

Helping you find the right solution

Specialising in Family Dispute Resolution, Beaumont Law & Mediation provides the highest standard of mediation to deliver the best possible outcome for families.

Using a professional yet personal approach, Beaumont Law & Mediation assists parties to have a guided and supported conversation to reach an agreement about unresolved issues such as parenting arrangements, property settlements, and child support.

Family Dispute Resolution allows parties to avoid the often costly and stressful experience of court.

Our Director, Cheryl Beaumont, is a registered Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner and mediator, and an Accredited Specialist in Family Law.

Cheryl is also a former Judicial Registrar of the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia and has extensive experience helping families navigate the often-difficult journey of separation and divorce.
