The Liturgy of the Word

A reading from the book of Exodus (19.2–8a)

The Israelites journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the Israelites: ‘You have seen what I did to the Egyptians and how I bore you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. Now, therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation.’ These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.” So Moses went, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. The people all answered as one, “Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do.” Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 100:1-2, 3, 5

We are his people, the sheep of his flock

Sing joyfully to the Lord, all you lands; serve the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful song.

We are his people, the sheep of his flock

Know that the Lord is God; he made us, his we are; his people, the flock he tends

We are his people, the sheep of his flock

The Lord is good; his kindness endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations

We are his people, the sheep of his flock

A reading from the letter to the Romans (5.1–8)

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Sung Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia All: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel

All: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

The Gospel of Matthew (9.35 – 10.8)

The Lord be with you. All: And also with you

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.' Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

This is the Gospel of the Lord R. Praise to you, O Christ

Sunday Gospel Reflection

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus looks upon the crowds with compassion because they are "harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd." His response is not merely to feel sorry for them but to send workers into the harvest. The mission of the Church begins with seeing people as Christ sees them: not as problems to be solved, but as beloved souls in need of God's grace. Jesus then sends his disciples to heal, proclaim, and serve freely, reminding them, "You received without payment; give without payment." Every Christian is called to share God's love generously, becoming a sign of Christ's compassion in the world.
