

Mary's Summer Campaign Crossword

Across

3. A job _____ shouldn't shield an elected official from questions; leadership must be earned through real results.
4. The Recording division creates _____ files with their new processing system, which Mary plans to optimize for easier use and ensure everyone is trained to use.
8. A popular document issued by the Recording division for couples planning late-summer or autumn weddings.
13. Mary's core operating principle: A checklist system to _____ everything before it ever reaches the public.
15. An essential property document processed and preserved securely by the Recording office.
18. The proven capability Mary brings as an executive who's lead many employees.
20. The background skill from aviation and medicine requiring a leader to strictly adhere to rules and regulations.

21. The crucial slip of paper mailed to voters. A _____ should never go out wrong and voter lists should be accurate.

Down

1. The busy division where Mary aims to slash long wait times, improve workflow, and fix staffing issues.
2. Mary believes government works for the _____.
5. Cool off with the A/C on and use the motor vehicle _____-thru window to beat the indoor summer rush!
6. To prepare for the legal responsibilities of this office, Mary has dedicated time to studying the applicable _____.
7. The region of the county (Pueblo _____) that received completely incorrect voter lists in April 2023.
9. A fundamental requirement in healthcare and record-keeping that Mary promises to bring back to public service.

10. The safety-critical industry where Mary managed operations and learned that small details are big risks.

11. Mary's healthcare background in this job where precision, care, and accurate documentation are essential.
12. Catch some late-summer _____ rays while talking to voters at the county fair!
14. Mary served her community by directly supporting families and students in local _____.
16. Mary believes government works best when leaders focus on simply getting the _____ right and takes responsibility when it does not.
17. A great place for a campaign yard sign is your _____.
19. The ultimate, non-negotiable benchmark that Mary vows to restore for Pueblo County voters.