RIVERWOOD @ WORK

Riverwood's annual Candypalooza is just around the corner! On Saturday, October 31, from 4:00–6:00 pm, families from Riverwood and the surrounding communities will gather for an afternoon filled with games, food, laughter, and the much-anticipated candy buffet!

But Candypalooza is about so much more than candy. It's an opportunity to open our doors, welcome our neighbors, and share the love of Jesus in simple, meaningful ways. Every detail—from the festive decorations and fun activities to the delicious food—helps create a place where families feel welcomed, valued, and cared for.

Sometimes, the most meaningful moments happen around a table. Children's Director Tami Keene remembers a special interaction from last year's event. Near the end of Candypalooza, a parent arrived with their children and asked if it was still okay to stay and eat. Tami and a few volunteers warmly assured them they were welcome. They sat down, shared a meal, and enjoyed conversation together.

It may have seemed like a small gesture, but it made a difference. In that moment, a family found more than a free dinner. They found people who were glad they came, a place where they belonged, and an opportunity to connect with others. They left with full hearts and bellies—and, of course, full bags of candy!

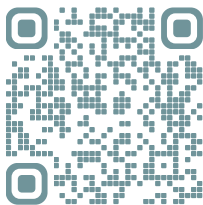

That is the heart of Candypalooza. And you can be part of it! Tami and her team would love to have you join them this year! Volunteers are needed from 3:00–6:30 pm to help with setup, serve the meal, assist with the Bingo game, and clean up afterward.

To volunteer, contact Children's Director Tami Keene at childrens@riverwoodcovenant.org. Let's make this year's Candypalooza about more than candy. Let's make it an opportunity to love our neighbors well!
