Why does SAYR Royalty need your sponsorship?

Because rodeo is a great team building sport, a great way to build confidence, self-control and it's a good form of physical activity and being Rodeo Royalty helps promote the western way of life and the sport of rodeo. Our Royalty must keep their grades up and are encouraged to treat others with respect, be an encouragement to those around them and take personal responsibility for their work ethic and attitudes along with making appearances and promoting the association and the sport of rodeo. Without support, there would not be a Southern Association Youth Rodeo Royalty! Your sponsorship dollars not only help keep SAYR Royalty up and running, it also allows us to provide these precious young ladies with great prizes and to provide our sponsors with great advertising opportunities.
