Spring 2015

President's Message

By Dick Brown, '64 dickbrown64@gmail.com

Our Seventh Annual Alumni Open House will be Monday, May 4, 2015, and will be held at the G.H.S. Cafeteria, as usual. This room will be under construction but is still used as the cafeteria during school days. It will be a free event and will be bigger and better than ever. There will be free refreshments for all, and over 100 of the tri-fold cardboard displays units to refresh your memory. Tell any of your friends to meet you at the Open House. It is open to anyone interested in our school's history.

Graduation is Saturday evening, May 30, at 7:00PM at Harmon Field. The Homecoming game will be Friday, October 9, versus one of the Green Wave's longest rivals, Piqua Indians.

2014 was an especially hard year for our alumni organization, losing several of our long-time alumni contributors. Bill Booker, Paul Royer, Ted Williams, John Brumbaugh, Hip King, Kay Brown, Cathy Burkhardt, Dave Deardourff, and Mary Catherine Wilson wrote much history about our school, and also wrote much local Greenville history touching the city in many ways. These pillars of the community will be sorely missed by many in the community and served as great mentors for those of us left behind. They made our alumni organization a better institution. We will have a more complete listing of the obituaries in this fall's newsletter.

About 15 class reunions have plans being formulated at this time. If your class has one coming up, please contact your Class Rep or your Reunion Organizer. The Class of 1965 is the honored 50th Anniversary Class, along with the 25th anniversary of the Class of 1990. We have a preliminary calendar of these reunions in this newsletter, but many plans are not set yet and some changes could be coming after this newsletter goes to press.

2014 Hometown Holiday Horse Parade

The kickoff of Greenville's holiday season has become the Hometown Holiday Horse Parade. This year's version was held November 22, 2014, in downtown Greenville. It was the 11th annual parade and has become a tradition and an attraction for the whole Dayton area, Indiana, and beyond. The spectacle of 70+ horse pulled lighted entries brought over 10,000 spectators to the festivities. The parade is hosted by Main Street Greenville and its Director, Amber Clark Garrett, GHS 2000.

This year's Grand Marshal was Jenny Seiler Clark, GHS 1973, who helped create the event in 2004. Jenny was inspired to create the event in Greenville after witnessing a similar parade in Lebanon, Ohio. "Greenville is my hometown. I always thought the downtown had such charm with the architecture and storefronts, still beautiful and vibrant today. I am honored to be named the Grand Marshal of this 11th annual horse parade. It is very dear to my heart and I hope it continues to be a downtown tradition for years to come," said Clark.

BILL BOOKER PRESS BOX

This press box at Good Samaritan Stadium at Harmon Field is named after Bill Booker, GHS 1953. He was a gentleman who spent countless hours in this press box as an announcer, scorer, timer and statistician. Bill did live broadcast of Green Wave games and wrote many articles for the local media from the press box.

Bill has served as the press box manager for years. He opens and closes the press box. He always makes press box personnel feel welcome and always accommodates them for their needs.

Bill Booker is a man of many talents and a wealth of knowledge about Greenville Athletics and the City of Greenville. This is only a small way to say thanks for everything he has given to the GREEN and WHITE.

A side note: Bill has spent countless hours cutting in lines and marking the playing surface. He has set up the field for contests as well as putting equipment away after contests.

Bill has spent many hours in the gyms at the Junior and Senior High Schools doing basketball games. He has developed his own history booklet for Wave Football and Basketball as well his own booklet for Lady Wave Basketball and Softball. During the Softball season, he publishes a weekly "Bink" newsletter/ program keeping the fans up-to-date on the team's progress. Yes, our friend Bill Booker is the true historian of Greenville Athletics.

Editor's note: Bill is pictured here receiving his award from Greenville Superintendent Doug Fries (left) and Athletic Director Randy Swisher (right) at Homecoming, October 3. This article was written in October to express the Athletic Department's thoughts about Bill. Bill Booker passed away unexpectedly Nov. 24, 2014, after a short illness. Bill was always involved in local news media, from his days of sports broadcasting for WDRK in its early days in the 1960s to being a writer and editor for the Daily Advocate and the Early Bird publications throughout the years. He wrote weekly columns, historical pieces, sports stories, and became a managing editor. He was author of many books about local history, especially Greenville, and wrote and directed plays for the local Art Guild players. His writings went beyond sports to all types of local history. Bill gave tours of the Broadway businesses and buildings each summer, during which he could identify all the businesses that existed in the buildings on Broadway over the past 60+ years. He also gave detailed tours of the Greenville Union Cemetery, about which he had written much history to tell interested citizens who accompanied him on his walks. His most recent passion was Greenville High School's Girls Softball team, of which Bill has been an integral part of Coach Jerrod Newland's program. Bill was inducted into the GHS Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005 and was the first honoree who was not a player or a coach to receive membership with this membership known as "Special Recognition". He announced basketball games for many years and knew a multitude of statistics about the Wave sports teams. Bill's parents Wallace and Maude Booker owned four groceries in Greenville from the 1920's to 1950's (500 Martin St., 157 N. Broadway, downtown at 334 S. Broadway, and the 117 Sater St. store which became Myron Eikenberry's (GHS 1929) store in later years, and still exists today as Eikenberry's in another location on Sweitzer St.). He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Bonnie Speck Booker, and their son Jerald Andrew Booker. Bill is survived by two sons Alan (William) Booker and Philip Booker, who both attended GHS in the late 1970's and who are both retired from the U.S. Army, along with four grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. Bill's knowledge of history will be sorely missed by all long-time Greenville residents. He is a true icon of the city.

Paige Keller is G.H.S. newest State Champ

The 2014 Ohio High School Athletic Association's individual Gymnastics State Championships were held last March at Hilliard Bradley High School. GHS Senior Paige Keller won the Vault in her third state meet, after a fourth place finish as a junior. Her score of 9.75 (out of a 10 perfect score) tied Alecia Farina of Brecksville-Broadview Heights H.S. (near Cleveland) for the best score in the competition.

"I couldn't have asked for a better way to end my senior year as a high school gymnast," Keller said. The last GHS sports state champion was Kevin Leland's Pole Vault height at the OHSAA Track State meet in 2009. Paige was voted the Green Wave Homecoming Queen five months earlier.

Greenville Alumni Girl Scout Troop #9 is still going strong

Formed as a Brownie Troop in 1946 at East Elementary School, one of the oldest Girl Scout Troops in the country still meets as their birthdates reach five-year intervals. In 2014 the girls turned 75 years of age, marking 68 years since they came together as Brownies in the second grade. They all graduated from G.H.S. in 1957 and have met on the Darke County Fair weekend as they reached their 50th, 55th, 60th, 65th, 70th, and now 75th birthdays. Most of these girls have been in the troop since the beginning, with others joining over the years. Their leaders Vera North and Naomi Beisner were the glue that held the troop together.

Since the passing of their troop leaders, the girls make it their priority to continue meeting as a group. The only member living in Greenville, Marilyn Halley Howell, organizes the luncheons, birthday parties, and shares news with the others. The group continues to give to the Greenville community, this past year making a significant donation to the Greenville Schools Foundation. This Foundation solicits contributions to fund programs in the Greenville Schools which are not covered by School Board appropriations.

The Girl Scout Little House was built in 1941 by Fred D. Coppock, founder of American Aggregates Corporation, and he donated the building to the Girl Scout Council in 1965. It served as "home" to over 60,000 girls and their leaders, until the ravages of termites in the original building structure forced closing in 1991. Buckeye Trails opened the doors of the New Little House in 1992, with a dedication, and support from many Greenville individuals, businesses, organizations, and foundations. Troop #9 was honored at the 1992 dedication of this New House.

Mary A. Martin Celebrates 100th Birthday

On August 30, 2014, Mary A. Powell Martin, Class of 1932, celebrated her 100th birthday with family, friends, fellow church members of the First Presbyterian Church, fellow co-workers from Fram and many well-wishers, at Greenville's V.F.W. Post #7262.

Mary was one of the original members of the V.F.W. Ladies Auxiliary Post #7262 after World War II and is now the oldest member.

Mary's family, led by son Richard E. "Dick" Martin, GHS 1963, organized this celebration to honor her. Her real birthday, August 28, 1914, dates to near the beginning of World War I.

Mary was one of six girls born to Harve L. Powell and Leona Mae Plessinger Powell. Five are G.H.S. graduates: Mouree G. Powell, GHS 1925; The second girl Georgiana Powell was born in 1907 and died ten days later as an infant; Mayble P. Powell Wiebusch, GHS 1927; Helen M. Powell Webber, GHS 1930; Mary, GHS 1932, and Doris A. Powell Spencer, GHS 1933. Her late husband Eugene F. Martin was also a GHS graduate in 1924.

Mary is pictured with her son, Dick. The family extends a heartfelt, "Thanks" to all who attended and helped share this memorable occasion with Mary.

Coach David Hansbarger led Swanton H.S. to 7 League Titles

David W. Hansbarger, GHS 1958, passed away November 18, 2014, at age 74, from a month-long battle with pneumonia, in Maumee, Ohio. David's grandfather Ray Hansbarger and father Wayne Hansbarger founded and operated Hansbarger Appliances, first on Broadway until about 1960, then moving to the business' current address on Sweitzer Street. He is survived by his mother, Katherine Ashman Hansbarger, GHS 1934, sister Tammy Hansbarger Cargill, GHS 1961, wife Ruth Redd Hansbarger, four children and stepchildren, two grandchildren, and twelve step grandchildren.

Coach Hansbarger had the ultimate honor of having the football stadium in Swanton, Ohio, named after him, the "David W. Hansbarger Stadium". This is where he became the successful and legendary coach of Swanton High School. His visitation and memorial services were held for eight hours on Nov. 22, at the Swanton High School Gymnasium, and was well-attended, showing the respect for him and his impact on that community.

Super Hero Homecoming 2014

The Homecoming week at G.H.S. was the first week of October, and had the theme of “Super Hero Homecoming”. The school was decorated with this theme, and the events were sponsored by the Student Council. The Grand Marshal was a very deserving, Bill Booker, GHS 1953, who has contributed greatly to the GHS Athletic Department through the years and to local Greenville history.

The Parade was held the traditional time of the Thursday night, Oct. 2, before the game. It entertained many citizens along Martin Street, Broadway and Harmon Drive, and ended at the Marling Band Shell. After marching in the parade, the Band of Pride played for the Pep Rally in the Band Shell. This rally pepped up the good crowd in attendance, and featured the band, the cheerleaders, and head football coach Aaron Shaffer, GHS 1995. All the Queen and Chief Green Wave candidates were recognized. Football team Co-Captain Bryce Jenkinson was crowned the 34th annual Chief at this Pep Rally. The Chief Green Wave candidates (underlined), and their G.H.S. connections, were: Bryce Jenkinson, son of Kevin Jenkinson, GHS 1982, and Becky Jenkinson, grandson of Waldo and Helen Jenkinson. Bryce has been 1st team all-GWOC football, 2nd team All Southwest Ohio, member of National Honor Society, S.A.D.D. Club, and 3-year member of Student Council. He plans to attend the University of Cincinnati to play football, major in Pediatric Physical Therapy, and possibly attempt playing football at the next (N.F.L.) level.

Gunnar Fustos, son of Dr. Jennifer Stevens and Dr. Robert Maher, GHS 1989, and grandson of Mick Maher, GHS 1961. 8 National Championship Teams for G.H.S. Program

The G.H.S. Vocational Department added an automotive class for the 1972-73 school year. This class offered both classroom and laboratory instruction using textbooks and drawings, with the manual work being accomplished in the new auto garage. The first program leader was Mr. Dick Seiler, and most of their class work was correcting many problems on student and faculty cars.

The program advanced rapidly after the new Vocational building was built in 1980. Beginning in 1982, the new instructor, Mr. Jim Anderson, GHS 1971, became the catalyst in building the program into one of the best of its kind in the country. Project-based learning began in 1994, with entering into competitions beginning in 1997. Academic Integration ties the automotive learning with other specific classes at GHS. These classes, such as English, science, and math, are designed around the automotive industry, and have been offered to the Auto Tech students through the years. Juniors and Seniors make up the Auto Tech classes today, and everyone participates in

Automotive Technology Skills USA National Champions Kansas City, Missouri, 2009

Travis Nicholas, Derrick Diehl, Zack Barger, Tim Zilke (ASE President), Chris McDowell, Bill Kersten (NATEF), and Jim Anderson (instructor).

Mr. Anderson's expertise in this area and the students' hard work have prepared them for the national competitions. Their first National Award came in Kansas City in 2001, winning National 1st place. Other first place National finishes were in 2002, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, and 2009. The 2004 project was good for National 3rd place.

Students from this program are employable. Six did internships at local work sites over this past summer and are continuing with early placement through the school year. Graduates use their skills from this class and work at many local car shops. 45% of the graduates will be placed in an associated job. Many students continue their education at the community college level, with many earning an Associate's Degree in Automotive Science. Students are readied for the National Automotive Technicians Education Foundation (NATEF) test to become certified.

Jim Anderson has returned from a few years of retirement to develop this year's project "Fueling Your Knowledge". It is a study of the flow of crude oil extraction, pipelines all over the country, refiners, truck distribution, into the finished product. Hopefully this summer, the GHS Auto Tech program might bring home a 9th National Championship.

Please help us find the owner of this class ring

A couple years ago, Justin Crawford, GHS 1990, found this class ring in a storm drain in the Greenville City Park. The Alumni Association would like to return it to its rightful owner if one exists. It is a 1980 boy's ring with "GALE", a water wave, and a basketball hoop, ball and hand, and small green and white paint panels. It has a rounded stone on top with "GREENVILLE HIGH" surrounding the stone. Our research has not been able to find an individual matching the description shown here. If it is yours or someone you know, please contact (or have the other person contact) Dick Brown at the email on the front page, and tell us the initials inside.
