

What concerns do you have about the urban forest?

In this exercise, you are the urban forest manager. You have limited funds. Pretending the stickers are your dollars, place your stickers on the urban forest concerns that are most important to you. The more stickers you place on one concern, the more money you are spending there.

