

People v. Jenna Lynn Ellis, 24PDJ002. May 28, 2024.

The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved the parties' stipulation to discipline and suspended Jenna Lynn Ellis (attorney registration number 44026) for three years. If Ellis seeks to reinstate her Colorado law license following her suspension, she must prove by clear and convincing evidence that she has been rehabilitated, has complied with all disciplinary orders and rules, and is fit to practice law. Ellis's suspension takes effect July 2, 2024.

On October 24, 2023, Ellis pleaded guilty in the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, to the felony charge of aiding and abetting false statements and writings in violation of O.C.G.A. section 16-10-20. Ellis was sentenced to a five-year period of probation, which includes a variety of conditions. Ellis's conviction is premised on her actions in intentionally aiding and abetting Rudolph William Louis Giuliani and Ray Stallings Smith III in knowingly, willfully, and unlawfully making seven false statements regarding the 2020 presidential election at a Georgia Senate Judiciary Subcommittee meeting on December 3, 2020. At the time, Ellis was a senior legal advisor to the then-President of the United States and counsel to one or more persons or entities associated with his reelection campaign. Ellis attended the meeting as a lawyer and in furtherance of her work in those roles.

Through this conduct, Ellis violated Ga. RPC 3.3(a) and 3.9 (requiring a lawyer to exercise candor before a legislative or administrative tribunal in a nonadjudicative proceeding); Ga. RPC 8.4(a)(1) (it is a violation of the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct for a lawyer to violate or knowingly attempt to violate the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct, knowingly assist or induce another to do so, or do so through the acts of another); Ga. RPC 8.4(a)(2) (it is a violation of the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct for a lawyer to be convicted of a felony); Ga. RPC 8.4(a)(4) (prohibiting a lawyer from engaging in professional conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation); and Ga. RPC 8.4(a)(8) (it is a violation of the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct "for a lawyer to commit a criminal act that relates to the lawyer's fitness to practice law or reflects adversely on the lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as a lawyer," where the lawyer has admitted before a judge the commission of that act).

Colorado disciplinary authorities charged the violations of the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct under the choice of law provision contained in Colo. RPC 8.5(b), which calls for applying the rules of professional conduct of the jurisdiction in which the misconduct occurred or, when the misconduct is in connection with a tribunal, the rules of the jurisdiction in which the tribunal sits.

The case file is public per C.R.C.P. 242.41(a).

Complainant: THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF COLORADO Respondent: JENNA LYNN ELLIS, #44026	Case Number: 24PDJ002
ORDER APPROVING STIPULATION TO DISCIPLINE UNDER C.R.C.P. 242.19(c)

Before the Presiding Disciplinary Judge (“the Court”) is a “Stipulation to Discipline Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 242.19” filed on May 23, 2024, by Jacob M. Vos, Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel (“the People”), and John M. Richilano, counsel for Jenna Lynn Ellis (“Respondent”). In the stipulation, the parties waive their right to a hearing.

Under C.R.C.P. 242.19(c), the Court may either approve or reject the parties’ stipulation, using discretion and in accordance with the considerations governing imposition of disciplinary sanctions. The Court has reviewed the case file and the stipulation in this case and finds that the parties’ agreement as to the facts, rule violations, applicable mitigating and aggravating factors, and sanction is consistent with the American Bar Association Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions. The Court therefore APPROVES the stipulation and ORDERS:

1. JENNA LYNN ELLIS, attorney registration number 44026, is SUSPENDED from the practice of law in Colorado for a period of THREE YEARS.
2. Respondent violated Ga. RPC 3.3(a); Ga. RPC 3.9; Ga. RPC 8.4(a)(1); Ga. RPC 8.4(a)(2); Ga. RPC 8.4(a)(4); and Ga. RPC 8.4(a)(8).¹
3. Respondent MUST timely comply with C.R.C.P. 242.32(b)-(e), concerning winding up of affairs, notice to current clients, duties owed in litigation matters, and notice to other jurisdictions where she is licensed or otherwise authorized to practice law.
4. Within fourteen days after the effective date of the suspension, Respondent MUST file an affidavit with the Court under C.R.C.P. 242.32(f), attesting to her compliance with

C.R.C.P. 242.32. As provided in C.R.C.P. 242.41(b)(5), lists of pending matters, lists of clients, and copies of client notices under C.R.C.P. 242.32(f) must be marked as confidential attachments and filed as separate documents from the affidavit.

5. If Respondent wishes to seek reinstatement to the practice of law after her suspension, she must file a petition for reinstatement under C.R.C.P. 242.39(b).
6. Within thirty-five days of the date of this order, Respondent MUST pay the administrative fee of $224.00 and costs of $1,501.52 incurred in conjunction with this matter. Statutory interest will begin to accrue thirty-five days from the date of this order. The administrative fee and costs are payable to the Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel.
7. The Court VACATES the hearing scheduled for June 25-27, 2024. The Court also VACATES the prehearing conference scheduled for June 5, 2024.

THIS ORDER IS ENTERED THE 28th DAY OF MAY, 2024. THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE SUSPENSION IS THE 2nd DAY OF JULY, 2024.

DATED THIS 28th DAY OF MAY, 2024.

STIPULATION TO DISCIPLINE PURSUANT TO C.R.C.P. 242.19

On this 23rd day of May, 2024, Jacob M. Vos, Assistant Regulation Counsel and attorney for the Complainant, Jenna Lynn Ellis, the Respondent who is represented by attorney John Michael Richilano in these proceedings, enter into the following Stipulation to Discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 242.19 ("Stipulation") and submit the same to the Presiding Disciplinary Judge for his consideration.

RECOMMENDATION: a three-year, fully-served suspension.

1. The Respondent has taken and subscribed to the oath of admission, was admitted to the bar of this Court on October 24, 2011, and is registered as an attorney upon the official records of this Court, registration no. 44026. Respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of this Court and the Presiding Disciplinary Judge in these proceedings.

2. Respondent enters into this Stipulation freely and voluntarily. No promises have been made concerning future consideration, punishment, or lenience in the above-referenced matter. It is Respondent's personal decision, and Respondent affirms there has been no coercion or other intimidating acts by any person or agency concerning this matter.

3. This matter has become public under the operation of C.R.C.P. 242.41 as amended.

4. Respondent is familiar with the rules of the Colorado Supreme Court regarding the procedure for discipline of attorneys and with the rights provided by those rules. Respondent acknowledges the right to a full and complete evidentiary hearing on the above-referenced complaint. At any such hearing, Respondent would have the right to be represented by counsel, present evidence, call witnesses, and cross-examine the witnesses presented by Complainant. At any such formal hearing, Complainant would have the burden of proof and would be required to prove the charges contained in the complaint with clear and convincing evidence. Nonetheless, having full knowledge of the right to such a formal hearing, Respondent waives that right.

5. Respondent and Complainant specifically waive the right to a hearing pursuant to C.R.C.P. 242.30.

6. Respondent has read and studied the complaint, a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit 1, and is familiar with the allegations therein. Respondent affirms under oath that the factual allegations found in Paragraphs 1-10 are true and correct.

7. Through Respondent's conduct described above, Respondent has engaged in conduct constituting grounds for the imposition of discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 242.9. Respondent has also violated Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(2)¹ (felony conviction); Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(8) (criminal conduct); Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(4) (dishonesty); Georgia RPC 3.3(a), 3.9, and 8.4(a)(1) (assisting the making of a false statement to a legislative tribunal).

8. Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 242.19(b)(4), Respondent agrees to pay costs in the amount of $1,725.52 (a copy of the statement of costs is attached as Exhibit 2) incurred in conjunction with this matter within thirty-five (35) days after acceptance of the Stipulation by the Presiding Disciplinary Judge, made payable to Colorado Supreme Court Attorney Regulation Offices. Respondent agrees that statutory interest shall accrue from thirty-five (35) days after the Presiding Disciplinary Judge accepts this Stipulation. Should Respondent fail to make payment of the aforementioned costs within thirty-five (35) days, Respondent specifically agrees to be responsible for all additional costs and expenses, such as reasonable attorney fees and costs of collection incurred by Complainant in collecting the above stated amount. Complainant may amend the amount of the judgment for the additional costs and expenses by providing a motion and bill of costs to the Presiding Disciplinary Judge, which identifies this paragraph of the Stipulation and Respondent's default on the payment.

¹ The Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct apply to Respondent's misconduct pursuant to Colorado Rule of Professional Conduct 8.5(b)(2).

9. This Stipulation represents a settlement and compromise of the specific claims and defenses pled by the parties, and it shall have no meaning or effect in any other lawyer regulation case involving another respondent attorney.

10. This Stipulation is premised and conditioned upon acceptance of the same by the Presiding Disciplinary Judge. If for any reason the Stipulation is not accepted without changes or modification, then the admissions, confessions, and Stipulations made by Respondent will be of no effect. Either party will have the opportunity to accept or reject any modification. If either party rejects the modification, then the parties shall be entitled to a full evidentiary hearing; and no confession, Stipulation, or other statement made by Respondent in conjunction with this offer to accept discipline of a three-year served suspension may be subsequently used. If the Stipulation is rejected, then the matter will be heard and considered pursuant to C.R.C.P. 242.30.

11. The Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel has notified or will notify shortly after the parties sign this agreement, the complaining witnesses in the matters of the proposed disposition.

12. The parties have agreed that Respondent does not owe any restitution as a component of this stipulated resolution.

13. Prior to entering into this Stipulation, Respondent has read and carefully considered the language of C.R.S. §18-1.3-401(3), which provides:

Every person convicted of a felony, whether defined as such within or outside this code, shall be disqualified from ... practicing as an attorney in any courts of this state during the actual time of confinement or commitment to imprisonment or release from actual confinement on conditions of probation....

14. Respondent's counsel hereby authorizes Respondent and the non-lawyer individual in the Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel who is responsible for monitoring the conditions set forth herein to communicate directly concerning scheduling and administrative issues or questions. Respondent's counsel will be contacted concerning any substantive issue which may arise.

PRIOR DISCIPLINE

15. On March 8, 2023, Respondent was publically censured in Case No. 23PDJ004 for making ten misrepresentations in November and December 2020 while serving as senior legal advisor to the then-President of the United States and as counsel for his reelection campaign. She made the misrepresentations on national television and on Twitter regarding the 2020 presidential election. See Exhibit 3.

ANALYSIS OF DISCIPLINE

16. Pursuant to American Bar Association Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions 1991 and Supp. 1992 ("ABA Standards"), §3.0, the Court should consider the following factors generally:

- a. The duty violated: the duty to abide by the law; the duty of candor.
- b. The lawyer's mental state: knowing.
- c. The actual or potential injury caused by the lawyer's misconduct: Respondent's misconduct caused significant actual harm in a variety of different ways. It undermined the American public's confidence in the presidential election process. It harmed the Georgia State Senate by utilizing the legislative body to add legitimacy to the false claims the election results were fraudulent. And Respondent caused actual harm to the legal profession by committing a crime involving dishonesty in the scope of her legal practice before a legislative committee.

17. Pursuant to ABA Standard § 5.11, disbarment is generally appropriate when:

(a) a lawyer engages in serious criminal conduct a necessary element of which includes intentional interference with the administration of justice, false swearing, misrepresentation, fraud, extortion, misappropriation, or theft; or the sale, distribution or importation of controlled substances; or the intentional killing of another; or an attempt or conspiracy or solicitation of another to commit any of these offenses; or

(b) a lawyer engages in any other intentional conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation that seriously adversely reflects on the lawyer's fitness to practice.

18. This presumption is impacted by the following aggravating and mitigating factors:

Standard § 9.22 aggravating factors include:

(c) a pattern of misconduct: this factor should be greater than average weight. The misconduct at-issue here occurred during the same time period and in the same factual context as the misconduct at-issue in Case No. 23PDJ004, where both were committed in the representation of the same client and involve similar dishonesty to the advance the same client objective.

(k) illegal conduct: this factor should be afforded little weight, as the Rule violations themselves involve illegal conduct. See In re Ivy, 374 P.3d 374, 384 (Alaska 2016) (cautioning against the risk of double counting against a lawyer when an aggravating factor turns on the same facts as the sanction or as other aggravators).

Standard § 9.32 mitigating factors include:

(d) timely good faith effort to make restitution or to rectify consequences of misconduct: While Respondent's efforts to rectify the consequences of her misconduct could have been more timely, she made a proffer in her criminal matter soon after charges were filed and has agreed to cooperate in the investigation and prosecution of related defendants in Georgia. This factor should be afforded moderate weight.

(e) full and free disclosure to disciplinary board or cooperative attitude toward proceedings: Respondent has cooperated in these proceedings; this factor should be afforded moderate weight.

(k) imposition of other penalties or sanctions: Respondent was sentenced to five years of felony probation which included a variety of conditions. This factor should be afforded average weight.

(l) remorse: See Exhibit 4 for Respondent's expression of remorse. This factor should be afforded moderate weight.

19. Attorneys are often disbarred after being convicted of a felony, particularly where the conviction flows from criminal acts committed while acting as an attorney. See, e.g., In re DeRose, 55 P.3d 126 (Colo. 2002) (disbarment for aiding and abetting structuring a transaction to avoid federal reporting requirements); People v. Goldstein, 887 P.2d 634 (Colo. 1994) (disbarment for felony forgery); People v. Cantor, 753 P.2d 238 (Colo. 1988) (disbarment for convictions of conspiracy to import and distribute marijuana and evade tax and customs laws).

20. However, disbarment is not automatic, even for felony convictions. In In re Cardwell, 50 P.3d 897 (Colo. 2002), the Colorado Supreme Court approved a stipulation to a three-year suspension, with eighteen months served, in a case where Cardwell pled guilty to attempting to influence a public servant, a Class 4 Felony, and perjury in the second degree, a misdemeanor. The crimes were committed in open court when the lawyer, acting in his professional capacity, represented to a judge repeatedly that his DUI client had no prior alcohol-related driving offenses despite knowing he had pled guilty to such an offense just three months before. See also People v. Freeman, 885 P.2d 205 (Colo. 1994) (six-month suspension for a former Deputy District Attorney who pled guilty to Class 5 Felony (accessory to a crime) and a petty offense of second degree official misconduct); People v. Moore, 849 P.2d 40 (Colo. 1993) (six-month suspension for lawyer who forged a prescription for a Schedule IV drug, a Class 5 Felony); cf. People v. Ritland, 327 P.3d 914 (Colo. O.P.D.J. 2014) (while not a felony conviction, Ritland was suspended for three years for multiple serious misrepresentations to a court); In re Elinoff, 23 P.3d 60 (Colo. 2001) (attorney who attempted to bribe a police officer during court proceedings to benefit his client, while not convicted of a felony, suspended for 3 years, with one year stayed).

21. Georgia cases are generally in accord. See In re Suttle, 288 Ga. 14, 701 S.E.2d 154 (2002) (two-year suspension for felony mortgage fraud); In re Youn, 300 Ga. 134 (2016) (18 month suspension for a federal misdemeanor conviction for counseling a client to fraudulently obtain a Georgia driver's license in an attempt to become a permanent resident); In re Wyatt, 275 Ga. 545 (2002) (one-year suspension for two misdemeanor counts of immigration fraud).

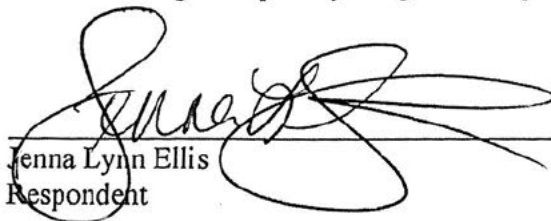

22. Here, while disbarment is the presumptive sanction for Respondent's misconduct, it is significant that her criminal culpability was due to her conduct as an accessory, not as a principal. The evidence surrounding her plea reflects that she aided and abetted the false statements at issue through her presence at the Georgia Senate Subcommittee meeting, but did not otherwise contribute to drafting or preparing the false statements. She has also expressed remorse and has recognized the harm caused by her misconduct, see Exhibit 4, and has taken significant, concrete steps to mitigate the harm her misconduct has caused. Considering all of the factors described above, as applied to this case, a fully-served three-year suspension is an appropriate sanction.

RECOMMENDATION FOR AND CONSENT TO DISCIPLINE

Based on the foregoing, the parties hereto recommend that a fully-served three-year suspension be imposed upon Respondent. Respondent consents to the imposition of discipline of a fully-served three-year suspension. The parties request that the Presiding Disciplinary Judge order that the effective date of such discipline be thirty-five (35) days after the date of entry of the order.

Jenna Lynn Ellis, Respondent; John Michael Richilano, attorney for Respondent; and Jacob M. Vos, attorney for the Complainant, acknowledge by signing this document that they have read and reviewed the above and request the Presiding Disciplinary Judge to accept the Stipulation as set forth above.

COMPLAINT

THIS COMPLAINT is filed pursuant to the authority of C.R.C.P. 242.15 and 242.25. It is being directly filed pursuant to C.R.C.P. 242.15(c). The People allege as follows:

Jurisdiction

1. Respondent has taken and subscribed to the oath of admission, was admitted to the bar of this Court on October 24, 2011, and is registered upon the official records of this Court, registration no. 44026. She is subject to the jurisdiction of this Court in these disciplinary proceedings. Respondent's registered business address is 138 W 5th Ave, Denver, CO 80204.

2. Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 242.1, this Court has jurisdiction over Respondent as an attorney admitted in Colorado "regardless of where the lawyer's conduct occurs or where the lawyer resides."

General Allegations

3. On December 3, 2020, Respondent was present for a meeting of the Georgia Senate

EXHIBIT 1 TO STIPULATION

Judiciary Subcommittee meeting.

4. At the time, she was a senior legal advisor to then-President Donald Trump.
5. At the time, she was also counsel to the one or more persons or entities associated with the support of and/or re-election of then-President Donald Trump, which may have included the Trump Campaign, other entities promoting the Trump Campaign, or then-President Trump.
6. Respondent attended the meeting of the Georgia Senate Judiciary Subcommittee in furtherance of her work as an attorney for President Trump, the Trump Campaign, and/or another client supporting the re-election of President Trump.
7. On October 24, 2023, Respondent was charged in Fulton County Superior Court in Fulton County, Georgia, with a single amended count of aiding and abetting false statements and writings in violation of O.C.G.A. § 16-10-20, a felony.
8. The Accusation, attached as Exhibit 1 at page 6¹, provided:

“On behalf of the People of the State of Georgia, the undersigned, Fani T. Willis, District Attorney, as prosecuting attorney for the County and State aforesaid, does charge and accuse JENNA LYNN ELLIS with the offense of AIDING AND ABETTING FALSE STATEMENTS AND WRITINGS, O.C.G.A. § 16-10-20, for the said accused, in the County of Fulton and State of Georgia, on or about the 3rd day of December 2020, intentionally aided and abetted RUDOLPH WILLIAM LOUIS GIULIANI and RAY STALLINGS SMITH II in knowingly, willfully, and unlawfully making the following false statements to members of the Georgia Senate present at a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee meeting:

1. That at least 96,600 mail-in ballots were counted in the November 3, 2020, presidential election in Georgia, despite there being no record of those ballots having been returned to a county elections office;
2. That 2,506 felons voted illegally in the November 3, 2020, presidential election in Georgia;
3. That 66,248 underage people illegally registered to vote before their seventeenth birthday prior to the November 3, 2020, presidential election in Georgia;
4. That at least 2,423 people voted in the November 3, 2020, presidential election in Georgia who were not listed as registered to vote;
5. That 1,043 people voted in the November 3, 2020, presidential election in Georgia who had illegally registered to vote using a post office box;
6. That 10,315 or more dead people voted in the November 3, 2020, presidential election in Georgia;

EXHIBIT 1 TO STIPULATION

7. That Fulton County election workers at State Farm Arena ordered poll watchers and members of the media to leave the tabulation area on the night of November 3, 2020, and continued to operate after ordering everyone to leave;

said statements being within the jurisdiction of the Office of the Georgia Secretary of State and the Georgia Bureau of Investigation, departments and agencies of state government, and county and city law enforcement agencies, contrary to the laws of said State, the good order, peace and dignity thereof.”

9. The same day, Respondent pled guilty to the single amended count of aiding and abetting false statements and writings, a felony. See Ex. 2 (Plea of Guilty)².

10. Respondent was sentenced to a five year probation, which included a variety of conditions. See Ex. 1 at p. 1 (Disposition).

Claim I

Georgia³ RPC 8.4(a)(2) (Felony Conviction)

11. Respondent’s entry of a guilty plea to the felony charge of aiding and abetting false statements and writings in violation of O.C.G.A. § 16-10-20 constitutes a felony conviction pursuant to C.R.C.P. 241.

12. Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(2) provides that “It shall be a violation of the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct for a lawyer to be convicted of a felony.”

13. Respondent has therefore violated Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(2).

² The attached Exhibits 1 and 2 are certified copies of filings and orders showing Respondent has been convicted of aiding and abetting false statements and writings, and therefore conclusively establish the conviction and prove Respondent’s commission of that crime. See C.R.C.P. 242.42(d).

³ Colorado Rule of Professional Conduct 8.5(b) provides that “In any exercise of the disciplinary authority of this jurisdiction, the rules of professional conduct to be applied shall be as follows: (1) for conduct in connection with a matter pending before a tribunal, the rules of the jurisdiction in which the tribunal sits, unless the rules of the tribunal provide otherwise; and (2) for any other conduct, the rules of the jurisdiction in which the lawyer's conduct occurred, or, if the predominant effect of the conduct is in a different jurisdiction, the rules of that jurisdiction shall be applied to the conduct. A lawyer shall not be subject to discipline if the lawyer's conduct conforms to the rules of a jurisdiction in which the lawyer reasonably believes the predominant effect of the lawyer's conduct will occur.” If the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee meeting qualifies as a “tribunal,” subsection (b)(1) provides that the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct apply. If it does not qualify as a tribunal, the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct still apply through subsection (b)(2).

EXHIBIT 1 TO STIPULATION

Claim II

Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(8) (Criminal Conduct)

14. Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(8) provides that “It shall be a violation of the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct for a lawyer to commit a criminal act that relates to the lawyer’s fitness to practice law or reflects adversely on the lawyer’s honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer, where the lawyer has admitted in judicio, the commission of such act.”

15. Through her guilty plea, Respondent has admitted to the commission of a criminal act that reflects adversely on her honesty, trustworthiness, and fitness as a lawyer.

16. Respondent has therefore violated Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(8).

Claim III

Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(4) (Dishonesty)

17. Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(4) provides that “It shall be a violation of the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct for a lawyer to engage in professional conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation.”

18. Through her guilty plea, Respondent has admitted to intentionally aiding and abetting Mr. Giuliani and Mr. Smith in knowingly, willfully, and unlawfully making the false statements detailed above to the members of the Georgia Senate present at a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee meeting.

19. She did so while engaged in her professional capacity as an attorney.

20. Respondent therefore engaged in professional conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.

21. Respondent therefore violated Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(4).

Claim IV

Georgia RPC 3.3(a) and 3.9 (Candor in Nonadjudicative Proceeding)

22. Georgia RPC 3.3(a) provides:

A lawyer shall not knowingly:

- 1) make a false statement of material fact or law to a tribunal;
- 2) fail to disclose a material fact to a tribunal when disclosure is necessary to avoid assisting a criminal or fraudulent act by the client;
- 3) fail to disclose to the tribunal legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction known to the lawyer to be directly adverse to the position of the client and not disclosed by opposing counsel; or
- 4) offer evidence that the lawyer knows to be false. If a lawyer has offered material evidence and comes to know of its falsity, the lawyer shall take reasonable remedial measures.

23. Georgia RPC 3.3(a) applies to appearances before the Georgia Senate Judiciary Subcommittee through Georgia RPC 3.9, which provides that “A lawyer representing a client before a legislative or administrative tribunal in a nonadjudicative proceeding shall disclose that the appearance is in a representative capacity and shall conform to the provisions of Rules 3.3 (a) through (c), 3.4 (a) through (c), and 3.5.”

24. Though Respondent did not speak before the Georgia Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on December 3, 2020, she knowingly aided and abetted Mr. Giuliani and Mr. Smith, who knowingly, willfully, and unlawfully made the false statements detailed above to the members of the Georgia Senate present at a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee meeting.

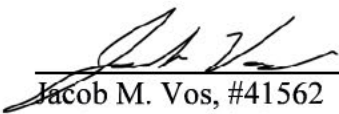

25. Respondent violated Georgia RPC 3.3(a) and Georgia RPC 3.9 through Georgia RPC 8.4(a)(1), which provides that “It shall be a violation of the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct for a lawyer to violate or knowingly attempt to violate the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct, knowingly assist or induce another to do so, or do so through the acts of another.”

26. Respondent therefore violated Georgia RPC 3.3(a) and Georgia RPC 3.9.

WHEREFORE, the people pray that Respondent be found to have engaged in misconduct under C.R.C.P. 242.9 and the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct as specified above; Respondent be appropriately disciplined for such misconduct; Respondent be required to take any other remedial action appropriate under the circumstances; and Respondent be assessed the costs of this proceeding.

EXHIBIT 3 TO STIPULATION

SUPREME COURT, STATE OF COLORADO ORIGINAL PROCEEDING IN DISCIPLINE BEFORE THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDING DISCIPLINARY JUDGE 1300 BROADWAY, SUITE 250 DENVER, CO 80203
Complainant: THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF COLORADO	Case Number: 23PDJ004
Respondent: JENNA LYNN ELLIS, #44026
OPINION APPROVING STIPULATION TO DISCIPLINE UNDER C.R.C.P. 242.19(c)

While serving as a senior legal advisor to the then-President of the United States and as counsel for his reelection campaign, Jenna Lynn Ellis (“Respondent”) repeatedly made misrepresentations on national television and on Twitter, undermining the American public’s confidence in the 2020 presidential election. The parties stipulate that Respondent’s misconduct warrants public censure, and the Presiding Disciplinary Judge (“the Court”) approves the parties’ stipulation.

I. STIPULATED FACTS AND ARGUMENT

On February 13, 2023, Jessica E. Yates and Jacob M. Vos, Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel (“the People”), and Michael W. Melito, counsel for Respondent, filed a “Stipulation to Discipline Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 242.19.” In the stipulation, the parties agree that Respondent should be publicly censured.

The parties stipulate to the following facts. From February 2019 to January 15, 2021, Respondent was a senior legal advisor to the then-serving President of the United States. She “was a member of President Trump’s legal team . . . that made efforts to challenge President Biden’s victory in the 2020 Presidential Election.”¹ Though Respondent “was part of the legal team . . . she was not counsel of record for any of the lawsuits challenging the election results.”² Respondent made ten public misrepresentations in November and December 2020 in her capacity as counsel for the then-President’s reelection campaign and as personal counsel to the then-President, while also advertising her status as a lawyer.

EXHIBIT 3 TO STIPULATION

Respondent agrees she made the following ten misrepresentations:

- On November 13, 2020, Respondent claimed that “Hillary Clinton still has not conceded the 2016 election.”
- On November 20, 2020, Respondent appeared on Mornings with Maria on Fox Business and stated: “We have affidavits from witnesses, we have voter intimidation, we have the ballots that were manipulated, we have all kinds of statistics that show that this was a coordinated effort in all of these states to transfer votes either from Trump to Biden, to manipulate the ballots, to count them in secret . . .”
- On November 20, 2020, Respondent appeared on Spicer & Co. and stated, “with all those states [Nevada, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Georgia] combined we know that the election was stolen from President Trump and we can prove that.”
- On November 21, 2020, Respondent stated on Twitter under her handle @JennaEllisEsq., “. . . SECOND, we will present testimonial and other evidence IN COURT to show how this election was STOLEN!”
- On November 23, 2020, Respondent appeared on The Ari Melber Show on MSNBC and stated, “The election was stolen and Trump won by a landslide.”
- On November 30, 2020, Respondent appeared on Mornings with Maria on Fox Business and stated, “President Trump is right that there was widespread fraud in this election, we have at least six states that were corrupted, if not more, through their voting systems. . . We know that President Trump won in a landslide.” She also stated, “The outcome of this election is actually fraudulent it's wrong, and we understand than when we subtract all the illegal ballots, you can see that President Trump actually won in a landslide.”
- On December 3, 2020, Respondent appeared on Mornings with Maria on Fox Business and stated, “The outcome of this election is actually fraudulent it's wrong, and we understand than when we subtract all the illegal ballots, you can see that President Trump actually won in a landslide.”
- On December 5, 2020, Respondent appeared on Justice with Judge Jeanine on Fox News and stated, “We have over 500,000 votes [in Arizona] that were cast illegally . . .”
- On December 15, 2020, Respondent appeared on Greg Kelly Reports on Newsmax and stated, “The proper and true victor, which is Donald Trump . . .”
- On December 22, 2020, Respondent stated on Twitter, through her handle @JennaEllisEsq, “I spent an hour with @DanCaplis for an in-depth discussion about President @realDonaldTrump's fight for election integrity, the overwhelming evidence proving this was stolen, and why fact-finding and truth—not politics—matters!”

Respondent made these misrepresentations on Twitter and on various television programs, including Fox Business, MSNBC, Fox News, and Newsmax.³ The parties agree that by making these misrepresentations, Respondent violated Colo. RPC 8.4(c), which provides that it is professional misconduct for a lawyer to engage in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.

The parties ask the Court to approve their stipulation and to publicly censure Respondent for this misconduct. In doing so, the parties rely on Standard 5.13 under the American Bar Association Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions (“ABA Standards”),⁴ which provides that “[public censure] is generally appropriate when a lawyer knowingly⁵ engages in any [non-criminal] conduct that involves dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation and that adversely reflects on the lawyer’s fitness to practice law.”

On February 15, 2023, the Court ordered the parties to set this matter for a hearing on the stipulation. The Court asked the parties to address whether ABA Standard 5.13 is the most fitting ABA Standard for Respondent’s misconduct. The Court also directed the parties to address the applicability of other ABA Standards, including ABA Standards 7.1, 7.2, and 5.11(b). At the hearing, which took place on March 1, 2023, the Court heard legal argument from both parties as to the appropriate ABA Standards and in support of their proposed sanction.⁶ The parties represented that they could not locate published lawyer discipline cases that present facts akin to those to which they stipulate, noting that this case is novel and one of first impression. Throughout the hearing, the parties also signaled that First Amendment considerations, including limitations on lawyers’ speech, were an important part of their analysis in reaching the terms of their negotiated settlement.

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

In considering a stipulation to discipline, the Court “may either reject the stipulation and order that the disciplinary proceeding go forward . . . or approve the stipulation and enter an appropriate order.”⁷ The Court endeavors to accord parties broad latitude to fashion mutually agreeable resolutions, wishes to honor parties’ agreements, and is favorably inclined to accept targeted and proportionate stipulations that protect the public and promote confidence in the legal profession.

Reviewing stipulations “[u]sing discretion and in accordance with the considerations governing imposition of disciplinary sanctions,”⁸ the Court looks to the ABA Standards as its guiding authority in imposing an appropriate sanction, unless doing so would contradict

⁵ The parties stipulate that Respondent acted with a mental state that was “at least reckless.” Stip. ¶ 13(b). For disciplinary purposes, recklessness is treated as equivalent to a knowing state of mind, with a limited exception not applicable here. See Colo. RPC 1.0 cmt. 7A; People v. Small, 962 P.2d 258, 260 (Colo. 1998).

Colorado Supreme Court case law.⁹ The Court is also guided by the Colorado Supreme Court's stated regulatory objectives to increase public understanding of and confidence in the rule of law and to ensure lawyers' compliance with the rules of professional conduct and other rules in a manner that is fair, efficient, effective, targeted, and proportionate.¹⁰ This Court is thus cognizant that disciplinary decisions serve to guide and educate the members of the legal profession.¹¹

The Court understands that this matter presents unique facts, and it is keenly aware that it does not have the benefit of factually analogous cases imposing discipline. Absent comparable prior cases, the Court's analysis centers exclusively on the ABA Standards and interpretive Colorado Supreme Court case law, which provide a framework to assess the stipulation.

The ABA Standard 5.0 series sanctions lawyers for violations of duties owed to the public, and the ABA Standard 5.1 series specifically focuses on lawyers' failure to maintain personal integrity. ABA Standard 5.1 appears singular in that it takes no account of the type or quantum of harm a lawyer's misconduct causes. Under ABA Standard 5.11(b), disbarment is generally appropriate when a lawyer engages in intentional conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation that seriously adversely reflects on the lawyer's fitness to practice. ABA Standard 5.12 provides for suspension when a lawyer's dishonesty implicates criminal misconduct. Under a strict reading of the Standards, it is not applicable here.¹² ABA Standard 5.13 provides that reprimand is generally appropriate when a lawyer knowingly engages in any other conduct that involves dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation and that adversely reflects on the lawyer's fitness to practice law.¹³

¹⁰ Preamble to Chapters 18 to 20 of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure, ¶¶ 1- 2.

¹¹ See In Re Attorney C., 47 P.3d 1167, 1174 (Colo. 2002).

¹³ Significant gaps exist between ABA Standards 5.13 and 5.11(b). Those gaps include the distinction in the mental state—intentional versus knowing—and whether the lawyer's conduct "adversely reflects" or "seriously adversely reflects" on a lawyer's fitness to practice law. Moreover, suspension under ABA Standard 5.1 is limited to certain criminal conduct, leaving the binary option of disbarment or public censure as the only available sanctions for noncriminal conduct under this ABA Standard. Courts have repeatedly struggled with this aspect of ABA Standard 5.1's design. See People v. Steinman, 452 P.3d 240, 250 (Colo. O.P.D.J. 2019) (imposing suspension under ABA Standard 7.2 after a prosecutor made misrepresentations to his supervisors and to another lawyer regarding his work on a civil matter, finding that an analysis

In contrast, ABA Standard 7.0 implicates violations of the duties lawyers owe as professionals, which generally involve “false or misleading communication about the lawyer or the lawyer’s services, improper communication of fields of practice, improper solicitation of professional employment from a prospective client, unreasonable or improper fees, unauthorized practice of law, improper withdrawal from representation, or failure to report professional misconduct.” Under ABA Standard 7.2, suspension is generally appropriate when a lawyer knowingly engages in conduct that is a violation of a duty owed as a professional and causes injury or potential injury to a client, the public, or the legal system.

Although ABA Standard 7.2 seemingly fits the fact pattern at hand, the Colorado Supreme Court’s opinion in In re Rosen counsels against relying on that Standard outside the context of lawyers’ misrepresentations while executing their professional duties.¹⁴ Rosen further counsels against imposing a sanction in the gap left between ABA Standards 5.11(b) and 5.13. Indeed, the Rosen court addressed at length the appropriate Standards to apply when faced with instances of lawyer misrepresentation:

Unless deceit or misrepresentation is directed toward a client, see ABA Standard 4.6, a tribunal, see ABA Standard 6.1, or the legal profession itself (as, for example, by making false representations in applying for admission to the bar), see ABA Standard 7.0, it is considered by the ABA Standards to be the violation of a duty owed to the public, see ABA Standard 5.0. As the violation of a duty owed to the public (as distinguished from a client, a court, or the profession), even conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation, as long as it falls short of actual criminality or comparable intentional conduct seriously adversely reflecting on one’s fitness to practice law, should generally be sanctioned only by reprimand, or censure.¹⁵

With these authorities in mind, the Court turns to the parties’ stipulation. Respondent and the People agree that Respondent made ten misrepresentations on Twitter and to nationally televised audiences in her capacity as personal counsel to the then-President of the United States and as counsel for his reelection campaign. The parties agree that Respondent made these statements, which violated Colo. RPC 8.4(c), with at least a reckless state of mind. The parties agree that Respondent was not counsel of record in any lawsuits challenging the 2020 election results. The parties agree that Respondent, through her conduct, undermined the American under ABA Standard 5.1 “suggests that the presumptive sanction should occupy a middle ground between disbarment and public censure” because the conduct, though intentional, did not seriously adversely reflect on the lawyer’s fitness to practice law); see also In re Graeff, 485 P.3d 258, 265 (Or. 2021) (recognizing that analysis under Standard 5.1 is “not a perfect fit”); In re Flannery, 47 P.3d 891, 895 (Or. 2002) (same); In re Complaint as to Conduct of Carpenter, 95 P.3d 203, 211 (Or. 2004) (same); In re Discipline of Walton, 287 P.3d 1098, 1103 (same).

public's confidence in the presidential election, violating her duty of candor to the public. Finally, the parties agree that two aggravators apply—Respondent had a selfish motive and she engaged in a pattern of misconduct—while one factor, her lack of prior discipline, mitigates her misconduct.

Based on the parties' agreements and Rosen's clear directives, the Court concludes that ABA Standard 5.13 applies in this circumstance. Though the aggravating factors outweigh the mitigators, the factors are not so out of balance as to warrant departing from the presumptive sanction of public censure. Given the limited information before the Court—which includes only the four corners of the parties' stipulation and their arguments supporting this outcome at the hearing on March 1, 2023—the Court finds the terms of the stipulation to be consistent with the considerations governing imposition of disciplinary sanctions and APPROVES the parties' stipulation in this case.

Jenna Lynn Ellis

May 22, 2024

To: The Colorado Supreme Court
Office of Attorney Regulation
Office of the Presiding Disciplinary Judge

This letter is being written as part of a Stipulation to Discipline entered into with the Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel. Everything I have to say here is completely voluntary, honest, and sincere. The reason I agreed to plead guilty in Georgia and to enter into the stipulation with the OARC arising out of the Georgia plea, is because I want to tell the truth. In doing so I wish to express my deep remorse and to acknowledge the harm my misconduct caused.

Lawyers by profession should first be truth seekers. We should zealously advocate for clients, but never at the expense of the truth or outside the bounds of the law. When facts or evidence comes to light that bears upon our own conduct, it is right for the honest lawyer to take accountability for our actions. That is what I am doing.

I do not do this as a political calculation, out of anger toward my former client, or for any other ways some may try to undermine or discredit my statement here, which is simply this: I am choosing to take responsibility for my actions and my association with the harm caused to the nation by the post-election activities of 2020 on behalf of then-President Donald Trump. I was wrong to be involved.

Since my involvement in the Trump Campaign's challenges to the election results, I have learned of the bad faith dealing and outright illegality of some actors involved. For example, I did not know at the time of the Campaign's commissioned investigation into the 2020 election results, or that the President was notified in December 2020 that he had lost. A lot of new information has come out, which I encourage the public to consider.

In the beginning of my involvement I genuinely believed that the election challenges were made in good faith—basically a repeat of a Bush v. Gore situation, not an effort to undermine the public faith in the integrity of elections. But I admit that I was overly zealous in believing the “facts” being peddled to support the challenge, which were manufactured and false. Had I done my duty in investigating these alleged facts before promoting them as the truth, I do not believe I would be here. I turned a blind eye to the possibility that senior lawyers for the Trump Campaign were embracing claims they knew or should have known were false. I just went along with it. I was wrong.

The harm of my participation in the Georgia Senate Judiciary Subcommittee hearing is painfully evident to this day. Millions have been misled by the cynical “Stop the Steal” campaign, and otherwise responsible leaders are still publicly maintaining that these false claims have merit. The lies were repeated, thereby becoming “true” to a large segment of the populace. For democracy to function and thrive, the people have to believe that their votes count and that the electoral system is fair. This is what “election integrity” should mean, rather than what it has become for many: a political statement of “loyalty.” This faith in the integrity of our elections was damaged. That is the harm. While I do not doubt that this mindset would still prevail even if I didn’t play a part in it, I am ashamed and remorseful that I was involved to the extent that I was. Had I known then what I know now, I would not have been involved.

There is a lot more that I didn’t know at the time that has come out through various reports and on-record testimony that has informed my perspective. I am disgusted that some would resort to illegal activity. Many people on both sides of the 2020 election controversy believe it is a black and white issue. However, there can be bad actors on both sides. Even if there was sufficient fraud to change the outcome of the 2020 election, that fact still would not justify many of the actions taken in the aftermath by people associated with Trump, and those actors should rightly be held accountable. The American system and its institutions should never be weaponized by any side to achieve their own political ends instead of pursuing truth and justice. Every honorable person, and lawyers particularly, should always seek truth and when new information comes to our attention, be willing to both change our position and have the courage to take responsibility if we were wrong.

I truly regret my involvement in repeating and advocating statements of fact that were false and for misleading the public. I would never lie intentionally, but I also recognize the effect my participation had, which is the same.

Therefore, I will gratefully accept a 3-year suspension in my practice of law as consequence for my actions, acknowledging the OARC’s rightful authority over the honorable profession of law. In doing so, I will hopefully encourage others who may still believe that the election was “stolen” to consider changing their position. Everything that has come out since has not proven that claim.

I will continue to stand up for the truth, even when it requires admitting I was wrong.

Respectfully,

Jenna Lynn Ellis
