

Cake should be refrigerated when not serving.

When you are ready to serve remove the cake from the refrigerator and let sit at room temperature to develop the best flavor and texture. For the non-tiered cake, let it sit at room temperature for a minimum of 45 mins, tiered cakes take longer to warm up so let them sit for at least 2 hours before serving. Store leftover cake in the refrigerator.