

“See the Flame Quotes”

“The See the Flame CD was a “big hit” at our regional conference in Memphis. We sold copies at the conference and I recently gave other copies at a panel discussion that I had in Memphis on Friday. I would love to send copies to the other regional offices.”

Adiyah Ali, Field Organizer Southern Region Amnesty International USA

“Thank you for your amazing CD!”

Sergio Laurenti, Executive Director
Amnesty International - Chile

“Great job! The music was very inspiring to us as people who are working on human rights issues. We enjoyed listening to it again and again.”

Ayelet Levy
Campaigner, AI Taiwan

“Thank you for sending this my way - and for all your hard work and support of human rights. It is very rewarding and powerful for us to have such friends in the artistic community!”

Jared Feuer
Amnesty International
Managing Director of the Southern and Western Regional Offices

“Thank you Howard. This is wonderful!”

Walesa Kanarek
Amnesty International USA - WEST
Field Organizer - Northern CA, HI, ID, OR, WA, AS, GU

“See the Flame is an inspirational album that communicates vital and positive messages. I also really enjoyed playing the CD and being taken away to the islands of Hawai`i through the music.”

Tracie Morrow Public Affairs Director
Youth for Human Rights International

“Thank you so much for your wonderful music. You are such graceful and strong communicators of aloha. “ I will be happy to share your CD with my brother when he visits Hawai`i.”

Maya Soetoro-Ng – President Barack Obama’s sister

" This song has a lovely Adult Contemporary sound. The song is clearly meant to be heard worldwide as its lyrics are meaningful and significant on a global scale."
