Krisztina is profoundly passionate and believes that we are all destined for greatness and can be successful in all areas of our lives. However, the first step in achieving success is to unleash the power of self-love and to know ourselves well to understand who we are.

Her mission is to encourage women to find their path towards empowerment and to hold the space for them to achieve this by giving them some of the most valuable and practical tools that helped her personally with her journey toward self-development, self-love, and growth.

Philosophy

We are all beautiful souls having a human experience and were born destined for greatness. Our ultimate purpose in life is to be happy, knowing that we are both human and divine.

What inspires me

I must say that many things inspire me. I have learned to walk with eyes open in the world and to walk barefoot in life, meaning that I learned to be the observer of myself and others. I strongly desire to see how far I can go in my journey. I have a strong desire to help others, to hold the space for them to become the best version of themselves. We are beautiful souls having a human experience, and our purpose is to be happy. And for that, we must reconnect with ourselves and who we are. We are here to remember that we are not only human but also divine. We are the love and the light. To be the guide for others - to show them the way- makes me happy. What inspires me the most are people.
