

POETIC SOUNDSCAPE: MUSIC AND POEMS

As a poet and musician whose art reflects a deep connection to the land of her upbringing, Gemma Stemley epitomizes the true Caribbean spirit.

Her poetry explores the intimate emotions of growing up on an island where the steel pan and Calypso originated.

Gemma brings the infectious energy of Salsa, Reggae, Calypso and Bossa Nova. Occasionally, she combines light classical music to her repertoire.

She has performed her program, Poetic SoundScape, a combination of flute and poetry, on several college campuses.
