

When you surrender your dog to the shelters sometimes this is what they do. They sit there waiting for you to come back. They don't want toys, treats, food they just want you. If you don't want to make a forever commitment to a dog, please don't even get one

