-Season protocols and expectations of players and parents will be announced prior to the season and will be in line with all government mandates and recommendations. These may change throughout the season. Players/parents/guardians will be expected to abide by all league rules which are not limited to but may include no spectators at events for part or all of the season, dressing at home, limited capacity on the ice, daily temperature checks, season pause or delay, only in-house scrimmaging instead of games, etc.

-SELECT Teams may be formed for limited travel games/tournaments if government restrictions are lifted and coaches feel that there are enough players in any one or more age divisions that would be competitive. If this happens, criteria will be made available to parents on the selection process and additional fees that may be involved for participation on a Select Travel Team. ADDITIONAL fees per player may be required for tournaments.
