RIVERWOOD @ WORK

Every stitch tells a story of God's love in action right here at Riverwood. Once a month, a dedicated group of women gathers not just to sew, but to fellowship, pray, and truly do life together. But their hands are guided by a higher calling: transforming donated fabric into a warm embrace for those facing life's hardest seasons.

Each quilt is a true labor of love. It starts with your generous donations, is hand-tied by volunteers who simply bring a willing heart (if you can tie a knot, you can do this!), and is finished by faithful hands that sew the final edges.

The reach of this ministry is a beautiful testament to what God can do with our collective time and talents. Every year, our congregation sends 100 to 200 of these handmade treasures across the globe. Through Global Health Ministries, they travel to clinics and hospitals in Africa and an orphanage in Uganda. Closer to home, they wrap the homeless in Minneapolis with dignity and warmth, and right here in our own building, they serve as cozy places for our MomCo little ones to sit during snack time.

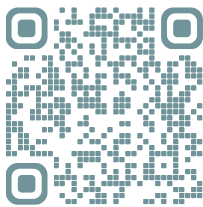

There are so many beautiful ways to offer your time, treasure, and talent to serve the kingdom—and Quilting for Missions is a living example of Riverwood's heart for the world.
