BE A PADI OPEN WATER DIVER – LEARN SOMETHING YOU'LL ENJOY FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE

If you've an appetite for excitement and adventure, read on...

There are 3 simple steps to becoming a PADI Open Water Diver which is your ticket to dive!

1. Get the knowledge – Knowledge development sessions teach you the crucial things divers need to know.
2. Get certified – You'll develop key practical skills in a pool or real diving locations.
3. The Open Water dives – put your knowledge and skills into practice in the open water with your PADI instructor.

You will be participating in the following 3 Developments

KNOWLEDGE DEVELOPMENT

Knowledge Development teaches you about principles, concepts and terms that you need to know for safety and so you can enjoy diving

CONFINED WATER DIVES

You learn and practice scuba skills in a pool or water with pool-like conditions under direct instructor supervision. You also practice applying the principles and concepts you learn in Knowledge Development.

OPEN WATER DIVES CURRICULUM

Dives you make with your instructor at dives sites suited to beginning divers. During these dives, you practice, apply and demonstrate what you learn in Knowledge Development and during the Confined Water Dives.
