

Gorilla Century

Saturday, August 31st, 2019 • Pittsburg, Kansas

Ride 100, 62 or 38 miles.
Distances are approximate.

Held under USAC permit #2019-1822

Directions: Registration, start/finish and post ride showers are at Pittsburg High School. PHS is located on the east end of Pittsburg on Hwy 126 (4th ST). Registration is inside the main building.
Pittsburg High School, 1978 East 4th Street, Pittsburg, KS 66762.

Lodging & Visitor information: Check visitcrawfordcounty.com for area hotels, restaurants and visitor info.

Comfort: Post ride showers, real toilets and plenty of parking will make your before and after ride stress free. Well stocked, fun-themed SAG stops every 16 miles (or less) to ensure a fine dining experience.

Festival: The whole family can enjoy Pittsburg's Little Balkans Days celebration Saturday while you're riding; you can join them for the evening street dances and carnival. Live music, Train rides, Carnival rides, Arts & Crafts vendors, and Car shows are just a few of the Saturday activities with lots more Sunday. A full list of festival activities and times is online at littlebalkansfestival.com.

Ride description: Mostly flat with a few hills meandering through numerous small towns in Crawford & Cherokee counties, past historic landmarks like the Big Brutus coal shovel.
