

DANGEROUS GOODS NOT PERMITTED BY AIR

Please note due to the reinforcement of security measures in air travel, all shipments boarding aircrafts are subject to inspection by customs officers, airport security, TSA, airline handling staff or by the freight forwarder before departure. This is to ensure the safety of passengers aboard the aircraft.

In accordance with international law (IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations) the goods listed below are classified as "Dangerous" and not permitted for transport by air. Many items which appear harmless in everyday use can pose dangers on aircraft and are consequently forbidden for transport.

The following items are prohibited as unaccompanied baggage on board an aircraft. If any of the following products are found in your cargo / shipment they will be immediately withdrawn and will not travel with the rest of your belongings. This will be your responsibility to retrieve them or they will be destroyed by airport personnel. (Fees can also apply - $$)

FAILURE TO COMPLETE THIS FORM PROPERLY WILL LEAD TO THE REJECTION OF YOUR SHIPMENT
