Legal aspiration for a political position

🌱 As an aspirant, you must know what you are expected to do.

..what happens in the ballot is a clear reflection of what you have done.

1. Know what is expected.
2. Identify incomplete manifesto in the exiting government.
3. Identify some basic needs that could be given to the minority.
4. Learn what the majority need to hear .
5. Fix your manifesto on social, economic and political areas.
6. Be steward and approachable.
7. Normalise living well with people and supporting their ideas in neutrality.
8. Go to a deep dive and interview some people not less than 20.
9. Call successive meetings which will be conducted by your die hards.
10. Plan a mega meeting whereby everyone should be invited without discrimination.
11. Sell your political ideas and answer all questions positively.

SOME DON'TS AND DOES

The mega meeting can be conducted a few days before the campaign period is closed.

Adhering to the institution constitution, avoid going against it. There's always a penalty, most likely being removed from the ballot. Avoid unnecessary personal differences in your campaigns. This is a secret way of causing political conflicts. At least don't involve opposition side in your campaigns, sell your super ideas and show leadership qualities. Use the utmost courtesy to avoid the "crippling words". Once attacked verbally by opponents, it's advisable to use the attack on building your manifesto points. Don't attack instead, no be wise. This is called diplomacy. Then, don't support any kind of imperialism and intimidation to civilians. Speak out the facts, abide in the constitution. Defend your people and definitely you'll be qualified.
