

Sheila Dawn DeLoe (1954-2024)

We lost a good friend on Nov 7, 2024. Here are some excerpts from an obituary published on Facebook by Jesse DeLoe.

Sheila Dawn DeLoe, a woman of faith, family and craftiness passed away on November 7th, 2024 in Tillamook, Oregon. Sheila was born in Boise, Idaho on May 9th, 1954 to John and Lois Royce. Sheila graduated from Oakridge High School in 1972.

After high school Sheila went on to Oregon State University where she met the love of her life and future husband Richard DeLoe. Sheila and Richard were married July 1st, 1978 in Garibaldi, Oregon and enjoyed 46 years together. They spent their years together raising two boys, camping/hunting, and sharing their faith with each other.

One of her greatest passions in life was her crafting. Sheila was known for the beautiful quilts she spent countless hours on as well as the elegant rug hooking she did. If Sheila wasn't spending time with her family, you could find her in her craft room making her master pieces.

Sheila's memorial will be held at the Tillamook Church of the Nazarene on December 7th at 1:00PM. There will be a potluck after the memorial, all are welcome to join and invited to bring a dish to share with each other.

If you were a friend of Sheila's on Facebook, her full obituary can be found on her account, which is now "Richard DeLoe"

Submitted by Kay Fleskes, with help from Candy Allen

This rug is a Karla Gerard challenge that the Portland area hookers hooked with Sheila.

