

Special Education Parent Advisory Council

2023-2024

General Meeting Dates

The Boston Special Education Advisory Council (SpEdPAC) is a group of parent volunteers established under Massachusetts General Law to ensure that Boston Public School students with disabilities get the services and support they need to develop to their full potential.

General meetings are organized for Boston SpEdPAC members and focus on a specific topic related to supporting Boston Public School students with disabilities.

Parents, guardians, educational advocates of BPS students with disabilities, and BPS students with disabilities age 18 and older, are SpEdPAC members [as well as any other interested party].
