

Weekly Newsletter

January 15, 2024

Upcoming

On Thursday, January 25, there will be a Safeguard Conference hosted by the Helping Us Foundation at The Gathering 1610 19th St. Speaker Faith. The event is free, but there will be food vendors from 5pm to 6pm. The event will start at 6 and is projected to end by 8. During the event kids ages 8-10 will learn what's good versus what's bad to watch on the internet/TV and what's good conduct versus bad in any type of relationship. Youth ages 11-17 will be informed of the exploitation risks on the internet and how building a good relationship on communication is important. Parents will be educated on how to keep their children safe.

Free Community Event | January 25th
6:00 PM - 8:00 PM
The Gathering 1610 19th St.
Speaker Faith Heath

Join the "Helping Us" organization empower parents with tools to safeguard your youth from human trafficking and online risks. Youth will learn essential social media safety tips!

YOUTH AGE 8-10

Youth will work on "Good Pictures, Bad Pictures" learning what's good and not good to watch on TV and internet. Also, they will hear an engaging kids book by Faith Heath on "exploitation", good and bad ways of engagement in a friendship and any relationship. Followed up with fun game interactions on who and who not to talk to on apps and games.

YOUTH AGE 11-17

Youth will work on internet and social media exploitation risks, awareness, social awareness, including appropriate communication and relationship building. There will be a fun interactive photo game teaching self worth and value.

PARENTS

Parents will learn in depth internet Risks and Safety Tips on Protecting their Children. They will receive resources, practical tools, and referral information.

FOOD VENDORS AVAILABLE
5:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Hosted By
The Helping Us
Foundation

For more information call
661-859-3611

Truth Transforms Symposium

This event was held on January 17 at the Beale Memorial Library and was an educational conference with panelists who were survivors. That is panel discussion and resource booths were just one of many events to come this National Human Trafficking Awareness Month.

