B. The Limited Common Elements are:

Unit 8	11.0%
Unit 9	8.0%
Unit 10	8.0%
Unit 11	8.0%

The determination of the percentage value was made after reviewing the characteristics of each unit and determining that units 3, 4, 7 and 8 were residential units and the remaining units were limited to commercial uses and that the occupancy and use of the residential units would be on an around the clock basis, while the commercial units would be occupied and used during working hours only thereby utilizing the General Common areas to a greater degree resulting in a greater share of the maintenance expenses allocable to the residential units.

The percentage of value assigned to each Unit shall be determinative of each Co-owner's respective share of the Common Elements of the Condominium Project, the proportionate share of each respective Co-owner in the proceeds and expenses of the administration and the value of such Co-owner's vote at meetings of the Association of Co-owners. The total value of the Project is 100. The percentage of value allocated to each Unit in this Article may be changed only with prior written approval of each institutional holder of a first mortgage lien on any Unit in the Project and with the consent of not less than sixty-six and two thirds (66 2/3%) percent in number and in value of all Co-owners expressed in an amendment to this Master Deed, duly approved and recorded except as provided in Article VI hereof.

ARTICLE VI

EXPANSION OF CONDOMINIUM

The Condominium Project established pursuant to the initial Master Deed of Timberline Shops and consisting of 11 Units is intended to be Units. Additional Units, if any, will be constructed upon all or some portion of the following described land in the Township of Kearney, Antrim County, Michigan; Commencing at the Southeast corner of Section 32, Town 30 North, Range 7 West; thence North 65°20' West 2934.72 feet to a concrete monument on the North line of Deskin Drive at its Westernmost end as recorded in the plat of East Pointe; thence South 5°48' West 66. feet to the South line of said drive, being the point of beginning of this description; thence South 5°48' West 33.68 feet; thence on a curve to the right 106.49 feet (radius of said curve is 132. feet, long chord bears South 28°54'29" West 103.62 feet); thence South 54°53'53" East 125.88 feet; thence North 35° East 130. feet; thence North 54°00'27" West 153.33 feet to the point of beginning.

(hereinafter referred to as "future development"). Therefore, any other provisions of this Master Deed notwithstanding, the number of other Units in the Project may, at the option of the Developer or its successors or assigns, from time to time, within a period ending no later than June 15th, 1984, be increased by the addition to this Condominium of any portion of the future development and the construction of commercial, residential or either or both of such Units thereon. The nature, appearance and location of all such additional Units as may be constructed thereon shall be determined by Developer in its sole judgment and as may be approved by the Township of Kearney. Such increase in size of this Condominium Project shall be given effect by an appropriate amendment or amendments to this Master Deed in the manner provided by law, which amendment or amendments shall be prepared by and at the discretion of the Developer or its successors and in which the percentages of value set forth in Article V hereof shall be proportionately readjusted in order to preserve a total value of 100 for the entire Project resulting from such amendment or amendments to this Master Deed. The precise determination of the readjustments in percentages of value shall be within the sole judgment of Developer except that such readjustments shall be approved by the Michigan Department of Commerce. Such readjustments, however, shall reflect a continuing reasonable relationship among percentages of value based upon relative size and amenities of various Units; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that in no such amendment or amendments shall the percentage of value assigned to each Unit in Article V hereof be increased; nor shall the percentage of value assigned to each Unit in Article V hereof be diminished to less than .10 percent by such amendment or amendments. Such amendment or amendments to the Master Deed shall also contain such further definitions and redefinitions of General or Limited Common Elements as may be necessary to adequately describe and service the additional parcel or parcels being added to the Project by such amendment. In connection with any such amendment(s), Developer shall have the right to change the nature of any Common Element previously included in the Project for any purpose reasonably necessary to achieve the purposes of this Article, including, but not limited to, the connection of roadways and sidewalks in the Project to any roadways and sidewalks that may be located on, or planned for the future development, from the roadways and sidewalks located in the Project. All of the Co-owners and mortgagees of Units and other persons interested or to become interested in the Project from time to time shall be deemed to have irrevocably and unanimously consented to such amendment or amendments of this Master Deed to effectuate the foregoing and, subject to the limitations set forth herein, to any proportionate reallocation of percentages of value of existing Units which Developer or its successors may determine necessary in conjunction with such amendment or amendments as the same may be approved by the Department of Commerce. All such interested persons irrevocably appoint Developer or its successors as agent and attorney for the purpose of execution of such amendment or amendments to the Master Deed and all other documents necessary to effectuate the foregoing. Such amendments may be effected without the necessity of rerecording an entire Master Deed or the Exhibits thereto and may incorporate by reference all or any pertinent portions of this Master Deed and the Exhibits hereto; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that a Consolidating Master Deed when recorded, shall supersede the previously recorded Master Deed and all amendments thereto. Nothing herein contained, however, shall in any way obligate Developer to enlarge the Condominium Project beyond the phase established by this Master Deed and Developer (or its successors and assigns) may, in its discretion, establish all or a portion of said future development as a rental development, a separate condominium project (or projects) to expand the Project other than as explicitly set forth herein. There is no obligation on the part of the Developer to add to the Condominium Project all or any portion of the area of future development described in this Article VI nor is there any obligation to add portions thereof in any particular order nor to construct particular improvements thereon in any specific locations.

In the event the Developer determines to expand the Condominium as above provided for no more than fifty (50%) percent of the aggregate land and floor area of all condominiums that may be created thereon may be occupied by condominium units not restricted exclusively to residential use.

EASEMENTS

Easement for Maintenance of Encroachments

In the event any portion of a Unit or Common Element encroaches upon another Unit or Common Element due to shifting, settling or moving of a building, or due to survey errors, or constructions deviations, reciprocal easements shall exist for the maintenance of such encroachment for so long as such encroachment exists, and for maintenance thereof after rebuilding in the event of any destruction. There shall be easements to, through and over those portions of the land, structures, buildings, improvements and walls (including interior Unit Walls) contained therein for the continuing maintenance and repair of all utilities in the Condominium. There shall exist easements of support with respect to any Unit interior wall which supports a Common Element.

ARTICLE VIII

AMENDMENT

This Master Deed and the Condominium Subdivision Plan (Exhibit "B" to said Master Deed) may be amended with the consent of sixty-six and two-thirds (66-2/3%) percent of the Co-owners and of the Unit mortgagees (allowing one vote for each mortgage held) except as hereinafter set forth:

A. No Unit dimensions may be modified without the consent of the Co-owner of such Unit nor may the nature or extent of Limited Common Elements or the responsibility for maintenance, repair or replacement thereof be modified without the written consent of the Co-owner of any Unit to which the same are appurtenant.

B. Prior to the date of the First Annual Meeting of members of the Association, the Developer may, with the approval of the Michigan Department of Commerce (but without the consent of any Co-owner or any other person), amend this Master Deed and the Plans attached as Exhibit "B" in order to correct survey or other errors made in such documents and to make such other amendments to such instruments and to the Bylaws attached hereto as Exhibit "A" as do not materially affect any rights of any Co-owner or mortgagee in the Project, including, but not limited to, amendments for the purpose of facilitating conventional mortgage loan financing for existing or prospective Co-owners and to enable the purchase of such mortgage loans by the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Government National Mortgage Association and/or and other agency of the federal government or the State of Michigan.

C. The value of the vote of any Co-owner and the corresponding proportion of common expenses assessed against such Co-owner shall not be modified without the written consent of such Co-owner and his mortgagee nor shall the percentage of value assigned to any Unit be modified without like consent.

D. The Condominium Project may not be terminated, vacated, revoked or abandoned without the written consent of ninety-five (95%) percent of all Co-owners and all mortgagees (allocating one vote for each mortgage held).

E. The Developer may, with the consent of a majority of the members of the Advisory Committee and the Michigan Department of Commerce, amend this Master Deed and the Condominium Bylaws attached hereto to extend the date of the First Annual Meeting of Members if such amendment is not inconsistent with Section 90 of the Act.

F. The Developer may, with the consent of a majority of the members of the Advisory Committee (or, subsequent to the Transitional Control Date, the consent of a majority of the Co-owner members) and the Michigan Department of Commerce, amend this Master Deed to extend the date of expansion of the Condominium Project as set forth in Article VI hereof if such amendment is not inconsistent with Section 90 of the Act.

G. Article VI, Article VII and Article VIII shall not be amended nor shall the provisions thereof be modified by any other amendment to this Master Deed without the written consent of the Developer so long as the Developer continues to offer any Unit in the Condominium for sale or for so long as there remains, under such provisions, any further possibility of expansion of the Condominium Project.

(8) To make rules and regulations in accordance with Article VI, Section 11 of these Bylaws.

(9) To establish such committees as it deems necessary, convenient or desirable and to appoint persons thereto for the purpose of implementing the administration of the Condominium and to delegate to such committees any functions or responsibilities which are not by law or the Condominium Documents required to be performed by the Board.

(10) To make rules and regulations and/or enter into agreements with institutional lenders the purposes of which are to obtain mortgage financing for Unit Co-owners which is acceptable for purchase by the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Government National Mortgage Association and/or any other agency of the federal government or the State of Michigan.

(11) To enforce the provisions of the Condominium Documents.

(b) The Board of Directors may employ for the Association a professional management agent (which may include the Developer or any person or entity related thereto) at reasonable compensation established by the Board to perform such duties and services as the Board shall authorize including, but not limited to, the duties listed in Section 4(a) of this Article I, and the Board may delegate to such management agent any other duties or powers which are not by law or by the Condominium Documents required to be performed by or have the approval of the Board of Directors or the members of the Association. In no event shall the Board be authorized to enter into any contract with a professional management agent, or any other contract providing for services by the Developer, sponsor or builder, in which the maximum term is greater than three years or which is not terminable by the Association upon 90 days' written notice thereof to the other party and no such contract shall violate the provisions of Section 55 of the Act.

(c) All of the actions (including, without limitation, the adoption of these Bylaws and any Rules and Regulations for the corporation, and any undertakings or contracts entered into with others on behalf of the corporation) of the first Board of Directors of the Association named in its Articles of Incorporation or any successors thereto elected by the Developer before the First Annual Meeting of Members shall be binding upon the Association in the same manner as though such actions had been authorized by a Board of Directors duly elected by the members so long as such actions are within the scope of the powers and duties which may be exercised by any Board of Directors as provided in the Condominium Documents.

Section 5. The Association Bylaws shall provide the designation, number, terms of office, qualifications, manner of election, duties, removal and replacement of the officers of the Association and may contain any other provisions pertinent to officers of the Association in furtherance of the provisions and purposes of the Condominium Documents and not inconsistent therewith. Officers may be compensated but only upon the affirmative vote of more than sixty (60%) percent of all Co-owners in number and in value.

Section 6. Every director and every officer of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding to which he may be a party, or in which he may become involved, by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the corporation, whether or not he is a director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except in such cases wherein the director or officer is adjudged guilty of wilful or wanton misconduct or gross negligence in the performance of his duties; provided that, in the event of any claim for reimbursement or indemnification hereunder based upon a settlement by the director or officer seeking such reimbursement or indemnification, the indemnification herein shall apply only if the Board of Directors (with the director seeking reimbursement abstaining) approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of the corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled. At least ten (10) days prior to payment of any indemnification which it has approved, the Board of Directors shall notify all Co-owners thereof.

Section 7. The First Annual Meeting of the Members of the Association may be convened only by Developer and may be called, in Developer's discretion, at any time after fifty (50%) percent in value and in number of all Units in all phases of development of the Condominium determined with reference to the recorded Consolidating Master Deed have been sold and the purchasers thereof qualified as members of the Association. In no event, however, shall said First Annual Meeting be held later than 120 days after 80% of all Units in all phases of the development of the Condominium have been sold and the purchasers thereof qualified as members of the Association or 24 months after recordation of the Master Deed, whichever first occurs. The date, time and place of such First Annual Meeting shall be set by the Board of Directors, and at least fifteen (15) days' written notice thereof shall be given to each Co-owner. Thereafter, an annual meeting shall be held each year on such date as is specified in the Association Bylaws. Within one year after recordation of the Master Deed, the Developer shall call a special meeting of members for the purpose of electing three (3) persons from among the non-developer Co-owners to serve on an Advisory Committee to the temporary Board of Directors. The purpose of the Advisory Committee shall be to facilitate communications between the temporary Board of Directors and the non-developer Co-owners until the First Annual Meeting of Members is held in accordance with the provisions hereof. The members of the Advisory Committee shall serve for one year, or until their successors are elected. The Advisory Committee shall cease to exist automatically upon the election of Directors at the First Annual Meeting of Members. The temporary Board of Directors and the Advisory Committee shall meet with each other at such time as may be requested by the Advisory Committee; provided, however, that there shall be no more than four such meetings per year unless both entities agree. Developer may call additional meetings of members of the Association for informative or other appropriate purposes prior to the First Annual Meeting of Members and no such meeting (or the special meeting held for the purpose of electing the members of the Advisory Committee) shall be construed as the First Annual Meeting of Members.

ARTICLE II

ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. The Association shall be assessed as the person or entity in possession of any tangible personal property of the Condominium owned or possessed in common by the Co-owners, and personal property taxes based thereon shall be treated as expenses of administration.

Section 2. All costs incurred by the Association in satisfaction of any liability arising within, caused by, or connected with the Common Elements or the administration of the Condominium Project shall constitute expenditures affecting the administration of the Project, and all sums received as the proceeds of, or pursuant to, a policy of insurance securing the interest of the Co-owners against liabilities or losses arising within, caused by, or connected with the Common Elements or the administration of the Condominium Project shall constitute receipts affecting the administration of the Condominium Project, within the meaning of Section 54(4) of the Act.

Section 3. Assessments shall be determined in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) The Board of Directors of the Association shall establish an annual budget in advance for each fiscal year and such budget shall project all expenses for the forthcoming year which may be required for the proper operation, management and maintenance of the Condominium Project, including a reasonable allowance for contingencies and reserves. An adequate reserve fund for maintenance, repairs and replacement of those Common Elements that must be replaced on a periodic basis must be established in the budget and must be funded by regular monthly payments as set forth in Section 4 below rather than by special assessments. At a Minimum, the reserve fund shall be equal to 10% of the Association's current annual budget on a noncumulative basis. The minimum standard required by this Section may prove to be inadequate for a particular project. The Association of Co-owners shall carefully analyze their Condominium Project to determine if a greater amount should be set aside, or if additional reserve funds should be established for other purposes. Upon adoption of an annual budget by the Board of Directors, copies of said budget shall be delivered to each Co-owner and the assessment for said year shall be established based upon said budget, although the delivery of a copy of the budget to each Co-owner shall not affect the liability of any Co-owner for any existing or future assessments. Should the Board of Directors, at any time determine, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors: (1) that the assessments levied are or may prove to be insufficient to pay the costs of operation and management of the Condominium, (2) to provide replacements of existing Common Elements, (3) to provide additions to the Common Elements not exceeding $1,000.00 annually, or (4) in the event of emergencies, the Board of Directors shall have the authority to increase the general assessment or to levy such additional assessment or assessments as it shall deem to be necessary.

(b) Special assessments, in addition to those required in (a) above may be made by the Board of Directors from time to time and approved by the Co-owners as hereinafter provided to meet other needs or requirements of the Association, including, but not limited to (1) assessments for capital improvements for additions of a cost exceeding $1,000.00 per year, (2) assessments to purchase a Unit upon foreclosure of the lien for assessments described in Section 6 hereof, (3) assessments to purchase a Unit for use as a resident manager's Unit or (4) assessments for any other appropriate purpose not elsewhere herein described. Special assessments referred to in this subparagraph (b) but not including those Special assessments referred to in subparagraph 3(a) above which shall be levied in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors shall not be levied without the prior approval of more than sixty (60%) percent of all Co-owners in value and in number.

Section 4. All assessments levied against the Co-owners to cover expenses of administration shall be apportioned among and paid by the Co-owners in accordance with the percentage of value allocated to each Unit in Article V of the Master Deed without increase or decrease for the existence of any rights to the use of limited Common Elements appurtenant to a Unit. Annual assessments as determined in accordance with Article II, Section 3(a) above shall be payable by Co-owners in twelve (12) equal monthly installments, commencing with acceptance of a deed to a Unit or with acquisition of fee simple title to a Unit by any other means. The payment of an assessment shall be in default if such assessment, or any part thereof, is not paid to the Association in full on or before the due date for such payment. Assessments in default shall bear interest at the rate of seven (7%) percent per annum until paid in full. Each Co-owner (whether one or more persons) shall be, and remain, personally liable for the payment of all assessments pertinent to his Unit which may be levied while such Co-owner is the owner thereof.

Section 5. No Co-owner may exempt himself from liability for his contribution toward the expenses of administration by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the Common Elements or by the abandonment of his Unit.

Section 6. The Association may enforce collection of delinquent assessments by a suit at law for a money judgment or by foreclosure of the statutory lien that secures payment of assessments. Each Co-owner, and every other person who from time to time has any interest in the Project, shall be deemed to have granted to the Association the unqualified right to elect to foreclose such lien either by judicial action or by advertisement. The provisions of Michigan law pertaining to foreclosure of mortgages by judicial action and by advertisement, as the same may be amended from time to time, are incorporated herein by reference for the purposes of establishing the alternative procedures to be followed in lien foreclosure actions and the rights and obligations of the parties to such actions. Further, each Co-owner and every other person who from time to time has any interest in the Project, shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Association to sell or to cause to be sold the Unit with respect to which the assessment(s) is or are delinquent and to receive, hold and distribute the proceeds of such sale in accordance with the priorities established by applicable law. Each Co-owner of a Unit in the Project acknowledges that at the time of acquiring title to such Unit, he was notified of the provisions of this section and that he voluntarily, intelligently and knowingly waived notice of any proceedings brought by the Association to foreclose by advertisement the lien for nonpayment of assessments and a hearing on the same prior to the sale of the subject Unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither a judicial foreclosure action nor a suit at law for a money judgment shall be commenced, nor shall any notice of foreclosure by advertisement be published, until the expiration of ten (10) days after mailing, by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the delinquent Co-owner(s) at his or their last known address of a written notice that one or more installments of the annual assessment levied against the pertinent Unit is or are delinquent and that the Association may invoke any of its remedies hereunder if the default is not cured with ten (10) days after the date of mailing. Such written notice shall be accompanied by a written affidavit of an authorized representative of the Association that sets forth (i) the affiant's capacity to make the affidavit, (ii) the statutory and other authority for the lien, (iii) the amount outstanding (exclusive of interest, costs, attorney fees and future assessments), (iv) the legal description of the subject Unit(s), and (v) the name(s) of the Co-owner(s) of record. Such affidavit shall be recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds in the county in which the Project is located prior to the commencement of any foreclosure proceeding, but it need not have been recorded as of the date of mailing as aforesaid. If the delinquency is not cured within the ten (10) day period, the Association may take such remedial action as may be available to it hereunder or under Michigan law. In the event the Association elects to foreclose the lien by advertisement, the Association shall so notify the representative designated above and shall inform such representative that he may request a judicial hearing by bringing suit against the Association. The expenses incurred in collecting unpaid assessments, including interest, costs, actual attorneys' fees (not limited to statutory fees) and advances for taxes or other liens paid by the Association to protect its lien, shall be chargeable to the Co-owner in default and shall be secured by the lien on his Unit. In the event of default by any Co-owner in the payment of any installment of the annual assessment levied against his Unit, the Association shall have the right to declare all unpaid installments of the annual assessment for the pertinent fiscal year immediately due and payable. The Association also may discontinue the furnishing of any utilities or other services to a Co-owner in default upon seven (7) days' written notice to such Co-owner of its intention to do so. A Co-owner in default shall not be entitled to utilize any of the general Common Elements of the Project and shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Association so long as such default continues. In a judicial foreclosure action, a receiver may be appointed to collect a reasonable rental for the Unit from the Co-owner thereof or any persons claiming under him.

Section 7. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Condominium Documents, the holder of any first mortgage covering any Unit in the Project which comes into possession of the Unit pursuant to the remedies provided in the mortgage or by deed (or assignment) in lieu of foreclosure, or any purchaser at a foreclosure sale, shall take the property free of any claims for unpaid assessments or charges against the mortgaged Unit which accrue prior to the time such holder comes into possession of the Unit (except for claims for a pro rata share of such assessments or charges to all Units including the mortgaged Unit).

Section 8. During the period up to the time of the First Annual Meeting of Members held in accordance with the provisions of Article I. Section 7 hereof, the Developer of the Condominium, even though a member of the Association, shall not be responsible for payment of the monthly Association assessment. Developer, however, shall during the period up to the time of the First Annual Meeting pay a proportionate share of the Association's current maintenance expenses actually incurred from time to time based upon the ratio of completed Units owned by Developer at the time the expense is incurred to the total number of completed Units in the Condominium. In no event shall Developer be responsible for payment, until after said First Annual Meeting, of any assessments for deferred maintenance, reserves for replacement, for capital improvements or other special assessments, except with respect to occupied Units owned by it. After the First Annual Meeting, Developer shall be responsible for payment of the full monthly Association maintenance assessment for all completed Units owned by it and shall also maintain, at its own expense, any incomplete Units owned by it. Developer shall not be responsible at any time for payment of said monthly assessment or payment of any expenses whatsoever with respect to unbuilt Units notwithstanding the fact that such unbuilt Units may have been included in the Master Deed. "Occupied Unit" shall mean a Unit used as a residence. "Completed Unit" shall mean a Unit with respect to which a certificate of occupancy has been issued by the local public authority.

Section 9. All property taxes and special assessments levied by any public taxing authority shall be assessed in accordance with Section 131 of the Act.

Section 10. A mechanic's lien otherwise arising under Act No. 179 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1891, as amended, shall be subject to Section 132 of the Act.

Section 11. Pursuant to provisions of the Act, the Purchaser of any Condominium Unit may request a statement of the Association as to the outstanding amount of any unpaid Association assessments thereon, whether regular or special. Upon written request to the Association accompanied by a copy of the executed purchase agreement pursuant to which the Purchaser holds right to acquire a Unit, the Association shall provide a written statement of such unpaid assessments as may exist or a statement that none exist, which statement shall be binding upon the Association for the period stated therein. Upon the payment of that sum within the period stated, the Association's lien for assessments as to such Unit shall be deemed satisfied; provided, however, that the failure of a Purchaser to request such statement at least five days prior to the closing of the purchase of such Unit, shall render any unpaid assessments and the lien securing same, fully enforceable against such Purchaser and the Unit itself, to the extent provided by the Act. Under the Act, unpaid assessments constitute a lien upon the Unit and the proceeds of sale thereof prior to all claims except real property taxes and the first mortgages or record.

ARTICLE III

ARBITRATION

Section 1. Disputes, claims, or grievances arising out of or relating to the interpretation or the application of the Condominium Documents, or any disputes, claims or grievances arising among or between Co-owners and the Association shall, upon the election and written consent of the parties to any such disputes, claims or grievances and written notice to the Association, be submitted to arbitration and the parties thereto shall accept the arbitrator's decision as final and binding. The Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association as amended and in effect from time to time hereafter shall be applicable to any such arbitration.

Section 2. No Co-owner or the Association shall be precluded from petitioning the courts to resolve any such disputes, claims or grievances.

Section 3. Election by Co-owners or the Association to submit any such dispute, claim or grievance to arbitration shall preclude such parties from litigating such dispute, claim or grievance in the courts.

ARTICLE IV

INSURANCE

Section 1. The Association shall carry fire and extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief and liability insurance, and workmen's compensation insurance, if applicable, pertinent to the ownership, use and maintenance of the Common Elements of the Condominium Project, and such insurance, other than title insurance, shall be carried and administered in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) All such insurance shall be purchased by the Association for the benefit of the Association, and the Co-owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear, and provision shall be made for the issuance of certificates of mortgagee endorsements to the mortgagees of Co-owners. Each Co-owner may obtain insurance coverage at his own expense upon his Unit. It shall be each Co-owner's responsibility to obtain insurance coverage for his personal property located within his Unit or elsewhere on the Condominium and for his personal liability for occurrences within his Unit or upon Limited Common Elements appurtenant to his Unit, and also for alternative living expense in event of fire, and the Association shall have absolutely no responsibility for obtaining such coverages. The Association and all Co-owners shall use their best efforts to see that all property and liability insurance carried by the Association or any Co-owner shall contain appropriate provisions whereby the insurer waives its right of subrogation as to any claims against any Co-owner or the Association.

(b) All Common Elements of the Condominium Project shall be insured against fire and other perils covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement, in an amount equal to the maximum insurable replacement value, excluding foundation and excavation costs, as determined annually by the Board of Directors of the Association. Such coverage shall also include interior walls within any Unit and the pipes, wires, conduits and ducts contained therein and shall further include all fixtures, equipment and trim within a Unit which were furnished with the Unit as standard items in accord with the plans and specifications thereof as are on file with the Association (or such replacements thereof as do not exceed the cost of such standard items). Any improvements made by a Co-owner within his Unit shall be covered by insurance obtained by and at the expense of said Co-owner; provided that, if the Association elects to include such improvements under its insurance coverage, any additional premium cost to the Association attributable thereto shall be assessed to and borne solely by said Co-owner and collected as a part of the assessments against said Co-owner under Article II hereof.

(c) All premiums upon insurance purchased by the Association pursuant to these Bylaws shall be expenses of administration.

(d) Proceeds of all insurance policies owned by the Association shall be received by the Association, held in a separate account and distributed to the Association, and the Co-owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear; provided, however, whenever repair or reconstruction of the Condominium shall be required as provided in Article V of these Bylaws, the proceeds of any insurance received by the Association as a result of any loss requiring repair or reconstruction shall be applied for such repair or reconstruction and in no event shall hazard insurance proceeds be used for any purpose other than for repair, replacement or reconstruction of the Project unless all of the institutional holders of first mortgages on Units in the Project have given their prior written approval.

Section 2. Each Co-owner, by ownership of a Unit in the Condominium Project, shall be deemed to appoint the Association as his true and lawful attorney-in-fact to act in connection with all matters concerning the maintenance of fire and extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, liability insurance and workmen's compensation insurance, if applicable, pertinent to the Condominium Project, his Unit and the Common Elements appurtenant thereto with such insurer as may, from time to time, provide such insurance for the Condominium Project. Without limitation on the generality of the foregoing, the Association as said attorney shall have full power and authority to purchase and maintain such insurance, to collect and remit premiums therefor, to collect proceeds and to distribute the same to the Association, the Co-owners and respective mortgagees, as their interests may appear (subject always to the Condominium Documents), to execute releases of liability and to execute all documents and to do all things on behalf of such Co-owner and the Condominium as shall be necessary or convenient to the accomplishment of the foregoing.

ARTICLE V

RECONSTRUCTION OR REPAIR

Section 1. If any part of the Condominium property shall be damaged, the determination of whether or not it shall be reconstructed or repaired shall be made in the following manner:

(a) If the damaged property is a Common Element or a Unit, the property shall be rebuilt or repaired if any Unit in the Condominium is tenantable, unless it is determined by a unanimous vote of all of the Co-owners in the Condominium that the Condominium shall be terminated and each institutional holder of a first mortgage lien on any Unit in the Condominium has given its prior written approval of such termination.

(b) If the Condominium is so damaged that no Unit is tenantable, and if each institutional holder of a first mortgage lien on any Unit in the Condominium has given its prior written approval of the termination of the Condominium, the damaged property shall not be rebuilt and the Condominium shall be terminated, unless seventy-five (75%) percent or more of the Co-owners in value and in number agree to reconstruction by vote or in writing within ninety (90) days after the destruction.

Section 2. Any such reconstruction or repair shall be substantially in accordance with the Master Deed and the Plans and specifications for the Project to a condition as comparable as possible to the condition existing prior to damage unless the Co-owners shall unanimously decide otherwise.

Section 3. If the damage is only to a part of a Unit which is the responsibility of a Co-owner to maintain and repair, it shall be the responsibility of the Co-owner to repair such damage in accordance with Section 4 hereof. In all other cases, the responsibility for reconstruction and repair shall be that of the Association.

Section 4. Each Co-owner shall be responsible for the reconstruction, repair and maintenance of the interior of his Unit, including, but not limited to, floor coverings, wall coverings, window shades, draperies, interior walls (but not any Common Elements therein), interior trim, furniture, light fixtures and all appliances, whether free-standing or built-in. In the event damage to interior walls within a Co-owner's Unit, or to pipes, wires, conduits, ducts or other Common Elements therein, or to any fixtures, equipment and trim which are standard items within a Unit is covered by insurance held by the Association, then the reconstruction or repair shall be the responsibility of the Association in accordance with Section 5. If any other interior portion of a Unit is covered by insurance held by the Association for the benefit of the Co-owner, the Co-owner shall be entitled to receive the proceeds of insurance relative thereto and if there is a mortgagee endorsement, the proceeds shall be payable to the Co-owner and the mortgagee jointly. In the event of substantial damage to or destruction of any Unit or any part of the Common Elements, the Association promptly shall so notify each institutional holder of a first mortgage lien on any of the Units in the Condominium.

Section 5. The Association shall be responsible for the reconstruction, repair and maintenance of the Common Elements and any incidental damage to a Unit caused by such Common Elements or the reconstruction, repair or maintenance thereof. Immediately after a casualty causing damage to property for which the Association has the responsibility of maintenance, repair and reconstruction, the Association shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to replace the damaged property in a condition as good as that existing before the damage. If the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to defray the estimated costs of reconstruction or repair required to be performed by the Association, or if at any time during such reconstruction or repair, or upon completion of such reconstruction or repair, the funds for the payment of the costs thereof are insufficient, assessments shall be made against all Co-owners for the cost of reconstruction or repair of the damaged property in sufficient amounts to provide funds to pay the estimated or actual cost of repair.

Section 6. Section 133 of the Act and the following provisions shall control upon any taking by eminent domain:

(a) In the event of any taking of an entire Unit by eminent domain, the award for such taking shall be paid to the owner of such Unit and the mortgagee thereof, as their interests may appear. After acceptance of such award by the owner and his mortgagee, they shall be divested of all interest in the Condominium Project. In the event that any condemnation award shall become payable to any Co-owner whose Unit is not wholly taken by eminent domain, then such award shall be paid by the condemning authority to the Co-owner and his mortgagee, as their interests may appear.

(b) If there is any taking of any portion of the Condominium other than any Unit the condemnation proceeds relative to such taking shall be paid to the Co-owners and their mortgagees in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements and the affirmative vote of more than fifty (50%) percent of the Co-owners in number and in value shall determine whether to rebuild, repair or replace the portion so taken or to take such other action as they deem appropriate.

(c) In the event the Condominium Project continues after taking by eminent domain, then the remaining portion of the Condominium Project shall be re-surveyed and the Master Deed amended accordingly, and, if any Unit shall have been taken, then Article V of the Master Deed shall also be amended to reflect such taking and to proportionately readjust the percentages of value of the remaining Co-owners based upon the continuing value of the Condominium of 100%. Such amendment may be effected by an officer of the Association duly authorized by the Board of Directors without the necessity of execution or specific approval thereof by any Co-owner, but only with the prior written approval of all holders of first mortgage liens on individual Units in the Project.

(d) In the event any Unit in the Condominium, or any portion thereof, or the Common Elements or any portion thereof, is made the subject matter of any condemnation or eminent domain proceeding or is otherwise sought to be acquired by a condemning authority, the Association promptly shall so notify each institutional holder of a first mortgage lien of any of the Units in the Condominium.

Section 7. In the event any mortgage in the Condominium is held by the Federal Home Loan Corporation ("FHLMC") then the Association shall give FHLMC written notice at such address as it may, from time to time, direct of any loss to or taking of the Common Elements of the Condominium if the loss or taking exceeds $10,000 in amount of damage to a Condominium Unit covered by a mortgage purchased in whole or in part by FHLMC exceeds $1,000.

Section 8. Nothing contained in the Condominium Documents shall be construed to give a Condominium Unit Owner, or any other party, priority over any rights of first mortgagees of Condominium Units pursuant to their mortgages in the case of a distribution to Condominium Unit Owners of insurance proceeds or condemnation awards for losses to or a taking of Condominium Units and/or Common Elements.

RESTRICTIONS

A. Applicable to both Commercial and Residential Units.

Section 1. No Co-owner shall make alterations in exterior appearance or make structural modifications to his Unit (including interior walls through or in which there exist easements for support or utilities) or make changes in any of the Common Elements, limited or general, without the express written approval of the Board of Directors including (but not by way of limitation) exterior painting or the erection of antennas, lights, aerials, awnings, doors (including screen doors), shutters or other exterior attachments or modifications, nor shall any Co-owner damage or make modifications or attachments to Common Element walls between Units which in any way impairs soundconditioning provisions. In order to maintain uniformity of Condominium exterior appearance, no Co-owner shall use any color of drape or drape liner on the exterior side of the windows of his Unit other than white, nor shall any Co-owner paint the exterior surface of any door or other exterior surface to his Unit in a color or shade not approved in writing by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may approve only such modifications as do not impair the soundness, safety, utility or appearance of the Condominium.

Section 2. No immoral, improper, unlawful or offensive activity shall be carried on in any Unit or upon the Common Elements, Limited or General, nor shall anything be done which may be or become an annoyance or a nuisance to the Co-owners of the Condominium, nor shall any unreasonably noisy activity be carried on in any Unit or on the Common Elements. No Co-owner shall do or permit anything to be done or keep or permit to be kept in his Unit or on the Common Elements anything that will increase the rate of insurance on the Condominium without the written approval of the Association and each Co-owner shall pay to the Association the increased cost of insurance premiums resulting from any such activity or the maintenance of any such condition.

Section 3. No animal, including household pets, except one dog and one cat per Unit, may be kept without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors which consent, if given, shall be revocable at any time by the Board for failure by pets or their owners to observe provisions of the Bylaws or Rules and Regulations of the Association pertaining to pets. Any pets permitted to be kept in the Condominium shall have such care and restraint as not to be obnoxious on account of noise, odor or unsanitary conditions. No savage or dangerous animal shall be kept. No animal may be permitted to run loose upon the Common Elements and any animal shall at all times be attended by some responsible person while on the Common Elements. Any person who causes or permits an animal to be brought or kept on the Condominium Property shall indemnify and hold harmless the Association for any loss, damage or liability which the Association may sustain as a result of the presence of such animal on the Condominium Property.

Section 4. Sidewalks, yards, landscaped areas, driveways, roads, parking areas, decks, stairs and porches shall not be obstructed in any way nor shall they be used for purposes other than for which they are reasonably and obviously intended. No bicycles, vehicles, chairs or benches may be left unattended on or about the Common Elements. Use of any recreational facilities in the Condominium by children may be limited to such times and in such manner as the Association shall determine by duly adopted regulations.

Section 5. No house trailers, commercial vehicles, boat trailers, boats, camping vehicles, camping trailers, snowmobiles, snowmobile trailers or vehicles other than automobiles may be parked or stored upon the premises of the Condominium, unless either parked in an area, if any, specifically designed therefor by the Association or approved in writing by the Board of Directors. Commercial vehicles and trucks shall not be parked in or about the Condominium (except as above provided) unless while making deliveries or pickups in the normal course of business. In the event that there arises a shortage of parking spaces, the Association may allocate or assign parking spaces from time to time on an equitable basis.

Section 6. No Co-owner shall use, or permit the use by any occupant, agent, employee, invitee, guest or member of his family of any firearms, air rifles, pellet guns, B-B guns, bows and arrows or other similar dangerous weapons, projectiles or devices anywhere on or about the Condominium Premises.

Section 7. Reasonable regulations consistent with the Act, the Master Deed and these Bylaws, concerning the use of the Common Elements may be made and amended from time to time by any Board of Directors of the Association, including the First Board of Directors (or its successors elected by the Developer) prior to the First Annual Meeting of the entire Association held as provided in Article I, Section 7 of these Bylaws. All regulations made by the First Board of Directors shall not be effective until approved by the Michigan Department of Commerce. Copies of all such regulations and amendments thereto shall be furnished to all Co-owners and shall become effective thirty (30) days after mailing or delivery thereof to the designated voting representative of each Co-owner. Any such regulation or amendment may be revoked at any time by the affirmative vote of more than fifty (50%) percent of all Co-owners in number and in value except that the Co-owners may not revoke any regulation or amendment prior to said First Annual Meeting of the entire Association.

Section 8. The Association or its duly authorized agents shall have access to each Unit and any limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto from time to time, during reasonable working hours, upon notice to the Co-owner thereof, as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any of the Common Elements. The Association or its agents shall also have access to each Unit and any Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto at all times without notice as may be necessary to make emergency repairs to prevent damage to the Common Elements or to another Unit. It shall be the responsibility of each Co-owner to provide the Association means of access to his Unit and any Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto during all periods of absence and in the event of the failure of such Co-owner to provide means of access, the Association may gain access in such manner as may be reasonable under the circumstances and shall not be liable to such Co-owner for any necessary damage to his Unit and any Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto caused thereby or for repair or replacement of any doors or windows damaged in gaining such access.

Section 9. No Co-owner shall perform any landscaping or plant any trees, shrubs or flowers or place any ornamental materials upon the Common Elements unless approved by the Association in writing.

Section 10. Section 11. Each Co-owner shall maintain his Unit and any Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto for which he has maintenance responsibility in a safe, clean and sanitary condition. Each Co-owner shall also use due care to avoid damaging any of the Common Elements including, but not limited to, the telephone, water, gas, plumbing, electrical or other utility conduits and systems and any other elements in any Unit which are appurtenant to or which may affect any other Unit. Each Co-owner shall be responsible for damages or costs to the Association resulting from negligent damage to or misuse of any of the Common Elements by him, or his family, guests, agents or invitees, unless such damages or costs are covered by insurance carried by the Association in which case there shall be no such responsibility (unless reimbursement to the Association is excluded by virtue of a deductible provisions, in which case the responsible Co-owner shall bear the expense to the extent of the deductible amount). Any costs or damages to the Association may be assessed to and collected from the responsible Co-owner in the manner provided in Article II hereof.

Section 12. None of the restrictions contained in this Article VI shall apply to the commercial activities or signs or billboards, if any, of the Developer during the development and sales period as defined hereinafter, or of the Association in furtherance of its powers and purposes set forth herein and in its Articles of Association and Bylaws as the same may be amended from time to time. For the purposes of this Section, the development and sales period shall be deemed to continue so long as Developer owns any Unit which he offers for sale. Until all Units in the entire Condominium Project (including the initial stage and any successive stages) are sold by Developer, Developer shall have the right to maintain a sales office, a business office, a construction office, model units, storage areas, reasonable parking incident to the foregoing and such access to, from and over the Project as may be reasonable to enable development and sale of the entire Project by Developer. Developer shall restore the areas so utilized to habitable status upon termination of use.

Section 13. The Common Elements, Limited or General, shall not be used for storage or supplies, materials, personal property or trash or refuse of any kind, except as provided in duly adopted rules and regulations of the Association. Trash receptacles shall be maintained in areas designated therefor at all times and shall not be permitted to remain elsewhere on the Common Elements except for such short periods of time as may be reasonably necessary to permit periodic collection of trash. The Common Elements shall not be used in any way for the drying, shanking or airing of clothing or other fabrics. Automobiles may only be washed in areas approved by the Association. In general, no activity shall be carried on nor condition maintained by a Co-owner either in his Unit or upon the Common Elements, which spoils the appearance of the Condominium.

B. Applicable to Residential Units only.

Section 1. No Residential Unit in the Condominium shall be used for other than single-family residence purposes (except that persons not of the same immediate family residing together may occupy a Unit with written consent of the Board of Directors which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) and the Common Elements shall be used only for purposes consistent with the use of single-family residences. A family shall mean one person or a group of two or more persons related by bonds of consanguinity, marriage or legal adoption. No more than six (6) persons may occupy a Residential Unit. In the event that a violation of this section by a family in occupancy of a Unit results from the birth or adoption of a child, this restriction shall be suspended as to such family for a period of one year to enable the family a reasonable time within which to vacate such Unit.

Section 2. A Co-owner may lease his Unit for the same purposes set forth in Section 1 of this Article VI; provided that written disclosure of such lease transaction is submitted to the Board of Directors of the Association in the same manner as specified in this Article VI. The terms of all leases, occupancy agreements and occupancy agreements shall incorporate, or be deemed to incorporate, all of the provisions of the Condominium Documents. The Developer may lease any number of Units in the Condominium in its discretion.

Section 3. No signs or other advertising devices shall be displayed which are visible from the exterior of a Unit or on the Common Elements, including "For Sale" signs, without written permission from the Association and the Developer.

Section 4. (a) A Co-owner, including the Developer, desiring to rent or lease a Condominium Unit, shall disclose that fact in writing to the Association at least 21 days before leasing the Condominium Unit and shall supply the Association with a copy of the exact lease form for its review for its compliance with the Condominium Documents. If Developer desires to rent Condominium Units before the transitional control date, it shall notify either the advisory committee or each Co-owner in writing.

(b) Tenants or non-Co-owners occupants shall comply with all of the conditions of the Condominium Documents of the Condominium Project and all leases and rental agreements shall so state.

(c) If the Association determines that the tenant or non-Co-owner occupant has failed to comply with the conditions of the Condominium Documents, the Association shall take the following action:

(1) The Association shall notify the Co-owner by certified mail advising of the alleged violation by tenant.

(2) The Co-owner shall have 15 days after receipt of such notice to investigate and correct the alleged breach by the tenant or advise the Association that a violation has not occurred.

(3) If after 15 days the Association believes that the alleged breach is not cured or may be repeated, it may institute on its behalf or derivatively by the Co-owners on behalf of the Association, if it is under the control of the Developer, an action for eviction against the tenant or non-Co-owner and tenant or non-Co-owner occupant for breach of the conditions of the Condominium Documents. The relief set forth in this section may be by summary proceeding. The Association may hold both the tenant and the Co-owner liable for any damages caused by the Co-owner or tenant in connection with the Condominium Unit.

(d) When a Co-owner is in arrearage to the Association for assessments, the Association may give written notice of the arrearage to a tenant occupying a Co-owner's Condominium Unit under a lease or rental agreement and the tenant, after receiving the notice shall deduct from rental payments due the Co-owner the arrearage and future assessments as they fall due and apply them to the Association. The deductions shall not be a breach of the rental agreement or lease by the tenant.

C. Applicable to the Commercial Units only.

Section 1. No Commercial Unit in the Condominium shall be used for other than commercial retail shop purposes and uses incidental thereto including banks but excluding any real estate, rental management or professional business office.

Section 2. No Co-owner of a Commercial Unit shall use such Unit for any commercial purpose other than such purpose as may be approved in writing by the Association.

Section 3. Each Co-owner of a Commercial Unit shall become a member of the Merchants' Association upon formation thereof and will maintain such membership in good standing, and will abide by the regulations and cooperate in the activities of such Association. The purpose of the Merchants' Association shall be to foster the interest of its members and to encourage its members to deal fairly and courteously with their customers, to follow ethical business practices and to assist the business of its members of sales. The annual budget of the Merchants' Association shall be determined by its Board of Directors and each Co-owner of a Commercial Unit agrees to pay its proportionate share thereof in monthly installments. Nothing in the By-Laws or regulations of the Merchants' Association shall be in conflict with the provisions of these By-Laws, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any reasonable rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the provisions of these By-Laws. The proportionate share to be paid by a Co-owner of a Commercial Unit shall be computed on the basis that the total number of square feet of floor area in such Unit bears to the total number of square feet in all Commercial Units.

Section 4. A Co-owner of a Commercial Unit may lease his Unit for the same purposes set forth in Section C(1) of this Article VI; provided that written disclosure of such lease transaction is submitted to the Board of Directors of the Association. With the exception of a lender in possession of a Unit following a default of a first mortgage, foreclosure or deed or other arrangement in lieu of foreclosure, no Co-owner shall lease less than an entire Unit in the Condominium and no tenant shall be permitted to occupy except under a written lease the initial term of which is at least one (1) year unless specifically approved in writing by the Association. The terms of all leases, occupancy agreements and occupancy arrangements shall incorporate, or be deemed to incorporate, all of the provisions of the Condominium Documents. The Developer may lease any number of Units in the Condominium in its discretion.

Section 5. No signs or other advertising devices shall be displayed which are visible from the exterior of a Unit or on the Common Elements, including "For Sale" signs, without written permission from the Association.

Section 6. (a) A Co-owner, including the Developer, desiring to rent or lease a Commercial Condominium Unit, shall disclose that fact in writing to the Association at least 21 days before leasing the Condominium Unit and shall supply both with a copy of the exact lease form for its review for its compliance with the Condominium Documents. If Developer desires to rent Condominium Units before the transitional control date, it shall notify either the advisory committee or each Co-owner in writing. The form of lease shall be substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

(b) Tenants or non-Co-owner occupants shall comply with all of the conditions of the Condominium Documents of the Condominium Project and all leases and rental agreements shall so state.

(c) If the Association determines that the tenant or non-Co-owner occupant has failed to comply with the conditions of the Condominium Documents, the Association shall take the following action:

(1) The Association shall notify the Co-owner by certified mail advising of the alleged violation by tenant.

(2) The Co-owner shall have 15 days after receipt of such notice to investigate and correct the alleged breach by the tenant or advise the Association that a violation has not occurred.

(3) If after 15 days the Association believes that the alleged breach is not cured or may be repeated, it may institute on its behalf or derivatively by the Co-owners on behalf of the Association, if it is under the control of the Developer, an action for eviction against the tenant or non-Co-owner and tenant or non-Co-owner occupant for breach of the conditions of the Condominium Documents. The relief set forth in this section may be by summary proceeding. The Association may hold both the tenant and the Co-owner liable for any damages caused by the Co-owner or Tenant in connection with the Condominium Unit.

(d) When a Co-owner is in arrearage to the Association for assessments, the Association may give written notice of the arrearage to a tenant occupying a Co-owner's Condominium Unit under a lease or rental agreement and the tenant, after receiving the notice shall deduct from rental payments due the Co-owner the arrearage and future assessments as they fall due and pay them to the Association. The deductions shall not be a breach of the rental agreement or lease by the tenant.

Section 7. Each Co-owner of a Commercial Unit shall operate one hundred (100%) percent of the Unit unless prevented from doing so because of fire, accident, or acts of God, and shall conduct its business at all times in a high class and reputable manner, maintaining at all times a full staff of employees and a full and complete stock of merchandise. Each such Co-owner shall install and maintain at all times a display of merchandise in the display windows, if any, of the Unit and shall keep same well lighted during all business hours and at least one hour thereafter. Each Co-owner shall promptly comply with all laws and ordinances and lawful orders and regulations affecting the premises hereby leased and the cleanliness, safety, occupancy and use of same. No auction, liquidation, going out of business, fire or bankruptcy sales may be conducted in the Unit. Each Co-owner shall conduct its business in the Unit during all hours established by the Merchants' Association and will conduct such business in a lawful manner and in good faith, and will not do any act tending to injure the reputation of the Condominium. Co-owners shall not permit noise or odors in the Unit which are objected to by any other Co-owner and upon written notice from Association, such Co-owner shall immediately cease and desist from causing such noise or odor. Co-owner shall not permit the operation of any vending machines or pay telephones on the Unit. Co-owner shall not use the areas adjacent to the Unit for business purposes. Each Co-owner agrees that all receiving and delivery of goods and merchandise and all removal of merchandise, supplies, equipment, trash and garbage shall be made only by way of the areas provided therefor by Association. Co-owner shall not use or permit the use of any portion of said premises as sleeping apartments, lodging rooms, or for any unlawful purposes. No radio or television or other similar device shall be installed exterior to the Unit. No merchandise or other obstruction shall be placed or permitted on the walks immediately adjoining the leased premises.

Section 8. Each Co-owner shall warehouse, store and/or stock in the Condominium Unit only such goods, wares and merchandise as the Co-owner intends to offer for sale at retail at, in, from or upon the Unit. This shall not preclude occasional emergency transfer of merchandise from the other stores of the Co-owner, if any, not located in the Condominium Unit. Co-owner shall use for office, clerical or other non-selling purposes only such space in the Unit as is from time to time reasonably required for Co-owner's business in the Unit.

Section 9. Co-owner shall keep the Unit (including the service areas adjacent to the Unit, show windows and signs) orderly, neat, safe and clean and free from rubbish and dirt at all times and shall store all trash and garbage within the Unit and arrange for the regular pick up of such trash and garbage at Co-owner's expense. Co-owner shall not burn any trash or garbage at any time in or about the Unit. If the Association shall provide any services or facilities for such pickup, then the Co-owner shall use the same and shall pay a proportionate share of the actual cost thereof within ten (10) days after being billed therefor.

Section 10. Co-owner shall not make or cause to be made any alterations, additions or improvements to the Unit, or install or cause to be installed any exterior signs, floor covering, interior or exterior lighting, plumbing fixtures, shades, canopies or awnings or make any changes to the store front, mechanical, electrical or sprinkler systems without the prior written approval of the Association. Each Co-owner shall present to the Association plans and specifications for such work at the time approval is sought.

Section 11. Co-owner shall not place or cause to be placed or maintained any sign or advertising matter of any kind anywhere within the Condominium, except in the interior of the Unit, without Association's prior written approval. No symbol, design, name, mark or insignia adopted by the Association for the Condominium shall be used without the prior written consent of the Association. No illuminated signs located in the interior of any store and which are visible from the outside shall advertise any product. All signs located in the interior of any store shall be as approved by the Association and shall be in good taste so as not to detract from the general appearance of the Unit and the Condominium. Each Co-owner further agrees to maintain in good condition and repair at all times any such sign or advertising matter of any kind which has been approved by the Association for use by the Co-owner.

Section 12. Each Co-owner of a Commercial Unit shall keep in full force and effect a policy of public liability and property damage insurance with respect to the Unit, and the business operated by the Co-owner and any tenants of the Co-owner in the Unit, in which the limits of public liability shall be not less than One Million ($1,000,000.00) Dollars per person and One Million ($1,000,000.00) Dollars per accident, and in which the limit of property damage liability shall be not less than Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars. The policy shall name the Association and Co-owner as insured, and shall contain a clause that the insurer will not cancel or change the insurance without first giving the Association thirty (30) days prior written notice. Such insurance may be furnished by Co-owner under any blanket policy carried by it or under a separate policy therefor. The insurance shall be with an insurance company approved by the Association and a copy of the paid-up policy shall be delivered to the Association.

ARTICLE VII

Section 5. Any amendment to these Bylaws (but not the Association Bylaws) shall become effective upon approval of the same by the State of Michigan and recording of such amendment in the Office of the Register of Deeds in the County where the Condominium is located. ARTICLE IX

In the event the Condominium Documents conflict with the provisions of the Act, the Act shall govern.

ARTICLE X

DEFINITIONS

All terms used herein shall have the same meaning as set forth in the Master Deed to which these Bylaws are attached as an Exhibit or as set forth in the Act.

Section 1. Any default by a Co-owner shall entitle the Association or another Co-owner or Co-owners to the following relief:

(a) Failure to comply with any of the terms or provisions of the Condominium Documents or the Act shall be grounds for relief, which may include without intending to limit the same, an action to recover sums due for damages, injunctive relief, foreclosure of lien (if default in payment of assessment) or any combination thereof, and such relief may be sought by the Association or, if appropriate, by an aggrieved Co-owner or Co-owners.

(b) In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by any Co-owner, the Association, if successful, shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorney's fees, (not limited to statutory fees) as may be determined by the Court, but in no event shall any Co-owner be entitled to recover such attorney's fees.

(c) The violation of any of the provisions of the Condominium Documents shall also give the Association or its duly authorized agents the right, in addition to the rights set forth above, to enter upon the Common Elements, Limited or General, or into any Unit, where reasonably necessary, and summarily remove and abate, at the expense of the Co-owner in violation, any structure, thing or condition existing or maintained contrary to the provisions of the Condominium Documents.

(d) The violation of any of the provisions of the Condominium Documents by any Co-owner shall be grounds for assessment by the Association, acting through its duly constituted Board of Directors, of monetary fines for such violations. Thereafter, fines may be assessed only upon notice to the offending Co-owners as prescribed in said Article II, Section 4, and an opportunity for such Co-owner to appear before the Board no less than seven (7) days from the date of the notice and offer evidence in defense of the alleged violation. All fines duly assessed may be collected in the same manner as provided in Article II of these Bylaws. No fine shall be levied for the first violation. No fine shall exceed $25 for the second violation, $50 for the third violation or $100 for any subsequent violation.

Section 2. The failure of the Association or of any Co-owner to enforce any right, provisions, covenant or condition which may be granted by the Condominium Documents shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association or of any such Co-owner to enforce such right, provisions, covenant or condition in the future.

Section 3. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or any Co-owner or Co-owners pursuant to any terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of the aforesaid Condominium Documents shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude any party thus exercising the same from exercising such other and additional rights, remedies or privileges as may be available to such party at law or in equity.

ARTICLE XII

SEVERABILITY

In the event that any of the terms, provisions, or covenants of these Bylaws or the Condominium Documents are held to be partially or wholly invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, such holding shall not affect, alter, modify or impair in any manner whatsoever any of the other terms, provisions or covenants of such documents or the remaining portions of any terms, provisions or covenants held to be partially invalid or unenforceable.
