Advisor(s) Present: Randi Aoki, Nora Diaz
Meeting called to order at 6:08 PM.

The meeting began with Anastacia Rodrigues (Financial Administrator) introducing the topic and agenda for the day. To kick things off, an icebreaker called "rock paper scissors" was conducted, and the winner received an HBSA shirt.

Next on the agenda was the introduction of the Alumni panel. The panel of alumni shared their personal stories and experiences before opening the floor to questions from the members. The key topics emphasized during this discussion included networking, professional skills, and ways to get involved.

Members asked various questions during the session, such as inquiring about the career paths of the alumni and how they reached their current positions, seeking advice for first-year club and university students, discussing essential skills, and strategies for career advancement, contributing to the community, and reminiscing about shared memories. Additionally, there was a mention of the Cen Cal Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting concluded with a presentation on career opportunities.

Meeting adjourned at 7:00 PM
