Our Italian Meat Selection

Capocollo - Capocollo (Italian pronunciation: [kapo^l kollo]) or coppa ([^l koppa])

If you are Tony Soprano ["gabagool"] is a traditional Italian and Corsican pork cold cut (salume) capocollo is first lightly seasoned often with red wine, garlic, and a variety of herbs and spices that differs depending on region. The meat is then salted (and was traditionally massaged) and stuffed into a natural casing, and hung for up to six months to cure. Sometimes the exterior is rubbed with hot paprika before being hung and cured. The difference from Hot and Mild.

Genoa salami- originating in the area of Genoa. It is made from pork. It is seasoned with garlic, salt, black and white peppercorns, and red or white wine. Like many Italian sausages, it has a characteristic fermented flavor.

Our Deli Meats

Black Forest Ham-This classic black forest ham adds great flavor to any sandwich. Slow-roasted and sliced thin. 100% pork no turkey or fillers Natural Turkey Breast- Slow hickory smoked and oven roasted. Whole breast.

Pepperoni- is an American variety of salami, made from cured pork and beef mixed together and seasoned with paprika or other chili pepper. Pepperoni is characteristically soft, slightly smoky, and bright red in color.
