COMMON ELEMENTS

The common elements of the project described in Exhibit "B" attached hereto and the respective responsibilities for maintenance, decoration, repair or replacement thereof are as follows:

2. The electrical wiring network throughout the project up to the point of connection with electrical fixtures within any unit;

B. The limited common elements are:

1. The interior surfaces of unit perimeter walls (including windows and doors therein); ceilings and floors contained within a unit shall be subject to the exclusive use and enjoyment of the Co-Owner of such unit;

2. Decks, entryways, stairs and fireplace chimneys shall be a limited common element to the unit to which each is assigned as shown on Exhibit "B" attached hereto.

C. The costs of maintenance, repair and replacement of all general and limited common elements described above shall be borne by the Association except that the costs of decoration and maintenance (but not repair or replacement except in cases of Co-Owner fault) of all surfaces referred to in ParagraphB(1) and (2) above shall be borne by the Co-Owner of each unit to which such limited common elements are adjacent and appurtenant to.

D. No Co-Owner shall use his unit or the common elements in any manner inconsistent with the purposes of the project or in any manner which will interfere with or impair the rights of any other Co-Owner in the use and enjoyment of his unit or the common elements.

A. Each unit in the project is described in this paragraph with reference to the Subdivision and Site Plan of the project attached hereto as Exhibit "B". Each respective Co-Owner shall have one vote at meetings of the Association. The total value of the project is 100. The percentage of value allocated to each unit may be changed only with the unanimous consent of all of the Co-Owners expressed in an amendment to this Master Deed, duly approved and recorded except as provided in Article VII hereof.

C. The determination of the percentage of value which should be assigned was made after reviewing the comparative characteristics of each unit in the project and concluding that square footage allocation was the proper determining factor.

D. The percentage of value assigned to each unit shall be equal.

VI.

EASEMENTS

In the event any portion of a unit or common element encroaches upon another unit or common element due to shifting, settling or moving of a building, or due to survey errors, or construction deviations, reciprocal easements shall exist for the maintenance of such encroachment for so long as such encroachment exists, and for maintenance thereof after rebuilding in the event of any destruction. There shall be easements to, through and over those portions of the land, structures, buildings, improvements, and walls (including interior unit walls) contained therein for the continuing maintenance and repair of all utilities in the Condominium. There shall exist easements of support with respect to any unit interior wall which supports a common element.

VII.

EASEMENTS RETAINED BY DEVELOPER

The Developer reserves for the benefits of itself, its successors and assigns, perpetual easements for the unrestricted use of all roads, driveways and walkways in the Condominium for the purposes of ingress and egress to and from all or any portion of the parcel described in Article II or any portion or portions thereof, and any other land contiguous to the condominium premises which may be now owned or hereafter acquired by the Developer or its successors. The Developer also hereby reserves for the benefit of itself, its successors and assigns, and all future owners of the land described in Article II or any portion or portions thereof and any other land contiguous to the condominium premises which may be now owned or hereafter acquired by the Developer, perpetual easements to utilize, tap and tie into all utility mains located on the Condominium premises. The Developer reserves to itself, its successors and assigns, the right to terminate and revoke any utility or other easements granted in Exhibit "B" at such time as the particular easement has become unnecessary. This may occur by way of example but not limitation when water or sewer systems are connected to municipal systems or when a water or sewer system or other utility easement is relocated to coordinate further and future development of the project. No easement utility may be terminated or revoked unless and until all units served by it are adequately served by an appropriate substitute or replacement utility. Any termination or revocation of any such easement shall be effected by the recordation of an appropriate amendment to this Master Deed.

VIII.

ENLARGEMENT OF CONDOMINIUMA. Right to Expand

The Condominium Project is an expandable condominium project, as that term is defined in the Act. The Condominium Project established pursuant to this initial Master Deed, and consisting of six (6) units, may be the first phase of a multi-phase project which will contain in its entirety no more than twenty-four (24) units.

The Developer, for itself and its successors and assigns, hereby explicitly reserves the right to expand the Condominium Project without the consent of any of the Co-Owners. This right may be exercised without any limitations whatsoever, except as expressly provided in this Article VIII. The additional land, all or any portion of which may be added to the Condominium Project, is described as follows:

Future Development Areas:

[to be provided]

except that portion thereof which has already been dedicated to Condominium ownership (herein referred to as the AExpansion Property@).

2. Restrictions upon Expansion

Expansion of the Condominium Project shall occur without restriction under the following conditions:

1. The Developer's right to elect to expand the Project shall expire on that date six (6) years after the date of the initial recording of this Master Deed.
2. All or any portion of the Expansion Property may be added, but none of it must be added.
3. There is no limitation as to what portion of the Expansion Property may be added, and any portions added may or may not be contiguous to each other or to the Condominium Project as it exists at the time of any expansion.
4. Portions of the Expansion Property may be added to the Condominium Project at different times.
5. The order in which portions of the Expansion Property may be added is not restricted, nor are there any restrictions fixing the boundaries of those portions of the Expansion Property that may be added.
6. There is no restriction as to the location of any improvements that may be made on any portions of the Expansion Property.
7. The maximum number of condominium units that may be created on the Expansion Property is twenty-four (24).

8. The nature, size, appearance and location of all additional units, if any, placed upon the Expansion Property will be as may be determined by the Developer in its sole judgment without any restrictions whatsoever.

9. There may be no restrictions as to what improvements may be made on the Expansion Property.

10. There are no restrictions as to the types of condominium units may be created on the Expansion Property.

11. The Developer reserves the right in its sole discretion to create convertible and contractible area and general and/or limited common elements within any portion of the Expansion Property added to the Condominium Project and to designate general common elements which may subsequently be assigned as limited common elements and vice versa.

12. The Condominium Project shall be expanded by a series of successive amendments to this initial Master Deed, each adding additional land to the Condominium Project as then constituted.

13. By this Master Deed, the Developer also reserves the right to create easements within any portion of the original Condominium Project for the benefit of the Expansion Property, whether or not it is ever added to the Condominium Project.

14. All expansion must be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

C. Procedure for Expansion

Pursuant to the foregoing, and any other provisions of this Master Deed to the contrary notwithstanding, the number of units and the amount of real property in the Condominium Project may, at the sole option of the Developer or its successors or assigns, from time to time, within a period ending no later than six (6) years after the date of the initial recording of this Master Deed, be increased by the addition to this Condominium Project of all or any portion of the Expansion Property and the location of condominium units thereon. Such increase in size of this Condominium Project shall be given effect by an appropriate amendment or amendments to this Master Deed in the manner provided by law, which amendment or amendments shall be prepared by and at the discretion of the Developer or its successors or assigns.

The percentages of value set forth in Article V hereof shall be adjusted proportionately in the event of such expansion in order to preserve a total value of one hundred (100%) percent for the entire project resulting from such amendment or amendments to this Master Deed. The precise determination of the readjustments in percentages of value shall be made within the sole judgment of Developer. Such amendment or amendments to the Master Deed shall also contain such further definitions or modifications of general or limited common elements as may be necessary to adequately describe the additional property being added to the Condominium Project by such amendment. Such amendment or amendments to the Master Deed shall also contain such further definitions and redefinitions of general or limited common elements as may be necessary to adequately describe and service the additional units being added to the Condominium Project by such amendment. All of the Co-Owners and mortgagees of units and other persons interested or to become interested in the Condominium Project from time to time shall be deemed to have irrevocably and unanimously consented to such amendment or amendments of this Master Deed to effectuate the foregoing and, subject to the limitations set forth herein, to any proportionate reallocation of percentages of value of existing units which Developer or its successors or assigns may determine to be necessary in conjunction with such amendment or amendments. All such interested persons irrevocably appoint Developer or its successors or assigns as agent and attorney for the purpose of execution of such amendment or amendments to this Master Deed and all other documents necessary to effectuate the foregoing. Such amendments may be effected without the necessity of rerecording the entire Master Deed or the Exhibits thereto and may incorporate by reference all or any pertinent portions of this Master Deed and the Exhibits hereto; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that a Consolidating Master Deed, when recorded, shall supersede the previously recorded Master Deed and all amendments thereto. Nothing herein contained, however, shall in any way obligate Developer to enlarge the Condominium Project beyond the boundaries established by this Master Deed, and Developer (or its successors or assigns) may, in its discretion, establish all or a portion of said Expansion Property as a rental development, a separate condominium project (or projects), or any other form of development.

IX.

RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

The land described in Article VIII above (as amended from time to time as herein provided) shall be subject to the restrictions described in Article VI of the Condominium Bylaws attached hereto as Exhibit "A", which restrictions shall run with the land and shall be binding on all heirs, successors and assigns of said land and which restrictions, notwithstanding Article X hereafter or any other provision of this Master Deed or its Exhibits, shall not be modified, amended nor altered without the express written consent of the Developer.

All phone service for any unit in this project shall be exclusively provided by the Developer and/or an affiliate of the Developer and no independent phone service shall be permitted on or within any unit.

AMENDMENT

1. The condominium documents may be amended for a proper purpose, without consent of Co-owners, mortgagees and other interested parties, including the modification of the types and sizes of units prior to construction of units and unsold condominium units and their appurtenant limited common elements as long as the amendments do not materially alter or change the rights of the Co-owners, mortgagees, or other interested parties.

2. The condominium documents may be amended for a proper purpose, even if the amendment will materially alter or change the rights of the Co-owners, mortgagees or other interested parties with the approval of two-thirds of the votes of the Co-owners. A Co-Owner's condominium unit dimensions or appurtenant limited common elements may not be modified without his consent. Co-owners and mortgagees of record shall be notified of proposed amendments.

3. A person causing or requesting an amendment to the condominium documents shall be responsible for costs and expenses of the amendment except for amendments based upon a vote of a prescribed majority of Co-owners or based upon the advisory committee's decision, the costs of which are expenses of administration.

4. A Master Deed Amendment, including the consolidating Master Deed, dealing with the addition or modification of units or the physical characteristics of the project shall comply with the standards prescribed in the Act for preparation of an original condominium.
