

www.cruetv.com

Job Position: Web Application Developer (Moodle LMS)

Role Description: The Web Application Developer will drive and deliver differentiated technology solutions that overcome real business challenges. Projects include upgrading our current Moodle website with custom features and software migration (AWS, App Stream Adobe Creative Cloud, Live Streaming).

The person should also monitor and maintain our server environment to ensure the software application runs smoothly.

Responsibilities: will include, but not be limited to: Upgrade current Moodle site, Develop, test, and maintain custom functionality in the Moodle LMS system.

- Knowledge of user interface, design Knowledge of Moodle or any other Learning Management System is a definite asset
- Collaborate with internal teams to outline requirements, recommend solutions, and implement applications using PHP 7, JavaScript, MySQL and other web technologies as appropriate.
- Keep readability, maintainability, performance, scalability, and accessibility in mind. This may require plug-ins, third party tools.
- Develop and test across multiple browsers, platforms, and devices, including smartphones and tablets.
- Coordinate systems and applications upgrades and expansions accurately without adversely affecting systems availability.

Job Types: Full-time, Part-time, Temporary, Contract

Contract Experience: Web Development: 3 years (Required)

Please submit cover letter and resume. To admission@teamcrue.com

We thank all applicants who choose to apply; however, only those selected will be contacted.