

Which Road are YOU on?

Don't assume that because you're "a good person" or you go to church, you're on the road to Heaven. The Bible teaches that you must turn away from sin, trust Jesus as your Savior, and follow Him as your Lord. If you will do that, God promises to give you a new beginning and a new life that is both abundant and eternal. Right now, wherever you are, you can begin a relationship with God. It's the most important thing you will ever do.
