

To best assist, you in your next celebration planning, listed below are average price ranges for typical cake sizes and servings.

A party cake slice is measured by 1.5x2 inches and a wedding cake slice is measured by 1x2 inches, remember this number of servings is intended as a guide but the actual result may vary.

The sizes are listed by diameter in inches. Individual tiers are typically about 5" to 8" in height.

The lower-end estimates represent simple designs, and the higher-end estimates represent complex designs.

Please know that the final price for your order will depend on the type of cake, the design, decor elements, delivery location, and tax.
