit as well, for lunch hours. She enjoyed year-round swimming with the indoor swimming pool across the street. The Flame Lanes bowling alley was only one block south, where she was active in Junior League bowling during her high school years. The neighborhood was rich with great kids that created many game-nights and life-long friendships.

Tracy grew up in a loving home where the importance of friends and family was learned early on. As a young child, she loved going with her Dad to the City Café for early morning coffee with the guys. Her family rarely missed getting together with friends on weekends. She cherished spending a week every summer with both sets of grandparents, where she experienced her first driving lesson to the mail box, on a dirt road.

Tracy was adventurous, rarely staying in one place very long. Her first son, Christopher Joel Eide, was born April 18, 1983 while living in Beulah, North Dakota. Her second son, Shaun Michael Bonomo was born April 22, 1988 while living on Travis Air Force Base, California. After living in Italy for a few years, Tracy and her sons moved back "home" where her sons both graduated from the same high school that she did.

On June 7, 2002, Tracy married Dion Rosenow, the love of her life. She soon settled into country living, where she loved to call home. She enjoyed the ranch life and often spoke of their cattle and calving season. Tracy and Dion worked side by side each day, doing what they both loved. She always made everything special, often ending the day on the deck with a special drink presented in a pretty glass. She took pride in the life they built together.

Tracy and Dion worked hard and played hard, rarely missing an opportunity to get together with friends. They enjoyed many concerts, side by side off-roading in the hills, their luck at Deadwood and Las Vegas, and date night. She had many friends and cherished each one. She was quick witted and will be remembered by her generosity.

Tracy was overjoyed by the birth of her grandson, Ryan. She took several trips to Minnesota to see him. She shared that there's nothing better than hearing your grandchild call you "Grandma". She embraced Stephanie's children as her grandchildren, and was so proud to be a Grandma.

Tracy will be missed dearly by her husband, Dion, Harding County, SD; sons Chris (René) Eide, Lindstrom, MN, and Shaun (friend, Stephanie) Bonomo, Bowman, ND; grandchildren, Ryan Rishi Eide, Paige, Hank, and Everly Brooks, and Porter Lindstrom; mother-in-law, Maxine Rosenow; sisters Tammy (Kevin) Schneider, and Ronda (Christ) Stang; sisters-in-law Debby (John) Soreide, and Kern (Mark) Huisman, and several aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her parents; William and Marian (Dockter) Burck; father-in-law, Roger Rosenow; sister, Debra K. Burck, granddaughter, Adalyn Ray Bonomo; cousins, Jon Dockter and Mark Stack; and numerous aunts and uncles.

Corbin "Corby" Johnson Rites Held

Corbin "Corby" Johnson passed away on Thursday morning, November 4, 2021 at Ava's House Hospice in Sioux Falls, SD.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, November 10, 2021 at 10:30 a.m. MT at the Prince of Peace Chapel of Evanson Jensen Funeral Homes. Rev. T.J. Shockley officiated and burial was Wednesday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. MT at the Morristown Cemetery near Morristown, SD.

Funeral services were live-streamed and a link was made available on Corby's obituary on www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com and can be viewed by clicking "View Funeral Service for Corby Here".

Corbin Loren Johnson was born on October 22, 1942, in Bismarck, ND to Florence (Odell) and Henry O. Johnson. He spent his childhood years with his two brothers and two sisters on the family farm near Morristown, SD. As a child he rode his tricycle and horse Foxy to the country school right up the road from his home, where his aunt Alice and neighbor Lavona Johnson were his teachers. He graduated from Lemmon High School in 1961. He loved fishing as a child and later instilled that same love of fishing in his kids and grandkids. He was affectionately called Corby, Uncle Corby, Corbs, Corb, dad and grandpa to those who knew and loved him.

As a third-generation farmer and rancher, Corby loved the rural and simple way of life; it ran strong through his veins. Corby became a dad to Steve in 1962 and Deb in 1963 through his marriage to LuAnn Evridge. On March 29, 1978, Corby married Suzie Lipp Kesling and became a stepdad to three more girls ... although "step" was not a word that defined that relationship. He was a dad to them too. Corby loved spending time with Suzie at their home in Yuma, Arizona in the winters and the farm in Morristown in the spring and summer. Together they created a life that was full of adventure and built on solid ground. Corby was a friend and hero to many. His quick wit and one-liner sense of humor always brought a bright light on even the darkest of days. He was a man who said few words, but when he spoke you listened. He lived his life by the golden rule "Treat others the way you want to be treated." The advice and counsel he gave to his children and grandchildren will live on for generations. He loved his family unconditionally, but his love for Copenhagen, Diet Pepsi and chocolate ice cream were not far behind! You could count on Corby, and you could trust him. He was a man of his word. He loved the outdoors, loved to drive around and look at the crops, loved to play cards, loved to tease, loved to shoot pool, loved to watch CNN, but also watched FOX because he believed "you need to learn both sides before you vote." He loved kids and they loved him too. He loved pickup trucks, especially Fords. And he loved cowboy boots (even golfed in them!). Corby left his mark on this world and his memory will live on forever in his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren (one great-granddaughter is even named Corby!). He was a wonderful son, husband, dad, stepdad, grandpa, great grandpa, brother, uncle, neighbor and friend and will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

Corby is survived by his wife of 43 years, Irene (Suzie) Johnson of Morristown, SD; four daughters, Deb Kisgen of Loveland, CO, Kandi (Steve) Smith of Normal, IL, Staci (Scott) Stern of Sioux Falls, SD and Jami (Brad Meehan) Kesling of Rapid City, SD; daughter-in-law, Shari Johnson; eleven grandchildren, Cole Johnson, Clay (Hannah) Johnson, Cord (Cassie) Johnson, Stevi (Jake) Weidenbach, Brooke (Matt) Sukalski, Maggie Smith, Mara Smith, Amber (Trent) Arlitt, Hillary (Christ) Reinesch, Jakways Mendoza, Georgi Mendoza, Kristan (Zach) Morris and Josef Meehan and eight great grandchildren and two more on the way; two brothers, Alan (Linda) Johnson, Eddie Johnson and two sisters, Gwen (Paul) Huffman and Kathy (Mark) Laberee. He is preceded in death by his mother, Florence Johnson; father, Henry Johnson; brother Alvin Johnson and son Steve Johnson.

Cards can be mailed to Suzie Johnson 3900 S. Terry Ave, APT #186 Sioux Falls, SD, 57106.

Condolences to Corby's family can be sent through our website at www.evansonjensenfuneralhome.com

Robert "Bob"
Landphere Rites

Robert "Bob" Landphere Jr., age 68, of Bison, SD, passed away on Wednesday evening, November 10, 2021 at the West River Regional Medical Center in Hettinger, ND.

Celebration of Bob's life was held Wednesday, November 17, 2021 at 10:00 a.m. at the Christ Lutheran Church in Bison, SD. Rev. James Schmeling officiated. Following the service, Bob's ashes were buried at the Bison Cemetery near Bison, SD.

Bob was born the eldest son of Robert (Gene) and Doris Landphere on September 8th, 1953 in Germany where Gene was stationed. They returned to the United States in 1962 and eventually made their home in Bison, SD. Throughout Bob's childhood, he could be found at his father's side working on various projects and businesses. It was during these interactions that his love and knowledge of mechanics began. Bob graduated from Bison High School in 1971.

Following high school, Bob was a dedicated member of the Bison community. He worked as a mechanic at Bison Implement, oversaw the Rec Center, and worked as the groundskeeper at Homestead Heights. He had a gift for making yards and lawns beautiful in a way no one else could. He later served on the Bison Town Board and even spent one day as the town cop! He always said he was a "jack of all trades, master of none."

Bob's knowledge of mechanics and "need for speed" drew him toward the drag car world. He spent many hours building and racing his own drag car. This hobby lasted many years for him, and was one he later shared with his son.

In March of 1980, Bob married Sherri Bonnema and they were blessed with two children—Branden and Cassie. Much like his relationship with his dad, he kept Branden and Cassie alongside him as he went about his daily tasks. The three of them could often be found on the back of a lawn mower, with one of the kids asleep in his lap as they went.

Bob was united in marriage to the love of his life, Glenda (Wishard) Jackson, on August 19, 1992 and gained two additional children—Lynn and Jamie. The six of them spent many weekends enjoying camping at the lake together. He became a baptized member of Christ Lutheran Church on November 29, 1992, alongside his children.

Bob began working at Grand Electric on October 17, 1988. At this point in his career, he had become an expert mechanic. He always felt tools and accessories could be more specialized and perform better for their needs. Because of this, he was frequently designing and building specialized tools and accessories for equipment. He was always relied on to fix anything the "Grand boys" broke. He retired in 2016 but continued his profession through his own business, Bob's Repair, out of his garage.

It was during his retirement that he was able to focus on his true joy in life—his grandchildren. Bob was the best with the babies and had the magic touch to snuggle them to sleep. He had two go-karts and made sure they were up and running each summer and spent hours watching the grandkids drive them in circles. He was the "Fire Master" and summer night bonfires and s'mores were one of his favorite activities.

His legacy lives on through his children and grandchildren. His family cherishes the memories made, finds peace in knowing he is with our Savior, and celebrates his life and are thankful for the time we had with him.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Gene and Doris, and one sister Norma (Lucy) Halbert.

Bob is survived by his beloved wife, Glenda; his children, Branden (Abby) Landphere, Cassie (Tony) Pannone, Lynn Wanner, and Jamie (Starla) Jackson; grandchildren, Evelyn, Charlie, Hattie, Addison, Treydon, Beckham, Conner, Matthew, Zachary, Olivia, and Camden; three sisters, Susie (Dennis) Hulm and Tina (Dave) Skjoldal, Christy Larson; and one brother, Norman (Gloria) Landphere; numerous nieces and nephews and many friends.

Mammo Day & Women's Way event Dec. 6

Jacobson Memorial Hospital Care Center in Elgin is inviting you to a special event from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. MT on Monday, Dec. 6, at the Elgin Community Clinic. On that day, the mobile mammography unit will be at the clinic to provide mammograms to those who are due for a screening.

Coupled with this service, representatives from Custer Health Women's Way will be at the clinic to help enroll eligible women in Women's Way to help pay for their mammogram! You may also enroll beforehand by calling Custer Health at 888-667-3370.

Women's Way may provide a way to pay for breast and cervical cancer screenings for eligible North Dakota women.

You may be eligible if you are a woman who:

- Is age 40-64
- Meets income guidelines
- Has insurance that doesn't cover mammograms or can't afford to pay her deductible or copayments or doesn't have insurance

• Is not enrolled or eligible for Medicaid or Medicare Part B

• Is 65 or older and is not eligible for Medicare or cannot afford Medicare Part B

• Is age 21-39, has symptoms or is due for a Pap test or needs breast or cervical diagnostic procedures

Those who are due or past due for a mammogram are encouraged to take advantage of this special event, because your health is important!

"JMHCC, in partnership with Custer Health Women's Way, has developed this event to not only raise awareness about the importance of a regular mammogram, but to help those who are eligible to enroll in Women's Way," said JMHCC Radiology Supervisor Shaun Schottmiller.

"We are excited to partner with Jacobson Memorial to increase access to mammography and identify women who may benefit from Women's Way," said Becca Nielsen, Women's Way local coordinator.

If you have questions about the event or to schedule your mammogram, please contact the Elgin clinic at 584-3338.

A young boy enters a barber shop and the barber whispers to his customer, "This is the dumbest kid in the world, watch and I'll prove it to you."

The barber puts $1 bill in one hand and two quarters in the other, then calls the boy over and asks, "Which do you want, son?" The boy takes the quarters and leaves.

"What did I tell you?" said the barber. "That kid never learns!"

Later, when the customer leaves, he sees the same young boy coming out of the ice cream store.

"Hey, son! May I ask you a question? Why did you take the quarters instead of the $1 bill?"

The boy licked his cone and replied, "Because the day I take the $1 bill, the game is over!"

Words of love and affirmation keep our hearts alive!

Neil Buchholz Rites Held

Neil Buchholz, 83, of Rhame, ND, passed away on November 6, 2021 at the Sanford Medical Center in Bismarck. Funeral Services for Neil were on Friday, November 12, 2021 at 11:00 a.m. at the Bowman Lutheran Church in Bowman. Burial followed in the Buchholz Family Cemetery. There was a Family and Friends Service on Thursday, November 11, 2021 at the Krebsbach and Kulseth Funeral Home Chapel beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Neil was born to Howard and Luella on January 1, 1938 in Bowman ND. In 1939, his family purchased a ranch southwest of Rhame ND where Neil would live and work for the rest of his life. He attended Golden Valley Country School until 8th grade.

After this, he began working full time on the ranch with his father and brother Larry. Neil enjoyed sharing stories about the ranch's early days in his later years.

On October 30th, 1965, Neil married Doris Narum at the Lutheran Church in Rhame. From this marriage came their only son, Wayne.

Wayne and Neil worked side by side for many years on many projects. One of their projects was preparing the ranch for bison. Neil was so proud of the bison, and he loved to show his doctors and nurses pictures of them.

Neil had two grandchildren, Conner and Jenna, who he loved dearly. He was very involved in their childhoods and was always there to support them in any of their goals as they grew up. He was very proud of them.

Neil loved to bowl, fish, and bale hay. Neil was very competitive and was always up for a good game of cards with his family or friends. He spent many years helping his community on the Rhame Fire Protection District Board. He also served as a 4H leader for the River Ramblers and as a member of the Bowman County Fair Board.

Neil could always be found taking care of the things he loved most. Whether that was his family, his livestock, or his pets. He was a loving and a caring man who was always willing to extend a helping hand.

Neil is survived by his wife of 56 years, Doris; one son, Wayne (LeAnn) Buchholz; two grandchildren, Conner and Jenna Buchholz; his sister, Nicky Stellflug and sister-in-law, Jean Buchholz; and several nieces and nephew.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Howard and Luella Buchholz; his brother Larry Buchholz; and his in-laws Kelly and Elna Narum.
