Reminders for Pet Owners

If you follow these 10 basic rules for camping with a dog, you will be following good camping etiquette.

1. Make sure the campsite or park you are going to allows dogs.
2. Always pick up after your pet and dispose of waste appropriately.
3. Keep your dog's vaccinations current and ask your vet if he or she should receive a Lyme disease vaccination.
4. Give your dog flea control before going.
5. Put an identification and current rabies tag on your dog's collar with your cell phone number on it.
6. Keep your dog on a leash and under your control at all times.
7. Teach your dog to stay, sit and heel—especially if he or she is aggressive, easily distracted, or loves to bolt after squirrels and other critters.
8. Leave an un-socialized dog at home.
9. Keep the four-legged family members quiet. Barking disturbs other campers.
10. Never leave your dog unattended. Crate Fido if you have to. Never leave unattended pets in a car.
