Liturgy of the Word

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (2.1-21)

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in their native language. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs – in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.' But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 104: 1,24, 29-30, 31, 34

Lord, send out your spirit and renew the face of the earth

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord, my God, you are great indeed! How manifold are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your creatures.

Lord, send out your spirit and renew the face of the earth

If you take away their breath they perish and return to their dust. When you send forth your spirit they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.

Lord, send out your spirit and renew the face of the earth

May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord be glad in his works!

Pleasing to him be my theme; I will be glad in the Lord.
Lord, send out your spirit and renew the face of the earth

A reading from the letter to the Romans (8.14-17)

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs: heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if we in fact suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Sung Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia All: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love.

All: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

The Gospel of John (14:8-17, 25-27)

The Lord be with you. All: And also with you

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Philip said to Jesus, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

This is the Gospel of the Lord R. Praise to you, O Christ

Sunday Gospel Reflection

Pentecost is the great feast of the Holy Spirit—the birthday of the Church and the fulfilment of Christ's promise. On this day, the Spirit descends not with gentle whispers but with wind and flame, awakening courage, unity, and mission. The disciples, once fearful, are now bold proclaimers of the Gospel in every language, a sign that God's message is for all people.

Pentecost reminds us that the Spirit is not locked in the past but moves through us today—empowering, guiding, and renewing. Are we open to being stirred, challenged, and sent forth? Come, Holy Spirit—breathe life into your Church once more, and set our hearts on fire with love for God and for the world.

NOTICES

SUNDAY SCHOOL TODAY

Today, we warmly welcome the Choir of St. Asaph Cathedral, Wales, to St. Edward's Anglican Church as we celebrate Pentecost Sunday.

We are delighted to have the choir with us for our Eucharist this morning, where their music will help us celebrate the great feast of the Holy Spirit in a particularly beautiful and prayerful way.

After Mass, all are warmly invited to a shared parish lunch, followed by a special concert offered by the choir.

No Cash? No Problem! You can now donate to St. Edwards with our New Payment device which is found at the back of the church by using your card or smartphone.

Please support our church financially. Your donation makes a difference. Your kind support helps us to maintain this church and its work in and for the community.
