Pastor Josh Andrews opened the Leadership Team with prayer followed by reflections of the second chapter of “Fresh Expressions”, a new kind of Methodist Church centering around the “attractional” and “missional” church. Discussion and reflection of the Leadership Team followed.

BUSINESS

There were no additions or corrections to the January minutes and they stood approved as written.

FINANCE REPORT

Stephanie was not available due to her heavy workload at this time of year, but would be available at our next scheduled meeting.

GOALS 2 and 3

Carol asked the team to review Goals 2 and 3 and make any comments, additions and/or corrections. (See attached copies). After a short discussion, it was unanimously agreed that the goals be approved as written. Carol will submit these goals to Tony Mosley. Tony would like to come after the Lenten Season for a celebration Sunday. This will be an opportunity to bring all the work we have done in this whole process with him back to the congregation and again to get more people on board to the mission and vision of the church.

Carol stated that we need to keep coming back and revisiting these goals, perfecting them and leading the congregation to the next step.

OTHER BUSINESS Sally stated that if the coronavirus does impact us locally, we can be thinking ahead to a couple of things, (1) how can we change things within our own church congregation and (2) if things become as serious as they could, we need to be thinking about those persons who are no longer working, people who have had their hours cut, their children are ill. We need to be thinking about how we can reach out into this community if the need occurs. If there are people in our church or community, perhaps pre-school parents who may not be able to pay for their children to come to pre-school, their hours have been cut or they don't have the things they need. We need to be aware so that we can step up for that.

Carol announced our next Leadership meeting is May 11, 2020. Chapter 3 in Fresh Expressions is due.

There being no further business to come before this group, Pastor Josh closed in prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

Judith Steigleder
